Daisy Gallagher Named One of the Five Top Women Businesses In Nation

Daisy Gallagher, CEO/founder of Gallagher & Gallagher, Inc., has been named one of the five top women business owners in the country. Ms. Gallagher received the honor before an audience of more than 1,500 people during a gala luncheon at the Hilton in Washington, D.C. She was selected for the distinction out of thousands of potential candidates across the nation.

The gross income of Gallagher & Gallagher, Inc., Daisy Gallagher's business, has increased 35 percent per year since 2002, and so has her public and private sector clientele base. As for the other recipients, Doreen Mark's business realized sales totaling $10.7 million in 2004; Sylvia Medina reported earnings of $23 million in 2004; Jean Thiel's customers grew from four to more than 200 in the last several years; and Edna Lopez continued to grow the company her late husband started into a prominent and successful firm.

"I am so excited to introduce you to five fabulous women entrepreneurs," said U.S. SBA Deputy Administrator Melanie Sabelhaus. "These ladies will leave no doubt in anyone's mind that women are the economic powerhouse of the 21st century. They are innovators and job creators and they make clear why women are the fastest growing segment of our economy."

Judging was based on staying power, increase in sales, current and past financial reports, innovativeness of product or service offered, response to adversity, and contributions to aid community-oriented projects.

In 2005 The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania also recognized Ms. Gallagher's professional abilities and role as an innovative leader. The Department of Community and Economic Development and the Business Journals of Pennsylvania named her one of the state's Best 50 Women in Business.

Awards are nothing new to Ms. Gallagher, who has consistently been recognized on a local, state, national and international level for her business ethics, leadership, achievements, and community service. Her other honors include: SBA Business of the Year (Philadelphia region); the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year; Women Entrepreneur of the Year, presented by the University of Scranton; Women in Communications Sarah Award for Public Relations; Rotarian of the Year; and Paul Harris Fellowship Award.

Gallagher & Gallagher, Inc., with offices in Pennsylvania, Washington, D.C., and New York City, is a full-service strategic marketing, branding and public outreach firm and the recipient of prestigious industry awards. The firm services both the public and private sectors, is an approved GSA federal supplier, and certified SBA Hubzone.

From the Chairman of the Board

On Tuesday, June 28th I was one of more than three hundred fortunate invitees to a hardhat walk through and reception for one of our newest member resorts, Great Wolf Lodge. The day began with an overview of Great Wolf Resorts presented by Mr. Dale McFarland, General Manager and Mr. Christopher Salerno, Director of Sales and Marketing. Mr. Robert Uguccioni, Executive Director of the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau, was also on hand to welcome our newest resort to the Poconos. During the overview we all learned the Great Wolf "Howl" and it was made clear that the management team is excited and enthusiastic about working with our local organizations and becoming a real partner in our community. The overview was followed by a tour of the facility, which was truly a "WOW" experience. The indoor water park, the grand lobby, the rooms and suites, and the spacious conference rooms all were extremely impressive. The tour ended at the Grand Lobby where we were treated to a delicious assortment of culinary delights. This was absolutely a "WOW" experience for me.

Great Wolf Lodge is planning to open to the public on October 20th, 2005. They will also be holding a job fair on September 8th, 9th and 10th at the Tannersville Ambulance Building, for those of you who would like to become affiliated with this fine organization.

I would like to thank Mr. Dale McFarland and his entire team for introducing us to this wonderful new facility and wish them much success.

The following information has been taken directly from their website at www.greatwolf.com. I found it to be fascinating so I would like to share some of it with you:

26th Annual Quality of Life Golf Tournament

The Quality of Life Committee of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce held their 26th Annual Golf Tournament on a blustery and overcast June 29th. The location, Skytop Lodge, provided us with a moist and challenging golf course, an exquisite meal, and exceptionally friendly and professional service. This year's tournament was dedicated to the memory of Coral Washburn.

The Tournament was sold out once again with one hundred twenty (120) golfers in attendance. The field was filled one month prior to the tournament, which generated quite a large waiting list. We apologize to those individuals who could not fit in this year and only hope that they sign up very early next year.

The day started with everyone arriving around noon to register and receive their "goodie" bag and proceeded to enjoy a delicious barbeque lunch. At 1:00 p.m. the Pro at Skytop, Brian Boyle, gave the golfers the tournament instructions and sent them to their starting holes. The golfers completed nine holes of golf. They then had a chance to relax with some fresh fruit, cheese trays, beer, wine, and assorted beverages. At 6:30 p.m. dinner was served. The menu included:

- Slow Roast Prime Rib Au Jus Served with a Creamy Horseradish Sauce
 - Grilled Salmon served with Light Mushroom Tarragon Veloute
 - Breast of Chicken with Fontina Cheese & Prosciutto with a Marsala Sage Sauce
- The above served with Supremes of Fresh Fruit, Skytop Mesclun Greens with Vinaigrette Dressing, and Chocolate Obsession for Dessert.

Mr. Paul Schuchman, Chairman of the Quality of Life Committee, opened the program with a brief history of the tournament. He was followed by Mr. Gene Dickison who delivered a benediction prior to the meal and spoke in tribute to Coral Washburn.

After dinner, Mr. Bill Cramer MC'd an evening of fun, prizes, and laughs. We thanked many sponsors and numerous businesses for their gift donations.

The tournament was set up as a two-person scramble and consisted of three flights. The winners were:

- Championship Flight (61) Bill Cramer, Craig Scott
- 1st Flight (75) Mickey Besecker, Jerry Wallace
- 2nd Flight (82) Theresa Yocum, Bridget Orue
- Closest to the Pin Winner Jon Bertoldo
- Longest Drive Steve Cunningham
- Most Honest Golfers Denise Cebular, Carol Sitroon, Sharon Fontana, Judy Schuchman

The Chamber would like to recognize the following Major Sponsors for their generous contributions to this special event:

- Gold Sponsor CDE - Careers: Computers, Massage, Medical & CDL
- Silver Sponsors Patterson - Kelley, C & M Home Builders, UPS
- Copper Martz Trailways, Met - Ed
- Bronze Sponsors Barley Creek, Niclaus Engineering, Odd Lot Outlet, The Small Group Insurance

John Casella & Chuck Niclaus, Co-Chairmen of this tournament as well as Bob Phillips, Chamber President/CEO would like to congratulate the winners and thank all of the sponsors, gift donors, and all of the volunteers, especially Nancy Henry and Mary El Kasas for their assistance in making this day so successful.

The proceeds from this tournament will benefit quality of life programs within the Pocono Region as well as the Chamber of Commerce.

From the President

I would like to keep everyone informed on what is going on with the Chamber's Business Development initiatives.

The primary goal of the Business Development Specialist and the Small Business Resource Center is to enable individuals to obtain the necessary guidance, information, and education to start their own small business.

The Chamber provides direct assistance, as well as offering an incubator space and scholarships to these entrepreneurs, which helps to ensure their success.

A secondary goal is to increase the number of successful and expanding businesses and to reduce unemployment, therefore, creating a better way of life for these women and men of the Pocono Mountains region.

The Resource Center and Business Development Specialist have served 2400 individuals (1853 (77% of them being women) who wanted to open a new business or purchase one, through one-on-one counseling and group workshops since November 1999. From this group more than 292 (12%) of them have actually opened a business or purchased one. Of these new businesses, (191 (65%) of them are women or women were involved). Currently the Chamber is working with 17 more who are in the process of opening their own business or purchasing one. Our Business Development Specialist also has worked closely with more than 780 existing businesses, helping them to survive, expand, grow, refinance, or connect with the right resources.

These businesses have directly created more than 600 meaningful employment opportunities throughout the region.

One of the greatest achievements of the Business Development Specialist in the past three years is assisting businesses to secure financing they needed to start, expand, or survive. Businesses received more than $400,000 from MetroAction, $85,000 from NEPA, and $2,000,000 from local banks.

Outcome Objectives for 2006:

- Increase the number of successful small businesses owned by women at least by 10%.
- Expand the amount of information, educational opportunities, and services available to entrepreneurs.
- Increase the number of people being offered direct help that want to start or expand their businesses within the next year by at least 10%.

As you can clearly see, we have been very busy helping to foster a successful business community. If anyone is in need of business counseling please contact Parviz "Peter" Alasty, our V.P./Business Development Specialist at 570-421-4433.

-Robert Phillips, IOM

Camelbeach Waterpark announced that its Independence Weekend Fireworks Display, held on July 2 raised a total of $7,199 for the Pocono Township Volunteer Fire Company. Including net proceeds of approximately $9,000 from the Cole Brothers Circus held earlier this year at Camelbeach, the Fire Company has raised more than $16,000 this year through events held at Camelback Mountain. Camelbeach Waterpark is now open daily. For more information, call 570-629-1661 or visit the park's Web site at www.camelbeach.com.

East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania's Dr. Elizabeth Gibbons, Associate Professor of movement activities and lifetime fitness, and Mandy Talpas, a senior from East Stroudsburg majoring in environmental studies, are sponsoring a Middle Eastern Dance Workshop and Performance on Saturday, August 6 to benefit local environmental groups. Two separate dance performances, as well as the workshop will be held on that day. For more information on either event or for special accommodations, individuals may contact Talpas at 570-236-2966.

Twelve East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania business management student groups recently worked with twelve local businesses on a project which consisted of performing a job analysis on one position for each company. The purpose was to provide a "real world" assignment for the students and at the same time to assist the companies in sharpening their human resource management information. The students were members of the spring 2005 human resources management classes taught by Dr. Kathleen Barnes, Associate Professor of business management. For more information on ESU's Business Management program, visit www.esu.edu or contact the University's office of admission at 877-230-5547 or 570-422-3542.

Student groups at East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania contributed thousands of community service hours and completed more than 112 community service projects and programs during the 2004 - 2005 academic year. Student organizations also raised funds for various local and national charities including the March of Dimes, the American Red Cross, the United Nations Children's Fund (U.N.I.C.E.F.), the American Cancer Society, the Seeing Eye, Inc., and Tsunami Relief. For more information about ESU's student service programs and projects, contact Dr. Nancy Weaver, Assistant Dean of Students, at 570-422-3839, Shannon Corr, Coordinator of Greek Affairs at 570-422-3429, Dr. John Kraybill-Greggo, Assistant Professor of Sociology at 570-422-3844, or Todd Benson, Resident Director of Hawthorn Hall at 570-422-3105.

Kathy Kroll Dance and Paper Theater is a part of an exciting new addition on Main Street in Stroudsburg. The School of Visual and Performing Arts is building a beautiful gallery for local and out-of-town artists, a cozy black box theater for professional and community performing groups, larger studios for the Kathy Kroll Dance and Paper Theatre, Ashi K. Smythe's Hip Hop Team, and Little River Kung Fu School. The grand opening is September 3rd and will be an all day event beginning at 10 a.m. and ending at 11 p.m. The new facility is a 4,000 square foot addition on the ground floor of the existing state-of-the-art studios which are located on the 2nd floor at 554 Main Street. The School of Visual and Performing Arts is inviting artists to exhibit in a group show at the grand opening. Performing artists are also invited to participate in the festivities, which will coincide with this year's garlic festival. For details and information on the selection process call SVPA at 570-424-5285.

June Monthly Breakfast

The June Monthly Breakfast was held at the Monroe County Historical Association, and was sponsored by Minisink Financial. The Gregory W. Moyer Defibrillator Fund provided the special program. Mr. Tony Konn, Director of Customer Services stated that Minisink Financial is a servicing and collection service with more than 25 years of experience in collection services to manage your receivables. Mr. Konn explained that Minisink Financial has two types of services, which are account servicing and collection services. The Account Servicing division offers services such as account servicing of dues and periodic billing statements. The Collections services division offers compliance with the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, and services such as a system which tracks text to individual customer accounts. Mr. Curtis Rogers, In House Attorney, stated several reasons why an organization would utilize the services of Minisink Financial, such as their solid reputation and the fact that they will go the extra mile to maintain strong client/customer relationships.

John Moyer spoke on behalf of the Gregory W. Moyer Defibrillator Fund and stated that 350,000 people die annually from cardiac arrest. The New York Legislature passed a law that stated that every school should have an AED. As a result of this law 42 lives were saved to date. In order to raise public awareness there are many organizations in place such as National Cardiac Parents Network. Mr. Moyer encouraged everyone to help get involved in raising awareness by participating in programs such as the annual fundraiser.

We would like to send a special thank you to both Mr. Konn and Mr. Rogers at Minisink Financial, and Mr. Moyer of Gregory W. Moyer Defibrillator Fund for taking the time to share with us their extensive knowledge about their organizations.

Faye Cyphers from the Tannersville Inn won the 50/50, which she donated to the Gregory W. Moyer Defibrillator Fund.

July Business Card Exchange

The July 11th Business Card Exchange was held at Broadway Café and Lounge in Gilbert, PA. Attendees enjoyed fantastic food and beverage service. This unique establishment served as the perfect atmosphere for networking with fellow Chamber members. One of a kind stemware and delicious Hors D'oeuvres were just a few of the perks this restaurant offered. Many thanks to Broadway Café and Lounge for your generosity in helping us to launch another successful event.
