RPL is the acknowledgement of a student's previous education and skills, if they are considered relevant to the current course of study. The RPL process is available to all students, and ILSC Business College, and ILSC TESOL College recognise the AQF Qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other registered training organisations.

Applications for RPL must be submitted either before you enrol or during the first term of study. Applications for RPL will only be accepted if:

- you are enrolled in an approved course; and
- the appropriate fee has been paid; and
- the application is made in the first term of study

RPL will be granted if you can show that you have successfully completed previous studies that are:

- of a similar duration; and
- at a similar or higher level; and
- of similar content

RPL exemption only applies to the course you are enrolled in. If you change courses, your RPL will be reviewed to ensure that it is still appropriate. Students who are on a student visa are still required to attend class for 20 hours per week, as per the conditions of the visa.
