KILL YOUR BROTHER

Jack Heath

Allen & Unwin
9781761065392 | $29.99 | © | PB | Fiction

*What would you do when faced with an impossible choice?
An unputdownable thriller from the bestselling author of the Hangman series*

Would you kill your brother to save yourself?

After months of searching, disgraced athlete Elise Glyk has finally found her missing brother, Callum. He's being held in a backyard prison by Stephanie Hartnell, a former sheep farmer with an axe to grind. But before she can free Callum or call for help, Elise is captured and locked up alongside him.

Stephanie Hartnell doesn't have room for two prisoners, and she has nothing against Elise. But she needs to make sure Elise can't go to the police. So she offers Elise a deal: kill Callum, and you're free to go.

Of course, Elise won't even consider the deal. No way. It's unthinkable. But she's running out of time to find another way out. And her brother may not be the man she thought he was . . .

Jack Heath is the Australian award-winning author of more than thirty thrillers for children and adults.

FANCY MEETING YOU HERE

A LOVE STORY THAT REWRITES THE HISTORY BOOKS

FANCY MEETING YOU HERE

Ali Berg and Michelle Kalus

Allen & Unwin
9781760879877 | $29.99 | 📖 | PB | Fiction

Sometimes the man of your dreams is standing right in front of you . . . only ten years in the past. A charming and unconventional love story about trying to rewrite history

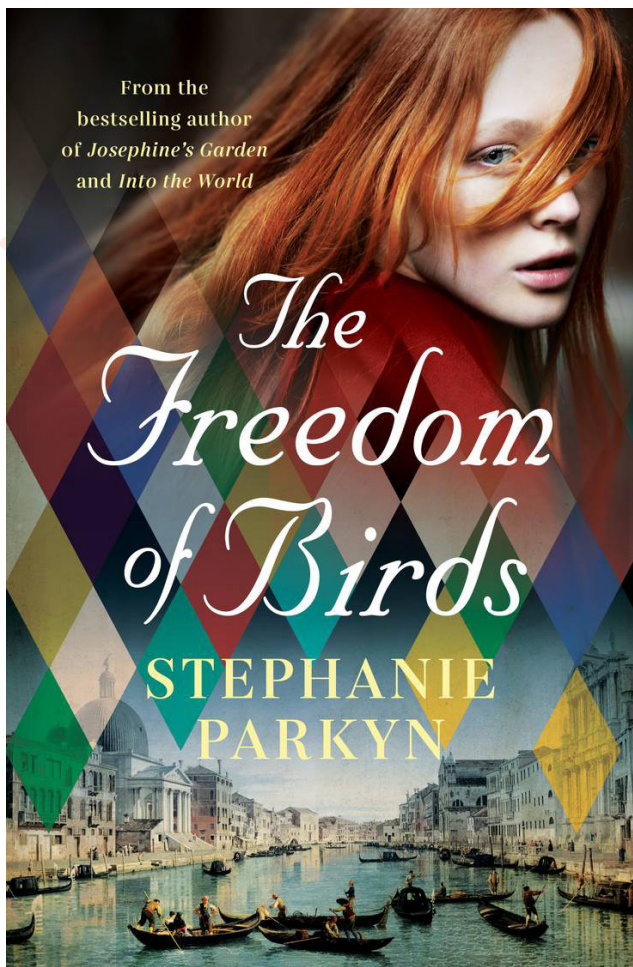

Evie Berry is a thirty-year-old wannabe screenwriter who spends her days managing a London cinema bar and making the podcast Pasta La Vista with her best friend Ben. She's also obsessed with Hugo Hearst. Have you heard of him? Of course you have. He's only one of the most influential and not to mention swoon-worthy bestselling writers of his generation.

When Evie's not hooking up with her on-again, off-again booty call 'Ever-Ready Freddy' (and sometimes even when she is), she fantasises about what might have been if she'd met Hugo years ago, when he was just a struggling writer.

After Evie interviews a psychic to the stars on her podcast, her life is catapulted ten years into the past. But the grass isn't quite as green as she remembers . . .

Fancy Meeting You Here is a hilarious and heart-warming love story about reliving your early twenties and testing out that old saying: be careful what you wish for.

Ali Berg and Michelle Kalus are the authors of the bestselling global hits The Book Ninja and While You Were Reading. They both live in Melbourne.

THE FREEDOM OF BIRDS

Stephanie Parkyn

Allen & Unwin
9781760879389 | $32.99 | © | PB | Fiction

Two French storytellers and a runaway girl travel through fairy tale lands, Italian theatres, and the battlefields of France in search of a place to belong as Napoleon's Empire falls, from the author of Josephine's Garden

Remi Victoire is the golden child among all the theatre orphans, who dreams of a life on a Paris stage. But when this future is stolen from him, Remi and his faithful friend Pascal turn their backs on Paris forever.

With Saskia, a runaway orphan girl, Remi and Pascal form a theatre troupe, travelling through the fairytale lands that are the home of the Brothers Grimm, finally finding a safe haven in Venice.

As Napoleon's vast Empire crumples, however, the French storytellers discover that Paris itself is now at risk of invasion and they fear for the loved ones they have left behind. From quaint villages to Italian theatres, to the battlefields outside of Paris, this is a story about bonds of friendship and love in all its forms, about the importance of stories and finding a place to belong.

Stephanie Parkyn is the acclaimed author of Into the World and Josephine's Garden. She lives in New Zealand.

ONCE BURNT, TWICE SHY

Karly Lane

Allen & Unwin

9781760878504 | $29.99 | © | PB | Fiction

A pitch-perfect story of rural tragedy, old flames reawakened and the meaning of home; a tribute to the Rural Fire Service and the work they selflessly do

Recently divorced Sunshine Coast mother-of-two Samantha Murphy agrees to house-sit for her parents for a few weeks—but when the house involves several hundred acres of farming and livestock, it's a little more involved than the usual job. Sam left the country for a more exciting, glamorous life years ago, but now that her kids have grown up and moved out, she's at a crossroads.

Jack Cameron was in love with Sam when they were teenagers, and she broke his heart when she left town at eighteen. Their lives moved along similar paths—both marrying, having families and getting divorced—but in very different locations. Now that Sam is back, they begin to realise that there are unresolved feelings between them.

As catastrophic fires roar destructively through the local farming community, Sam has no choice but to evacuate her parents' farm. But worse is still to come: Jack is reported missing and Sam is forced to prepare for the worst news.

A story of second chances; of navigating new relationships; and of loss and rebuilding, and of finally coming home.

Karly Lane is the bestselling Australian author of seventeen previous novels including the Callahans of Stringybark Creek series.

THE RUSSIAN WIFE

Barry Maitland

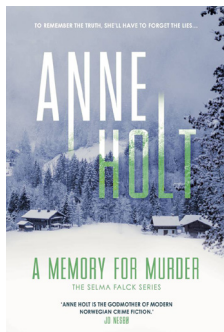

Allen & Unwin
9781760879648 | $32.99 | © | PB | Fiction

Fraud, betrayal and murder, set in the high-stakes world of fine art

When the Russian wife of the owner of one of the most valuable private collections of modern art in the UK is found dead, Detective Chief Inspector David Brock is drawn into a world of high-end art, a world vastly different to his own. From the dealers and galleries in London's West End, his investigations take him to Miami and New York on the trail of international forgery and fraud.

At the same time, his ex-partner Detective Chief Inspector Kathy Kolla who now leads one of the Metropolitan Police Murder Investigation teams, finds herself at the wrong end of a corruption charge. With her whole career in the balance, she will do almost anything to clear her name.

Barry Maitland is the award-winning author of the Brock and Kolla crime series which has been published throughout the English-speaking world.

GREAT AUSTRALIAN MYSTERIES

Spine-tingling tales of disappearances, secrets, unsolved crimes and lost treasure

Graham Seal

Allen & Unwin

9781760879549 | $29.99 | © | PB | True Stories

Australia's master storyteller Graham Seal brings to life the enigmas and puzzles behind famous unsolved crimes, long-held secrets, buried loot and strange phenomena from the bush and the city

Australia has always been a land of mysteries. Some are ancient, some are historical, and many continue to perplex us today—and will probably continue to do so tomorrow. More often than most of us would like to think, things simply vanish, and people disappear without explanation, leaving a trail of heartbreak across generations. Australia also has its fair share of buried loot and fabulous riches gone missing . . . somewhere.

Master storyteller Graham Seal has gathered mysteries from around Australia. There are riddles of lost explorers, unexplained phenomena, and yarns of fish, frogs or pebbles falling from the sky. There are unsolved crimes and long-held secrets; hidden tunnels and wartime enigmas; and hair-raising tales from the bush and from the city.

Graham Seal is a leading expert and author of Australian cultural history.

RED TAIL SKIES

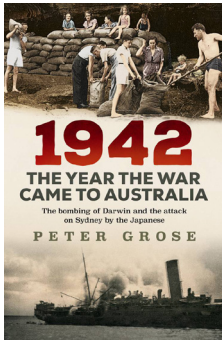

A big book of Qantas Stories
Jim Eames

Allen & Unwin

9781761066627 | $34.99 | © | PB | Australiana

From the challenges of its earliest days to the significant but little-known involvement in Australia's World War II campaigns and its surge into the jet age and beyond, these are the stories of the men and women, the risk takers and the characters who shaped Qantas. Generous and richly told, Red Tail Skies is a warm-hearted reminder of why Qantas remains so important in the Australian psyche. It is the story of how a uniquely Australian style shaped the safest airline in the world.

Jim Eames is the author of eight books including Taking to the Skies, The Flying Kangaroo and Courage in the Skies.

9781781256268 | $27.99 | 📞 | PB | History

How many colours are there? In the West we see seven, but the Chinese see five, while the Piraha tribe in the Amazon have no words for the spectrum. Colour isn't something we see; it's something we think. This popular culture miscellany takes eleven key colours and explores how they have shaped our evolution as a species, persuaded us in politics and culture, and allowed us to express or oppress personal freedoms. It is a kaleidoscopic compendium of colour cultures and meanings that will change the way you see the spectrum.

Marvel comics are the nearest thing modernity has produced to a holy epic, a blockbusting, record-shattering pop-cultural cosmology that echoes our deepest hopes and fears. All of the Marvels is a landmark, but ludicrously fun, piece of cultural criticism. Trying to make sense of the ever-expanding mythology, it shows how it reflects a funhouse-mirror history of the past 60 years, from the atomic night-terrors of the Cold War to the technocracy and political divisions of the present day. Here, truly, are all of the marvels.

Douglas Wolk is the lead graphic novel reviewer for the New York Times Book Review.

The glare of the city lights can be blinding, as the Paris celebrated in books and films clashes with reality: the Bataclan terror attack, the violent protests of the gilet jaunes, rioting in the banlieues, Notre Dame in flames, record heatwaves and the pandemic. But in Paris, today, the mood is not one of defeat but of renewal: from planning and environmental revolution; to chefs rebelling against classist traditions; from immigrants rejecting high fashion stereotypes. Does anyone really think they can teach Parisians how to start a revolution?
