WELCOME!

Dear friends in Christ,

Our celebration today on Passion (Palm) Sunday leads us into the most sacred and special season of the Church's liturgical calendar, Holy Week. The palm branches we bless and carry today remind us of the entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem. He comes not as a victorious king as some had hoped for, but rather as a willing servant that lays down his life for all. Truly he is a new type of king, one that the world had never seen. May these palms remind us of that entrance and, most importantly, what follows. Are we willing to go to the cross with Christ and die to the sin in our lives? If so, then this will indeed be a triumphant journey that ends not in death but victory and life-everlasting.

I urge you to make this entire week different than normal. Don't simply go on with all the other tasks of the week and then rush to Mass on Easter morning. Enter into the beauty and rhythm of the week. Let's take a look at each day in Holy Week and the schedule of services here at Ctr:

Mon.-Tue.-Wed., April 11-12-13: These are the final days of the season of Lent. How has your 40-day journey been? Have you kept to your Lenten promises and sacrifices? Have you wavered or maybe even failed at times? Stay the course these final days. But if not, fear not! There is still time to turn it around. Use these final three days to recommit yourself to the Lenten journey. Remember the three hallmarks of the season: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Work a little bit on all three. It's never too late to have a "good Lent."

Holy Thursday, April 14, Mass at 7 p.m.: Lent ends quietly on Thursday morning and we begin the season of the Triduum with the Mass of the Lord's Supper that evening. On this night we recall the Last Supper Jesus had with his disciples, and the Church celebrates both the institution of the Eucharist and the ministerial priesthood. We do so in service to others represented by the washing of feet and the Eucharistic Procession and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament after Mass. We will process from the main church into the chapel to spend time in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until midnight. As the Eucharist is at the heart of Catholic faith and the priesthood is forever tied to that sacrifice, this is a most special Mass for the life of the Church community.

Good Friday, April 15, Service at 3 p.m.: Darkness comes over the land as we remember the death on the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Our service begins at 3 p.m. with the reading of the Passion and the veneration of the cross that frames this day. The church will be open by 12 noon if you would like to stop in and pray the Stations of the Cross individually, or just sit in quiet contemplation. Remember that Good Friday is a day of both fast and abstinence.

Holy Saturday, April 16, Easter Vigil at 8 p.m.: The morning is quiet as we contemplate and meditate on the death of Jesus Christ. (No Saturday confessions today.) There is a small prayer service for our Elect who are in the final hours of their preparation for entrance into the Church. If you do nothing else this Holy Week, please remember to keep in prayer these 16 brothers and sisters of ours, who will be baptized, and the 15 others who will make their full entry into the Church with a Profession of Faith the following week. It is most vital that we as a community support them as they are initiated into the life of the Church. At 9:30 a.m. we will conduct a blessing of Easter baskets and Easter foods in the chapel. This is a nice little tradition we've had for a few years, though our first in two years due to the pandemic. If your kids have Easter baskets, bring them for a blessing and bring your food items for your Easter table that you would like blessed. It's one of those simple, yet profound Catholic gestures of our faith that only takes a few minutes, but is a nice tradition to pass on to the younger generation.

The Easter Vigil Mass begins at 8 p.m. outside on the front plaza. It is the highest, most holiest celebration of the entire Church year and I invite you to participate in it fully. It is a longer Mass than a regular Sunday service, but I truly hope you will clear your night and celebrate with us. This is the night when time doesn't matter. We spend so much of our lives (both in church and in the world) tied to a clock worrying whether we're on time or late. We are slaves to a schedule and what does it get us? Nothing. Put all that aside for this one night. It honestly doesn't matter. Come this year and give yourself over to the beauty and power of the Easter Vigil and experience the lighting of the new fire, the story of salvation history in the readings from Scripture, the baptisms of newest members, the oil of Chrism that confirms them, and finally the grace of Holy Eucharist of the Risen Christ! The empty tomb reminds us that He is risen from the dead. What greater gift could God give us? This is the night to shout to the heavens the triumphant cry of "Alleluia! Alleluia!"

Easter Sunday, April 17, Masses at 7 a.m., 9 a.m., 11 a.m., and 1 p.m. (bilingual), with overflow seating and a live video feed in the Parish Hall: This day of days dawns to find the crucified Christ risen in glory. It stands to reason that this is a day we must join together to praise God in the highest. Please note our mass schedule is slightly different than the regular Sunday schedule: the last mass of the day will begin at 1 p.m., not the usual 5 p.m., and it will be bilingual in both English and Spanish. Please plan your schedule accordingly. The 7 a.m. Mass will not use incense, so if your allergies are troublesome, you might keep that in mind. All other masses will use incense.

As always we expect very large crowds, and if (when) the main church fills up, we'll have overflow seating in the Parish Hall with livestream viewing on the big screen and communion brought to you. Give yourself plenty of time to get here on time and find parking, follow the direction of the police officers directing traffic, and obey the parking signs and fire lanes. It's a great opportunity to show God's love to everyone. Let's practice hospitality and be especially welcoming to visitors and newcomers. Speaking of visitors, please invite a few yourself to join you! The impression we leave may just be the thing someone needs to get back into a regular practice of the faith. So come one, come all and celebrate the Risen Christ!

All of these great services and events of Holy Week and Easter do not happen without committed volunteers, staff and ministers. My special thanks to all who give so much of their time and talent in service to the community, especially our Liturgy, Music, and Art & Environment departments. May God bless you. If you are an usher, greeter, Eucharistic Ministers of Holy Communion, altar server or lector, please double-check this week with the sacristans and your liturgical coordinators to assure that everything is covered. Above all let's make this a prayerful week so that our "good Lent" will culminate in an even more glorious Easter!

Peace, Fr. Sean

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER

The holiest three days of the year are approaching! Spend the Triduum in adoration and prayer, and participate in our parish's scheduled liturgies.

April 14: Holy Thursday

7 p.m. Mass of the Lord's Supper

Lent ends quietly on Thursday morning and we begin the season of the Triduum with the Mass of the Lord's Supper that evening. On this night we recall the Last Supper Jesus had with his disciples, and the Church celebrates both the institution of the Eucharist and the ministerial priesthood. We will process from the main church into the chapel to spend time in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until midnight.

April 15: Good Friday

3 p.m. Passion of the Lord service

Darkness comes over the land as we remember the death on the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Our service begins at 3 p.m. with the reading of the Passion and the veneration of the cross that frames this day. The church will be open by 12 noon for individual, quiet prayer. All are welcome at 2 p.m. to pray the Divine Mercy Novena with members from our Divine Mercy Cenacle. Good Friday is a day of both fasting and abstinence.

April 16: Easter Vigil

8 p.m. Mass in the Church

The epicenter of our Church life begins with a firelit entrance to the most solemn and glorious Masses of the year. Join us on the plaza that evening, put away your watches and electronics, and be present to welcome our newest Church members who will be baptized and confirmed this night. There are no confessions on Holy Saturday.

April 17: Easter Sunday

7, 9, & 11 a.m., 1 p.m. (bilingual), no 5 p.m. Mass

This day of days dawns to find the crucified Christ risen in glory. It stands to reason that this is a day we must join together to praise God in the highest.

Overflow seating will be available in the Parish Hall with livestream viewing and distribution of Holy Communion for all masses.
