

CLARE COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE

CHAPEL SERVICES

MICHAELMAS TERM 2015

RECITALS

Each Sunday during full term there is a recital in Chapel at 5.30 p.m. before Evensong. Visitors are welcome, and admission is free. The recital is a preparation for the worship to follow, and those present are invited to reflect and meditate silently during the musical offering.

MUSIC

This term the Choir celebrates the 70th birthday of John Rutter, Honorary Fellow and former Director of Music, with a special service on Sunday 18 October and a liturgical performance of his Requiem for the Requiem Eucharist for All Souls' Day on Monday 2 November. The College's Advent Carol Services will take place on 28 and 29 November (admission by ticket only). The Choir's latest recording, Requiem: Music for All Saints and All Souls is released worldwide in October on the Harmonia Mundi USA label. In addition to the services in Chapel, the Choir performs at the Two Moors Festival on Thursday 15 October, and joins forces with the Choir of Jesus College for a joint Choral Evensong in their Chapel on Tuesday 27 October, and with the Choir of Tiffin Girls' School on Tuesday 10 November in Clare Chapel. The Choir will sing live from London's Broadcasting House on BBC Radio 3's In Tune programme on Tuesday 1 December, ahead of two performances of Handel's Messiah later that week, on Wednesday 2 December with Clare Baroque in St John's College Chapel, and on Thursday 3 December with the Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment in London's Union Chapel. For both performances the Choir is joined by outstanding soloists Elin Manahan Thomas, Christopher Ainslie, Nicholas Mulroy and Alexander Ashworth.

During the Christmas vacation, the Choir gives concerts in December in Gloucestershire, Worcestershire and Wales, returns once again to the USA for concerts in North Carolina, Texas, Philadelphia, Vermont and New York, and performs the late John Tavener's Ex Maria Virgine: A Christmas Sequence at the Christmas Festival at St John's, Smith Square, London on Friday 18 December. In January the Choir sings Choral Evensong at Westminster Abbey on Tuesday 5 January, gives a live BBC Radio 3 broadcast for Epiphany from the Chapel on Wednesday 6 January, and returns to St Mary's Church, Rotherhithe in concert on Thursday 7 January, ahead of the start of the Lent term. Full details are available from the Chapel and Choir Administrators, or at www.clarecollegechoir.com.

SERVICES

THE EUCHARIST is celebrated every Sunday morning at 9.30 a.m. – a simple service with a short address, followed by breakfast in E3. On Sunday 8 November, we will be joined by members of Trinity Hall for the service in Chapel, and then go there for breakfast.

MORNING PRAYER is said every Monday–Thursday at 8.30 a.m. On Friday, it is said at 8.00 a.m., led by the Christian Union, and is followed by breakfast in buttery.

The Eucharist is also celebrated every Wednesday at 12.30 p.m.

EVENING PRAYER is said every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5.30 p.m.

Silence for meditation and private prayer is kept in Chapel every day from noon until 1.00 p.m.

Alumni/æ and members of the public who wish to attend should contact the Chapel Administrator by Wednesday 28 October (email krl22@cam.ac.uk).

READING GROUP

On Monday evenings at 7.30, there will be a short informal reading and discussion group on The Bible and the world's questions led by the Decani Scholar in E3. Refreshments will be provided and all are very welcome.

COLLECTIONS

This term's charity is the Ankawa Foundation. In June 2014 15,000 people made the journey from the Christian villages of the plains of Nineveh to the relative safety of Kurdistan after their villages were overrun by militants from ISIS. They left with almost nothing, having fled as their neighbours turned on them and came to loot their houses. They came to Ankawa, increasing the size of the town by half. Elliot Grainger, an Englishman who used to work for Number 10, was working nearby for YouGov and decided to use some of his political and campaigning knowledge to start a fund to support the town and the refugees in Ankawa. Last year money was raised and a spare clothes campaign was set up to try to clothe the refugees who had fled in summer to an area that goes below freezing in winter. This year, as things settle down, the major figures in the town have asked for support to educate the 8,000 children of the camp. Their plan is to try to create mobile school facilities – initially a bus converted into a mobile classroom, specially designed as a safe space for children, especially girls by having a glass side. This reassures parents that their children are safe, an especially important element in a region where rape has become horribly commonplace. The Ankawa Foundation has recently launched its Christmas appeal for £15,000. Visit www.ankawafoundation.org for more information, or you can find them on Facebook.

SERMONS AND ADDRESSES

11 October	The Dean
18 October	The Reverend Robin Griffith Jones FSA Master of the Temple
25 October	Jane Heeney Jimmy's Night Shelter, Cambridge
1 November	P J Cole Queen's Young Leader, Director, Lifeline Nehemiah Project
8 November	General The Lord Dannatt GCB, CBE, MC Former Chief of the General Staff, Constable of Her Majesty's Tower of London
15 November	Jane Corbin BBC Journalist and film maker
22 November	The Dean

At Evensong on Sunday evenings an address is given by someone whose diverse insights on a wide-range of topics deserve to be heard, considered and discussed. This term we welcome five very different guest speakers. Robin Griffith Jones is Master of the Temple Church in London, where he has a wide-ranging ministry amongst the Inns of Court, and works extensively on law and religion. Principally a New Testament scholar, he has also published The Da Vinci Code and the Secrets of the Temple. Jane Heeney comes to us soon after World Homeless Day from Jimmy's, Cambridge's first year-round night shelter which now offers a wide range of services, from workshops and learning opportunities, to laundry and sports facilities, and wide advocacy and support programmes, all designed to give people the best chance of moving on and breaking the cycle of homelessness. PJ Cole grew up in West Africa, displaced by the civil wars in Sierra Leone and Liberia. He came to the UK to study law in 2006, and in 2012 restructured Lifeline Nehemiah Projects, the school and home for ex-child soldiers established by his late father in Sierra Leone. He now oversees four schools, vocational training, a safe-home and a programme equipping vulnerable young people to lead communities. PJ is currently at the forefront of the Ebola fight. His team sits on the National Ebola Response Committee, and leads community education and mobilisation programmes, providing food and psychosocial support to quarantined families, and housing Ebola orphans. Richard Dannatt was Head of the British Army between 2006-2009, having previously served in Northern Ireland (where he was decorated for gallantry) and the Balkans before assuming high command. He has published widely and contributed frequently to national debates on military policy, the support and funding of the armed forces, and the ethics of warfare. Lord Dannatt sits as a crossbencher in the House of Lords. He is a committed Christian, and speaks and writes passionately about faith and life. Jane Corbin is an award-winning journalist and film-maker who first worked as a reporter for BBC's Panorama in 1988, and has since reported from some of the most complex war zones in the world. She pursued the first in-depth investigation into the atrocities in western-Kosovo, is an expert on the Middle East, and earlier this year presented and produced the BBC documentary Kill the Christians, focussing on the persecution of ancient Christian communities in Syria and Iraq. We look forward to hearing all our speakers, and to continuing the conversation over drinks and dinner after Chapel.

CHORAL SERVICES RESUME ON SUNDAY 17 JANUARY 2016 AT 6 P.M.

CHAPEL PERSONNEL

THE DEAN, Jamie Hawkey is responsible for the life of the Chapel and has a general pastoral role throughout College. He is always happy to talk with all members of the College community about any matters of concern or interest, and can usually be found in E3. In cases of genuine emergency, he can be contacted 24 hours a day through the Porters' Lodge.

THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC, Graham Ross, is responsible for all music in Chapel and the College.

THE DECANI SCHOLAR, Arthur Keefer, assists the Dean in the life of the Chapel. He is completing a PhD in Old Testament studies.

THE CHAPEL ADMINISTRATOR, Kate Littlechild, handles all routine Chapel matters. She works weekday mornings from 9.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m.

THE CHOIR ADMINISTRATOR, Alice Halstead, is responsible for all the Choir's external engagements.

THE ORDINANDS are Reid Humble from Westcott House, and Mark Pybus from Ridley Hall, who is reading for the BTh at Clare.

THE CHAPEL WARDENS look after the running of Chapel services and events. They meet for lunch on Tuesdays in E3 to plan the coming week.

CHAPEL READERS who would like to offer to read in Chapel should speak to the Dean or one of the Chapel Wardens.

THE REPRESENTATIVES are Christian Coppa and Olivier Grouille (MCR Representatives, clc84 and olgg2) and Alistair Brown and Amy Hull (Christian Union Representatives, arb201 and ach97).

THE CHAPLAINS TO THOSE OF OTHER FAITHS are Rabbi Yisroel Malkiel (yisrael@mychaplaincy.co.uk) and Mrs Elisheva Malkiel (elisheva@mychaplaincy.co.uk), Jewish Chaplains to the University; Dr Rachael Harris (rmh1001), Buddhist Chaplain to the University; and Shaykh Abdal Hakim Murad (tjw31) and Shaykh John Butt (cmc.jmbutt@virgin.net), Moslem Chaplains to the University.

Visit www.clare.cam.ac.uk/life/chapel for information on all Chapel services, to which visitors are always welcome.
