OUR APPROACH

INDUSTRY PARTNERSHIPS & CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Our programs are designed with your future career in mind. You'll work on real world projects, develop your skills with industry standard software and learn from professors who are accomplished working professionals in their field. Our network of design universities can give you connections to some of the world's most influential companies including Nokia, Gensler and Sony Entertainment.

GLOBAL CONNECTIVITY

Design has no borders and neither does NewSchool. We are a part of a global network of over 75 leading design universities in 29 countries. You'll experience a truly global classroom with unique study abroad programs, a diverse international student body, cross-location collaborations, and world-renowned guest lecturers.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Our students and faculty are consistently raising the bar, winning numerous competitions outside the classroom. Our Master of Architecture program was recently ranked Top 30 in the World by Frame Magazine and our Design and Digital Arts programs were developed in collaboration with two award-winning design schools Media Design School in Auckland, New Zealand and Domus Academy in Milan, Italy.

NewSchool of Architecture & Design is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) Senior College and University Commission. Programmatic accreditation for our professional architecture programs is provided through the National Architectural Accrediting Board (NAAB).

CAMPUS & COMMUNITY

Our campus lies in the heart of the exciting East Village design district in downtown San Diego; home to leading design studios, production sites and innovative global companies. Whether you are sketching in one of our many studio spaces, designing a rendering in our state-of-the-art computer labs, or producing your design on our 3D printer – NewSchool has the tools you need to bring your creative ideas to life.

In the United States, most state registration boards require a degree from an accredited professional degree program as a prerequisite for licensure. The National Architectural Accrediting Board (NAAB), which is the sole agency authorized to accredit U.S. professional degree programs in architecture, recognizes three types of degrees: the Bachelor of Architecture, the Master of Architecture, and the Doctor of Architecture. A program may be granted a 6-year, 3-year, or 2-year term of accreditation, depending on the extent of its conformance with established educational standards. Doctor of Architecture and Master of Architecture degree programs may consist of pre-professional undergraduate degree and a professional graduate degree that, when earned sequentially, constitute an accredited professional education. However, the pre-professional degree is not, by itself, recognized as an accredited degree. NewSchool of Architecture & Design offers the following NAAB-accredited degree programs:

- B. Arch. (236 quarter undergraduate credits)
 - M. Arch. (pre-professional degree + 90 quarter graduate credits)
 - M. Arch. (non-pre-professional degree + 150 quarter credits)
 - M. Arch. (license + pre-professional degree + 45 quarter credits)
- Next accreditation visit for all programs: 2016
