WELCOME!

Dear friends in Christ,

This second week of Advent finds us still waiting and watching for the coming of the Lord, but we get a most welcomed visitor today – John the Baptist. He comes seemingly out of nowhere to prepare the way of the Lord and while he was by all accounts a bit eccentric, his message is as timely today as it was some 2,000 years ago. Let us heed his message to repent and as we go about busily preparing our Christmas lists and making plans for the holidays, let us prepare our hearts as well to welcome the coming of the King of Kings.

As mentioned last week we are once again assisting our twinned parish of Our Mother of Mercy Church by collecting Christmas gifts for the children of that community. Many of the larger parishes of the archdiocese have a “twin” and it is encouraged that the two work together on a variety of projects. We’ve collaborated on the Christmas gift giving project for several years now and it is always a success. Ctr parishioners are generous in giving and our brothers and sisters in Christ at OMOM are truly grateful.

OMOM was founded in Houston’s Fifth Ward in 1930 and is one of the great historical African-American parishes in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. It is quite small in number, but they are large in spirit. It serves not only as a spiritual home, but also a community advocate in the Fifth Ward and is a place of refuge for many who are trying to make it through these difficult times. Each year OMOM tries to offer each child a Christmas present from the larger community. For many it might be the only present they will receive.

We invite you to bring an unwrapped Christmas gift and drop it off in the narthex next week or, better yet, use our convenient Amazon Wish List found at www.ctrcc.com/toydrive and have it sent directly to the office. The gift need not be elaborate or extreme, but simply from the heart. The children range in age from just a few years old up to 17, but the bulk are in the 5-15 age range. What do they want? Well, just about whatever any child wants. Feel free to use your imagination. Basketballs are always popular with the boys last year and the young girls always seem to gravitate to the dolls. Maybe you can ask an expert – your own child living under your roof. It’s a safe bet that the children of OMOM would welcome the same type of gifts.

Closer to home we are also again collecting gift cards to be distributed through Cypress Assistance Ministries (CAM). Drop off a gift card to a local merchant (Walmart, Target, and HEB gift cards seem to be the most popular as they can be used for a variety of items) in the narthex at church or in the office over the next week and we’ll distribute them through CAM. It’s a great way to help out those in need in our community.

This Wednesday is a Holy Day as we honor the Solemnity of Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We’ll celebrate a vigil Mass on Tuesday, Dec. 7 at 5 p.m., and on Wednesday, Dec. 8, masses will be at 9 a.m. (livestreamed) and 7 p.m. The Ctr School students will have a separate Mass in the afternoon, so there is plenty of room for everyone at the morning Mass. It is under the patronage of the Immaculate Conception that the United States has been dedicated as well as our Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. While the Blessed Virgin Mary has many titles and days dedicated to her, the Immaculate Conception is supreme.

Next Sunday, Dec. 12, is the Feast Day of Our Lady of Guadalupe, but because it falls on a Sunday, the 3rd Sunday of Advent takes precedence. While we can’t have a specific Mass for her, we definitely can celebrate her with a Prayer Service on Saturday, Dec. 11 beginning at 10 p.m. – yes, late into the night so that we can greet the new day by singing her praises. It will be bilingual in both English and Spanish, and include all the readings, hymns, and songs that we are accustomed to using to honor Our Lady. A simple fiesta will follow as we conclude the night/morning. Her feast day is always a special day in all Catholic parishes, but especially those of us in Texas and the southwest. Our Lady of Guadalupe is Patroness of the Americas (as declared by Pope Pius XII in 1946) and holds a special place in the hearts of all people of faith. Please join us for a late night prayer to honor her.

Remember our Christmas liturgical schedule for this year: On Christmas Eve, Friday, Dec. 24 masses will be at 4 p.m., 6:30 p.m., 8:30 p.m., and 12 a.m. Midnight. On Christmas Day, Saturday, Dec. 25, masses will be at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. (bilingual). Both the Midnight Mass and the 9 a.m. Mass will be livestreamed. Note that there is no Saturday evening vigil Mass at 5 p.m. on Dec. 25. All masses for the Feast of the Holy Family will be celebrated on Sunday, Dec. 26 at our regular times.

Peace, Fr. Sean

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Father, your son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick sisters and brothers. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in His suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen.
