From the Editor

The summer season is upon us once again, and this is a great time to reflect on the past racquetball season and start looking forward to 2001/2002. We are working on the next season's tournament schedule (to be published in the Fall newsletter), and I want to point out one possible resurrected tournament—the Maryland State Games. Some of you may recall the MWRA's participation in the late 80s and early 90s. I'm told this used to be quite the tournament, with lots of participation and fierce competition. We are working with the new State Games director to secure a tournament in the January timeframe. We are looking forward to bringing this tourney back into the mainstream schedule.

On another note, we are busy compiling all the responses to Larry's survey regarding how we should handle our losing record when it comes to breaking even in State championship tournaments (highlighted in the Spring newsletter). I believe Larry said he had a whopping seven responses!!! Folks, this is your association, and would like to make the decision on what to cut back on with your feedback.

So please take a minute or two to tell us your thoughts on how we can stop losing money on our State tourneys by e-mailing us at mdrball@aol.com. We will be implementing the appropriate measures starting with the Doubles Championships in November.

Thanks in advance for your input.

Finally, the Maryland racquetball community has lost one of its own; Penny diBrandi passed away on May 31. Always a friendly but fierce competitor, Penny will be missed on the courts at the Downtown Athletic Club.

In Memoriam - Daphne P.V. diBrandi

By Jim Haner, Baltimore Sun Staff

Daphne P.V. diBrandi, whose explosive racquetball shots echoed through the halls of the Downtown Athletic Club for a decade, died Thursday, May 31 of cancer at the Gilchrist Center for Hospice Care. Known to friends as "Penny," the champion player was 43.

Born in Porto Alegre, Brazil, to missionary parents from Frederick, Penny returned with her family to Maryland when she was an infant. Her father, the Rev. Herman A. diBrandi, was the rector of the church of the Nativity in Cedarcroft.

Ms. DiBrandi graduated from St. Paul's School for Girls in 1976 and went on to earn a bachelor of arts degree in literature from Deree-Pierce College in Athens, Greece. Later, she earned a master's degree in liberal arts from the Johns Hopkins University before going to work in the campus library.

For the past year, she had been a teacher at Valley Academy in Towson.

Among the longtime Bolton Hill resident's many passions, racquetball came to consume her about a decade ago, family and friends say. And with her usual tenacity, she learned the game well—so well that she was nationally ranked 18th in the 25+ division by the USRA last year.

"She was awesome," said her brother, Geoffrey C. diBrandi, 47 of Cupertino, Calif. "She was very fast and had a good power shot. She was definitely a power player."

In 1998, Penny was crowned singles champion by the MWRA. The next year, the USRA awarded her the bronze medal in its consolidated national doubles competition after a series of games she played while suffering from what she thought was the flu.

A short time later, her illness was diagnosed as lung cancer.

"A hell of a player," recalled Sharon McNeill, her partner at the 1999 doubles championships. "She was a thin, little petite thing with a big ol' oversize racquet, and she was fierce. The men at the DAC feared her—the whole bunch of them. I don't know if any of them ever beat her."
