Mr Lok Bdr Khatri, from a remote village of Gulmi, is from poor farming family and had few opportunities to progress. When he passed the School Leaving Certificate of Nepal his education was blocked by his economic condition. One day he heard the advertisement from the FM Radio about the Hope Disability Center and its ABILIS training project so he came to visit us.

He was selected for the computer and mobile repair training and he learned very quickly through this training. He used this opportunity to start his own mobile repairing shop in his own village.

Now he is studying well in a local college. His family is happy. He started his own earnings through the training. He took the micro-credit loan to set up his shop and also funded it partly with his own money. He is giving service to the villagers who used to have to go Tamghas for the mobile repair.

Now the villagers have repairing service in their own village. The villagers are also happy to get an honest service from Lok Bdr who says that he is more confident now. Now his income is growing day by day through selling and repairing mobiles. He has provided different facilities for the mobile repairing including CD copy. Learning computer training at the same time during the mobile repairing helped him gain good skills. He also bought a desktop computer and keeps that in his shop for his business.

So Abilis changed not only Lok Bahadur's life now he has good market in the village. The villagers also now respected him as a person not as a disabled person who can not do anything. He has the full respect and dignity in his life through this training.

Like Lok Bdr many of the mobile phone trainees who received the training from the Hope Center are establishing their own shops and getting opportunities and providing services and feeling self-dignity ,,that comes with income generation

--- not only for them rather for all of their family as well.!

Lok is happy in his new shop!
