Christmas Songs For Bass Guitar

Merry Christmas

Forward

Merry Christmas, and Happy New Year! Yep, there's one New Years song in this book, and you can guess what that is.

Before you dive in and start jammin' on some Christmas tunes, there are a couple of things I want to point out.

First I have multiple versions of the same song in this book. And here's why. Often Christmas carols have a lot of chord changes. A lot of what are called "passing chords". If you are playing with a guitar player sometimes these fast chord changes are a little more difficult for them to play. So I give you a more guitar friendly version to make your 6 stringer friends happy.

So I have included a version with these "passing chords", then a version with some simplified chords. If you don't see a simplified version, then that means the original didn't have a lot of fast chord changes.

There is also a version of the song that has includes tablature for the melody. So you can play the melody if you want to. But you may also want to be able to pick out the melody to help your voice sing the right notes. So it's there if your voice needs some guidance as well.

Many of the songs are also in multiple keys. So if you find one version is too high or too low for your voice, give one of the other keys a try.

The songs in this book are in lead sheet format. This means that there is just the melody with the basic chords.

If you are going to play and sing these songs, you are going to want to add an intro. You need to establish the key for everyone who is singing, and give them an idea of how fast you are going to play the song. You can't just jump in at the first measure and hit the ground running. An easy intro for a song in a lead sheet format is to play the chords for either the last 2 or last 4 measures of the song.

Have Fun! And don't eat too much (it's already too late for me)

Jingle Bells

Key of G

Dash - ing thru the snow, In a one horse o - pen sleigh,

O'er the fields we go, Laugh - ing all the way.

Bell on bob - tail ring, Mak - ing spir - its bright, what fun it is to ride and sing a sleigh - ing song to - night.

Jin - gle Bells, Jin - gle Bells, Jin - gle all the way! Oh, what fun it is to ride in a one horse o - pen sleigh! Oh, one horse o - pen sleigh.

Extra Lyrics

A day or two ago
 I thought I'd take a ride
 And soon, Miss Fanny Bright
 Was seated by my side,
 The horse was lean and lank
 Misfortune seemed his lot
 He got into a drifted bank
 And then we got upstot.

A day or two ago,
 The story I must tell
 I went out on the snow,
 And on my back I fell;
 A gent was riding by
 In a one-horse open sleigh,
 He laughed as there I sprawling lie,
 But quickly drove away.

Now the ground is white
 Go it while you're young,
 Take the girls tonight
 and sing this sleighing song;
 Just get a bobtailed bay
 Two forty as his speed
 Hitch him to an open sleigh
 And crack! you'll take the lead.
