

Data Analyst

IT Business Analyst

Programmer

Programmer / Senior Programmer

System Developer

Interested parties, please forward your resume in WORD FORMAT to us by email: recruit@crcltd.com.hk or fax to 2528-9091. The information provided by candidates will be treated in strict CONFIDENTIAL and will only be used for recruitment

Position: Data Analyst

Business Nature: Banking

Responsibilities:

Drive the data governance framework and data quality initiatives across the business

Define bank level data strategy in data analytics and data infrastructure

Strengthen Data Governance structure with emphasis on business participation and ownership

Maintain the business data standards to ensure projects are aligned with the data governance policies and comply with the regulatory requirements

Understanding of the business requirements for analytics and reporting across segments, products and functions

Drive data quality initiatives across the business through the life cycle of data quality management

Requirements:

University graduate in Computer Science, Information Technology or business related disciplines

Minimum 3 years' experience of business analytics, preferably with Data Warehouse knowledge

High proficiency in SAS, SQL, Data Warehouse, statistical tools, MS Excel and VBA

Superior presentation skills, including strong oral and written capabilities

Strong intellectual, analytical and problem solving skills

Good command of both written and spoken English and Chinese, proficiency in Mandarin is preferred

TOP

Position: IT Business Analyst

Business Nature: Financial Service

Duties and Responsibilities:

Support and enhance the functionality and usability of key business applications to include systems used for time recording and billing, accounting, client administration, document management and workflow (for example Viewpoint, Worksite)

Responsibility for the promotion and effective use of these applications within the Vistra group, to include the user requirements, implementation, training, upgrading and ongoing support, ensuring smooth and efficient running by knowledgeable staff

Working closely with suppliers, contractors and the IT support team to co-ordinate work on key applications, ensuring change management control and clear communication to all parties involved and an awareness of costs

Working with the business to produce detailed specifications for the production of MI reports

Uphold Vistra's values by promoting a culture of professionalism and teamwork

Align all settings in Viewpoint according to Group standard across offices

Internal training will be provided

Requirements:

A minimum of 2 years' experience within a similar role

Degree holder in Computer Science/Information Systems/Business Administration

Business analysis experience required. Ability to work closely with the business, to identify and implement efficiencies.

Project management experience required. Ability to lead projects successfully that involves a high level of process change management.

Extensive knowledge and experience of the Viewpoint system, or at a minimum 2 years of experience using and maintaining similar statutory, time recording, billing and accounting applications will be an advantages

SSRS development experience is an advantages

Experience in professional firms will be an advantages

Accounting knowledge or administration knowledge beneficial, preferably experience in financial MI/BI

Personal attributes: Enthusiastic and high professional integrity; will be a key player in contributing to the teams' success

Position: Programmer

Business Nature: Manufacturing

Responsibilities:

Participate in ERP systems development which includes user requirement study, systems specifications preparations, programming, user acceptance test and implementation.

Involve in other application development and/or enhancement projects such as company web page and intranet.

Conduct user training on the ERP systems and other application.

Perform application systems maintenance including support to end-users and trouble-shooting.

Requirements:

Diploma or above in Computer Studies or related discipline.

Good knowledge in Visual Basic.NET. Knowledge of other web-based and Apps programming knowledge a plus.

Experience in ERP application development is an advantage.

Well-organize, strong problem solving skill and a good team player.

Fresh graduate of computer related discipline will also be considered.

TOP

Position: Programmer / Senior Programmer

Business Nature: Stock Trading Solution Company

Duties:

Develop and support low latency and scalable order management system;
Design and enhance current Front office applications including internet/mobile trading and market data products.

Requirements:

Degree in Computer Science/Engineering, Information Technology, Electronic Engineering or equivalent;
0-6 years' relevant experience;
Proficiency in Java, JSP, XML and SQL;
Proficiency in HTML 5, CSS, Javascript and JavaFX would be advantage;
Experience on J2EE Frameworks, multithreading and Oracle PL/SQL;
Enthusiastic in programming, like problem solving, willing to learn;
Financial knowledge in equity trading adds advantage;
Candidate with more experience may also be considered as Analyst Programmer.

TOP

Position: System Developer

Business Nature: Media / Publishing

Responsibilities:

Responsible for systems implementation, documentation and unit test

Involve in stock quotation systems development in Java and web application

Requirements:

Diploma / Degree holder in Computer Science or related studies

1 year related working experience preferred

Solid experience in Java, Swing or PHP

Experienced in Linux and MySQL is preferred

Strong sense of responsibility and eager to learn

Self-motivated, hardworking, able to work under pressure

Good interpersonal and communication skills

Fresh graduates will also be considered

TOP