

JULY 2015 LIST

See inside for valid dates

Dear Customer,

Summer is certainly upon us as far as new releases are concerned. You will see from the fact that we have only managed one page of 'priority new releases' that high profile issues are few and far between this month! However, that's not to say that what is being released is not worth exploring. We are always keen to advocate smaller, independent labels, especially as they frequently seem to offer more original and interesting ideas for new recordings. Don't be scared of trying out artists you haven't heard of - modern standards soon filter out the chaff!

Something special was bound to happen when Martha Argerich was given Carte Blanche to invite whoever she wanted, to play whatever she and they chose at her Verbier Festival concert on 27 July 2007. She was the life and soul of the party, playing in seven works and making a rare solo appearance in Schumann's Kinderszenen. The resulting performances have now been issued in a 2CD set by DG (see p.2), who have also just signed a new agreement with the Verbier Festival to release two sets of live performances per year from 2016.

Other highlights we have picked out for July are the latest in the Prokofiev Symphony cycle from the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra and Kirill Karabits (Onyx), the next instalment in Leif Segerstam's series of lesser-known works by Sibelius (Naxos) and the second volume of complete recordings of Ferenc Fricsay on DG, this time featuring opera and choral repertoire. You may also be pleased to see that DG have made a limited re-pressing of the first Fricsay volume (orchestral) due to popular demand (all on p.2).

Our main label special offers this month focus on the wonderful catalogues of Channel Classics and Glossa. Both have a real passion for making recordings of the highest quality, both in terms of performance and audio quality: highly recommended. We also have the complete DVD and Blu-ray catalogue of Opus Arte reduced, APR, ICA Classics and Barbirolli Society discounted for the archive collectors amongst you, and we round off with a fantastic selection of recordings from Onyx, Chandos and Warner Classics, all with great reductions.

Don't forget that orders from the current batch of special offers from DG and Decca (in the June catalogue) must be with us by 5pm on Friday 10th July at the absolute latest. All other June offers are fine until 29th July in the usual fashion.

Best regards from,

The Europadisc Team

Warner Classics 'Cologne Collection' 25% off all titles

Originally EMI's classical 'Electrola' range, this series was renamed the 'Cologne Collection' after EMI and Virgin Classics were bought by Warner. A whole range of repertoire is covered, but they were especially well known for their opera and operetta issues featuring artists such as Anneliese Rothenberger and Nicolai Gedda. Highly recommended.
