Cobb County Leash Law

Cobb County Code #3-5-9 (Leash Law) - "It shall be unlawful for the owner of any animal to be out of his immediate control and restraint, or to be left unattended off the premises of the owner, or to be upon the property of another person without permission of the owner...every animal shall be restrained and controlled so as to prevent it from molesting passerby, chasing vehicles, or attacking persons or other animals..." Those animals not in compliance with this law should be reported to Cobb County's Animal Control Division at 770-499-4136.

Mobile Veterinarian Offers a Low Stress Alternative for Vet Appointments

▲ Dr. Matther Miller and his dog, Marty

Making time in your schedule for annual wellness visits for your pets is not always easy. For many owners who have older animals, larger breed dogs, or pets that don't travel well, a trip to the vet can be difficult and time-consuming, especially if the owner has multiple pets. Some animals miss annual visits or the pet doesn't see a vet until it is sick, making an already stressful event even worse.

"We were so happy to have Dr. Miller come to our house. Chewbacca used to hate his trips to the vet and it was easy for me to find an excuse not to go," shares Marie, a pet owner and client of Miller Mobile Veterinary Services. "And with a baby on the way I know it'll be even harder. But now that Dr. Miller comes to us it's much easier and Chewie loves his vet."

Based out of Marietta, Miller Mobile Veterinary Services makes house calls all over East Cobb and the Metro Atlanta area. In addition to regular wellness visits for vaccines and other preventive care, Dr. Miller provides a full range of veterinary services, diagnostics, and surgery. Surgeries are performed at a partner animal hospital in East Cobb. "Providing the convenience of in-home medical care while still offering surgeries is ideal," says Dr. Miller, who has earned a reputation as a skilled surgeon and was recognized by Atlanta Magazine as one of Atlanta's "Best Vets" in the November 2010 issue. "I don't have to refer pets who need surgery to another practice so I'm able to provide a continuity of care – and that makes the owner and pet more relaxed."

What do I do if my dog or cat bites someone?

You will be required to make a decision about the future of your pet. Confinement is a must under the Cobb County Animal Control Ordinance. This quarantine/confinement is necessary for 10 days. You can choose to quarantine the animal at your vet or the Cobb County Animal Control Shelter. If you do not choose to keep the animal because of the bite, you can request that the animal be put to sleep and tested for rabies. Either of these options are not pleasant, but because of the potential for a rabies exposure and/or liability on your part you must make the decision that is best for your situation. Animal Control does not normally adopt out animals that have bitten or scratched, but every situation is considered individually.

Saddle Up at East Cobb Stables

▲ Owners Sean and Amy Conway

Nestled on 3.5 acres in a prime East Cobb location, East Cobb Stables (ECS) has been training and boarding horses for 53 years. Sean and Amy Conway purchased East Cobb Stables in 1997 and have been upholding their mission ever since. "We want to provide a fun, wholesome environment for children," Sean Conway shares.

In addition to offering riding lessons, boarding, birthday parties, and field trips, the Conway's offer therapeutic riding as an early intervention program for children who have autism or have dealt with trauma. They also have hosted field trips for groups of students that are blind or visually impaired. Amy Conway tears up while talking about some of these experiences, "It's the horses. They have helped these children overcome some obstacles that no other therapy could accomplish." She refers to these lessons helping to build self-esteem, trust, and has even aided in the teaching of sign language.

East Cobb Stables has 7 horses, and 5 ponies. 10 volunteers, both children and adults, help with the care and maintenance of the facility and horses. Parents like that the volunteering instills a good work ethic and is rewarding at the same time. Every Sunday, from 1-2p.m, pony rides are offered for only $8. East Cobbers are encouraged to saddle up and join the fun!

You may have noticed the sign outside their entrance, "We're #1 in the #2 business". East Cobb Stables has been selling horse manure for the past three years stemming from an idea their son, Dallas, age 9, had. Sean Conway explains with a smile, "That's how Dallas became an 'entre-manure'."

East Cobb Stables is located at 1649 Johnson Ferry Road in East Cobb. Visit their website for more information, www.eastcobbstables.com. You can also call 678-560-9154 or email them at eastcobbstables@bellsouth.net.

Professional Dog Training in East Cobb

▲ Melony Phillips and Ann Thompson

Ann Thompson and Melony Phillips have been teaching dog owners and working with dogs and puppies in the East Cobb area for years. They have pooled their resources for some new fun dog classes in the East Cobb area.

Ann has focused her private practice on new puppies under 16 weeks old and their new families, providing in home consultations to be sure each puppy and new family get off on the right foot. Melony's private practice covers dogs of all ages and issues. She is a Certified Professional Dog Trainer, a VSPDT (Victoria Stillwell Professional Dog Trainer), a licensed presenter for Dogs and Storks and Dog & Baby Connection, an AKC Canine Good Citizen Evaluator and an AKC Star Puppy Evaluator.

Both are members of the Association of Pet Dog Trainers. Their studies under Dr. Ian Dunbar and workshops with Patricia McConnell, among other nationally recognized dog trainers and behaviorists, have provided them with a strong understanding of a puppy's critical developmental needs, how to prevent behavioral issues from arising, and managing existing behavioral problems.

Their training is based on proven positive methods and emphasizes building a good relationship between family dogs and their people. Recent scientific studies have revolutionized our approach to dog training and these new positive approaches let us begin teaching good manners to puppies as young as 8 weeks of age.

Now they are offering classes in the East Cobb area that go beyond "Sit" and "Stay". Puppy Play School offers really young puppies the opportunity to meet other puppies and their owners to learn a lot about their new family member. Basic Manners covers all the basic cues and then some and is a prerequisite for fun classes like recreational Agility, Rally Obedience and Canine Nosework as well as the Terrific Teens class that focuses on the adolescent dog and applies basic skills to real life situations.

"I REALLY WANT TO GO TO THE VET!" says your cat.

Paws Whiskers & Claws

The Feline Hospital

Dr. Stephanie Globberman

"Hey mom and dad, all the cats in the neighborhood are telling me such wonderful things about the humans at Paws Whiskers & Claws, The Feline Hospital! They really are different than other vets. They genuinely appreciate the amazing and unique individuals that cats are. Dr. Stephanie Globberman has been a feline exclusive vet for over 10 years. Even though everyone who works at PWC has dogs and cats as pets, they recognize that cats are the superior species and cater to us! Best of all, we do not have to deal with the panting, drooling and barking of those silly dogs when we go to PWC! The team at PWC is committed to strengthening and protecting the unique bond that exists between cats and their family, in a warm and compassionate atmosphere. After all, cats are not small dogs!

We both hate the thought of getting me into that box and listening to me cry all the way to the vet. It's hideously embarrassing when I get so scared that I pee, poop and/or vomit on the way there! And forget about the stress of being taken away from you to do who knows what behind the closed doors of "the back". At PWC, you get to stay with me and hold my paw the whole time! That sounds a lot less stressful because I am more scared when I am alone!

We can't put this off any longer. I need to have a check-up! I don't know how to tell you that I've been thirstier lately. Have you noticed I don't jump up on the counter anymore? I have been a lot more vocal lately haven't I? Do you wonder why I don't always use the litter box? Well only the humans at PWC can help me tell you. Let them, help you, help me!

Check out this informative blog post called "Have Cat, Will Travel!" on this really great website, dedicated to awesome cats like me, called www.fundamentallyfeline.com. It will help both of us get used to that darn carrier and make the ride smooth sailing!

So get off the couch and call them at 770-579-6001!

Boston Terrier Rescue Finds Forever Homes

Since 2004, the Boston Terrier Rescue of East Tennessee (BTRET) has matched over 2,000 Boston terriers with forever homes in the southeastern states, including Georgia. Its mission is to rescue Boston Terriers that are in need, stabilizing their health and emotional needs, finding the very best homes possible for them, assisting pet owners in an effort to prevent these dogs from needing rescue in the future, and to work harmoniously with other rescuers.

Wilbur Elliot Yates, named after the classic icon from Charlotte's Web, is one of the many BTRET success stories. Wilbur, also known as Captain Snortypants, was adopted in 2011 by East Cobber Courtney Yates. Wilbur and his fur sister, Olive the Yorkie Poo spend their days living the good life sunning, playing, and napping together.

Although pet adoption is a simple process, BTRET is especially proud of its strong history of matching a rescued pet to the right owner. Their primary goal is to place the dogs in the most suitable environment, based on the animal's individual needs and its temperament. The commitment is life long and the Boston's interests are always foremost.

Boston Terrier Rescue has an extensive network of volunteer representatives, foster families, and veterinarians in the Southeast, including 40 foster families in Georgia. Typically, the organization has over 150 dogs in their care at any given time, with approximately 40% of those being in Georgia. BTRET currently has a tremendous need for new Georgia foster families and is always looking for additional volunteers for transporting animals and fundraising.

If your family is interested in adopting, fostering, or volunteering, visit www.bostonterriertn.org
