Financial HANDBOOK

PROCESS MANUAL
Created July 2017

The purpose of this document is to assist members, committee chairs, officers, the finance committee and the fiscal officers with consistent financial policies and procedures that are relevant to the Saginaw Alumnae Chapter. This HANDBOOK includes relevant sections from the Chapter's Policies and Procedures, reference to the National Finance Committee Fiscal Officers Manual 2018 and Saginaw Alumnae Chapter Fiscal Policies and Procedures. Chapters are required to have an external review or audit based on revenue levels. This Handbook shall be the official financial policies and procedures for that purpose but shall not conflict with national bylaws or chapter policies and procedures, but rather enhance them.

Note: Revisions will occur immediately upon notification of accounting and internal control weakness and will be emailed to chapter members for immediate compliance. Ratification of revisions will be remitted to the Finance Committee and Executive Committee for review and approval and filed with the Chapter Secretary for approval at the next regular chapter meeting.

 - b. Distributed Tickets to Members (financial Sorors only)
 - c. Tickets available at a business (i.e. Greeks R' Us)
 2. The number of printed tickets are counted by a member of the Ways and Means and Scholarship Fundraiser Committee and the Finance Secretary or Assistant Finance Secretary.
 3. The Finance Secretary or Assistant Finance Secretary shall be accountable for ticket distribution unless they are the chair of the event.
 - ii. All tickets distributed will be paid for in advance.
 1. As stated in National's Fiscal Officers Manual, tickets are not to be distributed until the financial secretary or the assistant financial secretary has received the money for the ticket(s). Please note, that it is a form of larceny for tickets received to be utilized without paying for the tickets. Larceny and/or theft can be deemed a Code of Conduct violation with ramifications up to and including expulsion from the sorority.
 - iii. Tickets with different prices shall be clearly identified.
 - iv. Only cash, certified/cashier's check or money orders will be accepted from individuals who are not members of the chapter within five days of an event.
 - v. If complimentary tickets are necessary, a list should be compiled including ticket numbers and complimentary expense. The list must be approved by individuals authorizing complimentary tickets (Chapter President, Committee Chair, and Treasurer). The recipient of the complimentary tickets must sign for acknowledging they received their tickets. The first option should be to list names of complimentary guest.
 - vi. In the event refunds are applicable, they should only be made after the ticket reconciliation process. Refunds should only be made by a Chapter check only upon the completion of a voucher by Chair of the Event for audit trail purposes.

- vii. Reconciliation Process (See Attachment A – Segregation of Duties)
 - 1. A reconciliation of the software posting and the sales reports should be performed immediately following the suggested timeline before the event to ensure all differences are identified and corrected (Treasurer sends report of collections to the Ticket Distribution Team)
 - 2. Immediately following the program/event, ticket sales should be reconciled. All tickets should be identified as complimentary, sold, or unsold. The number of tickets sold at each price should match the total deposit amount. The following should be submitted to the Audit Committee
 - a. Ticket sale reconciliation
 - b. All unsold tickets,
 - c. List of complimentary ticket recipients
 - d. Copy of documentation of any required refunds
 - e. List of unreturned tickets/Lost Inventory form
