

The Lord Jesus Christ Himself is entreating YOU – accept salvation as a free gift:

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 6:23.

Jesus Christ died for YOU, to take the punishment for your sin
and the sin of the whole world:

Jesus Christ:

"In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;" Ephesians 1:7.

Will YOU repent
and turn away from sin?

You can find forgiveness and cleansing in Christ Jesus.
Come back to God

Jesus said:

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls." Matthew 11:28, 29

YOU are a sinner
like everyone else on earth.
Jesus took your punishment

EDITORIAL

December 2005.

W. B. Howard.

May the Lord God bless you and your families, and keep you safe and at peace. So many matters have been brought to our attention
since last quarter's magazine that it is difficult to choose

what should be presented to our readers.
Surely of top priority must be those issues that threaten the children of our "global" society.
Therefore Despatch makes our main concern the serious threat to our children through education, and the imminent danger of "mental health" screening for the young.
Hence the booklet called "The Planetary Child" included with this issue. We urge you all to get deeper under standing on this, through the listed websites, sending for the suggested DVDs, and looking into these matters

as individuals.

The booklet is simply an alert, share
it and use it as a launch pad.

THE LABYRINTH.

Despatch deals with the amazing
Labyrinth in more depth this issue.
We have mentioned this before, it needs to be exposed with greater urgency. Already the Labyrinth is in Australia, in CONT'D. PAGE 4

Divine power to save the lost and to bring the wishy-washy Christians of today into humble dedication to Himself.

"REPENT" should be the cry – and we must know that only when we are weak in our own endeavours and work are we strong:

"And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong."

11 Cor. 12:10.

We, the Church of God, the Bride of Christ, need to have a new awareness of Christianity as the SUPERNATURAL POWER OF GOD. The world is being snowed under with the supernatural,

- the films like Harry Potter,
- television shows: Charmed et al
- computer games,
- strange religious cults rising up,
- Satanists with their covens and sacrifices etc.

The followers of the enemy of God know only too well that all their power is supernatural. Yet, many sound and solid Christians do not realise that their only might is God's Holy Spirit moving in and through them. They act as though all that is needed is to proclaim sound doctrine. This is untrue – we need the surrender and abandonment to the Indwelling Christ that will transform ordinary men and women into the spiritual vessels of God.

I suggest a wonderful book to study on this: Andrew Murray's "God's Plans For You".

The Emerging Church movement has fallen under the THREE-FOLD ERRORS that are depicted in the book of Jude:

"Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Korah." Jude 1:11.

- They have followed Cain in that they do not want to present the only way of salvation, sacrifice by Blood alone;
- the mega churches are filled today with those who make big bucks from religion,
- they love reward as Balaam did;
- they are as KORAH, rebellious against the true fire of God's Holy Word and His Spirit – and seek to establish their own "fire".

"Woe unto them" indeed.

Church" has impacted the denominations across national barriers. It is about using worldly methods, worldly cultural preferences, the music of the world and the "CHANGING" social patterns to form up church structures and programs. It has merged into the New Age movement!

The use of the word "CHANGE" was noticed by a Baptist friend in Australia a number of years ago – the ministers and hierarchy of his denomination were insisting that they were 'change agents' and that they must bring "change" to the churches.

- This is also about the revolution against the Godly patterns and doctrines of "the past",

- a rebellion against the simplicity of Christ and the power of the Word alone.

Society is changing, "they" say, and so the churches must change or become redundant!

Satan always uses truth in some form in order to propagate his lies.

Would anyone listen to unvarnished error and deception?

Yes, it is true, that the society of the 21st century has changed dramatically since the 1960s and 1950s, but

- the Word of God never changes,
- the methods God uses never change.

When ever did Christianity have to pattern itself on any society or cultural patterns?

Never!

Did Paul and Peter have to pattern their Gospel and ministry on the Roman culture, and appeal to the unsaved by dressing like Romans, using Roman music and fitting into society?

No, they just got out of the way and let God bring forth His Son through them, in miraculous might. God shook up the whole world with simple men and women who were abandoned to Him.

Did the early Protestant Reformers have to adapt to the cultural traditions of the Renaissance?

Of course not. Because real, authentic Christianity is not about worldly culture it is about supernatural power from God Almighty; it is about the might of God's Word being proclaimed by the Holy Ghost, a different realm all together than the world's.

We are in this world but not of it.

What is needed today for the Christian Gospel to go forth in power?

Well, we surely do not have to become "relevant" to our society. The REMNANT CHURCH needs to come in contrition, repentance and confession. It needs to return to

- devoted intercession and
- unceasing, fervent prayer - and
- to BELIEVE God and His promises.

It needs to be aware as never before of the fact that GOD ALONE has some bookshops and churches. The Baptist Union, unbelievably, has some involvement with the Labyrinth. Rick Warren, of the infamous Purpose Driven Church/Life, is leading his followers into this monstrosity, so we will no doubt see those denominations which has succumbed to Dr. Warren being drawn into the Labyrinth occultism, eventually. I would never have believed such churches as the Brethren, the Wesleyans and the Baptist Union would accept the Purpose Driven Life, but they have, is it too far-fetched to believe they will accept Labyrinth as well? It has become a tool of the One World Church, and encourages ecumenism between faiths. A leader in this field is Rev. Lauren Artress, canon pastor of the Episcopal "Grace Cathedral", in San Francisco.

What is this weird Labyrinth any way?

It is a twisted walk, rather like a maze but one cannot lose the path in the Labyrinth. There is only one path which leads to the middle and out again. It is "unicursal." It is a Mandela, an ancient one. It can be taken from place to place drawn by an artist upon a tarpaulin and then stretched out on a field. It can be a (See more at <http://www.to/News/Church/Klenck2.html>).

There are interconnections between Bob Buford of the Leadership Network, Rick Warren of 'purpose-driven' infamy, and Brian McLaren of the "Emerging Church." McLaren was interviewed in July 15, 2005, and his answers can be seen at <http://www.pbs.org/wnet/religionadnethics/week846/interview.html>

"How did all this get started?"

Well, back in the early 1990s there was an organization called LEADERSHIP NETWORK funded by an individual in Texas, and Leadership Network was bringing together the leaders of mega churches around the country. By the early and mid-'90s, they noticed, though, that the kinds of people that were coming to their events were getting older every year, and there wasn't a [groups of] younger people filling in. They were one of the first major organizations to notice this.

They started realizing that there was a sentence that was being said by church leaders of all denominations across the country, and that was, 'You know, we don't have anybody between 18 and 35.' When they started paying attention to this increased drop-out rate among young adults in church attendance, that opened up a discussion in the mid-'90s about Gen X. And so they started bringing together young leaders in the Gen X category to talk about what was working in the church, what wasn't working, what was going on.

After a couple of years some of these young Gen X guys said, 'You know, it's not really about a generation. It's really about philosophy; it's really about a cultural shift. It's not just about a style of dress, a style of music, but that there's something going on in our culture. And those of us who are younger have to grapple with this and live with this.' The term that they were using was the shift from modern to a postmodern culture. And so what began to happen – and as this thing had a life of its own, they said, 'If it's not just about Gen X, then we have to make sure that we get some older people who aren't just in that age frame to talk about this.'

THE DEVIL'S LIES.

The movement of the "Emerging der to recast biblical community in the new world, still forming. The recommended changes of the '60s, however had more to do with tweaking existing structures rather than calling the entire structure, right down to its foundation, into question."

"In the last decade of the 20th century, a small group of Christian leaders were drawn together by their mutual conviction that evangelism had produced a subculture that was no longer the best possible representation of Christianity. The world that had given birth to North American evangelical believers realized that pushing the same methodologies (perhaps even the idea of methodology) and striving to salvage the old worldview would increasingly alienate popular culture and future generations of Christian youth.

The group that met together to discuss these issues was fortunately blessed with astute and theologically informed thinkers like Brian McLaren and Tony Jones; ecclesiastical innovators like Todd Hunter, Chris Seay, and Brad Cecil; advocates of worship renewal like Sally Morgenthaler; and world-Christians like Andrew Jones. Scholars who had been discerning the times – Len Sweet, Stanley Grenz, N.T.Wright, Robert Webber, and Dallas Willard, to name a few – forged a biblical vocabulary that enabled the early team to converse intelligently on issues that were their passion. All of them shared two basic beliefs: western culture had radically changed since the 1050s, and the church desperately needed renovation to respond to cultural changes.

"The more the original crew talked among themselves, the more their numbers grew. In the early 1990s, Leadership Network provided the initial platform for them to generate more discussions and host conferences. Later they adopted the name The TerraNova Project, and when Leadership Network withdrew its support, they became Emergent, which Brian McLaren insists is a CONVERSATION rather than a MOVEMENT." (emphasis added).

PURPOSE DRIVEN LIFE is about a "SPIRITUAL TRANSFORMATION" of church structures and doctrines. The connection has been shown by many today:

"While many pastors and church leaders have written books that describe this spiritual transformation, the message of Pastor Brian McLaren carries more weight since he is an acknowledged leader in this movement. Some of his articles are posted at <http://> more permanent Mandela, made of stones or of hedges, created in the grounds of a church or beside a building, or on a bush walk. It is seen as an archetype, a divine imprint, it was a symbol for pilgrimage throughout the Middle Ages.

"Christians" are walking the Labyrinth in many countries. It is supposed to grant the "pilgrim" spiritual insight and to get them in touch with the spiritual "energies". "Pilgrims" walk the Labyrinth, some scream with delight, others tingle with energies, others feel their problems are solved and truth dawns - and so on. "Enlightenment" into the occult forces no doubt occurs to the walker of the Labyrinth, for it has to do with very ancient Geomancy – a delving into the nature spirits and "forces" of Mother Earth. So important is the Labyrinth becoming that there is indication that it may be used as a symbol that will overthrow the symbol of the Cross, and the Crucifix. The Labyrinth is being drawn on paper by devotees, the pictures are considered sacred, to gain spiritual power. This strange Mandela has a number of versions, along the same theme, some have a goddess figure in the centre, others have a cross. See more this issue.

THE CAUSE OF THE HUGE STORMS.

There has been some controversy over the Despatch statements about the cause of the huge storms and Tsunamis that have occurred in recent times. The newsletter "Last Trumpet" from the USA, and some others, have made the comment that the storms and upheavals have been caused by God directly, and are His judgements on nations. Despatch has commented that these have been, in our well-documented and investigated, opinion, caused by deliberate manipulation of the weather, indeed that this is WEATHER WARFARE in all its horror. We stand by our evaluation that this is so.

The global government wants to reduce the population down for Sustainable Development purposes. The proofs that the technology is available, and being used, for causing massive changes in the weather are all there for anyone to investigate – go to the Internet.

It appears to us that it is as wrong to blame God for the atomic bombs dropped on Nagasaki and Hiroshima as it is to blame Him for the Tsunamis and huge, weird storms occurring, and the many bizarre changes in weather patterns – happening global-wide.

Readers, the world and its weather is being interfered with, it is the new style warfare. Interestingly enough the next “Last Trumpet” newsletter stated that the BIRD FLU which is mutating into severe life-threatening human flu has been deliberately caused by the global masters! This is being done to bring the population down, says “Last Trumpet.” So, this is not God’s judgement, it is man-made? We agree, and so is the Weather Warfare man-made.

God sent plagues and storms in the Old Testament, it is true, but there is deliberate killing by human agencies going on in the 21st century, using seemingly “natural” causes, genocide directly from the global government. We are convinced of this fact. Yes, God is allowing our world to degenerate into this shocking state of wickedness and slaughter – and I guess that is about His judgement any way!

But, we are not in the Tribulation period of seven years yet, that is when He will bring about His own judgements upon the nations, of a severe nature.

See Revelation 6:12-17.

Call by and examine the documents we have on this weather warfare, or send for a CD and browse them on your own computer... we cannot present such large folders of data in Despatch’s pages.

WHAT IS THE “EMERGING CHURCH”?

This term, “The Emerging Church”, is being bandied around continually now.

We should grasp a few of the main tenets and activities of the movement, as this vast network is colliding with everyone and everything today, whether we realise it or not.

1...The Emerging Church is about a new kind of “Christianity”, it is bringing in new doctrines and new church configurations. It is being made “NEW” predominantly in order

- to reach the younger generation,
- to draw in the unchurched,
- to make the denominations more pleasurable and entertaining to the 18-35 year olds.

2...Robert Klenck wrote in an article on his website

<http://www.crossroad.to/News/Church/Klenck2.html>
“What’s Wrong With the 21st Century Church?”

“The Mission of the Leadership Network is to ‘Accelerate the emergence of the 21st-century church,’ and that the (emerging) ‘paradigm’ (of the 21st century church) is NOT centered in theology, but rather it is focused on structure, organization, and the transition from an institutionally based church to a mission-driven church. [emphasis added]. The Young Leader Networks, af- filiated with the Leadership Network, under the heading ‘People We Connect’ state that they connect ‘Theologians who construct new theologies that emerge out of practice.’ And that ‘We need your help to move to this “NEW AGE” of ministry built upon various experiences and expressions (emphasis added).

‘Our vision is to contextualize our message ... by narrative preaching opposed to propositional within the framework of relationship. We prefer the mediums of art, expression, and experience opposed to a 95-point sermon used by generations before us to communicate TRUTH.”

[emphasis added].

3...In an article entitled “What Is Emerging?” Chuck Smith wrote in April 28, 2005, that Leadership Network has a express role in the creation of the Emergent Church:

“As far back as 1970, Larry Richards was calling for a New Face for the Church and in 1975 Howard Snyder pointed out The Problem with Wineskins. The student revolution of the 1960s marked the beginning of change in western society, and prescient believers we already discovering that the church would have to alter some of its structures in or-

"40 Days of Community." We asked about this and what was it all about. We were told that the entire church is going to be conducting this study and getting involved in the community that we live in.

This sounded all nice and all, but again we asked, why are we doing this? What sort of program is this? We were informed it is a continuing of Rick Warren's 40 Days of Purpose which the church conducted prior to us joining and that it is part of Rick Warren's "Purpose Driven Church."

We have heard a lot about Rick Warren and The Purpose Driven Life, but we did not know about his "Purpose Driven Church" book.

We started researching and one of the first places that I started was my dear friend Berit Kjos' website Crossroad.to. We found some articles on her site and we were very surprised with what we found out.

We continued our digging and it was during that research that we kept coming across a book called "Who is Driving The Purpose Driven Church?" by an author named James Sundquist. Many articles and authors kept referring to James' book. So we sought out James Sundquist and sent him an email. We introduced ourselves and our website Prophezine to James and the rest is history.

James Sundquist is now a good friend and someone we take council with regarding the "Seeker Sensitive" movement that is entering today's church.

Both Tracye and I have poured over his book "Who is Driving The Purpose Driven Church" which is published by Noah Hutchings at Southwest Radio Church. James has written what we as well as others consider the definitive book on Rick Warren's Purpose Driven Church movement, and often refer back to his excellently researched book.

In an email to James I asked him if he would mind doing an interview with Prophezine. James thought that it was a great idea and was very insightful with the information that he provided. We think that the interview will be invaluable to our readers because it updates you to the latest consequences of Rick Warren's teachings and programs.

So with that said, I am very proud to present to you an EXCLUSIVE PROPHEZINE INTERVIEW with James Sundquist, ...

LAUGHTER IN PARLIAMENT PRESS GALLERY.

A Press Release –
3 November 05. WA.

"There were unprecedented scenes at Parliament House Canberra. The whole Press Gallery was seen rolling around the floor. At first it was assumed they had stayed too long at the bar but, not so, they were just having uncontrolled fits of laughter. It appears that Prime Minister John Howard announced that he had Intelligence Reports that there was a credible threat of a terrorist attack on Australia.

Because this was Secret PM's Business he was unable to reveal details of the possible threat however the leaked information came from reliable sources...."

The above release shows that there is considerable disbelief amongst even the Australian Press that the "terrorism threat" and the unconstitutional, authoritarian "measures" being taken to minimize the "threat" are genuine.

The Press was laughing at the Prime Minister's announcement about secret "intelligence reports" of a terrorist attack? Since then many arrests have been made, all in the name of stopping "terrorism." Our free way of life here is under threat as never before in any of our lifetimes.

Of course we don't want bombings, but news and Current Affairs programs were filled with "politicians saying that news of this imminent terrorist attack was not just another John Winston Howard beat-up to get shonky legislation through both houses in a hurry."

How much of the "threats" of terrorism are genuine we will never know – however, anyone can easily see that the legislation itself is what is being pushed, urgently. Australians are being brought into bondage to a martial law regime.

From Tony Pitt early this November:

"There is an urgent need to get the anti-terrorist laws through in the two days [of the emergency sitting in Canberra] . This is so any journalist who tells anybody that an Australian has been locked away in a secret concentration camp without trial indefinitely can be jailed for seven years."  Editorial Cont'd

THE DARK SIDE OF THE P. D. C.

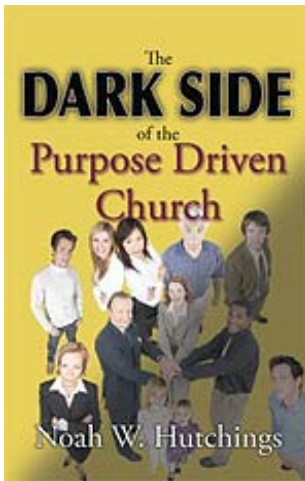

Despatch contains more material on the Purpose Driven Church this issue.

We thank Noah Hutchings for a copy of his informative book "The Dark Side of the Purpose Driven Church."

Noah Hutchings of Southwest Radio Church Ministries, Oklahoma City, has released a book that gives church members' experiences in the USA – when PDC has taken over their fellowships and buildings. The results have been catastrophic. Despatch reviews the excellent book, with anecdotes in our pages.

From JAMES SUNDQUIST, director of Rock Salt Publishing, we received a frightening report on 13th November. Note in particular that Rick Warren of PDC is connected with the President of Rwanda, Paul Kagame, and would like to see Rwanda become the first 'Purpose Driven Nation'.

Also James has released a Report on Rick Warren's "World Peace Initiative"; also available are important Peace links from John D. Christian of NZ. More in Despatch.

FROM JOHN CHRISTIAN IN NEW ZEALAND.

John, the author of the Hidden Secrets of the Alpha Course, regularly sends us material that is so enlightening – thank you John. Despatch will feature this issue his critique of a new film based on the C.S.Lewis book, The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe. Commented John in November:

"This movie, after its release in December 2005, is going to become one of the greatest deceptions and propaganda films – EVER!"

Be not deceived, Christians. The film is not Christian, it is not a film to take your children to see.

* We previously had a letter from this subscriber re the Weather Manipulation/Judgement controversy, that has been covered in the last magazine.

Dear Wendy,
Thankyou for your good letter and info on the various subjects...The enclosed weather things are from a sister in Christ who lives one and a half hours out of St. George...

Like you I know that we must not let all this info consume us and rob us of our "Joy in Christ". I tell some of the folk I know some of the things if they have ears to hear.

The most joy comes from telling of the Saviour and His redeeming love and work at the cross and His life now for us and His coming again. If people accept Him and have the indwelling Holy Spirit He will open their eyes to all they ought to see and guide into all the truth as they read and feed on the Word of God...

I watched cloud seeding with silver iodine when i was a teenager on our family farm and how clouds suddenly disappeared so I understand weather manipulators have developed lots in 50 or more years. Farmers can fire rockets to change a potential hail storms so who knows what can be done.

Thankyou again.

With love in our Lord's name.

Dear Wendys both,
As I promised, here is my interview with Ray Gano, Director of Prophezine Magazine.

Exclusive Prophezine Interview with James Sundquist, Author of "Who is Driving The Purpose Driven Church?" By Ray Gano

Prophezine Magazine interviews James Sundquist on his book Who's Driving the Purpose Driven Church? which exposes the teachings and unbiblical covenants of Rick Warren and his Purpose Driven Life. James answers some of the most common questions and defenses and updates you on the latest updates and consequences of Warren's programs and those who oppose his teachings.

Recently my wife and I were informed that the church we were attending at that time is going to have a huge campaign called

IS WORLD PEACE COMING?

People like Rick Warren are claiming they can bring world peace by enlisting one billion men in an army, to then establish Purpose Driven Nations, to bring assistance, feed and clothe, bring peace, establish "churches" and so forth. Strangely the world government, the Illuminati world government, is doing just the same. It brings the same message, only the terms are changed somewhat. Or is it so strange? Rick Warren is using a version of Peter Drucker's "market-driven" strategies to present his "purpose-driven" strategies – he only changed one word in reality. Graham Strachan in Australia has written on the myth of 'world peace', it was written to describe the globalists' marketing strategy – he makes us see that it is foolish to expect 'peace' to come by such a world union, a global union.

Rick Warren is just another voice bringing the same ghastly lies. Apply these comments to Warren: "Globalist marketing strategy has been to promote the idea that world government is the only way to achieve 'world peace'. Because the wars of the past were fought between nations or groups of nations, nationalism and national borders must have 'caused' the wars if the first place, so that national borders must have 'caused' wars in the first place, so the 'reasoning' goes." Addressing the 3046th meeting of the United Nations (UN) on January 31, 1992, then ex-Secretary-General Boutros Boutros-Ghali said: '...narrow nationalism can disrupt a peaceful global existence. Nations are to interdependent, national frontiers are too porous and transnational realities... too dangerous to permit egocentric isolationism... [Egocentric isolationism is globospeak for nationalism].'

But through the efforts of researchers like Professor Antony Sutton it is now known that the forces promoting world government are the very same forces which helped precipitate wars in the past, and made huge fortunes financing both side.

The claim that abolishing nations will abolish war ignores the possibility of the existence of a perpetual state of war, or potential war, between a tyrannical world government and the people of the world. Not surprisingly, the greatest threat to genuine world peace at the moment are the globalists themselves acting through their chief instrument, the administrative arm of the United States government. Between 1992-99 (the Clinton era), America deployed military troops to 33 foreign places, and attacked and bombed Iraq 1991-99. Bosnia 1995, Sudan 1998, Afghanistan 1998, and Yugoslavia 1999.

Globalists are now claiming the right to bomb sovereign nations whose leaders refuse to obey orders. The bombing of Yugoslavia (1999) was a warning to the rest of the world. 'World peace' is to be maintained by a central world government possessing all the weapons (biological, chemical, nuclear, economical and ideological) while the people of the world are to be legally disarmed."

GOD SENDS SHOCKING MESSAGE TO EMERGING CHURCH.

Take note of the e-mail from PAUL PROCTOR, November 14, 2005. A Waco pastor, Kyle Lake, was electrocuted while he was standing in a baptistery full of water, holding an electronically charged microphone. This pastor was a prominent Emerging Church, apostate, leader. Paul gives the closing remarks of a sermon the pastor was preaching just before he was killed so dramatically. The remarks are nauseating.

The "Emerging Church" is yet another snappy title for the same old heretical clap-trap that has been haunting the churches in 2005. People, God is not mocked, He will not suffer forever the disgraceful heresies and abominations going on in Christendom. Remember Ananias and Sapphira in Acts 5: "But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost... And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things."

Should not fear come upon those who have perverted the Word of God, and who teach evil and call it "Christianity"? Paul Proctor's brave denouncement can be summed up with this anecdote from his e-mail:

"Clearly, any man or woman who disobeys the physical laws God has established in this earthly domain risks dying a physical death, as evidenced by the tragic event. It should also be noted that those who violate the spiritual laws of God risk death, as well; and anyone who has researched with any discernment, conviction and knowledge of scripture, the unbiblical teachings and practices of the Emerg-

RICK WARREN'S GLOBAL P.E.A.C.E. PLAN

The apostate leader, Rick Warren, is launching a billion man "Christian" army as he stated to his church, on April 17, 2005 before 30,000 members and attendees.

ing Church movement knows all too well that the laws of the Lord and His Word are not only being violated for the sake of the sensual; but also that the leaders of this new spirituality are teaching others to emulate them and practice many ungodly things in the name of Christ such as new age mysticism, the empty-minded mantras of contemplative prayer, labyrinths, the trivializing and minimizing of God's absolute truths and the casual dismissing of doctrine as divisive, destructive and unnecessary so as not to infringe upon one's own personal experience and opportunities for entertainment, excitement, enlightenment, illumination, stimulation and gratification."

Despatch heartily agrees!

Some of the alarming details given by the author, James Sundquist are as follows:

Warren is already in the process of turning Rwanda into a Purpose Driven Country with his P.E.A.C.E. Plan. In Nairobi, Kenya, American-born evangelist Loren Davis finished meeting with 300 Kenyan pastors to warn them about the dangers and pitfalls of Rick Warren's Purpose Driven programs, Davis' car was hijacked by two unidentified armed men. Davis explained that just after his men drove outside the church compound, two gunmen jumped them, forcing them into the back seat. The armed men said they didn't cooperate they would kill them. "For over thirty minutes the hijackers drove around Nairobi terrorizing them," Davis said.

In an interview at The Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life, describing his Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan, Rick Warren states about the "Christian" army:

"They don't have to be. In fact, they could be Muslim."

Rick Warren's Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan is built on the foundation of His Purpose Driven Church teachings which include secretly introducing heresies into the church

The report also found 1.56 million people — over half of those over 15 — had some financial interest in residential property and 913,800 were paying off a mortgage.

Just 0.5 per cent owned absolutely nothing and four out of 10 people had some credit card debt.

In the year between September 2003 and September last year, more than 50,000 lived alone — 349,800 people, or 9.4 per cent of the population. The ratio of people in jobs rose from 62.7 per cent of those over 15 to 65.2 per cent a year later — meaning 69,700 more people were working.

Of the 192,000 people who were not employed in 2003 but were looking for work, 148,300 were working by the same month last year. NZPA

ABOLITION OF PRIVATE PROPERTY.

From the book

22 Steps to Global Tyranny, p. 60, by Graham Strachan, B.Sc., LLB. we get quite an insight into why private property is becoming so hard to acquire. Why many citizens are now flattening or renting houses instead of owning them. Why agricultural and farming properties are being surrendered up by insolvent and defeated owners. Take a long look:

"Under the globalised system there is to be no private ownership of property. Agricultural and grazing land will be targeted first, but ultimately no property will be privately owned. Marx said that is the theory of the communists had to be summed up in a single phrase, it would be 'Abolition of private property'. When Bob Hawke (Rhodes scholar and Fabian socialist) was elected Prime Minister he was asked in a TV interview if he was a socialist. He replied that he was. Asked what he understood by that, he said it meant he did not believe the long term interests of Australians were best served by private ownership of property.

If the Australian government abolished private property directly it would be liable to pay compensation to dispossessed landowners under s.51 (xxi) of the Constitution (acquisition of property by the federal government must be on just terms). Instead, private property by the federal government will be abolished progressively by eroding the rights which go to make up property ownership, and by making the burden of property ownership too onerous to endure through bureaucratic regulation and harassment.

...The next line of attack on private property will come through land use controls, which will further erode the rights which go to make up land ownership. By inventing an ever increasing number of land use controls, and gradually tightening up on their enforcement, land holders will be reduced to little more than custodians of their land for the UN. What they will be permitted to do on their land, will be subject to supervision by an army of bureaucrats answerable ultimately to the UN."

NEWS FROM NEW ZEALAND.

November 5, 2005, New Zealand Herald. The figures below are fairly consistent with Australia, it is a sad picture of an economic low for the average person. In both countries our wealth is owned by foreign corporations and banks and just a few very rich individuals control the finance. Our private property ownership is becoming lower, statistically.

land residents over 15 was $69,800. Those in the 15-24 bracket had a median of just $2400 whereas the middle 45-to-64-year-old was worth $155,800.

With income broken down into brackets, each covering 20 per cent of the population, the middle group earned between $500 and $691 a week before tax.

The top 20 per cent earned more than $959 a week.

The report also found people's earnings largely stayed the same over the two years — two-thirds of people still found themselves in the same income bracket a year later.

High earners were even more likely to maintain their incomes — nearly 80 per cent of people in the Kiwis' average by age group:

Age 15-24	$2400
Age 45-64	$155,800

Median income $500-$691/wk

highest income bracket were still in that bracket a year later.

The most common type of household to live in was as part of a couple with children — 1.92 million people, children included, lived in such a family grouping.

As at September last year, 465,800 people lived in a family with just one parent and children.

More, 496,500 people, lived outside a family group, such as flatting.

AMID ALL the election controversy about exactly who was a middle New Zealander, Statistics New Zealand was quietly preparing to tell us. Statisticians have made their own contribution to defining the "main-stream" New Zealander — someone who lives with their partner and children, earns about $500-$700 a week before tax, and has amassed a net worth of $69,800.

Yesterday they released the second year of their Survey of Family Income and Employment Dynamics, covering the two years to September last year. It includes median figures — the middle point at which half the population is above and half below — for a range of measures on the approximately three million people aged over 15 years.

RICK AND JOHN PAUL DO THE VATICAN

Reflecting the growing influence of the "Purpose-Driven Church" philosophy in the Catholic Church, Rick Warren had an audience with His Holiness, Pope John Paul II in 2004. After spending the day "hanging out" with Warren at the Vatican, the Pope immediately issued a papal bull to add Aloha shirts to his liturgical vestments and also build a Krispy Kreme kiosk inside the Sistine Chapel. Said John Paul excitedly: "Rick thinks I have a good chance of playing bass in the new Vatican Praise Band."

sometimes learning about their removal from someone else, or even in the church bulletin! If covenants were required, it was only on staff. I have been told that staff members were not to talk about certain things. My estimate of departed member/ attendees is between 45 and 60, most of them staffers or leadership and/or volunteer workers from a church of 150 to 200. There are many more who came and left quickly, before becoming involved."

JAMES SUNDQUIST comments:

"I am utterly astonished that someone could write a book saturated with false teachings, promotion of false teachers, false translations, even blueprints for how to practice psychology, then validate his own righteousness by declaring repeatedly on the media, how he is going to give 90% of the royalty income from the sales of 30 million books back to the church, charities, and of course, to finance his Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan. Rick Warren has made a fortune by 'stumbling my little children', deceiving 30 million church readers of his Purpose Driven Life book, led astray 20,000 members of his own church, 400,000 church leaders he has trained, 20,000 churches in a host of denominations which have run his 40 Days of Purpose, and 165 countries (and at least 20 languages) and still counting, which he hopes to turn into purpose-driven countries under the banner of his Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan....And this is the good that Rick Warren is doing?

We also hear how modestly Rick Warren lives. This reminds me of the Vatican. It isn't the Pope that is rich, the wealth is held by the Roman Catholic Church. But is you are the absolute sovereign authority over its assets and distribution of funds, who needs to technically own anything? Likewise, Rick Warren has absolute authority over Saddleback Church and his Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan. So he is simply taking all of the money from one pocket and putting it in the other, but it is still the same pair of pants. It would not matter if Rick Warren gained the whole world from the sales of his book and gave all of it to finance his Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan, if the fortune was made from a book of false teachings. Rick Warren should refund the money from his book sales, and his publisher Zondervan needs to remand and recall his book!

And Christians and churches who bought his book should strongly consider having a bonfire and pitching his books into it, as set by the example of the early Christians in Acts 19:19, where they burned all of their magic arts

WRATH OF THE LAMB.

Rick Warren's Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan is a Dominionist "Kingdom Now" Peace Plan.

He completely turns eschatology upside down and what isn't upside is glaring in its omissions of critical Biblical End Time passages!

Only until the Captain of the Hosts, the true leader of the billion man (or more) army, the Lord Himself descends, will the real Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan (the Millennial Kingdom) be inaugurated.

- See Revelation 19-21.

Rick Warren's Global

P.E.A.C.E. Plan contains no plan for destroying the Antichrist, False Prophet, and binding Satan.

Jesus Christ will destroy Antichrist and False Prophet with the breath of His nostrils at (AND NOT BEFORE) His return and cast Satan into the bottomless pit for the thousand year reign of His Millennium.

If Rick Warren [could possibly] succeed, it will leave most of the population in the earth intact, absent the wrath of the Lamb. [What rubbish!]

[In reality] When the Lord returns, most of the population on the earth will be destroyed.

Rick Warren consummates his final peace without war [so he foolishly imagines].

But when the Lord returns, He will first make global war before He inaugurates His Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan, better known as The Millennial Thousand Year Reign of Christ.

"And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb."

Revelation 6:16.

Readers, we all need to realise the seriousness of these false plans for peace – they are nothing more than the counterfeit "peace" lies of the Antichrist system as it consolidates in our times.

READ chapters 19-20 of Revelation, and compare the audacious plans of Rick Warren.

Write for the whole paper by James Sundquist on the Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan of Rick Warren. It contains some shocking information!

From an e-mail:

1. The Purpose Driven Church by Rick Warren ...is a standard textbook in hundreds of Bible Colleges.
2. Over 400,000 pastors from 162 countries have been trained under Rick Warren's church growth seminar material.
3. Is it any wonder that Warren calls his philosophy a 'stealth' movement flying beneath radar that's changing literally thousands of churches around the world'?

Armed Men Hijack Car of African Evangelist

Note: This press release is authorized by African evangelist Loren Davis.

Oct 28, 2005

On September 26th, in Nairobi, Kenya, minutes after American-born evangelist Loren Davis finished meeting with 300 Kenyan pastors to warn them about the dangers and pitfalls of Rick Warren's Purpose Driven programs, Davis' car was hijacked by two unidentified armed men.

"I left after dark," said Davis.

"My crusade manager asked me and my wife to ride with him in his car, so we left our men to bring our vehicle. Later that night, we got a call from our men. They had been hijacked."

Davis explained that just after his men drove outside the church compound, two gunmen jumped them, forcing them into the back seat. The armed men said if they didn't cooperate they would kill them.

"For over thirty minutes the hijackers drove around Nairobi terrorizing them," Davis said.

"Finally, miraculously, they let our men go, along with our vehicle, stealing only two mobile phones and some small money. Our men said that they wondered if the hijackers were after me, because we had a lot of expensive electronic equipment in the vehicle, which they left alone. My vehicle, which was well marked with our ministry logo, is the one I usually ride in. It was picked out of all the cars at the conference." The incident left Davis and others shaken.

Davis, who has been an evangelist in Africa for seventeen years with his wife Celeste, is warning Christian leaders and pastors in Africa about Rick Warren and the Purpose Driven program. Davis has planted 132 churches throughout Africa

Full diplomatic relations were restored in 1982 prior to Pope John Paul II's visit to Britain.

Ever since a Foreign Office memo in 1917 which said Britain's Vatican representative "should not be filled with an unreasoning awe of the Pope," the British ambassador has been a PROTESTANT, with a Catholic as deputy, according to the director for public affairs of the archbishop of Westminster.

This continued after 1982, when the post was raised to ambassadorial status.

The UK Foreign Office made clear recently, however, that there was no bar to a Catholic taking the post.

"As the queen gets older, her diary will be assessed accordingly, the prince will take on more duties as part of a natural, carefully managed progression," said a senior courtier.

Clarence House is Prince Charles' official residence.

PRINCE CHARLES and the Duchess of Cornwall (Camilla) are being used enormously by Queen Elizabeth these days, fulfilling official duties – Charles is like a king in interim – until Mummy dies?

His new appointment was announced yesterday. In a statement, Cardinal Cormac Murphy-O'Connor of Westminster described Campbell as "an experienced diplomat who has worked with the prime minister" who was also "familiar with the language and the workings of the Catholic Church."

Relations between the United Kingdom and the Holy See were restored in 1914 after a break of 350 years.

An apostolic delegate was appointed in 1938 to represent the over the last two decades and says he is deeply troubled about the widespread influence Rick Warren has already had in many African churches. According to Davis, Rick Warren's teachings are often unscriptural and contain serious New Age implications.

Davis says his warning has been met with some hostility and risk.

"I was told by reliable sources that in Rwanda I could be arrested for criticizing Rick Warren because of Warren's connection with the president." Rick Warren has already visited with Rwandan president, Paul Kagame, and would like to see Rwanda become the first "Purpose Driven nation."

Several Kenyan pastors asked Davis if he would speak on November 2nd in Nairobi, just six days prior to Rick Warren arriving. Warren is scheduled to speak at Nairobi Pentecostal Church from November 8th to 11th.

The November 2nd meeting with Davis is expected to draw over a thousand pastors and leaders. Davis states that he will give the same documented presentation that has already convinced many African pastors and leaders to abstain from Rick Warren's fast growing world-wide agenda.

Rick Warren's global P.E.A.C.E. Plan is targeting the continent of Africa. He believes the world is on the brink of a great spiritual awakening and that every religion can be used to bring this "new reformation" into place. In May, at the "Pew and Religion Forum", Rick Warren stated:

"Who's the man of peace in any village - or it might be a woman of peace - who has the most respect, they're open and they're influential? They don't have to be a Christian. In fact, they could be a Muslim, but they're open and they're influential and you work with them to attack the five giants. And that's going to bring the second Reformation."

While Rick Warren's global P.E.A.C.E. Plan is based on good works, Davis is concerned about where this movement is ultimately heading. He is particularly concerned that this new "reformation" is under girded by ecumenical/New Age considerations.

THE LABYRINTH COMING TO A CHURCH NEAR YOU, MAYBE YOUR OWN !

Why are Professing Christians Embracing an Occult Practice and Abandoning the Cross?

Since starting to research the use of the labyrinth in the Christian Churches it has revealed truth which I feel compelled to talk about. We are in the last days and many Christians are being seduced and trapped in a totally pagan style of worship, which is spreading worldwide very rapidly.

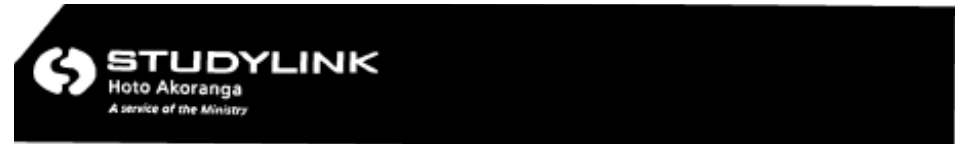

is being put forward as "the" way to go for all age groups within the congregations, but especially for our youth, and also to attract newcomers. This practise they say offers an experiential understanding of the Divine or God Himself. The great benefit for Christians is a more intimate walk with God. One man describes this prayer walking as "navigable worship", and good to get the people out of their seats. Those who do this regularly describe a sense of elation, and being relieved of their burdens, but the ritual includes the use of a mantra repeated repetitiously as you make your way to the centre, in order to be focused, being also aware of regulating your breathing and footsteps, to get best results. However in an entire year of research, not one instructor spoke of the comfort and relief of repenting, or how the Blood of Jesus shed for us on His Cross became more precious, by doing this. All are Introduction.

Firstly, what is a labyrinth or "prayer path, and why do we need to know about it?

It is a unicursal path having no traps but leading sinuously along a single path. They were often used in early temples for various ceremonies. This practise is being promoted in a number of Churches in the U.K., the U.S., Australia and New Zealand as a beneficial tool/aid for modern Christians in the mainstream Churches. This phenomena along with the "contemplative prayer life"

NOW THE BRITISH EMPIRE TODAY: THE COMMONWEALTH

Martin Lauchenauer

16 December 2005

Now the British Empire today, contrary to what most Americans are misled to believe, is still an empire, but of a very special form. It's called the Commonwealth. Most people don't know how the British Empire functions.

• They think—they believe a silly fairy tale, that the British Parliament runs Britain. It's not true.

• They believe that the Queen of report that only fourteen pits were suitable for stock market flotation led directly to Michael Heseltine's announcement in October 1992. that the remaining pits would have to be closed, with the loss of up to 44,000 jobs. The bank has since been involved in the privatisation of British Rail and Northern Ireland Electricity, and has advised the government on the sale of housing association loans and England is a figurehead. It's not true.

• They don't know what's going on.

The Parliament is a joke. It's an adaptation, a reform of the Monarchy. It does not run the Monarchy. The QUEEN runs from the top down, through a Privy Council. Number One on the Privy Council, after the Queen, is the Church of England, the head of the Church of England, and then a whole lot of other people, about 500. These 500 people run the British Empire, including the apparatus of its old Colonial Office.

The Colonial Office was never disbanded. They call it the Overseas Development Office now. The Crown Agents who ran the colonies still function. They operate whole countries around the world.

The mercenary forces we see in Africa and elsewhere are British mercenary forces, under the personal, direct command of the Queen through a thing called the Corps of Commissionaires; that is, these are generally retired military veterans, officers and high-ranking non-coms usually, both from the British Commonwealth system; that is, the various members of the British Commonwealth, or people like Americans, who are ex-GIs, officers and being encouraged to walk this way, Christian or unconverted, even to participate in communion which is made available in many labyrinths now open in the churches.

Where do we find any practise such as this in the Bible?

What are the Origins or History of the Labyrinth?

The labyrinth was in use thousands of years ago. Some say 4000, others 7,000, and even others as many as 12,000. Which ever we settle for, it was well before the birth of our Lord Jesus. The labyrinth has been found in many countries and cultures, and is clearly linked to the worship of Mother Earth / Father Sun. Worship including the labyrinth and the mandala, are still practised today, especially

- to aid meditation,
- to keep the mind of the practitioner focused.

Contemplative meditation

is still practised by,

- Native Americans,
- Sufi Moslems,
- Buddhists,
- New Agers,
- Hindus.

CHARTRES CATHEDRAL

<http://www.johnjames.com.au/chartres-thelabyrinth.shtml>

The labyrinth (above) was designed and installed by master mason Scarlet in 1200AD. This site is about the NUMEROLOGY of the labyrinth, and clearly states it's a mixture of Gnostic and Sufi Muslim. One labyrinth in side the other, and it is the only labyrinth dedicated only to Mary. The numerals of the tracks add up to the title given to Mary. N.B. Mary is acknowledged by both Catholic/Gnostic and Muslim. This man (author above URL) is also VERY interesting as he is an architect/historian, especially in Gothic architecture, and stone masonry of that time and virtually lived at the Chartres Cathedral for three years to examine it and write about it. He is also New Age and now does psychotherapy with his wife. So VERY knowledgeable. This very paper on its own makes it clear the labyrinth is not for Christians.

A mandala like the labyrinth is a small circle with a particular geometrical pattern designed to aid the mind while in meditation., and said to contain the essence of life. Contemplative meditation has a language all its own, and very foreign to a child of God, but is now being promoted as an alternative way to worship. They are found in many countries and the major religious traditions of the world:

- India,
- France,
- Egypt,
- Scandinavia,
- Crete,
- Sumeria,
- America,
- Britain,
- Italy.

Because the labyrinth's have been built by various cultures around the earth some claim they represent a universal pattern in human consciousness. Native Americans had them, and continue to use them in the sacred ceremonies of the Hopi. They call the labyrinth a symbol for Mother Earth and equated it with the Kiva (called it Tapu'at, or Mother-child)

Turf labyrinths still exist in

- England,
- Germany and
- Scandinavia;

these are thought to be linked with local feminine deities and fertility rituals.

The labyrinth as an architectural term derives its name from the famous ancient or mythical laby-riths of Crete and Egypt. The most famous Labyrinth from ancient times was the Cretan one associated with the legend of the Minotaur, the monster half-man half-bull which dwelt in the heart of a labyrinth on the Island of Crete.

THE NUMEROLOGY of the Chartres Cathedral Labyrinth. (As described by a New Age Architect/Historian, who has given many years to the topic, and also studied the Chartres Cathedral, on site for three years. cf p.17 this issue)

The meanings that seem to have been embedded into the labyrinth are both Christian and Muslim One set comes from the Gnostic tradition of the Chartres School, and the other from Sufi beliefs. Though the two sides were at war in the Crusades, the mystic arms of both religions were pursuing the same goals.

THE USE OF ELEVEN.

The Chartres labyrinth has eleven tracks, or rings. Eleven is a somewhat non-Christian number. Its source may be eastern. In early Hindu numerology the most important shrines had eleven roofs, as in Bali today. The Koran sets out the 99 names of God that encompass the whole of His creation, to which is added the in-nameable name, called by the Sufis "The State of Blindness".

The next highest state is "the Hu", felt as the exhalation, the primordial

"LIVE RUGBY-TEST SCREENINGS IN CHURCH KICK SUNDAY SERVICES DOWN FIELD."

A Tauranga church in New Zealand replaced Sunday morning services with screenings of the ALL BLACKS tour matches in Britain and Ireland – in a bid to attract worshippers. The above heading was in the NZ Herald October 28, 2005. The church's regular services were held on Friday nights instead, so that the tests could be shown on successive Sundays, until Nov.6. The church was one of the first churches in Tauranga to introduce the Alpha Course.

outflow of the breath of the One when He first sees Himself as both object and subject. It is the first duality, the first Yin and Yang. From here he continues the definition of archetypes, then of matter, and so on until the whole of creation is manifest.

The state of Hu is the highest man can reaching the quest. He cannot become God, but can approach the rose in the centre thus far. This is the most intimate name of God repeated eleven times. It is usually drawn as one + one, as two strokes one behind the other so is seen as one but prescient dual. Thus it is well depicted as eleven.

The Chartres Cathedral in France is the only cathedral built only for Mary. Even the numerology ascribed to the tracks of the labyrinth add up to the name Beata Virgo Maria.

THE CHARTRES CATHEDRAL LABYRINTH.

THE MOST POPULAR LABYRINTH AMONG CHRISTIANS, and promoted especially by Grace Cathedral San Francisco.

Interestingly, its' the very labyrinth just described, which is being used in many places and, Grace Cathedral is the Centre of training and promotion for the Christian Churches world wide. Facilitators are going there from all over, and returning to their own countries to pass on the philosophy and seduce and train up others in the rituals.

Rev. Lauren Artress heads up the Veridatis or Labyrinth Department in San Francisco, and is a Psycho-therapist by profession. She received much of her training at JEAN HOUSTON's School of Mysticism.

(Despatch has seen the horror of Jean Houston's 'kiniesiology' personally demonstrated at Old St. Lucia University, a few years ago now, covered in Despatch magazine at the time.)

She fully promotes The Divine Feminine and states,

"The labyrinth provides a sacred space where the inner and outer world can commune, where the thinking mind and the imaginative heart flow together—a space to listen to our inner voice of wisdom” She speaks of walking the labyrinth in the following manner.

Walking the labyrinth is a spiritual discipline that invites us to trust the path, to surrender to the many turns our lives take, and to walk through the confusion, the fear, the anger, the grief that we cannot avoid experiencing as we live our earthly lives. The labyrinth is the place where we can open ourselves to the holy spirit.

(Despatch: not the true Holy Spirit). We can ask for guidance and pray for our loved ones and ourselves.

So if these rituals and beliefs were practised by other religions and cultures that are of a non-Christian origin, what value would they offer a Christian who has all that he needs in Jesus Christ according to Scripture? This phenomena is actually leading some into demonic encounters, or ecstatic experiences.

And what does the Bible say about these?

Simply not to participate in them.

SO WHO IS PROMOTING THE PRACTISE OF THE CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER LIFE IN THE LABYRINTH?

As we said at the beginning there are many Churches doing so.

THE EMERGING CHURCH -

MOVEMENT in many ways is promoting these practises as an alternative means of worship, with

- candles, • incense and
- special music.

There has clearly been a resurgence and “makeover” of the labyrinth and the contemplative prayer life. Ray Yungen in his book “A Time of Departing” (A previous Despatch has a review of this book available from Lighthouse Trails Pub.) describes this time in the history of the Church very well. Rick Warren’s Church is also practising the contemplative prayer life. A number of books by mystical writers, and books describing the labyrinth can be purchased at his on-line website. Other leaders of the Emerging Church Movement say “the Bible is no longer sufficient”, and that we will be able to meet with all faiths in “the contemplative”.

The New Spirituality and The New Interspirituality are new words to watch for, as are books about the Emergent, or Emerging Church. They are just starting to appear for sale here in Australia. The Evangelical Churches in the U.S. are very keenly involved including,

- Methodist,
- Church of Christ, • Presbyterian,
- varied streams of Baptists, • as well as Episcopalian, • Anglican,
- Lutheran and • A.O.G.
- Many Bible Colleges are also ining the rest of their doomed lives thinking they’re saved because of it?

How do you back up and undo that kind of deceitful damage and convince them that what they underwent so innocently in front of everyone was a farce initiated by their pastor?

Don’t grieve for Kyle Lake, my friends; grieve for all of those who never heard the words “sinner,” “shed blood,” “repent,” “resurrection” or the Gospel of Jesus Christ preached!

And please don’t write me to say what a kind, wonderful, generous, loving and funny person Rev. Lake was because that’s not a sufficient replacement for proclaiming the whole counsel of God; and I’m quite sure Ananias, Sapphira, Hymenaeus, Alexander and Philetus were all dearly loved and treasured by their friends, family and followers as well. There is only

- one true God,
- one true Gospel and
- One Name in all of Creation that saves;

and that name is JESUS CHRIST!

“Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.” - Acts 4:12

The folks at University Baptist Church and The Associated Baptist Press might consider Rev. Lake’s death an accident; but I assure you, as Romans 8:28 clearly teaches, there is no such thing between the Alpha and the Omega. It happened; and it happened for a reason.

He didn’t die a martyr’s death, like Stephen, courageously proclaiming God’s Word to angry men bearing stones. He wasn’t beaten, crucified or burned at the stake for his unwillingness to renounce his faith in God. Lake was killed trying to baptize someone in front of an adoring audience; and the Lord stopped him dead in his tracks.

Why would He do that?

Paul didn’t drop dead when he shook the poisonous viper off his arm after being shipwrecked on the Island of Melita among barbarous villagers that needed to hear the Gospel. The Lord even spared Paul’s shipmates when they heeded His Word to abide in the vessel rather than flee the raging waters in another boat. If they had listened to Him in the beginning they wouldn’t have even lost the ship!

So why did Rev. Kyle Lake drop dead before hundreds of Emergent Church worshippers? That’s the question that needs to be asked and answered because there are no accidents beneath the Throne of God; and judging from some of the Emergent blogs I’ve read, participants are sorely troubled and confused by this tragedy.

Some are having difficulty

Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. -

1 John 2:15-17

Just how is the Lord glorified in the worship of the world, the adulation of men, the gratification of the flesh, the satisfying of the senses and the personal pursuits, ambitions and "unequally yoked" relationships of the here and now in a Sunday morning sermon?

"Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God" - James 4:4

Lake's words read more like those of a new age poet or 60's flower child enticing those around him into participating in whatever the world has to offer through a craving appetite for euphoric feelings, fun and friendships rather than a child of God faithfully forsaking all to proclaim His Word even unto death, as men of God are called to do.

Notice the stark contrast between Lake's seductive words and those of the Psalmist and his son, Solomon:

"The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever."

Psalm 111:10

"The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction."

- Proverbs 1:7

"The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding." - Proverbs 9:10

In fact, nothing in scripture even remotely resembles the heralded expressions and whimsical aspirations found in Rev. Lake's final message. One might just as easily find such things in a secular bookstore among the esoteric writings of an atheist, agnostic, pagan or occultist; or in a romance paperback from some corner market; in the songs of a struggling Starbuck's singer on a Saturday night; or in the syrupy script of an afternoon soap.

I downloaded the entire sermon he prepared and saw the name of "Jesus" mentioned only once in passing; and even then He was not identified as the Christ, much less the Son of God or someone who died on a cross for the sins of the world. The Gospel was simply not preached!

This is the NEW SPIRITUALITY; and it troubles me deeply that many are not going to hear it because today's preachers won't preach it!

Can you think of anything more tragic than lost souls being baptized before an applauding audience of their peers and spend-involved.

don't be disgusted if the Kleenex didn't catch it all... because soon he'll be wiping his own. If you've recently experienced loss, then GRIEVE. And Grieve well. At the table with friends and family, LAUGH. If you're eating and laughing at the same time, then might as well laugh until you puke. And if you eat, then SMELL. The aromas are not impediments to your day. Steak on the grill, coffee beans freshly ground, cookies in the oven. And TASTE. Taste every ounce of flavor. Taste every ounce of friendship. Taste every ounce of Life. Because-it-is-most-definitely-a-Gift."

- Where's the call to repentance - the willing self-sacrifice of the redeemed - the grateful suffering and faithful testimony of a blood-purchased saint?
- Where is the dire warning to the rebellious about an eternity in hell that awaits those who refuse to heed the call?
- And, what about God's eternal, unchanging and indisputable Word, and the Cross of Christ that is repeatedly referred to throughout?

A Cross that was selflessly and sacrificially endured by His only Begotten Son to deliver us from this fallen world and pay for your hideous sins and mine.

Is he preaching a tantalizing message of sensory gratification, psychotherapy and escape to pleasure seekers on holiday or obediently pointing sinners toward an undeserved opportunity for eternity with Jesus Christ in a Kingdom not of this world?

Just whose life, death, kingdom and words are being exalted and memorialized here; those of a dying man or a living God? Compare his priorities to those of Jesus:

"If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple." - Luke 14:26

And his testimony to Paul's testimony:

"I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." - Galatians 2:20

Frankly, Rev. Lake sounds like someone who was absolutely in love with his life, the world around him and everyone in it, which is the expressed reverse of what the Bible teaches:

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the really bad place where the violation happened.”

I would only add that the Emergent Church is also in a really bad place right now; that many spiritual laws are also being violated; and they would do well to heed the Word of God and repent before their artsy-craftsy plans for the future are unexpectedly altered, like Rev. Lake's.

Clearly, any man or woman who disobeys the physical laws God has established in this earthly domain risks dying a physical death, as evidenced by the tragic event at Baylor.

It should also be noted that those who violate the spiritual laws of God risk death, as well; and anyone who has researched with any discernment, conviction and knowledge of scripture, the unbiblical teachings and practices of the Emerging Church movement knows all too well that the laws of the Lord and His Word are not only being violated for the sake of the sensual; but also that the leaders of this new spirituality are teaching others to emulate them and practice many ungodly things in the name of Christ such as

- new age mysticism,
- the empty-minded mantras of contemplative prayer,
- labyrinths,
- the trivializing and minimizing of God's absolute truths and

- the casual dismissing of doctrine as divisive, destructive and unnecessary so as

- not to infringe upon one's own personal experience and opportunities for entertainment, excitement, enlightenment, illumination, stimulation and gratification.

University Baptist Church (UBC) posted the closing remarks of the last sermon their pastor gave that fateful day on their web site. It contains the words they evidently would most like you and I to remember him by.

To say the least,

they are quite revealing:

“Live. And Live Well. BREATHE. Breathe in and Breathe deeply. Be PRESENT. Do not be past. Do not be future. Be now. On a crystal clear, breezy 70 degree day, roll down the windows and FEEL the wind against your skin. Feel the warmth of the sun. If you run, then allow those first few breaths on a cool Autumn day to FREEZE your lungs and do not just be alarmed, be ALIVE. Get knee-deep in a novel and LOSE track of time. If you bike, pedal HARD... and if you crash then crash well. Feel the SATISFACTION of a job well done-a paper well-written, a project thoroughly completed, a play well-performed. If you must wipe the snot from your 3-year old's nose, offering a range of help, especially in the Contemplative area, kind will travel all over N.Z. to any Church who asks them to come.

- Frederic Wallis House. Lower Hutt. They offer retreats, conferences and have a Chartres style labyrinth for their guests.

- St. Columbas Church Grey Lynn Auckland, has a strong interest in the labyrinth, promoting the “sacredness and ancient healing qualities they say the labyrinth holds.”

- Houchen House, in Hamilton. Also a retreat centre.

- Avoca House Castle Hill Village, Canterbury. They offer a circuit labyrinth, and will make them portable to order .

- Mahara Park and Te Moata Retreat. Both on the Coromandel Peninsula. Both offer labyrinths for walking.

By and large the scene in New Zealand is awash with the Emerging Church Movement, including the Purpose Driven Programme. Meditative/centering prayer seems to be happening in a number of places along with growing interest in labyrinths.

SO WHERE TO
FROM HERE?
HOLDING FAST IS THE WAY TO GO.

The Word of God is our only sure light/lamp in these darkening times .There are few clear trumpet calls these days. ITimothy 4 verse 1 tells us that some will be drawn away by seducing spirits in the last days before Jesus comes for the Church. We are urged to HOLD FAST or CONTINUALLY LAY TO HEART what we have received and heard. Revelation 3:3,11.KJV.

Also to hold fast the name of Jesus and what we have. Revelation 2:13,25.

We are exhorted to hold fast the confidence and hope of our profession of faith according to Hebrews 3:6, 4:14,10:23.

Walking the labyrinth is most surely a pagan practise .They have been used by the Desert fathers and Mothers and other orders of Monks since first being discovered, then since the reformation were abandoned until very recently. The new upsurge and revival of its use is a return to RITUAL. The sacrifice of our Lord Jesus brought an end to ALL ritual. If it did not then His death was in vain.

Dear born-again-Bible-believing reader, who is He to you? This is the very question asked of the children of Israel in the book of Malachi. They were challenged with a number of questions about the sacrifices they were bringing, but it was the underlying attitude that needed changing. The very real rebuke comes in Malachi 1:12,13 where the Lord says you have snuffed/sniffed at my table, you have called it contemptible and polluted. Is His provision to us no longer sufficient that we must pollute it now with Labyrinthian worship?

THE SOUND CONCLUSION IS WE CANNOT CHRISTIANISE THE LABYRINTH.

you want to ask Rick Warren what Paul's "S.H.A.P.E." was, doesn't it? He also cited another false teacher named "Philetus" in, shall we say, less than endearing terms over in 2nd Timothy 2.

I think it's safe to say that comments like those from Peter and Paul would pretty much render them unsuitable for staff jobs at Saddleback or Willow Creek because you see, unlike the cowardly and enabling church leader today, they used to name the names of heretics and blasphemers; and today's GLASS HOUSE GOSPEL doesn't really allow that sort of thing any longer. So, if you are planning a career in ministry, just remember; when it comes to criticizing your corrupt contemporaries, mum's the word. My how things have changed...

"Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear."

1 Timothy 5:20

So, were they being cruel, unloving and disobedient to God by saying such things to the brethren? Where's all the kind, gentle, caring and coddling compassion we are constantly commanded to show today's false prophets and their underlings who incessantly lead others astray from the pulpits of perdition in a choreographed confusion directed by the "father of lies?"

And then there was that perverse fellow Paul so harshly addressed in his first letter to the Corinthians, who had an incestuous affair with his father's wife; commanding the church there to:

"... deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus."

(1 Corinthians 5:5)

Wow! Talk about "mean-spirited!" Imagine hearing that in your Sunday morning announcements! This can't be the same fellow that penned chapter 13, could it?

And let's not forget those memorable words from the Author of love and compassion Himself, Jesus Christ, when He addressed those who would dare fracture the faith of a child:

"And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea." - Mark 9:42

Do you get the uneasy feeling that a completely different gospel is being preached today? Yeah, me too...

Terry Esau, a visiting speaker to UBC and witness to the horrible electrocution of Rev. Lake that morning in Waco, was quoted in a World Net Daily article as saying:

"I think he [Kyle] would have said, 'There are laws of nature, electrical laws, and they were violated that day and I was in a

NewsWithViews.com

November 14, 2005

The ABPnews.com headline read:
"Waco pastor Kyle Lake killed in freak baptism accident."

I thought to myself:

"Yeah, I guess this one just slipped by the Sovereign God of the Universe. Maybe the Lord was stuck in line at the food court waiting for an espresso when the lights flickered."

"His eye is on the sparrow" but evidently not on a prominent Emerging Church leader standing in a baptistery full of water holding an electronically charged microphone before a crowd of 800 on Sunday morning following a prayer where he petitioned the Almighty to "surprise me." Apparently the Ancient of Days only numbers the hairs of your head when you're properly grounded.

If the ABP article and its curious headline had appeared in The Associated Press rather than the Associated Baptist Press, it probably wouldn't have drawn my attention; but seeing as it was featured in a "FAITH-BASED" publication, the article's title stands out like a sore oxymoron.

Now before some of you go indignant on me for my lack of sympathy over this pastor's sudden demise, I would ask you to consider the late Ananias and the Apostle Peter's caustic comment to his wife Sapphira before she dropped dead in front of that congregation:

"...behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out." - Acts 5:9

I couldn't help but notice that he didn't gently take her hand and try to comfort or console her over the untimely death of her husband before breaking part two of the bad news. Was Peter being un-Christ-like in his terse remarks to her or was he busy teaching onlookers something more important, like the necessity of fearing and obeying God?

And what about that little diatribe the Apostle Paul wrote to his young protégé' in 1st Timothy 1:20 about having "delivered unto Satan" Hymenaeus and Alexander "that they may learn not to blaspheme?" Where's the love here, for crying out loud? Kind of makes

BEWARE : DO NOT ENTER INTO "CENTERING PRAYER"

Watchman Fellowship- Profile by Bob Waldrep

Extract: from a longer critique... on Centering

"...Centering Prayer contains the common elements above of: sitting, emptying one's mind of directed thoughts (or mental activity), looking inward, and utilizing a mantra (or focused thought) to keep the mind from thinking or wandering. The following four components offered by Keating, attest to this, as do the teachings of other Centering proponents.

1. Choose a sacred word as the symbol of your intention to consent to God's presence and action within.
2. Comparable to "mantra", noted Centering promoter Brennan Manning proposes, "What masters of the interior life recommend is the discipline of centering down throughout the day - a quiet persistent turning to God..." His description of how this is done is very much like that in the chart above: "The frequent repetition of the name 'Jesus' or 'Abba, Father' throughout the day will prove helpful. Even a mechanical recitation of the name will suffice - eventually, it gets into your subconscious and a transformation of mind and heart takes place."
3. Sitting comfortably and with eyes closed, settle briefly, and silently introduce the sacred word as the symbol of your consent to God's presence and action within.

Posture is very important as many Eastern practitioners believe the body contains energy spheres or chakras that if, properly aligned bring one in touch with the divine consciousness or one's own divinity. This is similar to teachings, by noted Centering Prayer instructors: Jesuit Priest Anthony De Mello recommends the "lotus posture...of yoga" or keeping the "back straight" which he acknowledges is important in Zen meditation. On this same point, Pennington states, "...when they [the backbones] are all lined up, the energy is freed."

4. When you become aware of thoughts return ever-so-gently to the sacred word.

5. At the end of the prayer period, remain in silence with eyes closed for a couple of minutes.

Manning also recommends these four steps and notes, "Contemporary spiritual masters recommend two twenty-minute periods of contemplative prayer each day."

As the above chart indicates, it is not just Christian" contemplatives that recommend this.

The ultimate goal of each of these steps is to achieve and maintain the turn inward. Eastern religions teach that the "turn inward" is for the purpose of reaching enlightenment, or illumination - the realization that "self" as one perceives it really doesn't exist; there is only the nothingness taught by some schools of Buddhism or the divine conscious ness of all taught in many schools of Hinduism. Sri Swami Rama refers to this as a person realizing his, "essential nature and he abides in that state of pure Consciousness."

Conclusion: In light of the background of the Centering Prayer Movement, there should be little wonder that concern are raised when advocates use terms like interior silence, pure consciousness, transformation/transforming union, unloading the unconscious, etc. This concern is compounded by how these terms are used. For example, Keating defines "Transformation" as: "...a restructuring of consciousness in which the divine reality is perceived to be present in oneself and in all that is".

Despite the protestations otherwise, it is difficult to believe that what he means by this is not more Eastern than Christian, especially when he states that, "God and our true self are not separate. though we are not God, God and our true Self are the same thing."

BIBLICAL RESPONSE

Those involved in Centering Prayer seek to support it with Scripture; however, their references are vague allusions, at best, leaving them to appeal to tradition or the practices of other religions to substantiate their claims. As Ankerberg and Weldon note regarding so-called Christian meditation that utilizes Eastern methodologies: "...we do not see Jesus in the New Testament sitting in yoga positions, or encouraging people to 'practice yoga t'ai chi, and aikido' or to study the pagan Bhagavad Gita, the Upanishads, Lao Tzu, or the teachings of Confucius and Buddha."

The purpose of Biblical meditation is not to empty one's mind of thought. Instead, Biblical meditation seeks to focus the mind on God's revealed word. God told Joshua to "meditate on [the book of the law] day and night" (Josh. 1:8). In the Psalms, David spoke of his meditation on God's word (1:2, 119:23, 48, 148). Meditation is not always focused on God's word however. David meditated on the character and works of God: his precepts (Ps. 119:15), His wonders (Ps. 119:27), works of His hands (Ps.143:5) and "glorious splendor of [His] majesty" (Ps.145:5). These beautiful truths filled David's mind as he meditated.

On the one occasion, recorded in Scripture, when the disciples asked Jesus to teach them how to pray, (Luke 11:1-4, Mt. 6:7-13) he gave very specific instructions: Acknowledge the Father, recognize your needs, your sins and your need to forgive others, and be alert to the temptations that come to you (such things cannot be found through emptying one's mind of all thoughts). Interestingly, he also warns to avoid "vain repetitions" in prayer (Mt 6:7).

stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns."

Revelation 17:1-7.

How do we know from Scripture that Rick Warren's Global P.E.A.C.E Plan is a fake?

The Bible shows us what will happen, it shows us clearly that there will be no peace without the Coming of the Lord – but there are many things to happen before He returns to this earth and His feet stand on the Mount of Olives. There are signs of the times in the Bible, these signs will all happen right on schedule before Peace comes to the earth. Look these up in your Bible, and get the scriptural sequence right in your mind. These are days filled with strong, convincing and powerful delusions.

SEVEN SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

The day of the Lord is preceded by seven signs.

- 1...The sending of Elijah (Malachi 4:5; Rev.11:3-6);
- 2...Cosmical disturbances (Joel 2:1-12; Matt.24:29; Acts 2:19,20; Rev.6:12-17);
- 3...The insensibility of Christendom (1 Thess.5:1-3);
- 4...The apostasy of Christendom, or the professing but not "alive" churches. The professing Church becomes "Laodicia" (2 Thess.2:3; Rev.3:14-19).
- 5...The Rapture of the True Church (1 Thess.4:17);
- 6...The manifestation of the Anti-christ, the "man of sin" or the Beast (2 Thess. 2:1-8);
- 7...The judgements from God that are apocalyptic, all must happen before peace comes to the earth (Rev.11-18).

- A Global Peace Plan that does nothing to rid the earth of wickedness and evil is an impossibility!
- A Global "Peace" Plan that joins the hands of a billion men, Muslims, apostate church men, Israel, political activists, leaders of nations, in a great army, sounds like terrifying events about to explode on the world to me!

4... The Millennial Reign of Christ will finally finish in failure – mankind will again rebel against the Lord God, right at the end of this wonderful Age. Even after peace and perfect conditions for a thousand years, still Satan can tempt humans into rebellion against the Creator! Hard to believe, but it is true for God has revealed the future to those who read and trust His Word. Then God will renovate the earth by fire – and He will bring in the Perfect Age, the New Earth forever and forever.

THE REIGN OF ANTICHRIST.

The reign of Antichrist will happen before peace comes to earth for a thousand years.

This is DANIEL'S SEVENTIETH WEEK, a week of years, seven years. There will be a great religious world power in that Tribulation period, the Bible calls this religious amalgamation – the Scarlet Woman. "She" will be larger than just the Roman Catholic Church, she will be a syncretism of religions, with the denominations of all Christendom merged in a horrible perversion of the Truth. She will be riding on the Antichrist system, "the Beast", or the mighty world rule of evil. There is not a shadow of a doubt that the Global P.E.A.C.E. Plan of Rick Warren's is a part of this apostate, global rule of the Scarlet Woman, the End Time One World Church emerging in our lifetimes.

Let the BIBLE speak on this spurious "P.E.A.C.E. Plan":

" And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious

THE LION, THE WITCH & THE WARDROBE – HAS LANDED!

The film that is to be used to seduce the mindless masses, The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe, by C.S. Lewis, is about to be released in Australia as I write this article. It will have entered our country in theatres across Australia when the reader gets Despatch. It will be used to destroy the Christian Church, yet the vast majority of church-goers and the mechanical robots they call pastors and ministers will hail this outrage with glee! John Christian has written on this subject, we have included his grieved comments for our subscribers:

He says,

"This movie, after its release in December 2005, is going to become one of the greatest deceptions and propaganda films - EVER!"

C. S. LEWIS, ANTI-CHRIST & THE COUNTERFEIT "LION OF JUDAH"

by John D. Christian NZ (March, 2005)

In Genesis 49:9-10 when Israel blessed his sons, he said Judah would be like a "lion" – "until Shiloh come." In this context "Shiloh" was an epithet and prophecy of Israel's coming Messiah, Jesus Christ. Later, in the New Testament, in Revelation 5:5, Israel's Messiah is again described as the "Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David." I Kings 8:1 reminds us that the city of David in Jerusalem is Zion and Psalm 48:1-2 says that mount Zion, on the sides of the north, is the city of the great King (capitalized). The New Testament tells us that this great King or "KING OF KINGS" is Jesus Christ.

Satan is a great counterfeiter, and in high level witchcraft the LION has long been used to represent the false Messiah or Anti-Christ. In ancient times the pagan Mithraic initiates were called lions, and the sun-god Mithras himself was often depicted with the head of a lion and two pairs of wings. The beast in Revelation 13:2 has the mouth of a lion. In real life, the chief lion of the pride is called the Alpha male.

The LION in the witchcraft of British Freemasonry and the "Grip of the Lion's Paw" in the Master Mason's degree all have extremely close connections to the British lion and emblem of ancient Mithras sun-god worship encapsulated in Masonry's Anti-Christ sun-god deity called CHiram.

This Masonic Mithraic sun-god "lion" deity is craftily depicted in the occult writings of Luciferian author, C. S. Lewis, who was a Theosophist immediately before he entered the Anglican Church and supposedly became a Christian. Many of Lewis' most ardent New Age fans, including hordes of apostate Christians, who naively revere him as a Christian when in reality he was not, see in his occult writings an allegory of Christ.

In his popular witchcraft book, "The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe", when the great LION, Aslan (a subtle play and epithet of Satan – all that the author has done is exchange the 't' in Satan for the 'l' in lion and scrambled the word), lays down his life to free the children from the curse of the evil witch and then he comes back to Mithraic life again to destroy the witch's power, C. S. Lewis is NOT allegorically referring to the role of Jesus Christ – he is plainly alluding to Anti-Christ and Satan.

The mysterious Satanic personalities in Lewis' witchcraft books are not just genuinely inspired, innocent 'fairytale' characters conjured up by the author, as most people unconsciously believe. They are old pagan mythological demons or "nature spirits" stolen from secular Babylonian, Greek and Roman writings and culture. While Lewis has deftly scrambled or changed many of their names to deceive his many unsuspecting readers, in most cases, his vivid description of them is really quite brazen. At the end of chapter one, Lewis describes the Faun, Tumnus, as:

"From the waist upwards he was like a man, but his legs were shaped like a goat's (the hair on them was glossy black) and in-"The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace."

Isaiah 59:8.

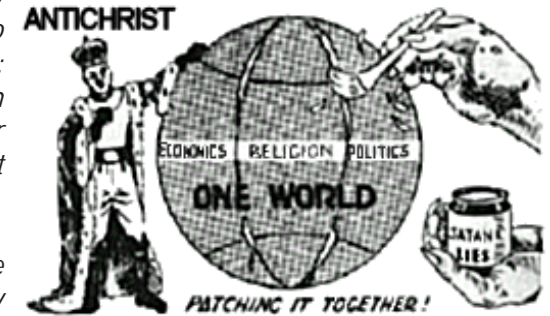

"Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar:" Ezekiel 13:10.

1... The Original Earth seen in Genesis 1:1 was a perfect earth – until SIN came in the Garden of Eden.

2... The Present Earth is controlled by the "prince of the powers of the air" – he is allowed by God to have this brief rule over the children of disobedience on the planet. This is an evil world. Jesus died for our sins to deliver us from this present evil world. We are in the world but not of it:

"Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:"
Galatians 1:4.

"And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh,"

Ephesians 2:1-3.

3... Jesus Christ is coming to our earth to bring about a MILLENNIAL AGE OF PEACE, a thousand years of His reign. He will be here on earth in His glorified body, ruling as earth's King and Lord. This is the "world to come." The age of peace in Christ Jesus is not here yet – no one can preempt this wondrous reign of Christ and bring peace to an evil world before the Prince of Peace actually reigns here – physically, in His gloried Body. Even the holy angels in Heaven will not have this earth to rule over, even they will not bring it back to God and holiness and peace. It is not here yet, this world to come, this place of peace where Christ reigns supreme.

"For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak."

JESUS CHRIST & THE NEW EARTH.

THE GULLIBLE, SILLY SHEEP IN THE CHURCHES ARE SO EASY TO FLEECE!

Just as the incalculable masses in the denominations have accepted the obvious errors and deceptions of RICK WARREN over the "Purpose" of their lives, so these same stupid sheep will accept his outrageous claims to take the world through his

GLOBAL P.E.A.C.E. PLAN.

For good reason does the Bible warn us of the Antichrist with his "peace, peace" when there is no peace. He will be a great humanitarian, a bringer of peace, a friend of men, and an especial friend to the Jewish race. "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth." Matthew 28:18. This power, to take the earth and bring true peace, is given only unto Christ Jesus – not to an apostate New Age guru called Rick Warren. We must remind ourselves of how Jesus Christ's PEACE Plan will be brought about by the Almighty – it is a Plan which has no similarity to Warren's spurious plan. Warren has devised a Plan that will bring, not peace, but fear, an Antichrist nightmare, and a consolidation of the kingdom of darkness that is already HERE – the global government of the devil.

stead of feet he had goat 's hoofs. He also had a tail ... and out of the hair there stuck two horns, one on each side of his forehead."

Even just an elementary student of witchcraft will know that this vivid description of Tumnus (a scrambled epithet of Tammuz) is the perfect description of the Roman mythological god PAN — who was identified by genuine early Roman Christians as the principal epithet of Satan. Lewis openly refers to "Baccus" and the black goddess "Lilith," and refers to the White Witch, who calls herself "Queen of Narnia" (i.e. of the world) as the woman who wore "a golden crown on her head." But the real star and savior of Narnia (the world) is Aslan (Satan) the lion.

The Satanic role of Aslan the lion in the New Zealand movie director Andrew Adamson's epic production of The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe for Disney now being produced in Auckland, New Zealand, is being played by a real-life lion called Zion, from New Zealand's Zion Wildlife Gardens near Whangarei named after him, owned and trained by Craig Busch, a New-Ager and devout C. S. Lewis fan. Busch has even named two of his leading pet lions in his park, (who also appear on his popular TV series The Lion Man), Aslan (a male) and Narnia

DID C. S. LEWIS GO TO HEAVEN?

John W. Robbins

"... I have given a provocative title to my talk in an attempt to provoke some of these people to think critically about Lewis' theology.

And well they should, for Lewis was no Evangelical. Writing in "We Remember C. S. Lewis", James Houston, an Oxford University Lecturer for 23 years, later the founding Principal and Chancellor of Regent College in Vancouver, British Columbia, said, Lewis "had no cultural connections with Evangelicals. He had no friends among them.... His friends were all Anglo-Catholic or Catholic.... Lewis, of course, has been adopted by the Evangelicals in America in a way that would have made him very uncomfortable. He didn't associate with them; he didn't think of himself as one of them."

Despite the widespread and enthusiastic acceptance of Lewis in Evangelical circles in the United States, or perhaps because of it, one must raise the question: What did C. S. Lewis actually believe and teach about God, man, sin, salvation, Scripture, government, and society?

This paper, a portion of a book-in-progress, examines his teachings on these subjects and concludes that Lewis cannot accurately be called an Evangelical and may be called a Christian only in an historical or nominal sense. On point after point, Lewis taught doctrines contrary to Scripture. He denied the inerrancy of Scripture itself; he rejected the doctrine of the substitutionary, penal atonement; he set forth an odd view of the resurrection of the body, to name only three. In locus after locus of Christian theology, Lewis' views were un-Biblical and Antichristian...

(a female) after C. S. Lewis' occult writings. Busch even calls his wild-life park building-supervisor by the name of Shrek.

Andrew Adamson also directed the two best-selling British propaganda animated movies Shrek and Shrek 2. In the movie Shrek 2, directed by Adamson, Princess Fiona (the consort to Prince Shrek) in a split-second sequence looks into a mirror, and who does she see? – not herself or her ugly animated sweetheart, Shrek – but the literal picture of PRINCE CHARLES! (not animated). This is psychological warfare, movie propaganda and mind-control at its very finest.

In the Shrek movies, the exiled hero/savior frog-like green Prince Shrek character who arises from the swamp (Hell) to save the world represents. Satan as the soon-coming sun-god environmental "Philosopher Prince" incarnated in Prince Charles.

The Greek philosopher, Plato, wrote about this coming world "Philosopher Prince" 2400 years ago in The Republic, Book V. Modern Christian Socialism, Freemasonry, Illuminism, Fascism, Nazism, Communism and British Fabian Socialism all are directly derived from the demonic writings of this incorrigible heathen. Plato's ultimate Luciferian dream for his Socialist

New World Order State REPUBLIC, which would become a type of "paradise on earth" or "kingdom of god on earth," was to have a World Republic headed not by a president, but by a World Philosopher King – (i.e. a "World Teacher" and a man like himself).

This royal prince would not rule as of right like a normal constitutional hereditary monarch. He would rule in an "honorary role" entirely with the "will," praise, worship and resounding acclamation of all cultures and people. Initially, like Plato, he would go into exile, and not at first be recognized for his great philosophical wisdom and learning. But, as the old oligarchic and democratic system began to collapse through endemic corruption, greed and avarice, causing war, chaos and terror, his wise and prudent sayings would quickly become more and more recognized as he would increasingly be identified by the majority of his subjects as their only hope, savior and man of peace of the world. Finally, because of his perceived self-sacrifice, wisdom, compassion, honesty and love for all nations, religions and cultures, he would be granted supreme and absolute power.

In the Shrek propaganda movies, this "Philosopher Prince" is deftly reproduced in the reluctant hero, SNIPPET TERRORIST LAWS.

Although there is a lot of talk about watering down the Terrorist Laws in this country, there is little real substance to the discussions. The sweeping anti-terrorist laws include a plan to jail people for up to seven years for just promoting "feelings of ill-will" or hostility between groups that would threaten peaceful co-existence or the country's peace.

This makes it a criminal offence to support a terrorist act, directly or indirectly. There are so many possibilities of breaking the laws by simply exposing, for example, the errors of some religious belief, or critiquing the government and globalism, or even declaring that there is only Truth in one sacred book – the Bible. Anything that will promote "feelings of ill-will" are now dangerous, to speak out on these matters is now criminal? Praise God, we are so glad that glorious words like these are given to us by the Almighty Creator of the universe, omnipotent Lord:

"According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust." 11 Peter 1:3,4.

out cowards. Two went in brave men and came out brave men. Forty days didn't change a single one. As a result, Israel wandered in the wilderness for forty years until that generation perished.

We will not consider the other five examples presented by Dr. Warren of spiritual transformation, but you get the idea.

To me, and also noted by others, this book that has sold some thirty million copies is based at the beginning on a FALSE PREMISE.

If Dr. Warren wanted to attach his "vision" to biblical numerics, why not use the number seven or the multiple of seven, forty-nine? FORTY, throughout Scripture, is the number of judgement, testing, or failure..." (End of Quotes)

NOAH HUTCHINGS reports that churches are not growing BIGGER, congregations growing larger in many church setups, as Warren has promised they would under his programs. It takes a Rick Warren himself to build a huge church! So much for leadership ambition, the pastors even dress like Warren in order to succeed. Many churches in the USA are emptied out of sound Bible-based believers, only to find that the seats do not fill up with "seekers" at all, and the buildings are poorly filled, the churches floundering.

This is about  FACILITY TAKEOVER, people.

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret" (Eph. 5:11-12).

12. As you can hear, by listening to one of Rick Warren's interviews on the Hank Hanegraaff show, this is clearly a program of works, first to bring more people into the church and then to serve. Far more disturbing is the fact that it is carefully crafted to draw people out of the full counsel of God . . . first, by substituting as many of the new translations as possible, second, by carefully dictating what they study, and, lastly, by keeping everyone so busy with the works that they feel that the time they spend in the word in their small groups is enough, therefore never learning the full counsel of God. Oh, and lest we forget, keeping them "happily entertained" and feeling "part of one big family"!! (The whole time signing one covenant after another.)

FORTY DAYS TO NOWHERE

"...Dr. Warren writes in the introduction to The Purpose Driven Life: "The Bible is clear that God considers 40 days a spiritually sig- nificant time period. Whenever God wanted to prepare someone for his purpose he took 40 days." Dr. Warren continues to give eight examples:

1... "Noah's life was transformed by 40 days of rain."

Really? Noah had already been a preacher of righteousness for 120 years. To build a huge boat when it had never rained must have already taken more faith than we can possibly imagine (2 Pet. 2:5). There is no evidence that the forty days of rain transformed Noah, because he did not need to be transformed. What the forty days of rain did do was to kill everyone in the world except eight souls on the ark.

2... "Moses was transformed by 40 days on Mount Sinai."

There is no evidence that Moses was transformed from anything or to anything on Mount Sinai while receiving the Law from God. Forty is a biblical number of judgment or probation, and by the "law shall no flesh be justified" (Gal. 2:16). Moses' impatient nature, which got him into trouble several times, was manifested again when he came down from Mount Sinai after the forty days (Exod. 32:19).

3... "The spies were transformed by 40 days in the Promised Land."

Really? We read in Numbers 12 that twelve spies went to spy out the Promised Land. Ten went into the Promised Land cowards and came

Christians begin crusade to promote trip to Narnia

NZ Herald Nov. 5, 2005

ZONDERVAN, the evangelical imprint for publishing giant HarperCollins, is calling The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe one of the year's "biggest religion stories".

"In the Christian world, they are just salivating over this," spokeswoman Jana Muntsinger told the Washington Times. "C.S. Lewis is the evangelical gold standard."

The movie will premiere on December 7 at London's Royal Albert Hall, when Prince Charles and Camilla, the duchess of Cornwall, will preside at a glittering reception decorated with ice sculptures and white carpet reminiscent of Narnia's 100-year winter.

The newspaper said the film, produced by Walt Disney Pictures and Walden Media, is being pitched to churches in the United States as a cross between Mel Gibson's Jesus biopic The Passion of the Christ and The Lord of the Rings trilogy.

HarperCollins has readied a massive printing of 140 Narnia-themed books, with special editions earmarked for thousands of Christian bookstores. The publicity for the film notes that the New Zealand director, Andrew Adamson, is the son of missionaries.

Disney film executives say they expect Narnia to repeat the success last year of The Passion of the Christ, which was promoted by evangelical churches.

Dennis Rice, Disney's senior vice president of publicity, hedged on the Christian content of the movie.

"We believe we have not made a religious movie," he said.

"It's just a great piece of cinema that is true to a great piece of literature." NZPA

The creator of Narnia was a scholar, a drinker and a believer, writes Lisa Miller.

LOST WORLD:
C.S. Lewis' creation of Narnia has been seen an attempt to recapture his own lost childhood and reach further into his faith.

IN 1949, the year he finished writing The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, C.S. Lewis was leading at least four different lives.

publishes numerous magazines, one which advertised on its web site, March 9, 2005, "Sensational Single Women: Get the love and sex you deserve! Send your friends the link . . ." Mr. Murdoch also owns The Sun in England. You who have the Internet can click on The Sun, pull up page three, and see what kind of sleazy, sex-oriented newspaper it is. Some of Mr. Murdoch's publications and media outreaches have been rated between XX and XXX pornographic. It would seem evident that Mr. Murdoch does not publish Dr. Warren's books out of evangelistic concerns. With his many worldwide media advantages, it would seem evident the bigger he makes Dr. Warren, the more books he sells, and the richer he becomes.

8. Church government & leadership:

Evidently Dr. Warren of Saddleback Church maintains no seminary, nor has he any special authority from major denominational governments or leadership to advise and train laymen, often novices, in how to change their churches or take over leadership of their churches. Yet, this seems to be exactly what Dr. Warren is doing in Church Transitions and various seminars conducted for pastors and church leaders. The Purpose Driven Church movement actually trains laymen in how to change a church from the traditional church, which we understand to be the New Testament model, to a Saddleback model. Often this occurs through a new pastor, or an ambitious assistant, resulting in a dictatorial leader or staff member clique. The dismissal and replacement of other church employees and the absence of financial reports are just a couple of several resulting problems that have been reported. Dr. Warren has been referenced as accepting no responsibility for such changes and/or abuses.

Secrecy regarding change:

One of the most common remarks I hear from Christians who have left their church because it has gone Purpose Driven is: "We didn't know what was happening until it just happened." Church Transitions, which works with Saddleback and the Purpose Driven Church movement to train 136 PDC staff, teaches that the membership is to be told nothing until the fourth step. It is then that Dr. Warren has said the church will lose the "old pillars." By the time the membership finds out what is going on, the church is already taken over or, we could say, stolen. If there is opposition, then in the sixth step those who are against the change in music, worship, and leadership are to be "marginalized" or invited to leave. Such procedures are unethical even by secular standards:

type of letter, but picked them out one after another. I cannot, of course, include the multitude of letters and e-mails received on this subject, but this cross section should give the reader, and pastors, evidence that all is not light and glory in PDC congregations and there is a darker side to this cultic movement.

Dear Brother Hutchings:

I am one of many concerned Christians in regarding our churches. We stopped going to our Cornerstone Church because the music was so loud. The minister said to put cotton in my ears. We sat at the back thinking that would help. To be told to just stick it in your ears just was not the thing to say.

You hit the nail on the head about the music. Some think they have to put the people into a frenzy for the SPIRIT TO FALL!

May God bless your ministry.

Thank you for telling the truth.

Dear Brother Hutchings:

I recently had occasion to attend several classes covering the entire book sponsored by the Purpose Driven Church. The text did violence to the Scripture—more than most modern “translations” do—and at the expense of Jesus.

The study was just the preliminary to the real purpose of the meetings: an exercise in which everyone was obligated to “spill his or her guts” in a series of glorified group therapy sessions. The aim of all this was, of course, to make everyone feel obligated to conform. The old peer pressure technique provided the needed leverage. Admittedly, all this gave some people a warm glow of intimacy and belonging that comes when personal interaction is of primary importance and sound doctrine is of little consequence.

I attended several sessions, so I can say that my impressions are not founded on just an isolated instance. Thanks for unmasking this dangerous movement which is targeting those who have not developed their spiritual defenses. Unfortunately, this constitutes the majority of Christians, which explains the phenomenal growth of the Purpose Driven Church.

Zondervan Publishing Company published Dr. Warren's books The Purpose Driven Church and The Purpose Driven L. The sales reported a year ago was over twenty million copies. This number now probably exceeds thirty million. Zondervan is one of many companies owned by Australian billionaire Rupert Murdoch. Mr. Murdoch loves money and he has a lot of it. He also owns Harper/Collins, which

His reputation as a Christian apologist had already been launched with several books and a series of BBC radio speeches.

He was a charismatic Oxford professor, an expert in Milton and Spenser.

He was a generous host who presided over long, drunken nights of bawdy talk and badinage.

And he was the head of a household that, even by today's standards, would be considered unconventional.

His domestic partner for nearly three decades was a woman 25 years his senior, whom he called “my mother” but who was not, in fact, his mother. In 1949, Janie Moore was in declining health and crankier than ever. “I am,” wrote Lewis at the time, “a man in chains.” Biographers suggest that Lewis' foray into children's literature was an attempt to escape, to recover his own boyhood and, through myth and metaphor, dive more deeply into his faith.

Whatever the impulse, his friend J.R.R. Tolkien thought he'd missed the mark. The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe was a hodgepodge of images, Tolkien said, an incomplete rendering of an imaginary world. But each year, for seven years, Lewis released another volume, making him the J.K. Rowling of his time, and, in the minds of Narnia fans at least, erasing whatever he was before.

Since 1950, the Narnia books have sold 95 million copies worldwide and have been translated into 41 languages. Now, thanks to the movie, devotees can brace themselves for a blizzard of books and biographies, including a revision of Paul F. Ford's Companion to Narnia, a guidebook to Lewis's fantasyland.

First British editions of Narnia books are selling on the Internet for $15,000 to $20,000, says Edwin W. Brown, a Lewis collector, “and they're not perfect.”

... Mere Christianity, the collection of Lewis' plainspoken BBC programmes, has sold about a million copies in the United States since 2001. It sells in Costco and on Amazon.com; pastors bestow it upon people who declare their commitment to Jesus.

... Rick Warren, pastor of the evangelical Saddleback Church and author of The Purpose-Driven Life, praises Mere Christianity for its simplicity. “I don't mean it's shallow,” he says. “The trick is to translate [the Gospel] so a truck driver gets it.”

Jim Wallis, left-leaning editor of Sojourners, loves Lewis because “he was not a narrow, legalistic Christian.”

Even posthumously, Lewis retains his talent for pleasing different people differently. Wallis recounts how he recently took a C.S. Lewis

The Chronicles of the Narnia (The Movie) Jack Kinsella

"...A new Disney film, "The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe" opened this week as a box office hit, surpassing the latest 'Harry Potter' movie...It was classic Hollywood double-speak; the film was marketed to Christians with Disney reminding all who would listen that the film is a faithful adaptation of C. S. Lewis' classic Christian allegory...

He didn't SET OUT to write a Christian allegory.

That isn't the same thing as saying Lewis didn't believe his Narnia Chronicles turned out to BE a Christian allegory.

When asked if the seven - book series was a way to introduce Christianity to children, Lewis responded, tour of Oxford with his 80-year old father. Their guide, a local cabbie, knew Lewis when he was a boy and liked him — especially his love for beer.

- Newsweek

"Some people seem to think that I began by asking myself how I could say something about Christianity to children ... then drew up a list of basic Christian truths and hammered out 'allegories' to embody them. This is pure moonshine. I couldn't write in that way at all. Everything began with images; a faun carrying an umbrella, a queen on a sledge, a magnificent lion."

That quote is all over the wires, but very few of them quote Lewis' next sentence:

"At first there wasn't even anything Christian about them; that element pushed itself in of its own accord."

The film's producer, Doug Gresham, Lewis' stepson, is widely quoted in his contention that the "Narnia Chronicles" are part of the "true myth of Christ."

"This is what people always get wrong — it's not a Christian film and the Narnia books aren't Christian novels. The myths of Narnia are partly those of the great man-made religions — Norse mythology, Hindu mythology, as well as the true "myth of Christ."

Then, depending on whether the intended audience is Christian or secular, Gresham's quote stops there, or he is quoted in full.

"Exposure to man's myths will make young viewers ask questions about themselves — and only later will the seed of faith take root. That meant resisting the temptation to insert my own Christianity into it."

NOAH HUTCHINGS EXPOSES Purpose Driven Church

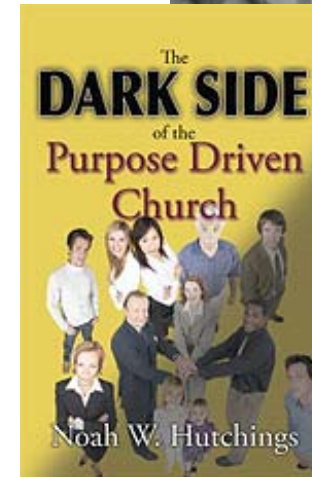

<http://www.swrc.com/>

In his new book, Dark Side of the Purpose Driven Church, Noah W. Hutchings of Southwest Radio Church Ministries, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, brings forth much news of the disaster of Purpose Driven Church in the USA. DESPATCH includes a few items from the book:

The Disenfranchised

To me the darkest side of the Purpose Driven Church is the thousands and possibly millions of faithful Christians who have served and worshipped in their local church home for years to be told they are no longer needed or wanted. Many, like the hundreds who left my former church, have tried to fit in to other churches, but no church can ever replace the one they left. Many will never go to another church. In the epistles to the church, the elders are mentioned with honor and respect thirty times. If ministers or pastors want to start a Purpose Driven Church, then let them go out and rent a building and start one, rather than turning God's

PERSONAL NOTE:

Many of you are saddened by the questions we have raised about this beloved author. So are we. But we would be disobedient to our Lord if we kept silent about the popular but unbiblical teachings of this gentle professor. Many have already been deceived by the same pluralistic views, which are presented by schools as well as churches around the world.

Since this book shows Lewis' tendency to blend religions together -- fitting Christian ideals and behavior into a universal package of "good" values from all major religions -- you may want to see where "The Abolition of Man" fits into the C. S. Lewis TIMELINE (<http://www.crossroad.to./Excerpts/books/lewis-chronology.htm>).

NOTICE that it came after Lewis had published two of the four "books" that make up "Mere Christianity". In other words, Lewis was writing this multicultural philosophy in between some of his more "Christian" books.

SHOULD YOU AND YOUR FAMILY TAKE THE VACCINE AGAINST BIRD FLU? The whole "bird flu" scenario is a deliberate killing field! Deliberately mutated from bird flu to become deadly to humans, with vaccines deliberately designed to kill. This is about reducing the population of the planet to protect the Earth Mother, Gaia.

From Bonnie, Cutting Edge:

"Do not take these evil vaccines. Please warn your family, friends, and everyone you know not to take them. Please keep yourself and family covered in the blood of Jesus and walk in Psalm 91 for protection daily. I received an email Tuesday from a friend that got an email from a man that his Dad went thru the 1918 flu period. He was a beekeeper and kept fresh honey with the honeycomb in their house and all his family ate some of this honey every day and they all made it thru unharmed.

It seems that unfiltered honey may have some protection against viruses. I'm not saying this is the answer but is food for thought, it can't hurt. Proverbs 24:13-14 says, "My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste: So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off." ...God is able to protect His own and in these last days I believe we will see miracles in His people like never before in history!

Be strong in Him!"

Disney seized on the ambiguous word 'allegory' and repeated it as often as possible. The dictionary defines 'allegory' as "the representation of abstract ideas or principles by characters, figures, or events in narrative, dramatic, or pictorial form."

To the secular world, the film was then marketed as a 'fantasy' to which 'some' Christians might find an 'unintentional' allegorical abstract connection with Christianity.

In marketing the film to Christian churches, however, (through a front company) it is a different story. Disney arranged eight showings for church groups nationwide, including one in November for about 700 pastors and church staffers at the Colorado Springs headquarters of Focus on the Family.

Disney's promotion of the movie to Christians includes offering a free trip to London — and $1,000 cash — to the winner of its big promotional SERMON contest.

(The only catch is that the sermons must mention Narnia.)

A SERMON! About a movie that they swear, honest to, ummm . . . Aslan, is just a fantasy that has NOTHING to do with Jesus Christ. Noted David O'Reilly in a Knight-Ridder column,

"Sermo-mercials are just one of the ways promoters hired by Disney and its production partner, Walden Media, are peddling Lion as a kind of Christian-themed Harry Potter." "Christian-themed?" That is the LAST message Disney wants to send to its secular audiences. Disney is marketing the film for secular audiences using ads featuring scary-looking battle scenes and what looks like a man-eating lion. But through its front company marketing directly to churches, Disney's promotional line read: "Invite your community to explore the inspirational truths found in Narnia."

Through hired agencies, Disney is encouraging churches to paint Aslan the Lion faces on their preschoolers; show preview trailers to their congregations; discuss Narnia in Sunday school, and develop Narnia-themed Christmas pageants.

Stung by charges that Disney might actually have deliberately made a pro-Christian film, Dennis Rice, senior vice president for marketing at Disney made a point of telling Bill O'Reilly ['The Factor' Fox Channel -Rupert Murdoch] that it 'may' have promoted its film to Christian groups, it "also has marketed to Hispanics, Boys' Clubs and school-reading programs."

So there!

I haven't seen the film. I don't know how faithful it is to Lewis' original work. So I can offer no insight on the film. But the insights to be gained from the marketing campaign itself are legion.

"This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves . . . blasphemers, . . .

"For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil."

 Hebrews 5:13-14

"...The enticing pagan worlds nurtured by C.S. Lewis and his myth-making friends were NOT inspired by God's Word or Spirit. Those stories grew out of a lifelong immersion in the beliefs, values, rituals, languages and lifestyles of former pagan cultures.

C. S. Lewis himself -- even years after professing faith in Christ -- remained obsessed with those old myths. As in his famous 1931 "conversion" encounter with Tolkien, he continued to suggest that Christianity and paganism were, in some ways, mutually supportive. Ponder his description of a 1960 visit to Greece three years before his death:

"I had some ado to prevent Joy and myself from relapsing into Paganism in Attica! At Daphni it was hard not to pray to Appollo the Healer. But somehow one didn't feel it would have been very wrong — would have only been addressing Christ sub specie Apollinius. We witnessed a beautiful Christian village ceremony in Rhodes and hardly felt a discrepancy." [5]

The same book quotes Lewis' earlier statement of regret that he hadn't been taught the supposed link between Christianity and paganism during his school years:

"No one ever attempted to show in what sense Christianity fulfilled paganism or paganism pre-figured Christianity." [5]...

Since Adamson's focus was on "empowering... the children," it makes sense to give them (rather than Aslan) credit for the ultimate victory, doesn't it? It also helps explain Aslan's twisted message:

"The future of Narnia rests on your courage." [3]

While that statement should disturb those who love the Gospel, it matches Narnia's ancient prophecy very well. To us, the word "prophecy" implies God's omniscient (fore-knowledge of future events) revelation of what lies ahead. Because we know Him and trust His Word, we take seriously the precious Old Testament prophecies concerning the coming Messiah. Everything God has told us will or has already come true! Jesus came and gave His life for us! He will come again for His people!

But Narnia's prophecy promises no such Savior. In stark contrast, it promises that four humans will come and save the land.

WHAT A SHAM TO CALL THIS DECEPTIVE STORY A PICTURE OF TRUTH! ..."

EXTRACT: "Abolition of Man"

by C. S. Lewis

<http://www.crossroad.to/>

Excerpts/books/Lewis-abolition.htm

Lewis seems to see CHINESE TAOISM as a universal ethical umbrella --one that would include Christianity as well as other religions. Symbolized by the Yin Yang, the Tao would be the supreme guide to moral and ethical values:

"The Chinese also speak of a great thing (the greatest thing) called the Tao. It is the reality behind all predicates, the abyss that was before the Creator Himself. It is Nature, it is the Way, the Road. It is the Way the universe goes on, the Way in which things everlastingly emerge... into space and time. It is also the Way which every man should tread in imitation of that cosmic and supercosmic progression, conforming all activities to that great exemplar. [page 30]

"This conception in all its forms, Platonic, Aristotelian, Stoic, CHRISTIAN, and Oriental alike, I shall henceforth refer to for brevity simply as 'the Tao.'" [page 31]

"... it is worth inquiry whether there is any instinct to care for posterity or preserve the species. I do not discover it myself... Only people educated in a particular way have ever had the idea 'posterity' before their minds at all. It is difficult to assign to instinct our attitude to-
