2014 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE, NOTES & STATISTICS

GAME 1—COLORADO STATE

BUFFS, RAMS TO RENEW RIVALRY FOR 86TH TIME; 14TH GAME IN DENVER

FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 2014 • 7:05 p.m. MDT • Sports Authority Field at Mile High (76,125), Denver, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 1 (August 25, 2014)

Fox Sports 1 (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes open their 125th season of intercollegiate football on Friday, August 29, as the Buffs will square off against in-state rival Colorado State at Sports Authority Field at Mile High in Denver in the annual Rocky Mountain Showdown presented by Prestige Audi; kickoff is set for shortly after 7 p.m. and the game will be televised nationally on Fox Sports 1 ... It will be the 30th time over the last 31 seasons that a CU season opener will be on some kind of local, regional or national television (the lone exception came in 2006 against Montana State, though that game was webcast) ... The Buffaloes and Rams will be playing for the 86th time (CU owns a healthy 62-21-2 edge), with this game marking the fifth of 10 straight to be played in Denver; all but two are season openers for both schools (in 2011 and 2015, the Buffs opened/open at Hawai'i) ... This will be the 14th meeting between the two at Mile High, the other 13 coming from 1998-2000 (played at the old Mile High Stadium), with the 2001-2003 and 2006-2008 games at Invesco Field and 2010-13 at renamed Sports Authority ... CU leads the series in Denver by an 8-5 count and by a 19-7 margin since the rivalry resumed in 1983 following a 25-year dormancy ... Colorado enters 2014 with a 679-471-36 all-time record (a .588 winning percentage), as the Buffaloes rank 24th all-time in the NCAA in wins and 30th in winning percentage ... The Buffs are 52-54-2 all-time at night (7-11 neutral) and are 14-21-1 all-time on games played on Fridays ... Visit CUBuffs.com/gameday as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats. DEPTH CHART ON PAGE 48; ROSTER ON PAGES 49-50

STAT OF THE WEEK

In the last 29 season openers, dating back to 1985 when the Colorado program returned to health after winning just 14 games in six seasons, the Buffs are 18-10-1 in season openers. CU rarely has opened with a "gimme" that several schools do; in addition to rival Colorado State, over these last three decades the Buffs have also opened seasons against Tennessee, Texas, Hawai'i, Washington State and Wisconsin. The Buffs have done very well when holding the opponent to under 100 yards rushing in openers, owning a 13-3 record; and when the opponent has passed for 200-plus yards, CU is 9-3-1.

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

Colorado will open the season playing in two straight NFL stadiums, as the Buffaloes travel east in Week 2 to take on Massachusetts at the home of the New England Patriots, Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass., after opening against Colorado State at Sports Authority Field in Denver. The Buffs have played 17 games to date in six current NFL venues, owning a record of 9-8 (6-4 in Denver, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 1-2 in Houston, 0-1 in Jacksonville and 0-1 in Kansas City). All-time, the Buffs are 15-19-1 playing games in stadiums that simultaneously hosted NFL teams (8-5 in Denver, 1-0 in Irving, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 2-3 in Houston, 1-2 in Miami 1-2 in Tempe, 0-2-1 in Anaheim, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City and 0-3 in Los Angeles).

ANNIVERSARY-MANIA IN 2014

This season signifies the anniversaries of some great – and not so great – milestones in CU history. It's the 125th football season, but the 125th anniversary of CU athletics (there was a lone varsity baseball game in April 1890); the homecoming game against UCLA on Oct. 25 will be the 100th in school history; it's the 90th anniversary of Folsom Field (opened as Colorado Stadium on Oct. 11, 1924); it's the 80th anniversary of CU adopting the nickname "Buffaloes" (in November 1934); it's the 75th anniversary of CU's first Mountain States Conference title in 1939 (after an 0-3 start); it's the 45th anniversary of CU's 1969 Liberty Bowl champion team that thumped Alabama; the 35th anniversary of the Sept. 8, 1979 game against Oregon—the first college game televised on a fledgling network known as ESPN; the 30th anniversary of Ed Reinhardt's tragic injury at Oregon (Sept. 15, 1984); the 25th anniversary of CU's first 11-0 regular season and first-ever No. 1 ranking, but also of the death of Sal Aunese (Sept. 23, 1989); and the 20th anniversary of "The Catch" (or Miracle in Michigan, Sept. 24, 1994), Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a CU player, and coach Bill McCartney's surprise retirement.

ROSTER NOTES

The Buffaloes lost two players for the season with ACL injuries suffered during camp: FS Jered Bell and DE Tyler Henington. Bell will petition for a sixth year from the NCAA since he will now miss two full seasons due to injury, while Henington has a redshirt year available to him.

At the end of fall camp, Coach MacIntyre placed two senior walk-ons on scholarship: WR Wes Christensen and S Richard Yates; neither is expected to play much from scrimmage at the onset but each figure prominently on special teams. Yates was previously placed on scholarship one other semester.

Yates is also one of three players who are juniors in eligibility and seniors academically, who have decided to forego a fifth-year and will play as seniors in 2014; he's joined by DB Brandan Brisco and ILB Thor Eaton.

Two walk-ons have decided not to return but remain in school, both fullbacks: sophomore Jesse Hiss and junior Clay Jones. And junior DT Samson Kafovalu is not enrolled this semester, as he has returned home to California for personal reasons, but he will rejoin the team in January (he'll still have two years of eligibility remaining).

25,000 ON THE HORIZON

Whoever scores Colorado's 139th point this fall will also score the 25,000th point in the school's football history, which dates back to 1890. Here's a look at who scored some of the previous milestone points in CU history:

1—George Darley. He returned a fumble 65 yards for a touchdown to score the first points in CU history in a 50-4 loss to Colorado Mines on Dec. 13, 1890.

1,000—Unknown; the 109th point of the 1897 season, coming in a 30-0 win over the Littleton Athletic Club in Boulder on Oct. 30.

5,000—Pete Middlemist. He scored on a 10-yard run versus Northern Colorado in Boulder on Oct. 12, 1929, the 41st point of the season and the 14th point in a 19-0 win.

10,000—Bob Stransky. He scored on a 1-yard touchdown run at Nebraska on Nov. 16, 1957, the 187th point of the season, the second point of a 27-0 win.

15,000—Craig Keenan. He scored on a 1-yard touchdown run versus Wyoming on Sept. 25, 1982, the 35th point of the season and sixth point in a 24-10 loss.

20,000—Jeremy Aldrich. He kicked a 46-yard field goal at Kansas State on Nov. 15, 1997, the 262nd point of the season and sixth point in a 37-20 loss.

*—fourth-year seniors (Brisco, Eaton and Yates are juniors ineligible but have decided to forego next year and play as seniors in 2014).

GRADUATION REVIEW

Over the last 13 years, Colorado has had 218 of its 243 seniors graduate, including 15 of the 17 seniors in 2013 (two others are in need of just one class); these are the 2001-2013 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. That translates to 89.7 percent in this time frame. In addition, two of this year's seniors have already earned their diplomas as well: FS Jered Bell (Sociology) and TE Kyle Slavin (Communication & Political Science). Over the last six years, minus the two players still in school, 104 of the last 111 have graduated (93.7%), and starting with the 2006 senior class, 141 of 153 have earned degrees (92.2%). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.682 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2014 semester is its second-highest on record (with the semester GPA of 2.564 the seventh straight term with a 2.50 or better).

YOUTH

Colorado had 71 players out of its 105 in August camp as underclassmen – 44 freshmen and 27 sophomores. That ranked the Buffs as the youngest team in the Pac-12 Conference and the 11th youngest in the nation. Here's the list for top 25 schools with the most underclassmen in camp for 2014 (freshmen and sophomore numbers include redshirts):

YOUTH, PART II

The quarterbacks on the Colorado roster have appeared in eight total career FBS games through the 2013 season; all eight games were by then-true freshman Sefo Liufau. He did make seven starts, which places him outside the top 25. But no other Buffalo has played a game at quarterback in his career heading into this season. Here's a look at those schools with the fewest career games played at the signal caller position entering 2014:

School	GP	GS	School	GP	GS	School	GP	GS
New Mexico State	0	0	Ball State	7	0	UCF	9	0
Troy	4	0	Idaho	7	7	LSU	9	1

2014 UNDERCLASSMEN ON OPENING DEPTH CHARTS

CU is currently tied for third in the nation for the most underclassmen (freshmen, redshirt frosh and all sophomores) on the 2014 opening day two-deeps with 28 players (11 freshmen, four true); that is tied for the most in the Pac-12 Conference with Utah. A closer look:

Oklahoma State	32	Wake Forest	28	San Jose State	26	Indiana	23	BYU	22	Southern Cal	21
Tulane	32	Texas A&M	27	Baylor	24	North Carolina	23	Texas-El Paso	22	Utah	21
Colorado	28	Arizona	26	Florida Int'l	24	Tulsa	23	East Carolina	21	Colorado State	20
Pittsburgh	28	Arizona State	26	Mississippi	24	Wisconsin	23	N.C. State	21	San Diego State	20
Utah	28	Florida	26	Temple	24	Boise State	22	Ohio State	21

And in concert with the above, the Buffs also are tied for the 15th fewest seniors in the two-deep with 12; Temple (6), Baylor (7) and Arizona State and Pittsburgh (8 each) top that list.

SON OF A BUFF

There are six current Buffaloes who are following in the legacies of their fathers, who at one time donned the CU football uniform. The legacies: OL Isaiah Holland (Darius, DT, 1991-94), DE Aaron Howard (Paul), OL Alex Kelley (Karry, OL, 1976-79), DE Derek McCartney (Shannon Clavelle, DT, 1993-95), DT Clay Norgard (Erik, C, 1987-88) and S Richard Yates (Scott, SS, 1976-79). Three others had cousins who previously lettered: TE Brian Boatman (Joe Liley, golf, 1998-2001), LB Deaysean Rippy (Doug Rippy, LB, 2009-12) and DB Evan White (J.J. Billingsley, SS, 2002-06).

THE BUFFS ON FRIDAY

Colorado has played 36 times on "TGIF," Friday, but only twice to open the season (and it's been 50 years since that last occurred); the Buffaloes are 14-21-1 on the last day of the work week, 4-7 in Boulder, 7-11-1 on the road, 3-3 at neutral sites (including 0-1 in Denver) and 4-4 in night games. Colorado opened the 1908 and 1964 seasons on a Friday; and an interesting note: CU's second-ever night game was played on a Friday, against Oklahoma State in Stillwater in 1933. Here's a look at the games:

2014 RULE CHANGES

A list of key tweaks by the NCAA rules committee for the upcoming season:

1. Targeting Fouls: Instant Replay Can Remove the 15-Yard Penalty.

Part of the penalty for targeting fouls is that the player is ejected from the game. In games where instant replay is used, the player is returned to the game if the video review shows conclusively that there was no forcible contact to the head and neck area or with the crown of the helmet. If this happens in 2014, and there is not another personal foul in combination with the targeting foul, then the 15-yard penalty is also erased. Examples of combination personal fouls include roughing the passer and kick or catch interference. In cases where such fouls are accompanied by a targeting call, the 15-yard penalty will still be enforced, even if the player's ejection is overturned.

2. Targeting Fouls in Games Without Instant Replay: Halftime Review.

In games where instant replay is not used, there is no opportunity for an immediate video review. A 2014 rule change now allows the referee to review a first-half foul at halftime when video is available at the game site. If this halftime review convinces the referee that the player should not have been ejected, he may return to the game for the second half. Such a review is optional. There must be a conference policy in place, or pregame agreement between the teams in inter-conference games, which specifies where the review will occur and what kind of video will be used. The decision of the referee is final and may not be appealed. Second-half targeting fouls may still be reviewed by appeal to the national coordinator of officials to determine whether the player is required to sit out the first half of his team's next game. This rule is unchanged from 2013.

3. Low Hits on the Passer. An extension of the rule for roughing the passer, a new rule in 2014 prohibits the defense from making forcible contact at the knee or below to an opponent who is in a passing posture. It is designed to eliminate knee injuries on plays where the defensive player forcibly drives a shoulder, helmet or forearm into the lower leg of the passer. This rule is not intended to prevent the defense from making a legitimate wrap-up tackle in which the contact is at or below the knee.

4. Player Numerals Must Contrast With the Jersey. Last year the rules committee clarified the rule requiring that the player's uniform number must clearly contrast with the jersey itself. During the 2013 season there was an interpretation that introduced a penalty for a team wearing a jersey that does not comply. This interpretation has now been codified as a rule.

Illegal Jerseys: The referee will ask teams to change into legal jerseys before the game begins. If the team does not change, it will be charged with a timeout. The same opportunity will be offered during the time between the first and second quarters, at halftime and at the beginning of the fourth quarter, and again a timeout will be charged each time the team does not comply. This means that a team could potentially burn four of its allotted six timeouts for the game because of the illegal jerseys.

SEASON OPENERS

Colorado is 77-42-5 in 124 season openers, with a 6-4-1 mark at neutral locations and seven wins in its last 11 openers. The Buffs are 12-7 against intra-state rival Colorado State when the Rams have been the opposition in the season opener. Seventeen of those games have been since 1985, with this marking the 15th time in the last 18 seasons CU opens the year with CSU. The Buffs have started a season just four times at home since 1997, those coming in 2004, 2005 and 2009 against the Rams and in 2001 when the Buffs dropped a 24-22 decision to Fresno State in the Jim Thorpe Association Classic. Prior to that defeat and the five openers in Denver against CSU, the Buffs had won eight straight season openers at home and were 10-0-1 between 1988 and 1998. CU was 9-6 in openers as a member of the Big 12 Conference and is 1-2 since joining the Pac-12.

➔ CU-CSU is actually one of the rare rivalry series played at the front end of the season; Missouri-Illinois recently opened against each other, as have Kentucky-Louisville, Maryland-Navy, Notre Dame-Purdue and former Southwest Conference rivals Texas-Rice and Texas Tech-SMU.

OPENERS AN INDICATOR?

As stated previously, Colorado is 77-42-5 in season openers; but have they been foretelling of the season ahead? Take a look:
 The 77 seasons CU has won its opener, the Buffs went on to post winning records 60 times (77.9%), with 16 losing seasons and one even;
 The 42 seasons CU has lost its opener, the Buffs are four under .500: posting winning records 19 times and a losing mark 23 times (with one even);
 The 5 seasons CU registered a tie in its opener, the Buffs had four winning records (including the 1990 national championship year), and one losing record.
 The general belief is that if you win your opener, you go on to have a winning season 70 percent of the time; thus CU exceeds that expectation in all three situations.

STREAKING INSIDE THE 20 (RED ZONE)

In the last seven season openers, the Buffaloes are 23-of-24 in the red zone (14 TDs, 9 FGs), having gone 3-of-3 against CSU last year. That followed a five year stretch between 2001 and 2005 where Colorado was just 11-of-18 (9 TDs, 2 FG). The Buffs were 3-of-4 inside-the-20 against Colorado State in 2012, 2-of-2 in 2011, 3-of-3 in 2010, 2-of-2 in 2009, 4-of-4 in 2007 and 2008 and 2-of-2 in 2006.

MEMORABLE CU OPENERS

Quite often, the first career start, or coming out party, is intertwined with making a season opener a memorable one. Perhaps the biggest example of this in Colorado history came in 1989, when sophomore Darian Hagan made his debut as CU's starting quarterback; he may or may not have won the job, but with senior Sal Aunese stricken with stomach cancer the previous March, Hagan was handed the keys to the CU offense. On the second play of the game, Hagan raced 75 yards on the option to the Texas 2, starting the Buffaloes on their way to a 27-6 win, the first triumph en route to an 11-0 record in the regular season. Hagan rushed for 116 yards and a touchdown, and passed for 95 yards and another score. Other memorable CU openers and/or game one performances include:

1913	Colorado 7, Wyoming	CU's first season opener outside the state, occurring in Laramie. The CU yearbook account stated that the "final tally probably would have been greater had not the Varsity been frequently penalized for off-side play."
1921	Colorado 10, Denver 7	Art Quinlan's 35-yard field goal gave CU an early 3-0 lead, though Denver, then known as the Ministers, rallied to take a 7-3 halftime lead. With less than seven minutes remaining, Quinlan and Walter Franklin teamed on a 40-yard TD pass.
1937	Colorado 14, Missouri 6	Erv Cheney scores both CU touchdowns, Byron White boots a still-CU record 83 yard punt, and for the first time in school history, there is a charge for parking on the Boulder campus (15 cents a game).
1953	Colorado 21, Washington 20	The Buffs, a two-touchdown underdog, win in Seattle as Homer Jenkins, in his first collegiate game, did it all in CU's single-wing offense to often fill in for an injured Carroll Hardy. Jenkins threw two TD passes to Gary Knafelc, while Emerson Wilson added 87 yards on the ground and a score.
1963	USC 14, Colorado 0	In Eddie Crowder's first game as head coach, CU opens for the only time in its history against the No. 1 team in the nation. The Buffs hold their own, limiting the Trojans to 230 yards on 75 plays (but have just 83 yards of its own).
1965	Colorado 0, Wisconsin 0	The Buffs and Badgers battle to a 0-0 tie in Madison, the third-to-last scoreless tie in Division I-A history as the two combine in "hot and sticky" conditions for just 496 yards of total offense.
1971	Colorado 31, LSU 21	Charlie Davis rushes for 174 yards and two TDs in win at No. 9 LSU, the catapult to a 10-2 season and No. 3 rank.
1977	Colorado 27, Stanford 21	Former longtime (1989-2012) CU linebacker coach Brian Cabral goes nuts as he racks up 25 tackles in CU's win.
1979	Oregon 33, Colorado 19	The Buffs fall in the much ballyhooed first game for new head coach Chuck Fairbanks; it's also the first game televised by a fledgling sports network named ESPN that went on the air one day earlier.
1981	Colorado 45, Texas Tech 27	Walter Stanley hauled down five catches for a CU record 222 (it still stands today), as CU's first game after a 1-10 season in 1980 exorcises some demons. Randy Essington throws for 345 yards in the win.
1989	Colorado 27, Texas 6	In addition to Hagan's effort (see above) the CU defense stifled Texas in limiting the Longhorns to 268 yards.
1990	Colorado 31, Tennessee 31	Mike Pritchard subs for Eric Bieniemy at tailback and rushes for a CU season opener record of 217 yards as the Buffs open what would be their national championship season with a tie against Tennessee in Anaheim in the inaugural Disneyland Pigskin Classic.
1992	Colorado 37, Colorado St. 17	Kordell Stewart takes over from Darian Hagan and passes for 409 and 4 TDs in the win over the Rams.
1995	Colorado 43, Wisconsin 7	The NFL plucked off 10 CU '94 starters in the April draft, but new coach Rick Neuheisel readied the Buffs in fine fashion as CU drilled Wisconsin in Madison. Koy Detmer threw for 267 yards and three TDs as CU built a 26-7 halftime lead.
1998	Colorado 42, Colorado St. 14	Mike Moschetti throws for 257 yards and 3 TDs in his first CU game and the first contest between the two in-state rivals in Denver at the old Mile High Stadium.
2003	Colorado 42, Colorado St. 35	Joel Klatt comes in unsung and exits as the national player-of-the-week as he threw for 402 yards and 4 TDs in a 42-35 thriller over the Rams. CSU pulls even late, but Bobby Purify's 9-yard TD run wins it with :40 left.
2004	Colorado 27, Colorado St. 24	CU led the entire way, but CSU had a chance to steal it at the end; the Rams had a first-and-goal at the CU 1 with just under a minute left, but the Buffalo defense rose to the occasion and stuffed two plays, the last as time ran out, to seal the win. The Rams had fought back from 17-0 and 27-17 deficits.
2005	Colorado 31, Colorado St. 28	Mason Crosby drilled a 47-yard field goal with four seconds left to rally CU to the win. The Buffs trailed 21-10 early in the fourth quarter, having tied the game at 21 on a 48-yard Crosby kick with 2:32 left. CU turned an interception into the go-ahead touchdown, a 23-yard run by Hugh Charles, with 1:30 remaining, but CSU rallied with an 80-yard TD drive to tie the game with 36 ticks to go on the clock. Stephone Robinson returned the kickoff to the 40 and three plays later, the Buffs were in position for Crosby's winning kick, as the teams scored 20 points in just 152 seconds.
2007	Colorado 31, Colorado St. 28 (overtime)	It had to happen eventually, as the CU-CSU series had been oh so close but lacked an overtime affair. No longer; Kevin Eberhart's 22-yard field goal tied the game at 28 with 0:13 left and then made a 35-yard boot in the first OT to lead CU to the win. Cody Hawkins debuted at quarterback and completed 18-of-31 passes for 201 yards and two scores, with another frosh redshirt, Scotty McKnight catching eight of those for 106 yards and a TD. CU rallied from 11 down late in the third quarter and likely sealed the Rams' fate after Terrence Wheatley's end zone interception in OT.
2013	Colorado 41, Colorado State 27	Paul Richardson caught 10 passes for 208 yards and two touchdowns and Connor Wood completed 33-of-46 passes for 400 yards to enable Mike MacIntyre to win in his first game as CU's head coach, just the second to do since 1932.

24-1 WHEN SCORING FIRST IN A SEASON OPENER SINCE 1967

Colorado has won 24 of its last 25 season openers when scoring first, which included a 20-game winning streak from 1967 through 2005; the Buffs had that run snapped in 2006 by Montana State (the Buffs went up 3-0 on a 24-yard field goal by Mason Crosby, but soon found themselves in a dogfight and succumbed to the Bobcats, 19-10. MSU scored the last 13 points of the game as CU could never get untracked offensively). Otherwise, you have go back to 1966 to find the last time the Buffs scored first and lost an opener (CU scored its only points of the game on a field goal in a 24-3 loss to Miami, Fla.). The other 22 openers in this span? CU is 4-17-1 when the opponent scored first, with the wins coming in 1969 (a 35-14 win over Tulsa after falling behind 7-0), in 1995 (a 48-13 win over NE Louisiana after spotting NLU a 3-0 lead), in 2003 (the 42-35 conquest of CSU after the Rams jumped ahead 7-0) and in 2005 (a 31-28 win over CSU after the Rams got the jump up late in the first quarter by 7-0). CU has now won four straight openers it has scored first in.

DEBUTS

Colorado has two redshirt freshmen running backs (TB Phillip Lindsay, FB George Frazier) on its opening 2014 depth chart, both likely to see action in the season opener. There have been seven occasions where a player rushed for at least 100 yards in his first game as a running back for the Buffaloes, five doing so in the first game they ever took the field (see notations on two exceptions). Here are the 19 efforts of 50 yards or more by a running back in their first game in a CU uniform (note: freshmen were ineligible from 1953-1971; ^—at Anaheim; #—in Denver):

TRUE FROSH WATCH

If any true freshmen start in the opener against Colorado State, they'll crack a very short list of Buffaloes who have started as true or redshirt freshmen on either offense or defense (in addition to eight specialists: five placekickers and three return men). Just nine known true freshmen in CU history have started in the opening game of the season; here are those who were thrown into the fray on the first play from scrimmage:

TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming), ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State); CB Greg Henderson, 2011 (at Hawai'i); CB Kenneth Crawley, 2012 (Colorado State); and ILB Addison Gillam, 2013 (Colorado State).

Add a 10th for the first play of the game/season on special teams (kickoff coverage team): PK Kevin Eberhart (kicked off vs. Colorado State in Denver).

Since 1950, CU has averaged 5.3 yards on the first play from scrimmage. Of the 64 plays for 340 yards, CU has passed just 13 times (completing nine). CU has not scored on the first play from scrimmage in this time frame, and has just one turnover (lost fumble) on the first play of the year (in 1990; *—at Anaheim; #—in Denver). NOTES: CU did score the first time it touched the ball in the 1975 season opener. Mike McCoy returned a California punt 61 yards for a touchdown two minutes into the game. The last time Colorado scored on its first offensive play of any game was at Texas A&M on Sept. 28, 1996. Rae Carruth scored from 28 yards out on a reverse after CU recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff.

SERIES HISTORY—CU VS. COLORADO STATE

Colorado leads the all-time series by a 62-21-2 count; the Buffaloes have won eight of the last 11 after giving Mike MacIntyre a win in his inaugural game at the reins of the program with a 41-27 win in Denver last year (in the process, MacIntyre joined Rick Neuheisel as the only two coaches of the last 15 to win their opener as the Buff boss). Seven of the last eight games have been in Denver, the only exception was in 2009, when CSU hung on in Boulder for a 23-17 win (its first at Folsom Field since 1986). The six games between 2002-07 were some of the most thrilling in the series, decided by just 25 points combined (all of which came down to the final minute, if not the final seconds), with the last of those half dozen being a 31-28 overtime win by Colorado in 2007, the first game in the series that went into an extra session. The teams split the first go-round of games in Denver (1998-2003) with CU taking the next series of three by 2-1 (2006-08); this is the fifth game of 10 currently scheduled through 2019 in Denver, where CU now leads 8-5. Colorado also leads 31-9-1 in Boulder and 23-7-1 in Fort Collins. This is the 11th straight game in the series where neither team is ranked, though between 1989 and 2003 at least one team was among the nation's top 25. CU coach Mike MacIntyre is 3-0 against CSU (1-0 at Colorado, plus a 38-31 win in Fort Collins in 2011 and a 40-20 verdict in 2012 when he was the head coach at San Jose State), while CSU head coach Jim McElwain is 1-1 against Colorado.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—The 1910 game, listed for years as a 10-0 CSU win, was actually never played? CU refused to travel to Fort Collins to play because CSU had a player who had previously played professionally, which has never been disputed (whatever that meant in the pre-NFL days).

SERIES DID YOU KNOW II?—The first game in the series, a challenge game in February 1893, was incorrectly listed for years as being played on Feb. 10; CSU unearthed some past stories that showed the game was played on the next day, Feb. 11.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 60th. In 1954, the Buffaloes single-wing offense was running full throttle as CU defeated CSU in Boulder, 46-0. Colorado amassed 415 yards rushing on just 41 attempts, with Frank Bernardi (five carries, 152 yards, 2 touchdowns) and Carroll Hardy (six carries, 100 yards, 2 TDs) accounting for 252 of those yards on just 11 tries. Bernardi scored on runs of 68 and 60 yards (with five tackles and a PBU on defense) with Hardy galloping over the goal line on runs of 84 and 14 yards. CU had 479 yards overall to 171 by the Rams, despite committing three turnovers to CSU's one; the long plays kept first downs close, as CU had a slight 13-12 edge. The Buffs led 14-0 after the first quarter and 20-0 at halftime.

COLORADO 41, COLORADO STATE 27

SEPTEMBER 1, 2013

SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — The Colorado Buffaloes rumbled into the Mike MacIntyre era with a gutsy 41-27 victory against rival Colorado State in the Rocky Mountain Showdown.

In his first game in CU's multiple/pistol offense, Connor Wood completed 33-of-46 passes for 400 yards and three touchdowns. Two of the TD passes — 82 and 75 yards — went to Paul Richardson, playing in his first game after sitting out last season with a knee injury.

And with the CU defense needing a big play in Sports Authority Field at Mile High, Greg Henderson delivered a monstrous one. With the Buffs cradling a 26-24 lead early in the fourth quarter, he scooped up a CSU fumble and raced 53 yards to score.

The Buffs couldn't have had a more effective start — scoring on their second play from scrimmage — an 82-yard Wood-to-Richardson pass.

After his PAT pushed CU ahead 7-0, Oliver then kicked a 22-yard field goal in the final minute of the first quarter and the Buffs were up 10-0. CSU's first points then came courtesy of a 39-yard Jared Roberts field goal three plays into the second quarter, cutting CU's advantage to 10-3 with 14:17 left before intermission.

It took nearly 11 minutes for either team to score again, but in the final 3:56 of the half CU got 10 points and CSU seven. Wood drove the Buffs 63 yards in seven plays, hitting D.D. Goodson in the back of the end zone with an 18-yard touchdown.

CSU answered immediately with a seven-play, 74-yard march capped by Kapri Bibbs' first career TD — a 7-yard run around left end. Roberts' extra point brought the Rams to within 17-10 and the Buffs had 1:13 remaining to respond.

Starting at his own 25, Wood used six plays to cover 51 yards and position Oliver for a 41-yard field goal on the first half's final play. The Buffs trotted to their locker room holding a 10-point lead (20-10).

CU accepted the second-half kickoff and was forced to give the ball back to CSU. Darragh O'Neill's punt traveled 46 yards, but sophomore Joe Hansley's return covered 74 — and the Rams suddenly were down only by three points (20-17).

With momentum swinging to CSU, CU needed an answer — and the Buffs drove as far as the Rams' 24-yard line before a holding call snuffed the drive. The Buffs forced a punt and this time marched to the Rams 18-yard line, where the drive stalled again but Oliver connected on a 44-yard field and CU increased its lead to 23-17.

CSU got another long return — this one 84 yards by junior Thomas Coffman on Oliver's kickoff — and set up at the CU 16-yard line. It took three plays to score, with Bibbs running 2 yards to give the Rams their first lead of the afternoon, 24-23, with 2:51 left in the third quarter.

When CU's ensuing drive stalled at the CSU 35-yard line, Oliver tied a career-long kick with a 52-yarder, giving the Buffs a 26-24 lead with 13:07 remaining.

Grayson moved the Rams to mid-field and on second down hit Bibbs across the middle for a short gain — but he couldn't escape Chidera Uzo-Diribe's strip, which Henderson scooped up and raced 53 yards to put CU up 33-24.

CSU again responded with 3:47 to play as a 30-yard Roberts filed goal allowed the Rams to pull within 33-27.

Wood and Richardson then delivered again — this time connecting for a 75-yard score. For good measure, Wood hit Goodson for the two-point conversion and the Buffs had their largest lead of the game — 41-27, which would eventually become the final.

WHO WILL IT BE IN 2014?

In each of the last four seasons, there has been at least one freshman on defense who has cracked the 300-play mark in snaps played from scrimmage. Just 15 true freshmen have played over 300 snaps from scrimmage on defense in CU history, but nine of those joined the list the last four seasons. In 2013, Addison Gillam and CB/N Chidobe Awuzie became the latest true freshmen to make a splash on defense for the Buffaloes. Current junior CB Greg Henderson set the record in 2011 with 823 plays, with now-sophomore CB Kenneth Crawley second at the time with 642 in 2012. Gillam broke Henderson's record and played 838 snaps this fall, while Awuzie became the 14th true frosh to crack the 300-play barrier, and finished third on the list with 643. And with S Tedric Thompson seeing a lot of late season action subbing for an injured Parker Orms, he finished with 323 to crack the list and finish with the 12th most snaps played. A closer look at the most snaps played by true defensive freshmen (minimum 300):

Addison Gillam, ILB (2013)	838	Terrel Smith, S (2010)	414	Tedric Thompson, SS (2013)	323

LETTERMEN PICTURE

Colorado has 48 lettermen returning for 2014 (45 from the 2013 team, with an additional three from the 2012 season); they break down into 21 on offense, 27 on defense and two specialists; the Buffs lose 25 lettermen off the 2013 squad (10 offense/13 defense/2 specialists). CU returns 15 starters from last season (7 offense/8 defense), losing 7 (4 offense/3 defense); several positions had multiple personnel shuttle in and out, so there are several other players back with starting experience. The 2013 starters are listed in bold (six or more starts, thus occasionally two players listed at same position if they shared time due to injury or rotated), and (*) denotes letters earned primarily on special teams. 2014 CAPTAINS

Head coach Mike MacIntyre named Colorado's captains for the 2014 season prior to the spring game on April 12, just the second time in recent memory the Buffaloes had their captains selected heading into summer workouts. There are six in all, three players each on offense and defense, and for the first time in program history, it includes a sophomore – and not just one, but two. The captains were selected by a vote of their teammates at a Friday night meeting prior to the spring game and team was informed the next morning. Seniors OT Daniel Munyer, DT Juda Parker and S Terrel Smith, junior WR Nelson Spruce and sophomores ILB Addison Gillam and QB Sefo Liufau (quarterback) rounded out the rest of the choices. MacIntyre said he's never been in a program where two sophomores have been named captains adding, "It was pretty impressive for their leadership as sophomores."

TB/FB Christian Powell became the 50th player in Colorado history rush for 1,000 or more yards in a career, as in 18 career games, he has 1,140; TB Tony Jones is closing in (866) with Michael Adkins (535) in position to make a run at joining this list as well. Oklahoma tops the list with 70. The all-time leaders in the number of players who have reached the career 1K plateau:

BALL SECURITY

Colorado running backs didn't have a fumble until the ninth game last year at Washington—the first and only one by any in the group and it did not occur until the 254th carry. Heading into 2014, Christian Powell has just two fumbles in 320 career touches (305 rushes), Tony Jones also has only two in 288 (214 rushes) and Michael Adkins II none in 116 touches (103 rushes).

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 296, Pittsburgh is 27th with 292), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the new College Football Playoff come this winter will include the top four teams; only USC, with 11, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 17TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 17th most in the nation in this time frame (25 seasons). Florida State has the most (74), followed by Florida (72), Ohio State (69), Michigan (63), Alabama (62), LSU (59), Miami, Fla. (57), Southern Cal (57), Oklahoma (55), Tennessee (53), Texas (49), Auburn (47), Georgia (47), Notre Dame (47), Penn State (47), Oregon (46), Nebraska (45) and Colorado (43). As for the Pac-12, after USC, Oregon and CU, the next schools on the list are UCLA (43) and Washington (42). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the fifth most ranked teams in the nation (117, with a record of 43-72-2), trailing only Florida (135), LSU (125), Ohio State (120) and Michigan (119). (AP polls used for these figures as the coaches' poll omits teams on probation but the AP does not.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- CU has lost 14 straight against ranked teams (last win: 34-30 over Kansas in 2009); the Buffs have lost 21 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

OLIVER AGAIN CANDIDATE FOR LOU GROZA AWARD

PK Will Oliver enjoyed a fine junior year in 2013 and was named one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award, handed out annually to the nation's top placekicker (he did not advance to the finalist stage). Oliver connected on 17-of-24 field goal attempts (71 percent), including makes from 53 (career-long) and 52 yards out, and was perfect on extra points for the second straight year, the first player in CU history to make all his PAT kicks in two straight seasons (he has a string of 60 in a row). He also doubled as the regular kickoff specialist for the first time in his career, making his achievements as a placekicker that much more impressive.

MOST CONSECUTIVE PAT KICKS MADE

66	Ken Culbertson, Nov. 5, 1988 to Nov. 19, 1989 (14 games)	52	Neil Voskeritchian, Nov. 12, 1994 to Nov. 18, 1995 (13 games)
60	Will Oliver, Nov. 25, 2011 to Nov. 30, 2013 (21 games)	42	Jim Harper, Aug. 26, 1990 to Sept. 7, 1991 (13 games)
57	Mason Crosby, Nov. 13, 2004 to Nov. 24, 2006 (21 games)

Mike MacIntyre is in his second season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, his fifth season as a collegiate head coach; he has a 4-8 record at Colorado and is 20-29 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. A veteran coach of 23 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ MacIntyre, 49, has coached in a total of 305 football games in his career (49 as a head coach): 146 in NCAA Division I (and another 23 as a grad assistant at Georgia); 82 as a full-time assistant coach in the National Football League; 54 in NCAA Division I-AA (at the time).
- ◆ He became just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins. Rick Neuheisel was the last to do both (in 1995).
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.
- ◆ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received my Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterbacks learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ◆ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" – Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:
Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility;
Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. CU's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates – on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;
Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;
Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.
- ◆ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "I'm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- ◆ Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game (in both 2013 and 2014). MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- ◆ On players having to be ready at a moment's notice to go into the game: "It's the only game in the world where you have 100 guys on the side watching just eleven in the game at any one time. So you're like the dog sitting on the porch. When that rabbit runs by, you've got to be ready to go."
- ◆ On playing music at practice: "Bill Belichick, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ◆ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ Unhappy that he had gained weight since his playing days, slowly adding one a few pounds here and there over the years (and of course recruiting season never helps when the coaches often eat two or even three dinners at various recruits' homes), he decided to do something about it. After the 2013 season, he read the book, Why Diets Fail; he started to eat much healthier, consumer either one or two nutrition-rich shakes a day (as replacement meals) and increased his workout regimen. The end result was that after six months, he dropped 60 pounds (he's 10 pounds under his college playing weight of 175-180).
- ◆ MacIntyre is a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll (also did so in 2012), as coaches are now selected by a random draw (he was not drawn for 2013). CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 25 of the last 28 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million. This past February, CU's Board of Regents approved a one-year extension through the 2018 season.

HEAD COACH MIKE MACINTYRE CONTINUED

- ◆ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- ◆ He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MACINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked. I wish Mike all the best at CU."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

THE CLASS OF '13

For the 2013 season, 31 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 14 of whom (denoted by an *) were first-time head coaches on the collegiate level. Here's a look at what coaches make up the "class of 2013" and their records entering the 2014 season:

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are special teams coordinator Toby Neinas, offensive line coach Gary Bernardi, safeties coach Charles Clark, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat and receivers coach Troy Walters. Defensive coordinator Kent Baer, offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, running backs/tight ends coach Klayton Adams and cornerbacks coach Andy LaRussa are in the press box. Also upstairs will be the quality control coaches, Omar Young and Joe Bleymaier and graduate assistants A.J. Baer and Nate Teye; signaling in plays when not brought in by substituting players are graduate assistants Patrick Williams (offense) and J.B. Hall (defense).

A FIRST SINCE 1979

Colorado has had six head coach changes dating back to when Bill McCartney was named head coach in 1982. He retained Buck Nystrom as offensive line coach (and kept Mike McNeely as an assistant linebacker coach, though he had worked in administration and recruiting). In the next four coaching changes, all kept at least one assistant on staff: Rick Neuheisel (Brian Cabral, Jon Embree, Ben Gregory, Chuck Heater, Terry Lewis), Gary Barnett (Cabral, Embree, Tom Cable), Dan Hawkins (Cabral, Darian Hagan), and Jon Embree (Cabral). Mike MacIntyre interviewed several of the assistants, but in the end brought in all new full-time assistant coaches. The last time that occurred was in 1979, when Chuck Fairbanks took over for Bill Mallory.

➔ But for just the third since 1988, the entire full-time staff returns intact, just the second time a first-year staff didn't have any changes (joining CU's 2012 group under Jon Embree).

FIRST & SECOND YEAR COACHING COMPARISONS

Only two coaches had winning records in their first season at CU since 1944 (Frank Potts, 6-2), which is fairly common nationally since they're more often than not coming into a rebuilding situation. Going back to Dal Ward's inaugural year (1948, when CU became a member of the Big Seven Conference), only two of CU's 12 coaches had winning records, with a third posting a .500 mark. All time, Bill Mallory is the coach that had the most improvement in W-L record from year one to year two, going 9-3 in 1975 after a 5-6 mark his first year (+4); That's followed by William Saunders (+3½, 1932-33), Dan Hawkins (+3½, 2006-07), Jim Yeager (+3, 1941-42), Bill McCartney (+1½, 1982-83) and Sonny Grandelius (+1, 1959-60).

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

The last four CU head coaches all have or have had media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) is a studio host on the Pac-12 Network; Gary Barnett (1999-2005) is an analyst on Sports USA Radio with some other independent appearances; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) is an analyst for ESPN and co-hosts a national radio show on SiriusXM with Jack Arute. Bill McCartney (1982-94) hosted a radio show last year on 102.3 FM in Denver.

JEFFCOAT'S PEDIGREE: RUSHING AND GETTING TO THE QB

Defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

CU'S BAER IN THE ORIENT

Kent Baer, who joined CU as its defensive coordinator in 2013, used his involvement with the military in the 1970s to create an all-star game in 1989 in Japan that has lasted 25 years; it draws 20-30,000 fans annually. Baer served as the director of athletics and recreation for the commander of United States Naval Forces in Japan along with serving as the head coach for the Yokosuka Seahawks from 1973-1976 (a member of a service league featuring military bases). With this background, Baer created the Heisei Bowl (now the New Era Bowl) as the annual all-star game played annually on the first Saturday of July. Baer coordinates the selection of two American coaches and a dozen U.S. players who are integrated to practice and then play with two Japanese All-Star teams.

In the late 1980s, Baer was brainstorming ways to improve Japanese coaching techniques when he hit on the idea of this cultural exchange. Coaches from all the Pac-10 (now Pac-12) staffs have joined Baer along with individuals from Michigan, Notre Dame and Army. Japanese interest in football has been whetted by various U.S. excursions to the Far East. The old Mirage Bowl in the 1980s featured two Pac-10 teams playing their last game of the regular season in Tokyo. After that, there was the Coca Cola Bowl, also part of the regular schedule. From 1976 to 1993, there was the Japan Bowl, a postseason all-star game of U.S. players. Before joining the CU staff this past winter, Baer continued to be involved with the armed services as he coached San Jose State to a 29-20 win over Bowling Green in the Military Bowl.

TWO NEW TRADITIONS BEGUN IN 2013

Mike MacIntyre has installed a couple of new traditions that began in earnest prior to the Central Arkansas game: when the team takes the field, one player carries out a toolbox and another a sledgehammer (the players will vote on who gets the nod). MacIntyre did this at San Jose State with a sword (because they were the Spartans) and the sledgehammer. The toolbox is representative of the commitment the players have made to each other and the team as a whole; now, there aren't actual tools in the box, rather it contains "commitment cards" where each player wrote down something of significance he will do in the game. So when they view the toolbox during the game, it will serve as a reminder of that commitment. The sledgehammer goes to the big hit of the previous game (the biggest or most important "legal" hit – the play cannot draw a penalty). The winners:

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 76 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including seven active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Mike MacIntyre and his oldest son, Jay; Colorado is one of a handful of schools to have it happen twice, as Dan Hawkins had son Cody on his CU teams from 2007-10.

Perhaps the most famous and best head coach father and son tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career). Note: another famous combo was at Marshall, when they were a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

A FIRST? We polled the nation on two occasions, and no other instance has yet to turn up where a head coach had his father as a head coach in college and then had a son on a team that he is the head coach. But that appears to be the case with Mike MacIntyre, who was coached by his father George at Vanderbilt in 1984-85 and is now coaching his son, Jay, at Colorado.

There are currently seven schools where a player is playing for his head coach father: Boston College, Colorado, Iowa, Iowa State, Middle Tennessee, Utah and Wisconsin. Here's a look at the all-time list of known head coaching father-player son pairings at the same school (#—denotes active):

While this is the first time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons) and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

STAFF STABILITY

For just the third time since 1988, the entire Buffalo coaching staff will return intact; there were no changes in 2009 (Dan Hawkins' fourth CU team) and again in 2012 (Jon Embree's second). And it's just the second time since 1974 that a first-time CU head coach returns all his full-timers (Bill Mallory's group at that time), as Embree's staff was on that list as well. Perhaps with so many young players in the program, now more than ever is consistency in the coaching ranks a welcome non-change. Nationally, just 20 programs did not undergo at least one change, led by Baylor and Northwestern, who have the same full-time coaching staff for a fourth straight year. The list:

4—Baylor, Northwestern. 2—Arizona, Auburn, Boston College, BYU, Clemson, Colorado, Colorado State, Iowa, Kansas State, UL-Lafayette, Michigan State, Mississippi, San Diego State, South Carolina, Tennessee, UNLV, UTEP, Washington State.

TRENDS

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 197-152-4; in these 353 games spanning the last 29 seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

◆ with 400-plus yards total offense	114-25-2	◆ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	92-20-1

TRENDS III

Mike MacIntyre took over the Buffalo program this season, so the trend watch is wide open, but here's a start in his one game as head coach (4-8 record):

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 25 seasons. A closer look:

	Turnovers		+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers

BYE ... IDLE ... OFF

Whatever your pleasure in calling a week off after the season has begun, Colorado is 21-17 since 1985 right around the time bye weeks started to come into vogue (the only other season that featured an open weekend between 1967 and 1985 was in 1979). Only seven non-conference games had a break prior; CU has won all five home non-league games after bye in this time frame: Stanford (1990), Wisconsin (1994), Wyoming (1997), WVU (2008) and Georgia (2010); the two losses both came on the road, at Miami-Fla. (2005) and at West Virginia (2009). CU lost to UCLA after its first Pac-12 league schedule bye in 2011 and to Oregon State last year.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 539 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford. Now one streak remains:

- CU has scored in 146 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 296 games (all the way back to 1963).

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 146 times in 238 tries, including 25 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the "two-minute offense" drill since 1988; that's 61 percent of the time. That included 3-of-4 this year (field goal vs. CSU, TD at Oregon State, TD vs. Cal) and 3-of-7 in 2012 (the highlight being the winning TD drive at Washington State). CU was 3-of-8 in 2011: field goals versus Cal (end of regulation) and Washington State (first half); and a first half TD vs. CSU and were 2-of-9 in the drill in 2010 (scoring first half TDs at Kansas and versus Kansas State). 2009 was a good year for the drill (9-of-14) which included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 37-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 225 of 251 times, losing 23 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 28 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were three in 2012 to Utah (leading 28-20 after three), Sacramento State (led 28-24 entering the quarter and lost on a field goal at the gun) and to CSU (led 17-16 with 13:27 remaining); and two in 2011 to Washington State (led 27-17 early in the fourth) and California (led 27-23 early in fourth). The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 109 of its last 127 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 37 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent are the first two games of the '13 season (CSU led briefly 26-24 late in the third quarter and into the fourth; UCA led 24-17, also early in the fourth); the two previous to those came by the same score: this year at Washington State (won 35-34 after trailing 31-14 with 8:07 left) and in 2009 against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining). Two big ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2012, the Buffaloes started its fewest seniors believed ever (17.8%) and a record number of freshmen (28.0%; 21.6% true frosh). HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes finished their 124th season of competition having played 1,186 games with an all-time record of 679-471-36. CU currently stands 23rd on the all-time win list and is 32nd in all-time winning percentage (.588; those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 124 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,196), with only USC (796) and Washington (687) having won more games (USC, UW and Arizona State only own higher winning percentages than the Buffs).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 300-160-10 in 90 seasons on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-5 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Colorado has won only 25 games over the last six-plus seasons, but in 10 of those games, the Buffs rallied from 10 or more points down, the last of which was in 2012. Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. Three occurred in 2010 and three back in 2007, with three in-between. Eight have taken place in Boulder, with the ninth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State with the Washington State comeback the first on the road; it turned into the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 34 occasions (and are 26-8 in games when this occurs). The last time it happened was against Charleston Southern this year, when TB Michael Adkins rushed for 137 yards and WR Paul Richardson hauled in eight passes for 122 yards. It's the third time CU's done it as a member of the Pac-12: in 2012, TB Tony Jones rushed for 105 yards and a touchdown with WR Nelson Spruce snaring eight passes for 103 yard and TD at Washington State. Against Arizona in 2011, TB Rodney Stewart rushed for 181 yards and WR Toney Clemons had 115 receiving yards. In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 164 of the 2014 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion project underway, the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands are undergoing a complete redesign. When all is said and done come the season opener on September 13, capacity will likely drop somewhere in the 3,000-seat range. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2013 was 239,778, an average of 38,296 for six home games, which was down from the 2012 average of 45,373 (mainly because there were less total giveaways). It does mark the 19th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 37th time in the last 39 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (CU's season ticket count in 2013 was just under 28,000 when adding in 8,362 student holders, as those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-2013 Record	Mike MacIntyre Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-52-2	8-20-1	0-1	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-88-3	14-34-2	0-1	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-114-3	20-48-2	0-1	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	69-151-3	43-72-2	0-3	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 93-79 in its last 172 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 80-36 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 72-40-1 in its last 113 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 537-264-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest however came in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run. And two did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998) and Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Entering the 2014 season, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 472 CU games in his career, including the last 245 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (526) has called more games than Zim, who is tied for fourth in consecutive years calling major college football (41st) behind Robertson (48), Bill Hillgrove, Pitt (45) and Don Fischer, Indiana (42). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he has called 556 college games in all, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for Colorado State).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006, rejoined the department this past summer and he has worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he's seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). SID Dave Plati has worked 407 overall including the last 365 (dating to the '83 finale). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94. STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 42nd year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 19th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado had 12 healthy seniors on its roster in 2013, and if history is any kind of indication, they'll get plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League. Scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so in 2012. Last year, 22 teams had scouts witness the Buffs in person at games: Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Miami, Minnesota, New England, N.Y. Jets, N.Y. Giants, Oakland, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Diego, San Francisco, Seattle and Tennessee (as well as British Columbia in the Canadian Football League). Not including camps, 652 scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 (home, road and neutral sites).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 12 former Colorado Buffaloes on preseason National Football League rosters as of August 25; there were 12 on the rosters at the end of the 2013 season (14 at the end of 2012, 15 at the end of 2011, 18 in 2010 and 22 in 2009). CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; a—active/physically unable to perform; i—on injured reserve; p—practice squad):

DAD PLAYED ON SUNDAYS: Three players are the sons of former National Football League players: DL Terran Hasselbach (father Harald played with Washington and Denver); DL Derek McCartney (father Shannon Clavelle, Green Bay); and ILB Clay Norgard (father Erik, 11 years with the Houston Oilers).

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the five who head prep programs: Matt Flavin (Buena Vista), Phil Jackson (Sierra), Dave Logan (Cherry Creek), Mike Marquez (Thornton), Bill Mondt (Eaton) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver); in addition, Bob Simmons, a member of Bill McCartney's staff from 1988-94, is the head coach at Boulder High and McCartney's second son, Tom McCartney, is the head coach at Boulder Fairview and was a one-time grad assistant for the Buffs ... when Simmons was also on the staff. And Mark Nolan, the head coach at Regis, was Dan Hawkins administrative assistant for two years.

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 27 of 37 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (80 percent of the entire roster—active, those reporting the first day of class and inactive—as of August 25: 90 of 112 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 55, Colorado 26, Texas 9, Hawai'i 4, Arizona 2, New Jersey 2, New York 2, Utah 2, Idaho 1, Michigan 1, Mississippi 1, New Mexico 1, Pennsylvania 1, Washington 1. That's 14 states total along with the District of Columbia (3) and MEXICO that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Six Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: PK Diego Gonzalez (Monterrey, Mexico), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England), OL Alex Kelley (Madrid, Spain; his parents were living there working as missionaries), DL Stephane Nembot (Douala, Cameroon), P Darragh O'Neill (Cork, Ireland) and CB Yuri Wright (Saint Vincent and the Grenadines in the Caribbean).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 305-17-1 when scoring 30 or more points (two such losses in 2012), along with records of 217-6 with 35-plus points and 200-4 with 36-plus, 177-3 with 38-plus and 113-1 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009) and Kansas (52-45 in 2010). CU has played 1,186 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 106-88-3 in its last 197 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 4-23 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 125 of its last 301 games, posting a 112-12-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 195 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 23-87-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. But the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979.
 - ➔ Things did not change in Jon Embree's two seasons: in 2011, the Buffs averaged 4.8 yards on first down for 13 games, though averaged over six yards three times (two of those wins); in 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2013, the Buffs enjoyed their best season on first down in years: CU averaged over six yards in seven games and 5.83 for the season overall, its best since 2001 (6.7).
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 53 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 183 games (season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 74 scores by return in 232 games (67 regular season, seven bowl). After none in 2012, CU had five in 2013.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 17 times in the last 182 games (and 38 times in the last 257, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 43-3 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 51-6 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 75-77 in its last 152 games on grass, including a 47-44 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass.
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 94-52-3 in its last 149 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 61-38-3 mark in conference games. CU was 0-3 this year and was 1-2 on the fake stuff in 2012.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, that number was 14.1 in 2005, 10.2; in 2006, 12.0; in 2007, 14.0; in 2008, 9.7 (the only time under 10 in this span); in 2009, 15.7; in 2010, 12.3; in 2011, opponents gained 1,000 yards on 73 makes (13.7 per), with eight TDs (18.0 per) and just 146 yards on the 83 misses (1.6).
 - ➔ In 2012, it appeared the trend was reversing through three games, but conference play did the Buffs in; for the year, opponents gained 810 yards on 66 makes (12.3 per) and 128 yards on the other 84 plays (1.5).
 - ➔ In 2013, opponents gained 815 yards on their 73 conversions (11.2 per), and 115 on the 115 misses (1.0); excludes a 19-yard play with a hold.
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-1 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, losing for the first time against Cal in 2011 (36-33 in OT). The previous last two occurrences of this were in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. In these 15 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 633-320, with only four games decided by less than 17 points (Cal in 2011, a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ Opponents have made 123-of-155 field goals dating back to 2006 (79.4 percent), including 16-of-18 in 2013. The high percentage might be a byproduct of CU's defensive success at times inside its own 25, as the foe is 88-of-100 (88.0) on kicks inside the 40. In the same span, CU is 93-of-149 (62.4).
- ➔ In 2009, one of the most all-time perplexing stats to ever come across these pages showed that the Buff defense was likely to shut you down four times in five. But that fifth time was one of the reasons CU went 3-9: example—Missouri gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on its other 56. That was practically the case for every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent picked up 3,027 of its 4,356 yards on 142 plays, averaging 21.3 yards for those plays; the other 663 plays netted 1,329, or 2.00 per try; it all added up to 17.6 percent of opponent plays gaining 69 percent of the yardage.
 - ➔ As Lee Corso would say, in 2010, not so fast, my friend; CU allowed 50 plays over 20 yards, totaling 1,633 yards; basically 6.2 percent of the plays producing 34 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2011, opponents had 75 plays of 20-plus yards that collectively gained 2,191 yards (29.2 per); the other 793 gained 3,520 (4.4); thus 8.6 percent of the plays gained 38.4 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2012, the opponent had 81 plays of 20 yards or longer, gaining 2,511 yards (31.0 per); the other 743 plays netted 3,351 yards (4.5 per).
 - ➔ In 2013, things changed a bit at the start, but in the end (924 plays), opponents had 73 plays of 20 yards or more, netting 2,316 yards (31.7 per) and 41.2 percent of the total yards (5,616); but five of these games were against teams ranked in the nation's top 15 in offense, including the No. 2 overall offense (Oregon) and the No. 2 passing offense (Oregon State).
- ➔ Colorado had slow starts in its 10 of its 13 games in 2011, outscored 142-34 in the first quarter and outgained 1,737-952. In 2012, the Buffs again struggled out of the gate: opponents almost doubled CU in offense (1,598-881) and more than tripled the Buffs on the scoreboard (136-41). CU was held to under 50 yards in seven of the 12 first quarters, though the scoring was a bit skewed by the Fresno State and Oregon games where the Bulldogs and Ducks combined to jump on the Buffs, 63-0 (FSU 35-0, UO 28-0).
 - ➔ In 2013, the slow starts appeared to be reversed after three games, sagged for a while, but in the end, CU was outgained the opponent in the opening stanza 1,536-1,354 and was outscored 114-58 in the first quarter (Oregon and ASU caused almost all the scoring damage, outscoring CU 54-10, and along with Washington, outgaining the Buffs 676-368).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-114 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09 (and 11 more before Stanford and Andrew Luck did it in '11). The CU offense is 11-of-118 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 718 of 1,052 quarters (68%). Those numbers included 33 of 48 in 2013 (69 percent).

2014 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1904 (Oct. 8) Considered one of the biggest wins in the 15-year history of the program, Colorado beats Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0. The game ball remains on display at CU's Heritage Center on campus (third floor of Old Main).
- 1909 Colorado finished 6-0 the first of three in a row to do so while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. CU squeezes by the State Prep School and an Alumni squad, both by 3-0 scores, but follow those up with routs over Colorado A&M (57-0) and New Mexico (53-0) before closing with road wins over Colorado College (9-0) and Colorado Mines (16-0).
- 1914 The 100th anniversary of a 5-1 Colorado team, the next-to-last squad that Fred Folsom would coach in Boulder, but what would be his last winner (CU went 1-6 in his final year in 1915).
- 1924 (Oct. 11) The 90th anniversary of the first game at Colorado Stadium (now Folsom Field), a 39-0 win over Regis. Colorado says goodbye to Gamble Field the previous Saturday with a 21-0 romp over Western State on its way to an 8-1-1 record, which included its first overseas games—two in Hawai'i.
- 1934 (Nov. 10) The 80th anniversary of CU's 7-6 win over Utah, snapping a nine-game losing streak at the time against its conference archrival. It's the first game that the school is known as the "Buffaloes" following a contest in the school newspaper to come up with a permanent nickname. In the 7-0 win at Denver on Thanksgiving Day, the foundation for future Ralphie's is laid down when students rent a buffalo calf and more or less control it on the sidelines during the win.
- 1939 The Buffaloes open 0-3, but would go on and post their best finish after such a start, rallying to win five in a row to finish 5-3 and win their first Mountain States Conference title.
- 1949 (Oct. 29) The 60th anniversary of perhaps the most wackiest game in CU history when it comes to the weather. In a 14-7 homecoming win over Utah, the temperature was 61 degrees at its 2 p.m. kickoff with clear skies. It was overcast by halftime, and by the end of the game, the field was covered in six inches of snow.
- 1954 The 55th anniversary of one of the most prolific rushing offenses in Colorado history, the unit averaging 316 yards per game, ranking third in the nation. John Bayuk (824 yards), Frank Bernardi (668), Carroll Hardy (642), Homer Jenkins (446) and Emerson Wilson (419) combine to average 6.8 yards per carry and 31 touchdowns in CU's 7-2-1 season.
- 1959 The 55th anniversary of Sonny Grandelius' first season as CU coach, as well as what tied for the second-largest comeback in school history, a 21-20 win over Missouri on Halloween (Oct. 31). Trailing 20-6 with 13:05 left, Gale Weidner threw one touchdown pass (12 yards to Jerry Hillebrand), completed a 2-point pass to Jim Counter, and then ran in the game-tying score himself with 6:15 left; Boyd Dowler converted the PAT kick for the winning margin.
- 1964 The 50th anniversary of Eddie Crowder's second CU team; though it repeated with a 2-8 record with one fewer win in Big 8 play, observers could see the future: in 1963, Colorado's five league losses came by a combined 132 points; in '64, this six by 39 (including four by a total of 12).
- 1969 The Buffs cap an 8-3 season with an emotional 47-33 win over Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, where CU had to put up with racial slurs from some Alabama fans because Colorado had African-American players and the Crimson Tide were not integrated at the time. Bobby Anderson is moved from quarterback to tailback the third game of the season and goes on to earn All-America honors. On Oct. 25, the Buffs topple No. 5 Missouri, 31-24 in Boulder, the Tigers' lone conference loss of the year.
- 1974 (Oct. 5) The last meeting between Front Range rivals Colorado and Air Force, won by the Buffs, 28-27 at the USAFA. CU leads the all-time series 12-4, but won nine of the last 10 by an average margin of 19 points.
- 1979 (Sept. 8) The 30th anniversary of the Colorado-Oregon game being the first college football game televised on ESPN (tape delay). It was also the first game of the short tenure as Colorado head coach by Chuck Fairbanks.
- 1984 (Sept. 15) The 25th anniversary marking the severe brain injury to CU tight end Ed Reinhardt, who was in a coma for a month after being hurt in the final two minutes of CU's 27-20 loss at Oregon. Reinhardt had caught 10 passes in the season opener the previous week against Michigan State and was the nation's leading receiver, despite CU's new two-tight offense being revealed by the Denver Post in one of those weak "public's right to know" defenses. CU is never the same after the injury and fights its way through a 1-10 season.
- 1989 Following Colorado's first 11-0 regular season in school history and No. 1 national ranking, the Buffaloes play for the national championship in the Orange Bowl against No. 4 Notre Dame, but come up short, 21-6. The Buffs dedicated the season to fallen quarterback Sal Aunese, who died on Sept. 23 after a six month battle with stomach cancer. His replacement, Darian Hagan, leads the team to the first of three straight undefeated seasons in Big 8 conference play and finishes fifth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy. The season is defined with back-to-back wins at Oklahoma (20-3) and then over No. 3 Nebraska (27-21).
- 1994 The 20th anniversary of "The Catch," (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan, Sept. 24); of Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a Buff (Dec. 10); of Chris Hudson winning the Thorpe Award (Dec. 8); of Salaam going over 2,000 yards for the season against Iowa State (Nov. 19); of Kordell Stewart becoming the Big 8's all-time total offense leader (also Nov. 19); of Bill McCartney retiring as CU's head coach (also Nov. 19); and of CU's 11-1 season which saw the Buffs finish as the No. 3 team in the country.
- 1999 The 10th anniversary of Gary Barnett returning to head the program where he spent nine seasons as an assistant (1983-91); along the way, CU defeats at least one ranked opponent for a 12th straight season, plays in and wins its first overtime game in its history (46-39 over Missouri) and a monster bowl win (62-36 over Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl) extends CU's bowl winning streak to a nation's best six games.
- 2004 (Oct. 16) Hard to believe it's been five years since Mason Crosby kicked CU's school record 60 yard field goal in a 19-14 win over Iowa State. And 10 years after "The Catch," Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh hook up for the exact same distance—64 yards—with five seconds left to give CU a 38-31 win over Kansas State. Colorado, 1-4 in league play entering November, rallies to win the Big 12 North Division.
- 2009 (Oct. 17) One of the few highlights in an otherwise disappointing season, CU defeated No. 17 Kansas, 34-30, in a thriller at Folsom Field. It stands as the last win over a ranked team by the Buffaloes.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are and 57-40-1 in their last 98 November games (51-28 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month, and 52-15 against unranked teams). Colorado is 52-47-2 in its last 101 October games and 54-34 in its last 88 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays. CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 3-2-1 in August games in its history.

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS CHANGE IN 2014

The Pac-12 has changed and upgraded its bowls (and opponents) for the 2014 bowl season with the advent of the new college football playoff; these are in place for the 2014-20 seasons (unless the sun explodes and engulfs the Earth). Here's the conference's lineup for the 2014 bowl season:

- # 1 Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual (or Sugar Bowl, if Pac-12 has teams in the top four for the new playoff; otherwise, champion will play in Fiesta, Cotton or Chick-fil-A bowl; vs. Big Ten/ At-large)
- # 2 Valero Alamo (vs. Big 12)

- # 3 National University Holiday (vs. Big Ten)
- # 4 San Francisco (vs. Big Ten)
- # 5 Hyundai Sun (vs. ACC)
- # 6 Royal Purple Las Vegas (vs. MWC)
- # 7 Cactus (vs. Big Ten)

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No.3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against eight Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe and Notre Dame. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (8), Missouri, Texas and Washington (5), Arizona State, LSU, Ohio State, Oregon and Stanford (4) and then California, Florida State, Michigan State and Nebraska (3 each).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last the 24 seasons (1990-2013), the 15th most nationally when it comes to trophies (but tied for 12th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung and Bullworth (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2012 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

FOLSOM HAS GONE "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. For more information, visit Ralphia's Green Stampede at http://www.cubuffs.com/ViewArticle.dbml?&DB_OEM_ID=600&ATCLID=1549954.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well as painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom hasn't happened (yet), the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the second most attending in Jon Embree's first game (2011), also the first nighttime affair. CU has now had seven occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor the late Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
2011	(none/O-D scrimmage)	15,655	Jon Embree's first spring game also featured a first: it was the first one played at night
1989	#White 38, Black 35	13,642	A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer
2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990
1991	#Black 21, White 17	10,382	Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run
2013	Black 17, White 16	10,244	Good crowd turned out to see Mike MacIntyre's first spring game in Boulder
1992	#Black 44, White 7	9,617	Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history
2010	Gold 37, Black 27	9,100	Teams are determined by the players drafting themselves

KEY: ◆—Pac-12 Conference game; ⇄—Mountain West Conference game; +—Mid-American Conference game.

OPPONENTS & 2013 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2014 Colorado schedule combined for an 91-74 record last year (55.2 winning percentage); four teams won 10 or more games a year ago, while three went 1-11 (thus minus those three, the other nine teams were a gaudy 88-41). It includes nine teams that CU played in 2013 (the Buffaloes went 2-7 against those schools). The Buffs again won't play Stanford and Washington State in Pac-12 league play; both reappear on the 2015-16 schedules as California and Washington come off those two seasons.

- The Buffaloes open the 2014 season on a Friday; CU did not have a weeknight game in 2013, the first time since 1995 that the Buffaloes played every regular season game on a Saturday.
- Colorado will travel 10,290 air miles during the regular season this fall, or the equivalent of just over 40 percent around the Earth (at the equator). The longest round trip will be to play Massachusetts in Foxboro: 3,540 miles (the Buffs will stay in Providence, just southwest of Foxboro). Other round trip distances: Oregon (Eugene: 1,916), California (Berkeley: 1,858), USC (Los Angeles: 1,666), Arizona (Tucson: 1,250) and Colorado State (Denver: 60). That's only the third most miles a Pac-12 school will travel this fall: Washington is first with 12,146 miles (trips to Hawaii, Arizona, Colorado, Cal, Washington State and Oregon), followed by UCLA with 11,934 (which will travel to Virginia, Arlington—to play Texas, Washington, Colorado, Arizona State and Cal). Oregon State is fourth with 9,978, but it has only five trips (Hawaii, Colorado, USC, Stanford and Washington).
- Colorado will play Massachusetts at Foxboro (Gillette Stadium) on Sept. 6; it will be CU's first trip to the northeast in nearly 37 years, last visiting the vicinity on Oct. 1, 1977 when it defeated Army at West Point, 31-0.
- Colorado and Hawaii begin the second phase a four-game home-and-home; the Warriors visit Boulder on Sept. 20, and CU opens the 2015 season in Honolulu.
- Oregon State is the last member of the Pac-12 Conference to make a visit to Boulder since the Buffs joined the league in 2011; the Beavers' last visit to Folsom Field was in 1988.
- The season finale against Utah is on Saturday, Nov. 29; Colorado had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons, but last year's rivalry game with the Utes was returned to Saturday as the Pac-12's television partners (ESPN, FOX) selected other games for the Friday slots.
- The Buffaloes again have two bye weeks, which fall on Oct. 11 and Nov. 15; Colorado had two bye weeks every year from 1996 through 2005, one usually after non-league play and the other prior to the regular season finale against Nebraska. Due to the flooding in Boulder last year and the cancellation of the Fresno State game, the Buffs had their bye weeks in succession.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through all games of 2013 (with 2013 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the latest world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing. The Big 10 placed 10 schools in the top 100 (Wisconsin has the highest rank – No. 19); the ACC placed four (Duke was its highest at No. 31); the SEC two (Vanderbilt at No. 49, Florida at No. 71) and the Big 12 one (Texas, No. 36).

300 AT FOLSOM

With a 3-3 home record in 2013, Colorado is now 300-160-10 in 90 seasons playing its home games at Folsom Field. The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 392-181-16 all-time at home. Colorado's last winning record at home was in 2010, when the Buffaloes went 4-2; over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder.

CU TO INDUCT NINE NEW MEMBERS IN ITS 10TH HALL OF FAME CLASS THIS OCTOBER 30

The 10th class that will be inducted into the University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame this October 30 will feature nine Golden Buffalo legends who left their indelible marks on the school with an impressive list of accomplishments. The nine, two of whom will be honored posthumously, have a definite coaching flavor among them: five list the profession on their resumes; three were student-athletes at Colorado, and two returned to as head coaches for the sports for which they were groomed.

Also included, one could say, are a leaper, a “rassler,” a harasser, a jumper, a picker and a grabber. Translation: a hurdler, wrestler, quarterback sacker, pole vaulter, interceptor and rebounder. The 2014 class will tie for the third-largest inducted into the Hall since it was conceived in 1998, as seven former Buffalo athletes, including two who went on to coach for the school, plus one legendary head coach will join 59 individuals and the entire 1959 ski team which have been enshrined to date (seven have been honored previously after their deaths). Every decade between the 1930s and 1990s is touched upon in the class.

Athletic director Rick George announced that moving forward with this group, CU will now induct classes annually instead of every two years, which has been the case since the third class was inducted in 2000. Those to be inducted on Thursday, October 30 and then honored at halftime of the Washington game on November 1 are:

Bob Beattie, Ski Coach (1957-65)

He was CU's head ski coach for nine years, leading the Buffaloes to their first national championship in any sport when his 1959 team claimed the NCAA title; that team was inducted as whole in the 2006 class. The team repeated as champions in 1960 and also won four Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association titles. Beattie coached some of the greatest skiers in school history, including Buddy Werner, Jimmie Heuga and Bill Marolt.

Forrest B. “Frosty” Cox, Basketball Coach (1935-50)

The winningest men's basketball coach in CU history in terms of percentage until recently (Tad Boyle), Cox coached the Buffaloes to a 147-89 record (.623) in 13 seasons. He led Colorado to three NCAA tournament appearances and to a pair of NIT berths, the latter considered the more significant postseason tourney at the time; CU was crowned the 1940 NIT champion and was generally considered one of the premier programs in the west in for a good period of time in his tenure. And as an assistant football coach in 1937, he coached the backs, which included CU's first All-American, Byron “Whizzer” White. He is the only member of the class who is no longer living, as he passed away in 1962 at the age of 54.

Jim Davis, Basketball (1961-64)

A three-year letterman under the legendary Sox Walseth, he earned first-team All-Big 8 honors his junior and senior seasons; CU was 53-24 in his career, winning two Big 8 titles and earning two trips to the NCAA Tournament. He averaged 14.4 points and 11.2 rebounds per game over his career, one of the few players in school history to average a double-double (scoring and rebounding) for a career and in two separate seasons. At the time of his graduation, he was CU's all-time leading rebounder and third all-time scorer. He was a fourth round selection by Detroit in the 1964 NBA Draft, but the 27th player overall in a 9-team league at the time; he played eight seasons in the league.

Deon Figures, Football (1988-92)

A consensus first-team All-American as a senior in 1992, when he was All-Big Eight and the conference's Defensive Player of the Year. He won the Jim Thorpe Award that season, presented to the nation's top defensive back, as he allowed only six completions while intercepting six and deflecting 12. He was the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame's co-College Athlete of the Year in the state for 1992. He was second-team All-Big Eight as a junior in 1991, and an honorable mention choice as a true freshman in '88, when he was the league's Defensive Newcomer of the Year. He was a first-round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1993 NFL draft (23rd player overall), he played five seasons in the league.

Bob Jeangerard, Basketball (1952-55)

A member of CU's last Final Four team, generally considered the “2” in the Buffs' 1-2 punch with Burdie Haldorson (inducted in the second class in 1999) of the school's dominant early 50s teams under coach H.B. Lee. He was a two-time All-Big 7 Conference first-team selection, averaging 12.4 points and 6.1 rebounds per game during his collegiate career. As a senior, he averaged 16 points and 6.8 rebounds per game, ranking second on the team in both categories in helping CU win a then-record 19 games in reaching the national semifinals, falling to eventual champion San Francisco. He was the NCAA Tournament Regional Most Outstanding Player. Unfortunately, he passed away on July 5 from complications due to Alzheimer's at the age of 81.

Linn Long, Wrestling (1952-55; 1961-68)

He lettered four times in wrestling (1952-55) and would return as head coach of the team for eight seasons (1961-68). As an athlete, he placed second in the 130 lbs. weight class in the 1953, 1954 and 1955 Big 7 Conference Wrestling Championships, and as a senior, he was third in the NCAA Championships, garnering All-America honors in the process. His pinnacle moment as CU's coach came in 1964, when he led the Buffaloes to their best finish ever in the NCAA Championships, a tie for fourth place; four of his teams posted top 20 NCAA finishes. He coached arguably the other top two wrestlers in CU history, Dean Lahr (who is being inducted this weekend into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame) and Bob Justice. A two-sport performer, he also lettered four times in baseball for the Buffaloes.

Don Meyers, Track & Field (1959-62; 1968-75)

A three-year letterman in track under legendary CU coach Frank Potts, he would replace his mentor as coach of CU cross country and track teams in 1968 when Potts retired after 41 seasons. As an athlete, Meyers was a two-time NCAA outdoor champion, winning the long jump as a junior in 1961 and the pole vault as a senior in 1962. He was a four-time Big 8 Conference champion in the long jump, winning the indoor and outdoor versions in both 1960 and 1961. On Dec. 20, 1962, he became just the fifth person to clear 16 feet in the pole vault, as his 16-1¼ effort was the “unofficial” world indoor record (at the time, indoor marks weren't tracked). Meyers coached the Buffaloes for seven seasons, 1968-75, and under his direction CU started on the road to becoming the cross country power it is today.

Herb Orvis, Football (1969-71)

A member of CU's All-Century football team selected in 1989, he was a near consensus All-American as a senior in 1971 and a two-time first-team All-Big Eight Conference performer. The Big Eight Conference Newcomer of the Year as a sophomore in 1969, he was also selected to the All-Big Eight Decade team for the 1970s. He played as significant a role as anyone in CU's 1971 season that saw the Buffaloes finish No. 3 in the nation, behind Nebraska and Oklahoma. A first round pick by Detroit in the 1972 NFL Draft (16th overall, the highest at the time that a CU defender had been selected), he went on to enjoy a 10-year pro career.

All inductees were nominated by their peers in the Alumni C-Club or by members of the selection committee; over 50 names were originally submitted and were pared to 29 finalists for an eight-member committee to vote upon, eventually producing another deep and talented class in CU Athletic HOF history.

The group will be inducted in the Hall of Fame Thursday night, October 30, in a festive gala in the Boedecker Gym at the Coors Events Center, be featured in the Pearl Street Stampede parade the next night and will be introduced at halftime of the CU-Washington football game on Saturday, Nov. 1, to complete the weekend.

Yvonne Scott, Track (1992-96)

The most decorated women's hurdler in CU track history, she stills owns several school records and garnered All-American honors in both indoor and outdoor competition. Scott won three straight Big 8 Outdoor titles in the 100-hurdles from 1994-96, helping CU to the conference title as a senior, the last Big 8 Outdoor meet prior to the Big 12 being formed. She was also a two-time Olympian, competing for Japan in the 100-meter hurdles in 1996 and 2000 (she reached the semifinals in Sydney in '00). She is currently the head track coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas.

LATE BIOGRAPHY ADDITION70 SHANE CALLAHAN, OL6-6, 300, Soph., TR, Parker, Colo. (Chaparral)*

AT COLORADO: This Season (Soph.)—He is eligible to compete this fall after transferring from Auburn in the offseason; the NCAA granted a waiver to the rule where a player must sit out a year (CU filed a waiver for him due to family reasons). He enrolled at CU in the summer, joining the team in late July and thus in time to participate in August drills.

AT AUBURN (2012/2013, Fr.,/Fr.-RS)—He saw brief action against Western Carolina and Florida Atlantic for the Southeastern champion Tigers, and dressed for the national championship game against Florida State (a 34-31 loss). Auburn was 12-2 overall and defeated Missouri, 59-42, in the SEC Championship game. He redshirted as a true freshman for the 2012 season; he had enrolled at Auburn in January and participated in spring practices.

HIGH SCHOOL—He was named to the prestigious 2011 Parade All-America Team as a senior, his top honor among many in his prep career; SuperPrep also tabbed him as an All-American and ranked him as the 24th offensive lineman in the nation (and as a member of its All-Midlands team). Rivals.com ranked as the nation's No. 22 offensive tackle and the 212th-ranked player nationally, while Scout.com pegged him the No. 33 tackle nationally and the No. 299 overall prospect in the country, with ESPN.com ranking him as the No. 28 OT nationally and 247Sports.com 35th at the offensive tackle position; all four had him as the fourth-rated player overall from the state of Colorado. He participated in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in San Antonio after the season. He was an All-Colorado and All-State (5A) selection by the Denver Post as a senior, which ranked him as the state's No. 5 overall prospect (the top offensive lineman) in its postseason Top 15. He was an honorable mention All-State performer as a junior, and was a two-time All-Continental League performer. His senior year, he had 43 pancake blocks, did not allow a quarterback sack or pressure by the man he was guarding, and had numerous downfield and touchdown blocks. Under coach John Vogt, Chaparral was 7-4 his senior year, 9-3 his junior season, and 8-3 both his sophomore and freshman years. He also lettered once in basketball, playing center in a reserve role as a junior.

ACADEMICS—He is interested in Communication as his major at Colorado.

PERSONAL—He was born October 9, 1993 in Denver. He is an avid country music fan.

THE LAST TIME IN THE NORTHEAST

It has been 37 years since the Buffaloes last played in the northeast part of the United States . . . CU's last visit to the New England area was to about 40 miles north of New York City on Oct. 1, 1977, when the Buffs visited West Point, N.Y., and left with a 31-0 win over Army. Howard Ballage rushed 15 times for 128 yards and two touchdowns, Mike Holmes added a 1-yard TD run and Mark Haynes returned an interception 97 yards for a score as Colorado outgained the Cadets 501-281 in recording the shutout. It was 1977, only eight years removed from when man first walked on the Moon and the real height of the disco era. Here are some fun facts from that year as well as around October 1:

- ▶ Jimmy Carter was in his first year of his only term as U.S. president; Dick Lamm was in his first of three terms as Colorado's governor.
- ▶ Music: The Star Wars Theme (MECO) was atop the Billboard 100 on Oct. 1, edging Keep It Comin' Love (KC & The Sunshine Band) and Don't Stop (Fleetwood Mac); two days earlier, Billy Joel's album The Stranger is released, soon to skyrocket up the charts but once Saturday Night Fever hits theatres December 14, the soundtrack will occupy No. 1 for weeks. On Oct. 20, three members of Lynyrd Skynyrd are killed in a plane crash in Mississippi.
- ▶ Movies: The No. 1 movie for 1977 was Star Wars, followed by Smokey and the Bandit, Close Encounters of the Third Kind, Saturday Night Fever and The Goodbye Girl; Annie Hall won the Oscar for Best Picture.
- ▶ Television: ABC had the top four rated shows for the 1977-78 season: Laverne & Shirley, Happy Days, Three's Company and Charlie's Angels, with CBS's 60 Minutes fifth. Monday Night Football was 16th.
- ▶ Iconic: Just down the Hudson River at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. on the same day, Pele played his final competitive soccer game, scoring the 1,281st goal of his 22-year career to lead the New York Cosmos to a 2-1 win over Santos of Brazil.
- ▶ Iconic II: That night, NBC televised the Muhammad Ali-Earnie Shavers fight; Ali won as the bout drew a 57 percent share of the audience (no cable yet).
- ▶ CU Flashback: The CU-Army game will be the 74th by KOA Radio's Larry Zimmer; he has since done 398 more.
- ▶ Denver Sports: The Broncos are just 2-0 at the time of the CU-Army game, but will get off to their best start in history at the time (6-0), finish 12-2, win their first AFC Championship before falling to Dallas, 27-10, in Super Bowl XII.
- ▶ Politics: Former Maryland Governor Marvin Mandel (D) is sentenced for four years in prison for his part in a mail fraud racketeering scheme that broke his once-powerful grip on state politics in the state.
- ▶ Pop Culture: After 43 years, it is announced that the comic strip Li'l Abner will stop on November 13 as creator Al Capp (68) is retiring.
- ▶ Manning: On Sunday, Oct. 2, Archie ran for three touchdowns and passed for another to lead the New Orleans Saints to a 42-24 win over the Chicago Bears.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 45 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on four occasions (CU will also sport black helmets on the road occasionally). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a CU game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the lockerroom at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.
