DINNER SHOW "DEATH AND TAXES"

Help solve the crime while enjoying a BBQ dinner and dessert. A laugh a minute, along with an enjoyable meal a wait you. The Colonnade Players, by special arrangement with Dramatic Publishing Company of Woodstock, IL present "Death and Taxes"

Ever wonder what goes on at a small-town city council meeting? In Hendricks, they're looking for a murderer. Mayor Kathleen Lyles boldly announces that the meeting will be more like a coroner's jury than the usual round of arguments. Not only was a man murdered, but he was an employee of the IRS. "Somehow I don't feel that bad!" Carl Johansen says, as the sheriff clamps the cuffs on him, making him the prime suspect. Slowly it becomes apparent the entire city council had seen the man, and each of them seems to be hiding something. Who murdered the stranger? Was it Cora Sedgewick, who was still dizzy at the time from stepping on a rake and being thumped in the face with its handle? Or newspaper editor King, who's right on the spot to report the facts, if he could only find a pencil? Or maybe the mayor herself, who was doing her laundry in the back of city hall? This easy-to-stage intrigue is chock-full of small-town characters and hilarious dialogue. And, as an added bonus, the audience can not only see the scene of the crime but also question the suspects.

Show Dates February 5 & 6 at 7:00pm

Ticket Prices $20 per person and includes show and dinner. Tickets can be purchased at Colonnadecenter.org or by calling The Colonnade Box Office at 706-935-9000.
