Pastor's Corner by Fr. Michael Olson

This Third Sunday of Advent is known as “Gaudete Sunday.” Gaudete is the Latin word for rejoice! It is the first word of our entrance antiphon for Mass and it sets the tone and the theme for the day which is a spirit of joy. But, why is there a theme of rejoicing and joy during this third week of Advent? We have not reached Christmas yet? Shouldn't Christmas be that season or time of rejoicing and joy?

The theme of joy is shown in our readings for this weekend. It is also outwardly expressed in the rose colored candle we light this week and the rose colored vestments that the priest may wear during Mass. Why this change in color? The color rose is used as it is the combination of the color violet for Advent and white for Christmas. This change in color and tone for this Sunday is an outward manifestation of our Christian joy that we are now more than halfway to the Nativity and birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. We are closer to Christmas Day than we are to the beginning of Advent.

The theme of Gaudete or great joy is expressed in our readings this weekend, especially in our first reading from Isaiah. “Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God, he comes with vindication; with divine recompense he comes to save you.... Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return and enter Zion singing, crowned with everlasting joy; they will meet with joy and gladness, sorrow and mourning will flee.” (Isaiah 35: 4, 10). The prophet Isaiah tells us that we must not be afraid, we must put sorrow and fear aside and be strong and patient for the Lord God is coming to vindicate and save you! Our salvation is beautifully made manifest to us in the birth of God our Savior, Jesus Christ. Advent is a season of joyful patience and preparation for us. St. James points this out in our second reading. “You too must be patient. Make your hearts firm, because the coming of the Lord is at hand.” (James 5:8). Our primary focus must be on deepening our personal and intimate prayer life with Christ to truly prepare ourselves for the coming of Christ. We should put aside some of the secular distractions of this season, especially the ones that have nothing to do with Christ. By doing this remove many of the unnecessary stresses that we place in our lives during this season. We are more free to focus on our time and energy on Christ who will truly make us joyful.

Rejoice! Gaudete! Notice how that word is in the imperative, meaning; “You Rejoice!” It is a command that is given to us, that we must be joyful. Unfortunately, many of us know this season can be an extremely difficult one. We can find ourselves stressed or overwhelmed from all the things that need to get done. This season is also especially difficult for those who have lost loved ones. We should understand that there is a difference between joy and happiness. Fr. Henri Nouwen, a theologian and spiritual writer says; “Happiness is dependent of external conditions, joy is the experience of knowing that you are unconditionally loved and that nothing- sickness, failure, emotional distress, oppression, war, or even death-can take that love away. Thus joy can be present even in the midst of sadness.” This means that happiness is a feeling that comes and goes. Happiness can be felt when things are good in our lives and is absent when things are bad in our lives. God does not give us the command to always be happy. That would be wonderful, if we could be happy all the time. That is simply not realistic, there are going to be things in our lives that make us upset. It is human to feel sadness. Jesus experienced sadness when he wept over the grave of his good friend Lazarus. But we do not let sorrow, sadness, anger, or any of our emotions control our lives. God's command to us is to always be joyful in the Lord. Joy is knowing that you are unconditionally loved by God. This joy, this love, can still be experienced by us even during the worst of times of our life. This is why we are given the command to rejoice! God has come to us, out of love, so that we might share in salvation with in Heaven. So how do we follow the command to rejoice in the Lord?

We are created in the image and likeness of God and are His beloved children. We are unconditionally loved by Him. If we truly understood what that means, we would be sharing the love of God with every single person that we met. We would be unstoppable. We would not be able to contain the immense joy, love, and kindness of God. Joy is knowing that you are unconditionally loved by God. We must strive to never give into fear, anxiety, anger, apathy, and laziness. We fulfill the command to rejoice in the Lord by sharing that kindness, that love of God, with everyone. During this Advent season and beyond let us continue to do those acts of kindness and love for others. St. Teresa of Calcutta would say, “Do small things with great love.” Then all will see the goodness of God and rejoice always.

STRAWS OF PRAYER

Advent is a time when individuals and families have an opportunity to prepare and await the birth of the Savior, soon to be born. One of the ways we can prepare as a community of faith, is to say a prayer. We pray for our families and loved ones, the poor and the hungry, the lonely and forgotten, our Church, our Pope, our nation and those in the military who serve and protect. We pray that Jesus be born into their hearts.

Traditions are inherent in family life and in Church life. St. Damian would like to begin a tradition that we are calling Straws of Prayer. On the weekend of December 21-22 there will be baskets of straw in the narthex and by the Gift Table. During the Offertory part of the Mass, we are inviting all the children to take a piece of straw and place it in the empty manger by the altar. Each straw will represent a prayer.

You and your children can pray a prayer of your own or the one printed here.

Christmas is coming,
Won't you say a prayer
For those we love and
Those who are not here?

This little manger is empty
It's true.
It's awaiting a prayer
To be said by you.

Lay a piece of straw
By the manger bed,
Having said a prayer
For others instead.

Then when Christmas Eve
Is finally here,
A bed of soft straw
Soon will appear ...

... Jesus the Savior
The Babe newly born ...
Angels and wise men,
Rejoice Christmas morn!

Did you take an ornament from the Giving Tree?

Please remember to return your wrapped gift, with the ornament attached to the outside of the package THIS WEEKEND. Gifts will be delivered with items from the food pantry next Saturday, December 21st. You will brighten the day of someone in need of a little extra loving care because you cared enough to give a gift out of the goodness of your heart. We are also in urgent need of volunteers to make late deliveries at a time convenient for you on Monday, 12-24 between 10:00 AM and 12:00 PM. Late deliveries will involve no more than 4 or 5 stops in the same general area.

Ministers of Care, please select one of the live plants by the Giving Tree and share it with the person(s) you serve and wish them a very blessed and Merry Christmas from the family of St. Damian Church.

Please continue to check the tree for ornaments as we still are receiving requests for help from families and will do so through 12/20/19. Any questions, please contact Deb Hartigan, 708-269-0817 or by e-mail at flynnersfolks@att.net

thank you

THANK YOU TO ALL OUR SPONSORS!

Gratitude and thanks. I had a friend who used to say, "No one thanks you for dusting the furniture or cleaning the baseboards. They are so easily ignored. However, let a year go by and see if they would be noticed!"

Well, a year has gone by, and we would like to thank all of our sponsors whose ads defray the St. Damian bulletin expenses. If you haven't noticed, they are the businesses, services and practices whose colorful ads are located at the back of the bulletin every week.

There are a wide variety of services and discounts from which to choose. So, check them out and think about giving them support. It's a win-win.

Please Help with Project Linus

The St. Damian National Junior Honor Society is looking for fleece donations to help make fleece blankets for Project Linus. Project Linus is a non-profit organization with chapters in all 50 states that collects and distributes blankets to children in hospitals, shelters, social service agencies, or anywhere that a child might be in need of a big hug.

If you have any fleece that you would like to donate, please drop it off in the box in the Narthex.

Thank you for your support!

Bake Sale to Feed the Hungry

A few weeks ago, Ethan Coe contacted Fr. Joe and asked if he could lead a service project. Ethan and his family are parishioners of St. Damian. He has attended St. Damian school and is an 8th grade student at Arbor Park Middle School. He is also a member of the National Junior Honor Society.

Ethan volunteered at the St. Damian Food Pantry and found it to be a rewarding experience. He said it was "a benefit to the community," feeding those in need. For his service project, he wanted to host a bake sale to raise money. He would take care of all the details.

Good news! Ethan hosted a successful bake sale and raised $1,208. It will be used to purchase the supplies needed for the Pro Labore Dei lunches that are donated every month. More good news. An anonymous donor agreed to match the funds raised for this bake sale. The proceeds will be given to the St. Damian Food Pantry.

Great job, Ethan! Thank you on behalf of the hungry and God bless you.

Spotlight on St. Damian School

The Junior High students celebrated diversity at the Culture Fair. They learned about the many cultures and heritages we have in our St. Damian School community. They were very excited the NBC5 news team came out to tape a segment which aired that evening. If you missed it you can view the news segment on the NBC5 website www.nbcchicago.com/on-air/as-seen-on/south-suburban-culture-day, under the "Making A Difference" heading. The link has also been posted on the School and Parish Facebook pages.

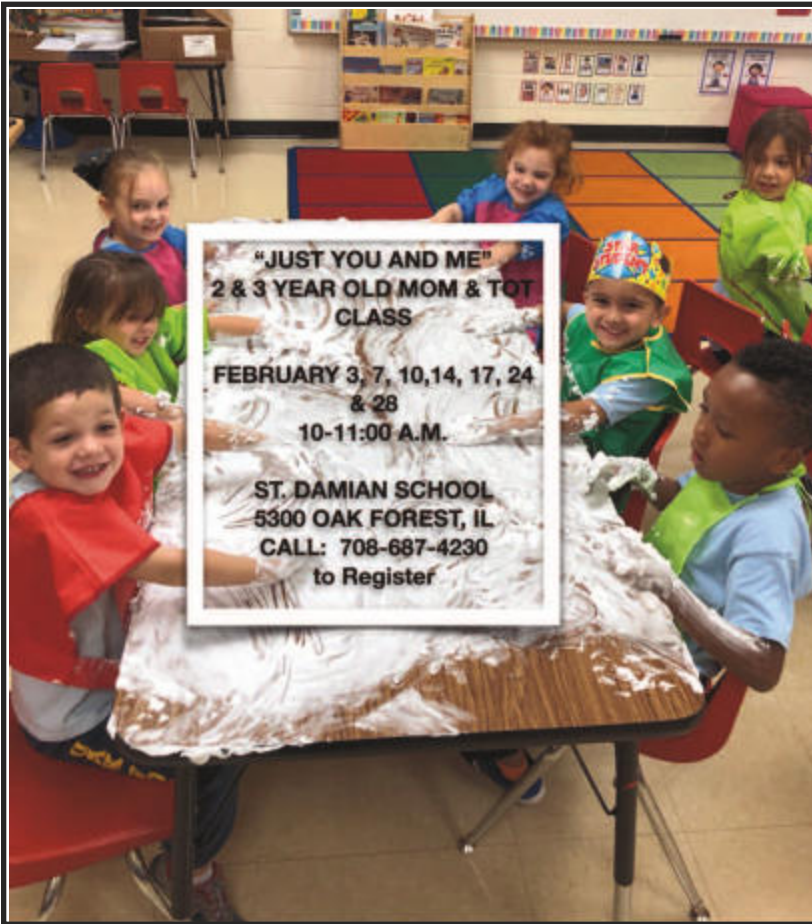

Several of these Junior High Students were invited by Dr. Jim Rigg, Superintendent of Catholic Schools, along with Fr. Greg Sakowicz, Rector of Holy Name Cathedral, to be on their radio show to talk about the Culture Fair.

The St. Damian School Choir had the wonderful opportunity to perform with the Southwest Symphony Orchestra in the Holiday Gifts of Music Christmas Concert held at St. Damian. You can enjoy a sample of their wonderful performance by visiting the St. Damian School and Preschool Academy Facebook page.
