Eastside Parishes • Wausau, Wisconsin

Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

JULY 26, 2015 • SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

From the Pastor's Desk

In order that we might be enriched more fully through the Sacred Scriptures, the Church has established a cycle of readings from the Bible that are used throughout the Liturgical Year. The weekday readings use a two year cycle. The Sunday readings follow a three year cycle and are arranged so that the Gospel is taken from Matthew the first year, from Mark the next year, and from Luke the third year (beginning each liturgical year with the First Sunday of Advent). The Gospel of John is read each year during the Christmas season and during Lent and Easter.

The only exception to this "rule" is during the "Mark" cycle (which we are currently in). Since the Gospel of Mark is so much shorter (16 chapters, while Luke has 24 and Matthew 28 chapters), the Church reads from the Gospel of John as well during the "Mark" cycle. So, beginning today, we take a break from the Gospel of Mark and, continuing through the next four weeks, the Sunday Gospel is taken from the sixth chapter of John.

When read and understood alongside the accounts of the Last Supper found in Matthew, Mark, and Luke, this chapter from John presents for us a beautiful teaching on the meaning of the Eucharist. St. John records for us the account of Jesus feeding five thousand people with a few loaves and fishes. This is followed by the Lord's teaching which is commonly called His "Discourse on the Bread of Life". The fact that St. John recorded this long account for us indicates how important the Lord's miracle – and the teaching that followed – is.

These next several weeks present an opportunity for us to reflect more deeply on the rich mystery of the Eucharist. In my homilies for these five Sundays I will present some teachings on the Mass: how the Mass is structured, the language used (mostly from Scripture), why we sing the Mass, and of course, the reality of the Lord's True Presence in the Eucharist. See you at Mass!

May God bless you!

Not Getting Along

Ephesians 4:1-6

Fighting can become the status quo. When kids fight at school, someone tries to break it up, but in the end we know they're just kids. Fighting is what kids do. During an election year the mud-slinging can get intense. There will be a few calls for civility, but most of us shrug our shoulders. There's nothing we can do. Fighting is what candidates do. Teens and their parents, parents and teachers, contributors to blogs, sometimes even pastors and council members—some groups seem to disagree by their nature. It isn't right, but fighting can become the status quo.

The members of the early church had the same problem. Many New Testament letters indicate that the first Christians believed in Christ, held high ideals, and lived in community—but they didn't always get along.

In one passage from the Letter to the Ephesians, you can just imagine the spats that provoked these words: "I urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace." The readers had to be urged toward those virtues because they were not very evident.

Fighting should never be the status quo. We have a more noble vision of community life. Our one Lord, one faith, and one baptism summon us to be one body and one spirit.
