Concert Etiquette

As audience members, your part in the concert is almost as important as the talented singers on stage. Your responses will make the difference to the performers and to the other audience members as well. The music department of SHPS has a goal to educate the public as well as its own music students. With this in mind, we have outlined what are considered universal appropriate concert etiquette guidelines for audience members at musical performances. Please take a look at these guidelines in the spirit that they are given and it will increase everyone's enjoyment of the concert. Our students participate in many different activities. What may be appropriate at an athletic event may not be appropriate at a concert. Thank you for helping us to uphold the fine standard of performance excellence that has become our tradition here in South Haven.

- Absolutely no food or beverages allowed in the auditorium
- Turn off all pagers, cell phones, and electronic devices before entering the auditorium
- When the conductor enters, it is customary to applaud politely
- Be on time. If you are late, enter the auditorium during the audience applause between selections. Find a seat in the back to avoid any distractions
- If there is an emergency and you must leave, wait until the conclusion of the piece, then exit quickly and quietly during the applause
- Remain seated and quiet during the entire performance. Avoid any noise that could interrupt the concentration of both the performers and listeners (i.e. whispering, wrappers, etc)
- Please show appreciation of the performance through clapping rather than whistling or cheering. Remain silent between movements of a song. Watch the conductor and listen for when the music stops as a cue to begin applause
- Please do not use flash photography during the performance. You may do so in between selections. If you are videotaping, please record from one location in the back of the auditorium
- Do not leave as soon as your child is done performing. All of the students in each performing ensemble deserve a full audience for their performance
- Parents of young children are asked to sit near an exit so they may leave quickly if their children become restless or noisy

PROGRAM

6th Grade Sings!

Ging Gong Gooli (British Guiana).....Robert Baden-Powell

Ging gong gooli watcha Haila, haila shaila
Ging gong goo Solly wolly ho

Nonsense syllables, no meaning

Jubilate Deo.....Michael Praetorius

Jubilate Deo Rejoice in the Lord
Alleluia Alleluia

Psalm 65

Dreams.....Audrey Snyder

Hold fast to dreams Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die For when dreams go
Life is a broken-winged bird Life is a barren field
That cannot fly Frozen with snow

Goin' to Boston.....Shirley W. McRae

Goodbye girls, I'm goin' to Boston Right and left will make it better
Earlye in the mornin' Earlye in the mornin'
Won't we look purty in the ballroom Swing your partner all the way to Boston
Earlye in the mornin' Earlye in the mornin'
Come on, girls and let's go with 'em Get out the way, you'll get run over
Earlye in the mornin' Earlye in the mornin'

7th and 8th Grade Combined Choir

Voice from a Dream.....Joyce Elaine Eilers

When it seems your skies are all grey
And the troubles of the world are here to stay
 If you listen you will hear
 The echo of a voice from a dream
 Come along with me
I'll show you where the grass is greener
Where the sky is bluer than the deepest sea
 Catch a sunny smile
And leave your troubles far behind you

In a little while
You will not remember that your skies were grey
Come today
Catch a smile, catch a song
And we'll fly beyond the rainbow
To that land of enchantment, escape' til the dawn
And though morning will come
And take away the rainbow
You'll still hear the echo of my song

De Colores (Spanish Folk Tune).....arr. Mark Weston

De colores
In bright colors the fields decorated are clothed now in spring
In bright colors the birds soon return and their happy songs sing
In bright colors a rainbow of light spans the beautiful sky

De colores
View the colors around when the sunlight awakens the day
View the colors in sight as the sun shines it's glorious rays
View the colors it makes as a diamond it lights up the sky

For our friends far and near come to be with us here and will color our lives once again
Y por eso los grandes amores de muchos colores me gustan a mí
Translation: "And that is why I have a great love of many colors"

Follow the Drinking Gourd.....Rollo A. Dilworth

Follow the drinking gourd
For the old man is a waiting
For to carry you to freedom
If you follow the drinking gourd
When the sun comes back
And the first quail calls

The river bank makes a very good road
The dead trees will show you the way
Left foot, right foot, traveling on
The river ends between two hills
There's another river on the other side
Follow the drinking gourd
