SACRED LITURGY

Saint Aloysius Gonzaga, Pray for Us

And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

*But the woman
came and did Jesus
homage, saying,
"Lord, help me."*

In the Company of Pope Francis

"St. Francis of Assisi became small in the footsteps of Jesus who humiliated Himself to the point of death on the cross. It is a narrow and arduous path, but if one follows it to the end, life becomes fruitful. The love that Jesus has for us does not dazzle us with great special effects that soon fade away, but it is a concrete and fruitful love made up of closeness, of gestures that lift us up, and give us dignity and trust. Love with the Heart of Jesus, with gestures rich in tenderness. Our whole life is called, with the grace of the Spirit, to become prayer. The Lord trans- forms us, day after day, making our hearts more and more similar to His. With your prayers and your little gestures, you sow in the field of the world the seed of God's love which makes all things new". -Pope Francis

FROM YOUR PASTOR

How do you make Your Life FRUITFUL?

During a time of pandemic, civil unrest, and emotional turmoil, YOUR ANSWER could be LIFE-CHANGING.

In a time of Pandemic, we do not place any special revelation from God on its occurrence. It is one of the natural cycles of a living, breathing Earth. What God does reveal in times like this is HIS GRACE for us to ENDURE these natural events and respond spiritually and corporally for ourselves and others.

We do not let the Battle of Politics and violent Threats and Riots prevent us from responding with Care and Compassion to the issues of past and present Racism.

We Reach Out to those who are Unemployed or Under-employed during this time. We support those whose Businesses have been Destroyed by violent acts thus becoming their collateral damage.

But WE DO NOT CONDEMN those who have harmed us. WE DO NOT HARM OTHERS as we have been harmed. Rather, WE STOP, PRAY, THINK...and then RESPOND.

That is the Gentleness of Saint Francis. That is the Heart of Jesus. That makes God's Love present in a Fruitless World.

We find this LOVE not in the Special Effects of the World, not in the Chaos of the World, not in the Isolation of the World...but in the warm embrace of a Loving Father who constantly seeks us when WE ARE LOST, when WE ABANDON HIM, and even when WE DO NOT LOVE HIM.

To find this LOVE requires the Spiritual Focus of PRAYER. Without that focus, WE SIN, WE HURT, WE OVERREACT, WE LOOSE OUR DIGNITY...and WE FAIL TO TRUST in God's response to WHAT WE NEED...thus overriding His UNCONDITIONAL AND UNFAILING LOVE for us.

Remember...GOD NEVER GIVES UP on us ---SEARCHING for us when we are lost, FORGIVING us when we sin against Him or others, LOVING us even when we do not love Him, and GUIDING us so that we do not harm others as we have been harmed.

His PURE LOVE will prevail in a World of Pandemic, Civil Unrest, and Emotional Turmoil with the GIFTS of Love, Temperance, and Hope...to TRANSFORM US and RENEW US...even when the path is arduous and narrow...

+May God Bless You and Keep You+

-Very Reverend Ronald W Cattany

The Story and You™

Sacred Conversations

Twentieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

I was reading a piece written by an Orthodox Jewish woman recently, and I had to laugh. It was just last year that she realized that the Canaanites had been living in the Promised Land for hundreds of years before the Hebrews came in from the desert and “took possession” of it. Nobody told us that people were already living there! she shouted. That changes everything!

It’s kind of like the first time we figured out Columbus didn’t exactly “discover” America. Indigenous people had been fishing, hunting, and living here for at least ten thousand years before the Europeans arrived. That changes everything.

That all races through my mind as I envision that brave Canaanite woman, descendant of one of the early inhabitants of that land, reaching out to Jesus, begging him to heal her daughter who was being tormented by a demon (perhaps an unknown mental illness).

At first he rebukes her, and then becomes delighted at her courageous retort. This is the kind of faith he’s been longing for! And it comes from a woman (an outsider in that male-dominated world) and a Canaanite. It brings to mind Sacagawea, who spoke dual languages, leading the way for Lewis and Clark in 1800. A woman, and a Shoshone, led them to the Pacific. Two thousand years earlier, the Syro-Phoenician woman led the way to a radical new understanding of who is beloved by God.

But somehow, even though Jesus praised her faith, it didn’t change everything. We still have systemic sinfulness in our dealings with the “other,” and, somehow, those who speak two languages are still made to feel inferior to those of us (like me) who only speak one.

What about the courage of this Syro-Phoenician woman touches you?

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Saint Philip Neri, Pray for Us

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
WRITTEN BY ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

MY JESUS,

I BELIEVE THAT YOU
ARE PRESENT IN THE MOST HOLY SACRAMENT
I LOVE YOU ABOVE ALL THINGS, AND I DESIRE TO RECEIVE YOU INTO MY SOUL.
SINCE I CANNOT AT THIS MOMENT
RECEIVE YOU SACRAMENTALLY,
COME AT LEAST SPIRITUALLY INTO MY HEART.
I EMBRACE YOU AS IF YOU WERE ALREADY
THERE AND UNITE MYSELF WHOLLY TO YOU.
NEVER PERMIT ME TO BE SEPARATED FROM YOU.
AMEN.

BAGGED LUNCHES

Help feed your neighbor in need for $40/week

Monday through Friday, our volunteers give out 20-30 bags of food each day at our food pantry. Each bag of food includes a tuna lunch, chicken noodle soup, chili, peanut butter, peaches, a bottle of water, a can of V8, a sleeve of saltines and a granola bar. Each bag costs us about $8.00.

These bags are accessible for anyone in need. We serve our neighbors experiencing homelessness and neighbors experiencing food insecurity.

For $40 a week, you could help us feed a brother or sister in need.

Thank you for your generosity.

Saint of the Week

Pope Saint Pius X

Pope Pius X is perhaps best remembered for his encouragement of the frequent reception of Holy Communion, especially by children.

The second of 10 children in a poor Italian family, Joseph Sarto became Pius X at age 68. He was one of the 20th century's greatest popes.

Ever mindful of his humble origin, Pope Pius stated, "I was born poor, I lived poor, I will die poor." He was embarrassed by some of the pomp of the papal court. "Look how they have dressed me up," he said in tears to an old friend. To another, "It is a penance to be forced to accept all these practices. They lead me around surrounded by soldiers like Jesus when he was seized in Gethsemani."

Interested in politics, Pope Pius encouraged Italian Catholics to become more politically involved. One of his first papal acts was to end the supposed right of governments to interfere by veto in papal elections—a practice that reduced the freedom of the 1903 conclave which had elected him.

In 1905, when France renounced its agreement with the Holy See and threatened confiscation of Church property if governmental control of Church affairs were not granted, Pius X courageously rejected the demand.

While he did not author a famous social encyclical as his predecessor had done, he denounced the ill treatment of indigenous peoples on the plantations of Peru, sent a relief commission to Messina after an earthquake, and sheltered refugees at his own expense.

On the 11th anniversary of his election as pope, Europe was plunged into World War I. Pius had foreseen it, but it killed him. "This is the last affliction the Lord will visit on me. I would gladly give my life to save my poor children from this ghastly scourge." He died a few weeks after the war began, and was canonized in 1954.

His humble background was no obstacle in relating to a personal God and to people whom he loved genuinely. Pius X gained his strength, his gentleness and warmth for people from the source of all gifts, the Spirit of Jesus. In contrast, we often feel embarrassed by our backgrounds. Shame makes us prefer to remain aloof from people whom we perceive as superior. If we are in a superior position, on the other hand, we often ignore simpler people. Yet we, too, have to help "restore all things in Christ," especially the wounded people of God.

MORE THAN YOU REALIZE

Serving our Downtown Denver Community

Thank you to all our volunteers who continue to support our Outreach Ministries. Each morning Dave serves upwards of a hundred folks at our breakfast sandwich line. Seen in the top left photo, Volunteer Off-Duty West Metro Firefighter, Vince Vidger, makes the sandwiches with his family each week. As seen in the bottom right photo, Young Adult Cathedral Catholic Club member, Rosalie Crouse makes 20-30 loaves of bread in her certified home kitchen each week for our sandwich line ministry. Additional thanks to the Colorado Vincentian Volunteers who served at our Food Pantry throughout Shelter in Place (top right photo). Most of our neighbors experiencing homelessness are victims of theft almost daily, and they often lose their masks. Thank you to our off-duty Security Guards for making masks for our neighbors experiencing homelessness.
