

The Group Attunement Procedure
of
Usui Reiki Ryoho, Ascension Reiki, Reiju Reiki and Emin Reiki

The Attunements have a direct relationship with the subtle anatomy of our whole being. We practice the Group Attunement Procedure each month for the attunement of people from all around the world who receive different levels of attunement all at the same time.

- In the group of people being Attuned, some may have never received any Reiki Attunements before and wish to receive all the Attunements of Usui Reiki, Ascension Reiki and Reiju Reiki in one Attunement Session.
- Some people might already be attuned in one degree or a couple degrees of Usui Reiki and wish to complete their attunements in Usui Reiki and be attuned to the Master Level.
- Some people May be Usui Reiki Masters and Masters of other Reiki forms and wish to be attuned in Ascension Reiki and Reiju Reiki.
- Others wish to receive the Attunements of Reiju Reiki.

Miraculously, each person receives the Attunement or Attunements they have requested.

The Attunement Procedure is composed of Six Attunements:

- Four Attunements for Usui Reiki
- One Attunement for the 10 Degrees of Ascension Reiki
- One Attunement for Reiju Reiki.

The six Attunements have a relationship with The Six Sutras of Tikkun Olam. Because these layers of anatomical relationships are part of our being we include these anatomical aspects of our Divine Nature in the Reiki Attunements.

Note: when looking at the illustration of Kabbalah you are looking in a mirror. The right side of Kabbalah is your right side and the left side of Kabbalah is your left side.

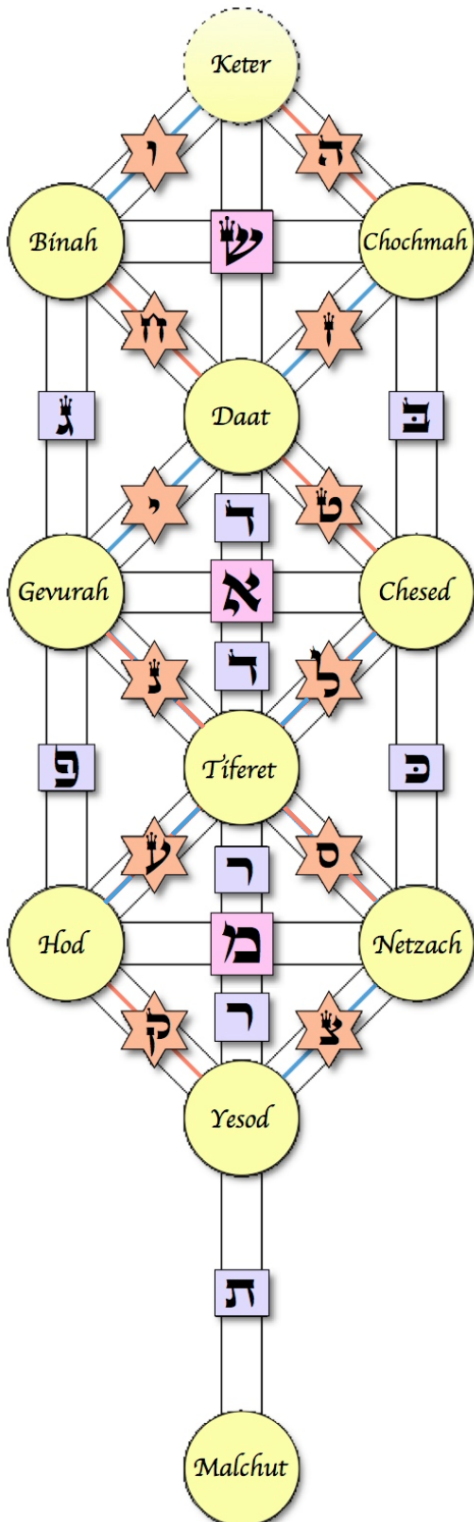

The Six Sutras are composed of six pairs of meridians that are grouped together for healing.

- Tai Yang- Bladder Meridian and Small Intestines Meridian
- Shao Yin- Kidney Meridian and Heart Meridian
- Shao Yang- Triple Warmer Meridian and Gall Bladder Meridian
- Jue Yin- Pericardium Meridian and Liver Meridian

- Tai Yin- Lung Meridian and Spleen Meridian
- Yang Ming- Large Intestine Meridian and Stomach Meridian

The Six Sutras of Tikkun Olam are six pairs of meridians from Ancient Chinese Medicine. The meridians were paired in this way to promote healing.

These six pairs of meridians not only correspond with the months of the year but also with the pathways of Kabbalah.

In the illustration notice the red and blue lines on the diagonal pathways of Kabbalah. The Red Lines are Yan and the Blue Lines are Yin.

The names of the Six Pairs of the six sutra Meridians are:

• TaiYang

Bladder (ך) Hei

Small Intestines (ך) Kuf

• ShoYin

Kidney (ן) Vov

Heart (ץ) Tzadi

• ShoYang

Triple Warmer (ן) Chet

Gall Bladder (ט) Tet

• JueYin

Pericardium (ץ) Zayin

Liver (ן) Yud

• TaiYin

Lung (ך) Lamed

Spleen (ץ) Ayin

• YangMing

Large Intestine (ן) Nun

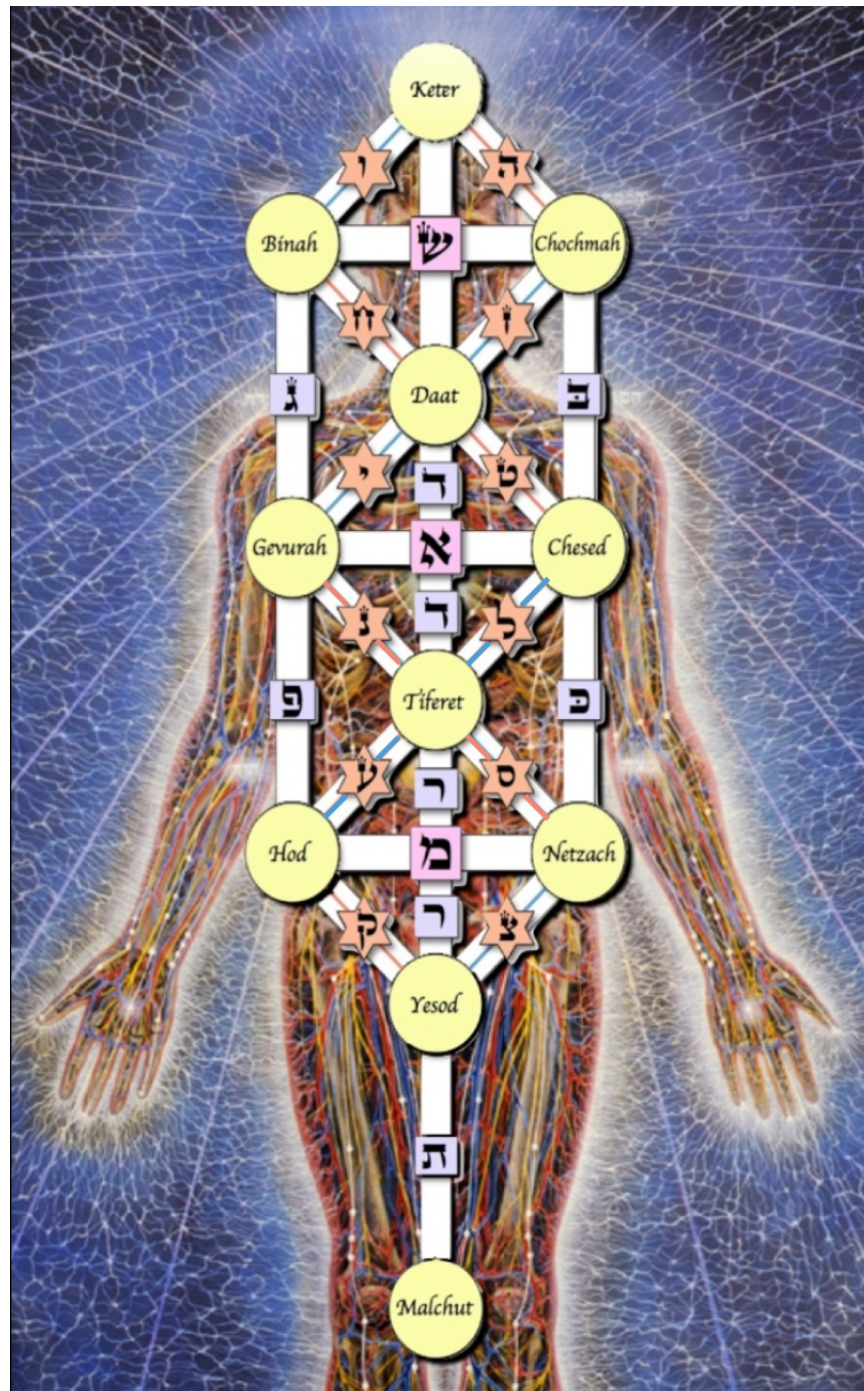

Stomach (ם) Samech

The Five Final letters of the Hebrew Aleph-Beit

were given by Our One Creator for the healing and redemption of Humanity through the healing of the five senses. The Five Final letters are for the returning of the five senses from the world to Heaven.

Four of the five final letters are called swords because they extend down. (Paraphrased from: Alef-Beis by Dovid Leitner page 17-18)

The hand positions for the healing of the five senses are located where the 12 elemental letters are located on Kabbalah.

-  Sword of Kaf (Final Kaf) – The Element of Fire – The Inner Sense of Touch
 The hand positions for the Sword of Kaf are where the Letters
 Tzadi () and Kuf () are located (between the hips and the groin)
-  The Sword of Pei – The Element of Earth – Inner Sense of Taste
 The hand positions for the Sword of Pei are located where the letters Samech () and Ayin () are located (under the navel)
-  The Sword of Nun – The Element of Metal – Inner Sense of Smell
 The hand positions for the Sword of Nun are located where the letters Lamed
 () and Nun () are located (above the navel, below the ribs)
-  The Sword of Tzadi – The Element of Wood – Inner sense of Sight
 The hand positions for the Sword of Tzadi are located where the letters Tet () and Yud () are located (chest)
-  The Sword of Pei – The Element of Earth – Inner sense of Taste
 The hand positions for the Sword of Pei are also located where the letters Zayin () and Chet () are located (the jaw bone)
-  Final Mem – The Element of Water – The Inner Sense of Hearing.
 The hand Positions for the Final Mem are located where the letters Hei
 () and Vov () are located (the top of each side of the head)

Note: On the day of Tav, the Mouth of God, the Song Lines are associated with The Triple Warmer (Chet) and the Spleen (Ayin) revealing that the sense of taste (mouth) is in two places, below the belly at the Ayin level and at the jaw at the Chet level.

Therefore the Five Final Letters are used six times in the anatomy of Kabbalah to heal the five senses and have become part of the Six Attunements.

As you read the Attunement Process out loud for each of the Six attunements you will notice that there is a space of silence between the prayer for the receiving of the Attunement..... and the acknowledgement and thanks giving of receiving for the Attunement. During this time you can offer your own prayers, songs, affirmations into the Attunement process if you feel led to do so.

The attunements can be done in a group setting in person or the attunements can be done at a distance. It is Our One Creator who is actually attuning everyone and we are Our Creator’s helpers and as we gather in the Presence. The Attunements are Given and Received through Grace.

There is another layer in the attunements that is a prayer for the healing of the nations, the healing of the Earth, World without end.
