

Clinician Educator Housing Allowance Supplement

Summary Description

The Clinician Educator Housing Allowance Supplement (CE-HAS) is a taxable fringe benefit that, under specified conditions, provides additional compensation to newly hired Clinician Educators for a fixed period of time starting with their home purchase. CE-HAS, together with Stanford's Clinician Educator Deferred Interest Program (CE-DIP) loan, the Clinician Educator Reduced Interest Program (CE-RIP) loan, and the Clinician Educator Zero Interest Program (CE-ZIP) loan, is a program that is intended to address the difference in the cost of home ownership between the Stanford area and areas in proximity to other major research Universities.

CE-HAS may increase or decrease. Changes are made in response to current market conditions. The programs will be reviewed each year.

Information regarding all of Stanford's housing programs is available at fsh.stanford.edu, or by email to fshousing@stanford.edu, or by calling (650) 725-6893.

ELIGIBILITY

CE-HAS has limited eligibility for some Clinician Educators as defined in Exhibit A to this brochure. Those eligible to receive the CE-HAS are individuals who satisfy all of the following criteria:

1. Are Clinician Educators appointed as: a Clinical Assistant Professor, a Clinical Associate Professor, or a Clinical Professor; and
2. Are appointed for a term of three years or more with the possibility of reappointment; and

3. Are buyers of a Qualifying Residence located within the area described in Exhibit B to this brochure (Qualifying Area); and
4. Are buyers whose initial appointment as a Clinician Educator or whose promotion within the Clinician Educator line begins on or after July 1, 2004; and
5. Are employed at seventy-five percent (75%) time or greater; and
6. Are considered benefits eligible Stanford University employees.

Note: Clinical Instructors, Affiliated Clinician Educators, Adjunct Clinician Educators, Clinician Educators who have courtesy appointments, and Clinician Educators who have temporary appointments while awaiting an appointment as a professor in the MCL line are not eligible for this program.

The eligibility period begins with the approval and acceptance of the appointment or the start of employment in the CE-HAS eligible position, whichever is later.

QUALIFYING RESIDENCE

CE-HAS is for the purchase of a single family home, condominium, town home, or any other for sale dwelling unit suitable for housing one family (the Qualifying Residence). Vacation homes, investment properties, commercial properties, properties zoned as commercial, multiple family dwellings (for example, duplexes and properties zoned for multiple units), Tenant in Common (TIC), and life care facilities are not Qualifying Residences. Personal property purchases such as mobile homes or houseboats are not Qualifying Residences.

The Eligible Clinician Educator must occupy the Qualifying Residence as his/her principal residence. The home purchased (the Property) must be located within the Qualifying Area.

SUPPLEMENT AMOUNT

The first year supplement amount is $30,000.00.

INITIATING CE-HAS

CE-HAS commences after all of the following conditions are met: (i) approval and acceptance of the appointment; (ii) start of employment (e.g. receiving regular Stanford salary payments through the Stanford University payroll system) in the CE-HAS eligible position; (iii) submittal of a completed application to Faculty Staff Housing (FSH) prior to the close of escrow, and (iv) the close of escrow on a Qualifying Residence. To comply with condition (iv), buyers who do not use the Stanford CE-DIP or CE-ZIP loan programs must provide FSH with certified or recorded copies of the Grant Deed and a certified copy of the Final Closing Disclosure. These documents are issued by the title company handling the escrow. Documents may be submitted to FSH via email to: fshdocuments@stanford.edu.

TERM

The maximum term of the supplement is nine years, and the supplement declines on a linear basis by one-ninth of the first year amount each year throughout the duration of the term. Under certain circumstances, CE-HAS is subject to earlier termination, as provided below.

TERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY

The housing supplement shall terminate if the individual:

1. Ceases to own or occupy the residence;
2. Ceases to be a Clinician Educator;
3. Ceases to be employed at 75% or more time;
4. Retires; or
5. Defaults on any term or condition of the Stanford University CE loans.

It is the responsibility of the CE-HAS recipient to notify FSH if her/his eligibility changes, even temporarily. This notice is to be provided to FSH in writing before the recipient's change in employment status occurs. Examples of change in status which could affect program eligibility can be changes to employment percentage, position or classification. Any financial assistance received after the eligibility has changed must be repaid.

Decisions concerning termination or suspension under particular circumstances (e.g. divorce) will be made by the University in its sole discretion.

TITLE/OCCUPANCY

Beneficial ownership and title to the home may only be in the name of the Eligible Clinician Educator and his/her spouse or registered domestic partner. No other persons can hold title to the home. The home must remain owner occupied by the Eligible Clinician Educator. Proof of such ownership and/or occupancy must be provided to the University upon request. Under no circumstances will the allowance continue if the home is rented. If two Eligible Clinician Educators share ownership of one residence, only one supplement is paid. If a Clinician Educator and a faculty member eligible for the University's Housing Allowance Program (HAP) share ownership of one residence, only one allowance or supplement is paid.

LEAVE AND OTHER SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

CE-HAS payments are paid together with regular Stanford salary payments made only through the Stanford payroll system. If regular salary payments cease for any reason, CE-HAS payments will also stop. CE-HAS payments can resume based on the original schedule when regular payments made through the Stanford payroll system resume.

1. Professional Development and other University approved leave: a) The allowance will continue without interruption for a paid Professional Development or other paid University approved leave. b) The allowance will be suspended during any unpaid leave. The allowance will resume upon the return of the Eligible Clinician Educator only upon notification to and approval by FSH and only if regular Stanford salary payments are being made through the Stanford payroll system.

2. Short Term Disability: The allowance will continue only if the Eligible Person is paid regular salary payments made through the Stanford payroll system. Salary payments made by insurance companies do not qualify as regular salary payments.
3. Long Term Disability: The allowance will continue as long as the Eligible Clinician Educator occupies the home.
4. Part Time Employment: The allowance is prorated (decreased) according to the percentage of full time salary, regardless of when the part time status begins.
Note: Eligibility for CE-HAS ends when employment changes to less than 75% time.
5. Major Remodel: The allowance will continue during a construction period of not more than eighteen months while the Eligible Clinician Educator is not living in the home. After eighteen months, if the Eligible Clinician Educator has not moved back into the home, the allowance will stop. Payments will resume when proof of occupancy is provided to FSH.
6. Special Circumstances: Decisions concerning termination or suspension under particular circumstances will be made by the University in its sole discretion.

SUBSEQUENT PURCHASE

CE-HAS applies to the ownership of a Qualifying Residence within the Qualifying Area as long as the eligibility criteria is met. Therefore, if an Eligible Person sells a CE-HAS qualified home and purchases another CE-HAS qualified home, the CE-HAS benefit will continue.

The CE-HAS Program is established on an annual basis, subject to discontinuation or modification at any time. Persons already receiving the allowance at the time of such discontinuation or modification will continue to receive it for the remainder of their term, subject to their continuing eligibility.

NOTHING IN THIS PROGRAM DESCRIPTION SHOULD BE CONSTRUED AS AN OFFER OR COMMITMENT OF ANY KIND TO A PARTICULAR INDIVIDUAL, OR AS SUBSTITUTING FOR OR SUPERSEDING THE FORMAL PROGRAM DOCUMENTS. PROGRAMS AND ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE OR DISCONTINUATION WITHOUT NOTICE AT STANFORD UNIVERSITY'S SOLE DISCRETION.
