The screenshot shows the ID.me + Treasury Two-Factor Authentication setup interface. At the top, the ID.me logo is followed by a plus sign and the Treasury Department seal and name. Below this, the heading "SECURE YOUR ACCOUNT" is centered, with a progress indicator showing three steps, where step 2 is currently active. The main heading is "Receive authentication code via phone", followed by a note: "Be sure to use a phone number you have access to whenever you plan to sign in." Below this is a red-bordered input field for the phone number, which includes a dropdown menu for the country code (currently set to the United States). Underneath the input field is the heading "Choose how you want to receive the code". There are two options: "Text message" (with a smartphone icon and a blue checkmark in the bottom right corner) and "Phone call" (with a telephone handset icon). Both options are enclosed in red-bordered boxes. At the bottom of the screen, there are two buttons: "Go back" and "Continue". The "Continue" button is highlighted with a red border.

The screenshot shows a web interface for 'ID.me + TREASURY'. At the top, the 'ID.me' logo is followed by a plus sign and the 'TREASURY' logo. Below this, the heading 'SECURE YOUR ACCOUNT' is centered. Underneath the heading is a progress indicator with three circles; the first two are grey with numbers '1' and '2', and the third is blue with the number '3'. The main heading 'Confirm your phone number' is centered. Below it, a message reads: 'Please check your phone for the 6-digit code that we just sent to you at'. A text input field is labeled 'Enter the 6-digit code' and contains the number '882353'. Below the input field is a link that says 'Didn't receive the code? Send it again'. At the bottom, there are two buttons: 'Go back' and 'Continue'. The 'Continue' button is highlighted with a red border.

Note: The code will expire after 15 minutes.

Two-Factor Authentication: Text Message or Phone Call

► Confirmation

The screenshot shows the ID.me + TREASURY logo at the top. Below it, the text reads "YOUR ACCOUNT IS NOW SECURE" and "Your phone number can now be used for two-factor authentication." A padlock icon with a green checkmark is displayed. Below this, it says "Visit ID.me My Account to view and manage two-factor authentication settings." A light blue section titled "Recovery code" explains that a recovery code can be used if access to the two-factor authentication device is lost. A button labeled "Generate recovery code" is present. At the bottom, a blue button labeled "Continue" is highlighted with a red border.

Congratulations! You have enabled two factor authentication for your account. Next step is to verify your identity.

ID.me will send you an email notification that you enabled two-factor authentication.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT NOTICE

The Department of the Treasury (Treasury) is providing these Application Instructions for Low- and Moderate-Income Community Financial Institutions that are considering applying for a capital investment under the Emergency Capital Investment Program (ECIP or Program). Capitalized terms used throughout are defined in the Definitions section below.

General Authority. The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 added Section 104A of the Community Development Banking and Financial Institutions Act of 1994 (the "Act"). Section 104A authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to establish the Program to support the efforts of Low- and Moderate-Income Community Financial Institutions to, among other things, provide loans, grants, and forbearance for small businesses, Minority-owned businesses, and consumers, especially in Low-Income and Underserved Communities, including Persistent Poverty Counties, that may be disproportionately impacted by the economic effects of the COVID-19 pandemic by providing direct and indirect capital investments in Low- and Moderate-Income Community Financial Institutions.

This Program overview, Application Instructions, and application are issued pursuant to Section 104A(d) and (o)(9) of the Community Development Banking and Financial Institutions Act of 1994, as amended by the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021. These documents may be updated, revised, or modified at any time, and the requirements contained herein may be waived by the Secretary of the Treasury in his or her sole discretion to the extent permitted by law.
