COLLECTION

SHOEMAKERS SINCE 1825

TOMORROW'S SHOES TODAY.

We have a long-established tradition of making great shoes. We are also renowned innovators. Combine our knowledge of what makes the best shoes with our vision for what will make shoes even better, and you have what Clarks is – and should be – all about.

In the shoes we make, we can take the spirit of what Clarks is and make this into a reality for all ages, through spring and summer 2017 and beyond. Our shoes have a sense of free-mindedness and liberty, thanks to our designers. Thanks also to their craftsmanship, our shoes have enhanced performance. We are not about fashion. The opposite, in fact. Our shoes are contemporary and about setting you free, rather than making sure you comply with the latest “new thing”.

We are 190 years old. At the beginning, Clarks made and sold slippers. The Clarks Desert Boot became a mainstay in the last century.

In the 1960s Clarks opened for business at the Empire State Building. In the 50 years since, new ranges and designs, innovations and technological advances, together with global expansion, have seen Clarks become one of the most recognizable brand names in the world.

Fashions come. Fashions go. At the same time we are still Clarks. And Clarks should always be about the shoes. Our shoes; they symbolize who we are. They set us apart from others. They define us. They are what we do best. Now and in the future.
