...Our Alumna of the Year and Spirit of Service Award Winners

Angel Russo

Class of 2006

Sales & Service Fundamentals

For nine years, Angel Russo has been keeping the Macedonia Wendy's restaurant neat, clean and orderly, and providing guests with a welcoming atmosphere. She is a model employee for students in the Sales & Service Fundamentals program taught by instructor Dan Hughes, who was Angel's teacher at Cuyahoga Valley.

"Throughout her employment with Wendy's, she has received excellent ratings from her supervisor, Anthony," said Mr. Hughes, "which is exactly what she was trained to do here at CVCC. Our programs are heavily concentrated on customer service skills for retail."

Angel was also a student in CVCC's Transition to Work program taught by Laurie Riddle, at the time, receiving additional opportunities to enhance her employability training.

Diagnosed with Asberger's Syndrome, a mild form of autism, in her teen years, Angel's mother, Denise Donaghue, credits Nardon Hills schools and CVCC for their educational programs in which Angel was enrolled.

"At Wendy's, Angel is in a public profile position as a lobby attendant, said Mr. Hughes. "Customers sometimes tip her or bring her gifts, because she knows how to treat them and how important it is to bring them back."

Dan Hughes, Sales & Service Fundamentals instructor, with Alumna of the Year Angel Russo of Sagamore Hills. Angel is Mr. Hughes' former student.

While occasionally bringing students to Angel's Wendy's after on-site job training at Summit Point, Mr. Hughes tells his class, "You, too, can find a job that's right for you."

Victor Sohar

Sohar's All-Season Mower Service Inc.

600 Highland Rd.

Macedonia, Ohio 44056

Victor Sohar and his staff at Sohar's All Season Mower Service Inc. in Macedonia have been very supportive of the Power Equipment Technology program as well as other career-technical programs here at CVCC for many many years. In fact, a few of his employees – graduates of CVCC – have been with his company for 10 and 20 years!

Sohar's generously contributes support to the 100% Club which benefits students who maintain quarterly perfect attendance. Over the years, Sohar's has provided employment, early placement opportunities and off-site learning experiences for many CVCC students.

Victor and his staff volunteer their time to the mock interviews

CVCC Distinguished Alumna, Spirit of Service Awards

Angel returns to CVCC every so often to speak to students. She also talks to local groups such as the Brecksville Kiwanis about Autism. However, her community contributions include much more than talking the talk, but walking the walk...literally. Angel and her mother participate in Walk Now for Autism, a fundraiser they are partly responsible for bringing to northeast Ohio from Pennsylvania. Their team is called Angel's Army, which alone has raised more than $45,000. This year's walk is Aug. 23 at Progressive Field. More information is available at: www.walknowforautismspeaks.org.

In addition to her job, her presentations to groups and her work with Autism Speaks, Angel sings with her church's Prayersong Choir at St. Barnabas in Northfield. A few years ago, the choir traveled to Europe to sing for the pope. During one of their concerts, they performed with The Three Tenors.

Angel, an aunt to 10 nieces and nephews, continues to inspire people every day through her job, her community activism and her vocal talents, and for all of this, she is the quintessential Cuyahoga Valley Career Center Alumna of the Year.

that help CVCC students become presentable and prepared in order to successfully interview for jobs. Victor and other Sohar's personnel also assist with the product research project that the Power Equipment Technology junior students participate in annually.

Power Equipment Technology instructor Jerry Koenig nominated Mr. Sohar and his business.

"Victor exemplifies what Spirit of Service means through involvement, caring and dedication to the Power Equipment program here at CVCC," said Mr. Koenig.

Barre None: These Wonderful Adult Ed Wellness Classes Start in September

CVCC's Adult Education will offer several wellness classes starting in September, featuring yoga, Pilates and more. If it's variety you like, there are some combination classes such as...

Pilates Props Combo

This class includes exercises with bands, balls and student-supplied three-pound weights. The exercises and use of these props will sculpt your muscles while improving your balance, posture and flexibility. Class starts Sept. 9.

Barre Blend Blast

This workout incorporates principles of ballet, Pilates and isometric exercises. Using up-tempo music, a chair is incorporated as a "barre" to assist in exercises, which will enhance your strength, balance, coordination and flexibility. Class starts Sept. 9.

Complete Body Progression

This class combines Pilates Prop Combo and Barre Blend Blast. Your body will reap the benefits! Class starts Sept. 9.

Pilates for Every Body

Build core strength and increase overall flexibility through a series of exercises that focus on specific muscle groups. Positive results of Pilates: improves posture and balance, prevents back pain, reduces stress, enhances athletic conditioning, deepens yoga practice, provides injury prevention, increases body awareness, and boosts immune system. Exercises will be modified to offer a safe yet challenging workout for beginner to intermediate levels. Class is not recommended for pregnant women. Exercise props provided, except for three-pound weights or lighter hand weights when needed. Class starts Sept. 14.

Yoga, The Whole Body and Mind

Align the body physically with Asana (yoga postures), breathing practices, relaxation and meditation. Bring yoga mat, small blanket or towel, water bottle. Classes start Sept. 22.

School of Practical Nursing Pre-Entrance Test Dates

The pre-entrance WorkKeys test consists of math, reading and locating information. Register for this three-hour test online at www.cvccworks.edu or call 440.746.8230. All tests start at 10 a.m. on the following test dates: July 8, July 14, July 28, Aug. 18. and Aug. 25.

Pass Rate and Employment Figures

The School of Nursing at CVCC posted an 86% pass rate among its latest class of graduates who took the exam for Licensed Practical Nurse, reports Liz Walton, director of Adult Education.

"96 percent of those who obtained their practical nursing licenses have found positions," said Walton. "They are working for world class hospitals, long-term care facilities, in skilled rehab facilities and in assisted living."
