Adults Sacraments Teaching

Jesus tells us to enter by the "narrow gate". Every person's 'gate' is different. God speaks to each of us in her or his own way. Until you hear God speaking to you, religion—the business of believing—sounds like foolish chatter to you. Join us to listen to God's words for you. Join us for the adult education, renewal of faith. Contact Fr. Kelley at the rectory.

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Timothy urge that "...supplications, prayers, petition, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life." Who among us doesn't need to be reminded to be faithful to prayer and to rely on Christ our savior. That is especially true when the concerns of family or work or the world weigh heavy upon us. Set aside ten minutes each day this week to sit quietly in prayer. Place your concerns before God and be open to where God will lead.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society at Sacred Heart is here to help you. If you, or someone you know, is in need of assistance, please call us at the parish.

Today's Liturgy

When God created men and women, he blessed them with great gifts and gave them the authority to manage everything that God has created. He also gave men the understanding to comply with necessary regulations and rules to carry out his work.

We know that from the beginning of creation there is an adversary, who is also known as the ancient snake or devil. This enemy began his task from the garden of Eden trying to take away from men his dignity as children of God. Since then he has wanted to destroy the plan of God, causing man to depart from his father, being unfaithful to his commands and listening to his false accusations.

It should be noted in this passage from the Gospel of Saint Luke, this man who probably had been faithful in the administration of his master's business was seduced by the Evil one, and began to squander his property reaching such an extent that his own companion betrayed his fraudulent conduct, thus causing his outrage of his master who later asked for accounts of his administration.

It is then, that he uses cunning in front of debtors who would later assure him that they would pity him when he lost the position entrusted to him. This is why the Sacred Scriptures advises us that we cannot follow two masters, for we will love one and hate the other. This parable teaches us that we must be faithful in the little to deserve the imperishable goods.

What is STREAM? STREAM is an integrated curriculum encompassing Science, Technology, Religion, Engineering, the Arts, and Mathematics. Scholars at Sacred Heart, from Pre-School to 8th Grade, incorporate skills from each of these areas in their work. In the spring, the school showcases this effort in an all-school STREAM night, where each grade presents collaborative projects that represent their studies and bring together level-appropriate examples of the various disciplines. The STREAM curriculum focuses on critical thinking, a resilient learning through failure and success, and collaboration—all skills for a 21st century citizen. Come by and see what STREAM learning does for our young scholars!

SPECIAL SEPTEMBER COLLECTION

Healthier Priests. Stronger Communities.

The strength and vibrancy of our communities depend largely on the welfare of our priests who tirelessly serve others from all walks of life.

Powerful examples of strength in community are visible across 144 cities and towns of the Archdiocese of Boston. The roots of these communities can be traced back to the work of our priests.

Pine Street Inn: A Boston priest was one of the original founders of Pine Street Inn, which provides shelter and emergency services for nearly 2,000 homeless men and women in the Boston area every day.

Cor Unum: Started by a Lawrence pastor, Cor Unum ("One Heart") food pantry serves more than 250,000 meals annually to poverty-stricken families in Lawrence.

Addiction Support for Families: A Boston priest's expertise in addiction and recovery has been instrumental for organizations helping families and individuals in the grips of addiction.

Rostro de Cristo: Efforts to help the poor on the margins of Ecuador's largest city is hard work, except for those who have been inspired by a Boston priest who started Rostro de Cristo, an organization based in Boston that lives the Gospel and serves the poor.

It's simple: healthier priests mean stronger communities.
Please support clergytrust.org

Funds from this special collection are managed by the Clergy Health and Retirement Trust – an independently managed trust with a majority lay board of trustees. The funds are used for the sole benefit of active and senior priests in good standing.
