Condition of the Driver

Dear Amy,
Just a reminder. Never run your car in an enclosed space because of carbon monoxide. Also if you feel fatigued, pull over and rest before driving. Always have a Positive Attitude when driving. It will help you manage time, your space, and speed of your car. Remember - Always drive with balanced emotions because being overly emotional will lead to a lack of focus.

Love Dad

Dear Dad,
Thank you for the reminder. Don't forget to wear your glasses while driving! You may get a $$$ if you don't ;-). Also, I know you are getting up there in age, lol, so your ability to judge distances and identifying objects is little impaired so be careful driving at night. Mom says you have a hard time distinguishing between colors and combinations. She says its because you old but you may want to go to the doctor to see if you are color blind!

Love Amy
