What is Combat Zone Wrestling?

CZW is the modern embodiment of hardcore wrestling. Founded in 1999, the organization is primarily based out of Philadelphia, the unofficial home of hardcore wrestling. While the promotion has its roots in ultraviolent matches that frequently include elements like barbed wire and glass, CZW also heavily features some of the top Junior Heavyweight talents in wrestling.

The promotion runs monthly shows in the greater Philadelphia area, while also touring other parts of the US, Europe and Japan. CZW was founded by Hardcore Hall of Fame inductee John Zandig, and is currently owned by DJ Hyde, who has kept CZW true to its hardcore roots while continuing to showcase some of the best action the independent wrestling circuit has to offer.

Combat Zone Wrestling Titles

CZW World Heavyweight Championship – The top championship in CZW dates back to 1999, when Nick Gage won a 20-man Battle Royal to be named the first champion. The title is open to all wrestlers and can be contested under standard rules matches, but is frequently defended in ultraviolent rules matches. MASADA unified the Heavyweight Championship and the Ultraviolent Underground Championship in May 2012. The CZW World Champion at the time of this writing is Drew Gulak.

CZW World Tag Team Championship – The ultimate prize for tag teams in CZW dates back to the promotion's first event in 1999. There have even been instances where the title has been held by an individual (Justice Pain) and a group (Team Ca$h). The CZW World Tag Team Champions at the time of this writing are BLK-OUT (Ruckus & BLK Jeez).

CZW Wired TV Championship – This championship was created in 2009 and designed to be defended on CZW Wired TV broadcasts. The CZW Wired TV Champion at the time of this writing is Alex Colon.

CZW World Junior Heavyweight Championship – This title was only open to wrestlers under the Junior Heavyweight limit of 220 lbs. The title dated back to CZW's very first event in 1999 and was unified with the CZW Wired TV Championship by A.R. Fox in 2012.

Combat Zone Wrestling Special Events

Tournament of Death – A Death Match tournament held annually since 2002 at an outdoor venue. The matches throughout the tournament use any and all kinds of weaponry including light tubes, panes of glass and barbed wire. Frequently fans will also be encouraged to bring weapons that are used in certain matches. The tournament structure changes year to year, but usually has three rounds and anywhere from 8 to 16 competitors.

Best of the Best – The annual Junior Heavyweight Tournament that emphasizes athleticism over violence has been held since 2001. Typically the tournament features 12 competitors in three rounds, with four three-way matches in the first round, followed by singles matches in the semifinals and finals.

Tangled Web – An annual event dating back to 2008, where the main event is contested in a match with two rings - one of which is covered by a barbed wire spider web. The rules for this ultraviolent match are included at the back of the first CZW game edition handbook.

Cage of Death – CZW's longest running and biggest annual event. The main event features the Cage of Death match, which is a cage match featuring a variety of weapons and other ultraviolent objects. The actual cage for the event has taken many forms, including being suspended from the ceiling, having multiple cages stacked and even being electrified. The format of the match has also differed, with singles, multi-man, teams and Wargames style matches all employed. The rules for this ultraviolent match are included at the back of the first CZW game edition handbook.

"The Unstable Anarchist!"

One half of the Irish Airborne with his brother Jake Crist. Dave and Jake also comprise 2/3 of the group known as OI4K(with Jake's wife Nevaeh).

Dave is a hybrid style wrestler who combines technical savvy with ariel expertise. Never one to shy from controversy Dave once defeated his own brother Jake to capture the CZW Wired Television Title.

A tag specialist, Dave is also quite adept in singles action. Dubbed the Unstable Anarchist of OI4K, Dave Crist is a wild card whose unpredictable actions will no doubt make him a source of contempt to many in the Combat Zone.

RUCKUS

Height: 5' 8"

Weight: 235 lbs.

Baltimore, MD

"The Bluntasaurus!"

There have been many controversial figures in the history of CZW, but few hold comparison to Ruckus. Nicknamed the "Bluntasaurus," Ruckus has been a fixture in CZW since 2001. A former heavyweight (debuting at over 300 lbs), Ruckus is now known for his creative and incredibly athletic moves. No matter if he is performing a hand spring elbow or gouging his opponents eye, Ruckus is always looking to create chaos in the ring. A member of the long running BLK Out stable, and usually with best friend BLK Jeez at his side, Ruckus comes to the ring to win titles and make money.

Always living up to his name, if it's playing a prank on CZW match maker Maven Bentley or stealing the CZW tag titles, Ruckus is always in search of ways to keep CZW fans talking.

Weight: 125 lbs.

Seattle, WA

“The First Lady of the Combat Zone!”

The First Lady of the Combat Zone, Kimber Lee is the female voice aiding Drew Gulak in his Campaign for a Better Combat Zone.

Debuting as the valet of the Runaways (Joe Gacy and Ryan Slater), Kimber has been mostly known for her managing skills. Having also acted as valet for Chikara star Gran Akuma during his brief foray in the Combat Zone, Kimber then decided to align herself to Drew Gulak.

During the last year Kimber has gotten more physically involved becoming an active member of the CZW roster. Kimber Lee is primed and ready to make her mark in the ring.

Signature Moves:

Gulak Campaign interference – Kimber Lee will do whatever it takes to distract an opponent facing Drew Gulak and other member of the Campaign

YOSHI TONIC – leg trap sunset flip powerbomb

MATT TREMONT

Height: 5' 7"

Weight: 200 lbs.

Atlantic City, NJ

"The Bulldozer!"

Called "The Bulldozer," perhaps no nickname has ever been more suitable than that of Matt Tremont. The new face of Ultra Violence, Matt Tremont has become a major force in CZW in just over 2 yrs.

Debuting in CZW in mid 2011 with an impressive win over Pinkie Sanchez which qualified The Bulldozer for the 10th annual Tournament of Death, Tremont has shed blood with the likes of former CZW champion and Ultraviolent Beast, Masada, CZW regular Danny Havoc, and fan favorite/CZW legend Necro Butcher.

A change in attitude in Tremont led to a brutal feud with CZW owner DJ Hyde, which saw Tremont fired and later rehired after brutally defeating Hyde at Cage of Death XIV. Tremont stands at the ready to shed the blood of anyone who stands in his way.

Signature Moves:

SITOUT POWERBOMB – powerbomb with Tremont ending up in sitting position

URANAGE – scooping, one-armed side suplex slam

ALEX COLON

Height: 5' 7"

Weight: 176 lbs.

The 609

"The Leader of 4Loco!"

Devious and duplicitous are usually the first words that come to mind when you think of Alex Colon.

A skilled technical wrestler Colon has slowly shown his true colors as a master manipulator as well. The leader of the all Latino group 4Loco, Colon used an opportunity to join Ruckus and Rich Swann in the BLK Out stable to convince longtime BLK Out valet Chrissy Rivera to aid him in proving the dominance of Latin wrestlers.

This cunning competitor recently captured the CZW Wired Television Championship (his first title in CZW). Look for Colon to continue making waves in Combat Zone Wrestling.

JON MOXLEY

Height: 6' 4"

Weight: 225 lbs.

Cincinnati, OH

“Just a Sick Guy!”

Though only in CZW for 3 years, few have made an impact in Combat Zone Wrestling the way Jon Moxley did.

A former two time CZW champion, Moxley combined ring savvy, guile, and a thirst for blood into a formula for winning at any cost. Enduring a brutal feud with CZW legend Nick “F’n” Gage, Moxley earned respect from many in the CZW locker room while cementing his legacy as a member of the Ultraviolent fraternity.

While competing mostly as a singles wrestler, Moxley was also known for forming the Switchblade Conspiracy with “Chainsaw” Joe Gacy and former CZW standout Sami Callihan. Moxley is a true CZW legend who will look to add to his already impressive resume.

One Hitter – vertical suplex dropped into a DDT

Hook and Ladder – double chickenwing facebuster
