In the name of Allah, Glorious and most Merciful

Madinah Community Center, Inc is a non-profit religious organization serving the Muslim community of the greater Madison area. We are currently in the process of building a new, larger facility to better fit the needs of our expanding community.

This project began in 2011 when we began fundraising to purchase 3.5 acres of land on Madison's west side. By the end of the year we had raised enough money and closed on the acquisition. We spent the following years developing project plans and getting them approved by the city of Madison.

Alhamdulillah, we broke ground on this project in April and we are taking another step on our journey to grow our Muslim community. The following pages contain information about our community, the need for the new facility, and information about the facility itself.

We hope that you take this opportunity to help our community build a house of Allah and further establish a home for Islam in Madison Wisconsin.

Our Community

Madison is located two hours north of Chicago, IL. Like many cities, Madison has an ever-increasing population of Muslims. Not only the capitol of the state of Wisconsin, Madison is also the home to the University of Wisconsin which makes it a center for many types of businesses and activities. As is the story in many other university towns, Muslims came from many places and have banded together to create institutions for the Muslim population.

In 1994, such an effort by several University of Wisconsin students led to the creation of the Islamic Revival Association (now Madinah Community Center, Inc). In 1995 that group purchased a small building at 4718 Hammersley Rd in Madison WI and established the Masjid Us-Sunnah to service the needs of the Muslim community. Since then the masjid has been the home of the following regularly held services:

- Five daily salawaat
- Two weekly Jumuah salaah
- Taraweeh and Qiyam-ul-Layl salaah during Ramadan
- Weekly Qur'an classes for children and adults
- Weekly halaqah on Fiqh and Aqeedah
- Weekly Islamic classes for children

The Growth of our Community

The Masjid Us-Sunnah, located in the southwest side of Madison Wisconsin, was purchased in September 1995 and has been a home to Muslims for over 20 years.

Over the years the community has grown significantly, and the small building has long since been filled to capacity. Even after expanding services to hold two Jum'ah prayers every week, we still find ourselves pressed hard into corners and expanding into hallways, offices, and the kitchen in order to find room for hundreds of people to pray.

The situation outside is just as desperate as dozens of cars attempt to fit in a parking lot able to hold only a fraction of their number.

Ramadan is equally as difficult with no room for community gatherings or evening iftar. The community is continually searching for event halls to rent for gatherings like aqiqah or community dinners.

Our youth are left without any area for sports or other activities and are often confined to small areas.

Eid prayers have become very difficult as we struggle to pay thousands of dollars to rent out hotel event halls which struggle to hold the thousands of people who come from all around Madison for the holiday salaah.

Our community finds itself strangled with no room to grow or even meet our current needs. We pray Allah, most gracious and most merciful, aids us in our expansion project.

The Organization

To meet the needs of our diverse and growing community, in 2012 we established a shura council to act as the Board of Directors for the organization and make important decisions on behalf of the community. This diverse group of members come from various ethnic backgrounds and professional qualifications. In addition to the new shura council we created various committees to handle such matters as maintenance, religious and dawah activities, education, maintaining of finances, and of course the construction of the new Madinah Community Center facility.

Officers of the Shura:

President: Abdiwahid Said Arab arrived in the U.S. in the 1980's as a young refugee fleeing the Somali civil war. He currently works as a clinical lab technician for the University of Wisconsin's Health Systems and has been a member of the Madison Muslim community for over 15 years.

Treasurer: Firas Arkhagha is a Senior Analyst and Programmer for WPS Health Solutions with over 20 years of experience in claims systems. He comes from a Jordanian background and has been a member of the Madison Muslim community since 2001.

Secretary: Shuaib Kiser is a native resident of Wisconsin who converted from Catholicism to Islam in 2005. He places a strong importance on dawah and in bringing the Islamic religion to his fellow Americans. He works as a Technical Support Specialist for Amtelco, a local telecommunications products and services company and has been part of the Madison Muslim community since 2011.

Imam Alhagie Jallow

Imam Alhagie Jallow was born in Mbollet, Gambia in 1987. After completing his primary studies, he traveled to Diourbel, Senegal where he completed the memorization of the Qur'an. Upon returning to Gambia, he taught Qur'an in Masjid Bilal while completing his secondary education until receiving a scholarship to study at the Islamic University of Imam Muhammad bin Saud in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia.

During his seven years of study in Riyadh, Alhagie graduated with a degree in Shari'ah and learned from some of the foremost Islamic scholars of our age including Sheikh Sadhan, Sheikh Abdullah ibn Jibreen, and Sheikh Saalih ibn Fawzaan al Fawzaan.

Alhagie became the Imam of the Masjid Us-Sunnah shortly after his visit to Madison in 2009. More than just leading prayers, he also conducts lectures, organizes Islamic education classes for children, and meets with non-Muslims to help grow an understanding of the Islamic religion. Focusing his lectures mainly on authentic Hadeeth and the Qur'an, he spends time explaining the different schools of teachings in regards to any subject.

Our Plan

To help meet the current and future requirements of our community we have a three-step plan for the location of our new facility. These steps will help ensure the stability and expandability of our community for decades to come.

1. Main Facility Construction: The center of our new facility is the masjid with prayer space, offices, and an event hall in the basement. This step is the most expensive and will include overall land development as well.
2. Gymnasium: A future expansion is planned to include a gymnasium with about a dozen adjacent classrooms for children education.
3. Office/Rental: Establish investment rental properties on site for recurring guaranteed income.

To accomplish this plan, we have teamed up with local construction company Tri-North Builders who have extensive experience building large commercial properties. We were able to negotiate a fair contract to allow key factors such as “stop and go” construction based on available funds, the ability to choose contractors to hire local Muslim owned businesses, and a low management fee based on both a percentage of construction cost and a guaranteed maximum price for the project.

The guaranteed maximum price given by Tri-North for step one of this ambitious project is $4.8 million. To achieve this goal, our community members are hard at work contacting others and collecting funds. We are establishing connections around the world who want to donate and are going through the proper official legal and diplomatic channels to receive their generous donations.

We invite you and the members of your community to join others and help us expand our community and build this new home of Allah, Glorious and most High.

Building a New Facility – The Madinah Community Center

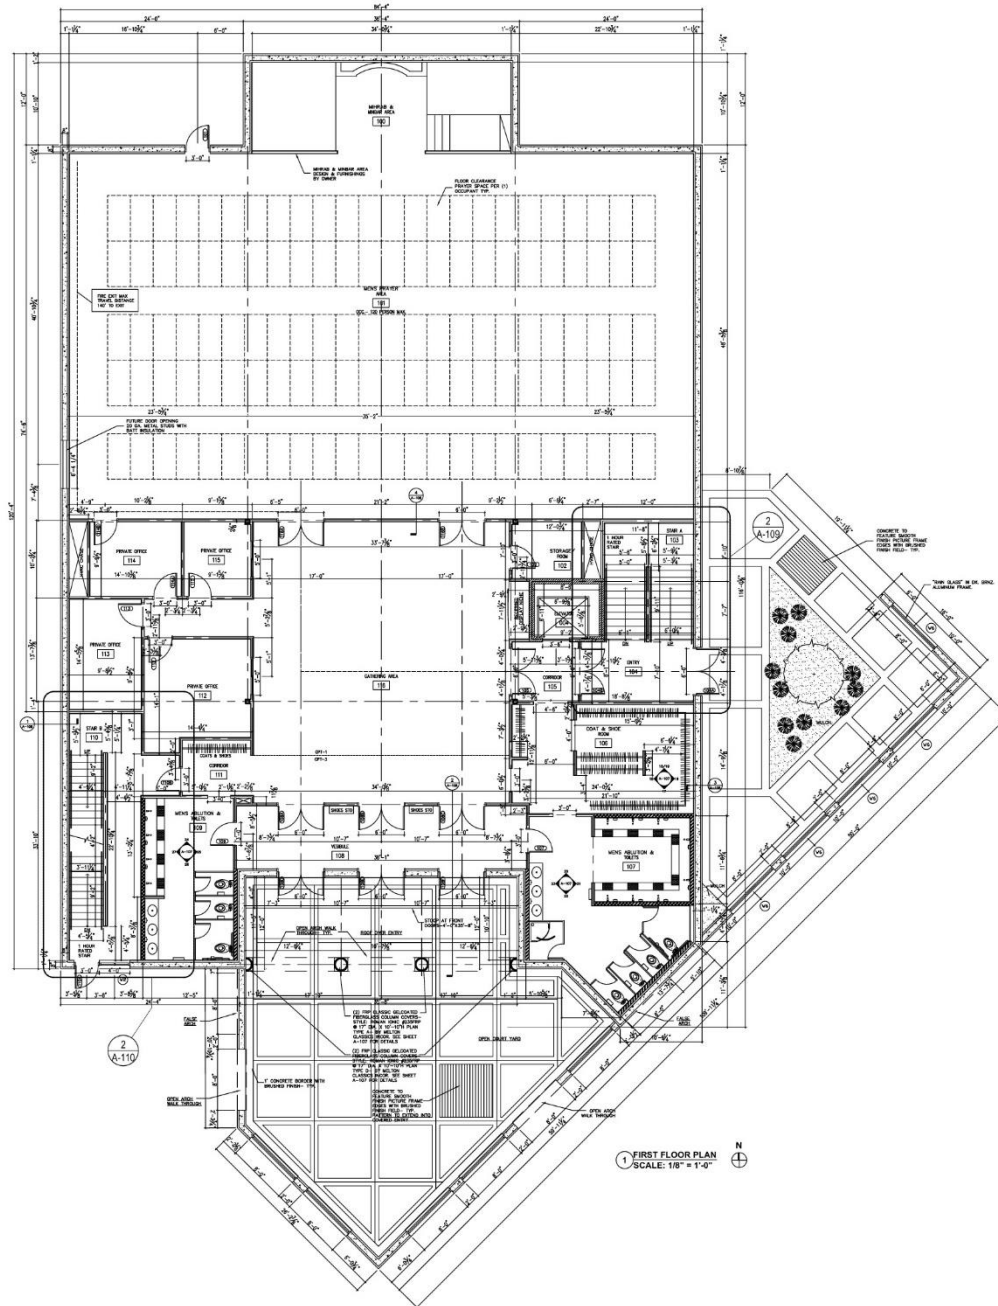

Our new community center is designed to provide many facilities needed and lacking at our current location.

Our plan includes plenty of parking, a grassy play area for both sporting events and playground equipment, an area for a future gymnasium and classrooms expansion, and another expansion area on the southeast (lower right) of the lot for small commercial rental properties in the future to generate guaranteed, regular rental income.

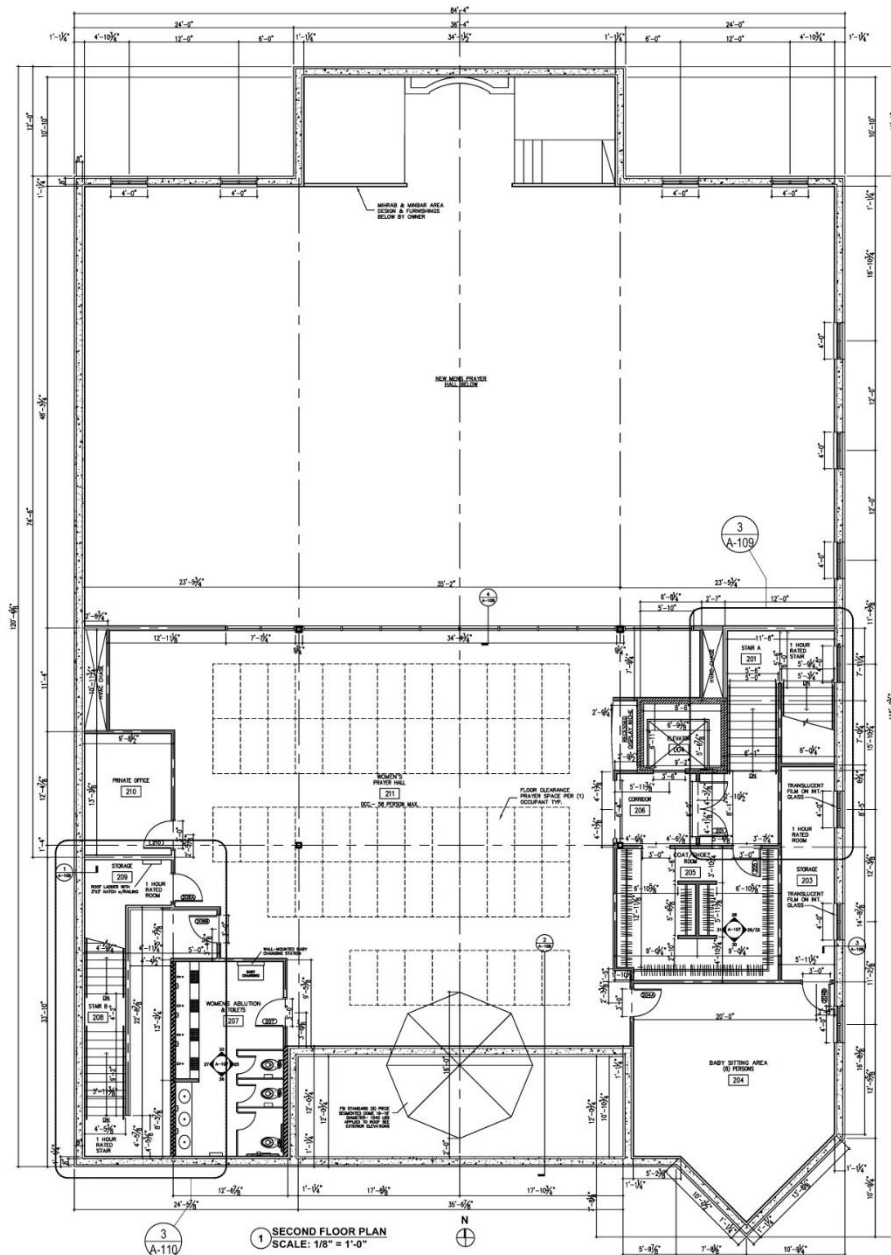

First Floor

The first floor features an outdoor courtyard entrance with two bathroom and wudu rooms on either side. A large receiving area with offices on the side and the main brother's prayer room at the opposite end. The prayer room is roughly 4 times the size of our current room located in the Masjid Us-Sunnah and will accommodate our weekly Jum'ah gatherings as well as those who come to Ramadan with a little room for future growth, inshallah.

Second Floor

The second floor is a mezzanine that overlooks the brother's prayer area with a reinforced glass wall. This floor is built with sisters in mind with an extended prayer area several times larger than at the current facility, a spare room to the side for study circles or secluded use, and a large children's play room in the back corner where children are free to be children without interrupting prayer services. An elevator services all levels for the elderly or otherwise challenged for mobility.

Basement Event Hall

Our community does not currently have any kind of area available to us to hold regular events, dinners, or celebrations. Instead we must constantly struggle to rent other community centers and event halls. This basement is designed to give us an event hall of our own to hold our many dinners and events. It not only boasts a large community hall which can be easily divided, but also contains a warming kitchen in the back and bathroom facilities on the side.

How You Can Help

Narrated by Uthman Bin Affan

The Messenger of Allah, peace be up on him, said: "Whoever builds a masjid for the sake of Allah, then Allah will build a similar house for him in Jannah." Jami at-Tirmidhi.

The honor and rewards for building a house of Allah are numerous and famous in Islam. It is rare to find a Muslim who does not know the hadith mentioned above or another one like it. We invite you to take advantage of this opportunity and donate to help build this new masjid and help others do the same. Whatever you spend will help Muslims in this life and help yourself and your life in the hereafter.

May Allah reward your good deeds with Jannah, inshallah.
