

EGYPT & THE EXODUS

Summary

LET MY PEOPLE GO...

Ancient Egypt, land of mystery, of pharaohs and pyramids, was a refuge for Abraham and Sarah—and became a place of enslavement for Jacob’s descendants. With rich, fertile land surrounded by desert, Egypt was known for its wealth, technology, military might, and extensive trade—and the worship of many gods.

The Old Kingdom, also known as the Pyramid Age, was when the most magnificent pyramids were built and, possibly, when Abraham and Sarah sought refuge in Egypt. The pharaohs of this period began to lose power over their outlying districts. Eventually, rulers of these districts declared themselves kings, and Egypt slid into the chaos of the First Intermediate Period.

JOSEPH’S LIFE

When the country was reunited by Mentuhotep, who founded the 11th Dynasty, Egypt entered the Middle Kingdom years. It was at the end of this dynasty (or, possibly, at the beginning of the 12th) that Joseph, great grandson of Abraham and Sarah, was elevated from being a prisoner in Egypt to vizier (second in command of the kingdom). Genesis describes this event:

“Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon; and he shaved, changed his clothing, and came to Pharaoh.”

Genesis 41:14

When Pharaoh heard Joseph’s interpretation of his troubling dream, he recognized that only this man in his kingdom had the wisdom to preserve the incoming bounty of the next seven years in preparation for the famine that would follow.

The God who works all things together for good not only provided food for the Egyptians during famine, but also reunited and reconciled Joseph to his brothers when they came from Canaan to buy grain.

Because of Joseph’s exceptional administration during the famine, the central government of Pharaoh once again grew strong. A fascinating clue to Joseph’s presence in Egypt may be seen in an ancient canal known as the “Bahr Yusef” (or The Joseph Canal), built during the 12th Dynasty and still used in irrigation today.

During the famine, Joseph’s entire family moved to Egypt, to what the Bible describes as being “the best of the land.” After Joseph’s death, however, things changed dramatically. Exodus tells of a new Pharaoh who did not know Joseph, one who began to enslave the Hebrew people—descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

MOSES AND THE EXODUS

The Egyptians feared these foreigners and sought, through unceasing labor and infanticide, to weaken them.

Though Hebrews were commanded to throw their baby boys into the Nile after birth, the mother of Moses set him, instead, into a small basket along the banks of the Nile. When Pharaoh’s daughter found and adopted him, he became part of the ruling family of Egypt. Yet, Hebrews 11:24-26 says that when he came of age, Moses chose to be identified with his own people, the Hebrew slaves. Fleeing Egypt after murdering an Egyptian, Moses settled as a shepherd in Midian. God called Moses, after 40 years of exile, to lead the Hebrew people out of captivity. In the ensuing confrontations between Moses and Pharaoh—and the plagues that followed—the heart of Pharaoh grew harder and harder. Though at last he released the Hebrew slaves, Pharaoh quickly changed his mind and hotly pursued them.

In the miraculous crossing of the Red Sea, the Hebrews gained their freedom when Pharaoh and his army drowned. From that point, Egypt enters into the Second Intermediate Period (13th to 17th Dynasties), with

KEY CONCEPTS

ANCIENT EGYPT & GOD’S PLAN

Studying ancient Egypt through Scripture gives insight into its place in history—a place of refuge which became, for a time, a place of enslavement.

JOSEPH’S LIFE

This Hebrew became, under Pharaoh, one of the most powerful leaders in one of the strongest nations in the ancient world!

MOSES & THE EXODUS

The chronology of ancient Egypt makes a difference in whether we find archaeological evidence for the Exodus.

POSSIBLE ROUTES

Though the location of the “Red Sea” Exodus is controversial, Scripture clearly states that the waters parted, the Hebrews came through, and the Egyptians drowned.

weak pharaohs and conquering foreigners known as the Hyksos.

The New Kingdom (18th-20th Dynasties) had the greatest expansion of Egypt beyond its borders, and lasted 500 years.

DATING THE EXODUS

Though the Bible clearly describes the Exodus, most archaeologists and historians regard the story as fiction. One of the major reasons is that archaeological finds and ancient documents do not appear to line up with Biblical chronology. One notable answer may be that the standard Egyptian chronology is incorrect by about 300 years. Please refer to pp 90-92 (Student Manual) for more information.

MONTH 3 AT A GLANCE

Timeframe: 4 weeks

PHASE 1

WEEK 9

Introduction

5TH TO 12TH GRADE

Discover the mysterious, ancient land of Egypt—and its profound significance in Scripture. We will not only learn about the various Egyptian kingdoms and about people the Bible names in Egypt, but also exciting new theories which provide evidence for the biblical description.

PRE-K TO 4TH GRADE

Your little ones will be gently introduced to ancient Egypt, —and the biblical stories of Joseph, Moses, the Passover, and the Exodus—through coloring, Bible stories, Fascinating Folks & Exciting Events, and sharing their thoughts with you.

PHASE 2

WEEK 10

Exploration

5TH TO 12TH GRADE

Your students each choose one of the suggested topics, like Building the Great Pyramid, Wilderness Living, or Passover, etc.—one that is personally interesting. Then watch what happens as they begin to discover something that fascinates them. You will be amazed when they share their discoveries from this amazing time!

PRE-K TO 4TH GRADE

Have fun playing with the words of this unit through a Word Scramble game, creating a simple timeline, making sock puppets to act out Moses and Pharaoh, and taking a nature walk to imagine crossing the Red Sea.

PHASE 3

WEEK 11

Hands-On

5TH TO 12TH GRADE

Our exploration of the geography and culture of the time takes us to the Nile River and the Egyptian Desert. See paintings about the Exodus, artwork from ancient Egypt, and the Great Pyramid of Giza. And, enjoy learning about levers and pulleys, the rhythm of music, and Egyptian cooking.

PRE-K TO 4TH GRADE

With your little ones, discover “Where in the World is...Egypt?”, make a sun clock you can actually use, and craft a musical instrument!

PHASE 4

WEEK 12

Expression

5TH TO 12TH GRADE

Students can choose to write a rhyming poem, a human interest story, create an advertising ad for real estate on the Nile River, perform dramatic music, put on a puppet show of Joseph’s life, mime the plagues of Egypt, design an imaginative pyramid-building machine, or something else—as they creatively express something they’ve learned about Egypt & the Exodus!

PRE-K TO 4TH GRADE

With your little ones, Sing “Plagues are Plaguings” to the tune of Camptown Races, play “The Hieroglyph-Charades” game, and create a masterpiece. What fun!
