

Diocesan Cycle of Prayer

The Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts

Advent 2019
through
Pentecost Season 2020

Dear Friends,

In her poem, "Praying," Mary Oliver describes prayer as a "doorway into thanks, and a silence in which another voice may speak." These words feel true to my experience of praying for all of you and your congregations. Each Sunday, when I hear the names of a handful of parishes and ministries in our diocese, I remember attending gatherings in specific places, the beautiful ministries of particular parishes, and heart-felt conversation with colleagues. I hear God inviting me to pick up the phone and connect more often, learn more about what is emerging where you are, and rejoice in our shared commitments in Christ.

It is our calling and our privilege to pray for one another in this diocese. For generations, our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer has been a central means for doing this. I encourage you to make praying for the communities and groups listed here on their appointed Sundays part of your regular round of corporate prayer.

If there is something in particular for which your congregation or ministry would like prayers, contact Cathedral Administrator Kevin Vetiac (kvetiack@diomass.org) about a week before your appointed Sunday. He will post your specific request on the cathedral's Facebook page, and we will add your request to our prayers at our weekday morning prayer services here at the cathedral.

Note that the Cycle of Prayer is arranged by deanery, with an index at the back to find the date of prayers for your community or group.

This Cycle of Prayer is important. And it is just the beginning. As you use it, let it prompt you to creatively and proactively connect with the wider church through prayer and thanksgiving.

Faithfully,

Amy McCreath

The Very Rev. Amy E. McCreath
Dean, Cathedral Church of St. Paul

*Access the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer online at www.diomass.org.
Your prayer requests are also on the Cathedral's Facebook page.*
