MISSION & STRUCTURE

The Army & Air Force Exchange Service's enduring mission is to make the lives of Soldiers and Airmen better through the goods and services we offer. The Exchange goes where Soldiers, Airmen and their families go to improve their quality of life through retail goods and services. Exchange earnings provide dividends to support morale, welfare and recreation programs. The Exchange is part of the Department of Defense and is directed by a Board of Directors, responsible to the Secretaries of the Army & Air Force through the Chiefs of Staff. This year, the Exchange celebrates 120 years of service.

VISION

Be the preferred retail and services provider for the military family through extraordinary customer experience & value pricing.

SELF-SUPPORTING

The Exchange funds 97 percent of its operating budget from the sale of goods and services. The remaining 3 percent of Exchange funding comes from appropriated funds; the vast majority of this support is devoted to overseas operations.

SALES & DIVIDENDS

Roughly two-thirds of Exchange earnings are paid to Army MWR & Air Force Services programs. In the past 10 years, the Exchange has distributed more than $2.4 billion for MWR to fund quality-of-life improvements.

FAMILY SERVING FAMILY

The Exchange is a major employer of military families. Approximately 26 percent of the Exchange's nearly 35,500 associates are military family members; 10 percent are veterans; and 2 percent are active duty, Guard or Reserve personnel working part-time in Exchanges during their off-duty hours. In 2014, the Exchange was named Top Military Spouse Friendly Employer by Victory Media, publisher of Military Spouse magazine.

FACILITIES WORLDWIDE

The Exchange is responsible for more than 2,440 facilities in more than 33 countries, 50 states & five U.S. territories. Facilities include 123 main stores, 167 Military Clothing stores, 645 convenience stores (troop stores, Express locations, Class Six outlets) 165 specialty stores & 67 theaters. The Exchange has more than 1,400 quick-serve restaurants such as Taco Bell, Burger King and Starbucks as well as 3,375 concession operations.

MILITARY & FAMILY SUPPORT

When military members deploy to remote locations around the world, the Exchange is with them, offering products and services to bring troops a taste of home. Since 9/11, more than 4,468 Exchange associates have deployed. The Exchange operates 49 contingency locations in Afghanistan, Kuwait, Jordan, Oman, Qatar, United Arab Emirates, Romania, Bosnia & Kosovo. Other Exchange support last year included outfitting 1.3 million troops with combat uniforms, serving 4 million school lunches to their children and operating 7 plants providing baked goods and bottled water to overseas bases. Any American can support military members worldwide by sending gift cards through the Exchange by logging on to shopmyexchange.com or calling 800-527-2345.

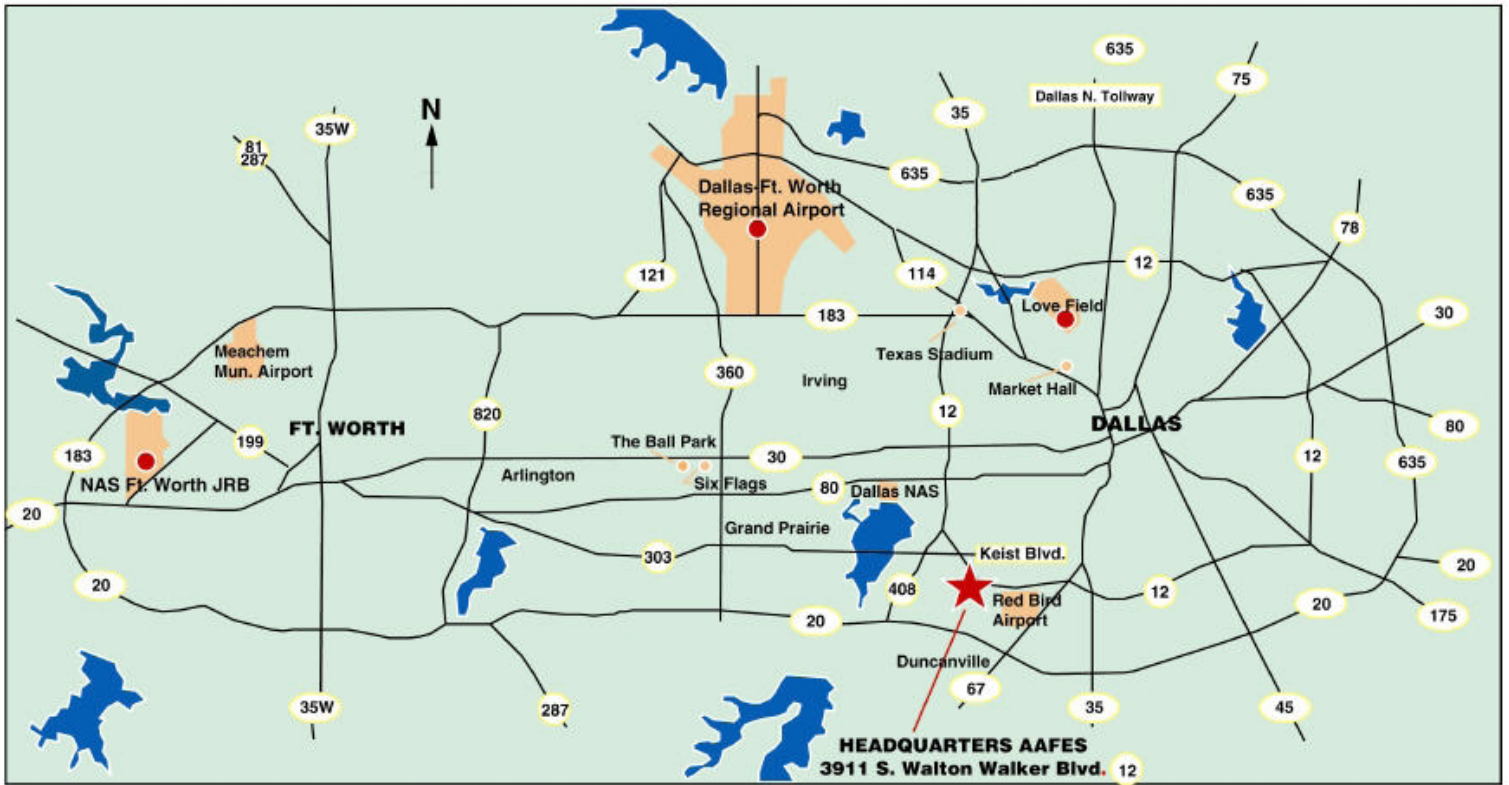

WHO WE SERVE

The Exchange not only supports active-duty service members, but also military retirees and families. In fact, 48 percent of Exchange customers are military family members; 22 percent are retirees; 10 percent are Guardsman/Reservists and 7 percent are civilians.

eCOMMERCE

Online at shopmyexchange.com, the Exchange offers products in every category and the same national brand merchandise found in brick-and-mortar stores. The Exchange's online assortment is updated continually, offering convenience for those who don't live near a military installation. Online shoppers pay no sales tax and enjoy free delivery when using a Military Star Card or when their online purchases total $49 or more.

Visiting the Army & Air Force Exchange Service

Headquarters Visitation

1-1. Supplier visits at Exchange Headquarters (HQ) are by appointment only. Once your Exchange host has scheduled a meeting with you, you will be notified by e-mail of the appointment date and time. Please CLICK HERE for a detailed guide for requirements for visiting the vendor's reception center (VRC).

Store Visitation Policy

1-2. The Exchange encourages supplier participation in our facilities. Supplier participation support includes, but is not limited to, building promotional displays, product inventory scans, recommended order preparation, associate training and product demonstrations. Suppliers are either permanently assigned to a facility or they provide facility support on an as-needed basis.

1-3. Permanently assigned suppliers are normally issued a yearly gate pass that allows them unlimited access to military installations for purposes of working in our facilities. The gate pass will be issued only after a supplier has completed the necessary installation access paperwork, as determined by the local command.

1-4. Suppliers supporting our stores on an as-needed basis will be required to initially contact the local General Manager (GM), or his/her designated representative, in writing to request installation entry. If the request is approved, a letter of temporary authorization will be issued/signed by the GM listing the facility(ies) they may visit and an expiration date. The pass length is determined by the installation. Established sign-in, control and sign-out procedures will be followed at all times, as determined by the local command. If a suppliers' request is denied, they will be furnished reasons in writing.

1-5. These procedures apply to all Continental United States (CONUS) visitations and U.S. suppliers desiring to visit our overseas facilities.

Gifts and Gratuities

1-6. Government personnel are prohibited from accepting a gift, gratuity or anything of monetary value from any person or firm doing, or seeking to do, business with the Government. Exceptions may apply. Contact ethics@aafes.com for questions.

1-7. Acceptance of a prohibited gift or gratuity subjects Exchange employees to disciplinary action that includes separation, civil suit for recovery of the value of the gift or gratuity, and criminal prosecution.

1-8. The offering or giving of a gift or gratuity by an individual or firm (or its employees or agents) could lead to serious consequences, including termination of contracts, determination of non-responsibility for award of contracts, suspension/debarment, civil suit for recovery of the value of the gift or gratuity, and/or other damages and criminal prosecution.

1-9. We ask your support of this important policy. Should you become aware of any indication or evidence of violation of this policy, please report it in writing to:

ATTN: Exchange Inspector General (IG) (Hotline)
P.O. Box 660202

Section 2

Selling to the Exchange

2-1. The Exchange purchases retail merchandise, supplies, equipment and services from a variety of markets. These purchases involve many forms of purchasing and item selection. Although purchases may be made from other governmental sources, most of our purchases are made directly from private businesses. We make competitive purchases through the negotiated method (as opposed to the formal advertising method used in some appropriated fund acquisitions) on the basis of full and free competition to the extent practicable. Any reputable firm or individual may apply to sell its product or services to the Exchange and will be given fair and impartial consideration.

a. Avoid sending any unsolicited samples of merchandise or products to the Exchange. If any samples are required for product evaluation purposes, you will be specifically requested to provide them.

b. Send us your product brochure(s) or other descriptive literature which portrays the merchandise or products you are interested in selling.

2-2. The Exchange receives numerous requests throughout the year for contract information. The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) allows public access to government records. If you submit a proposal to the Exchange that has proprietary information, that information should be flagged as proprietary. In addition, you should supply proper documentation as to why the data should not be released under FOIA exemptions.

2-3. All suppliers must comply with Exchange purchase order retail terms and conditions and supplier requirements. Suppliers will be charged for noncompliance.

2-4. The sale of some categories of retail merchandise is limited within CONUS by Department of Defense Instruction \(DoDI\) 1330.21, Armed Services Exchange Regulations \(ASER\), approved by the U.S. Congress. The list of items, authorized for CONUS sale as of the date of publication, is on page 13. There are no limitations on retail merchandise sold in overseas exchanges.

2-5. Since the Exchange is a retailing organization serving the needs of the military community and retail agreements, we select items for resale on the basis of a product's demonstrated customer acceptance in the commercial marketplace. Due to space and investment limitations, we avoid being a test market for new and unproven products.

General Procurement Information

2-6. Exchange HQ and its overseas purchasing elements conduct negotiations and establish sources for merchandise, food and services provided worldwide in exchanges. VendorNet is a subscription service that each drop ship vendor must subscribe to for processing exchange Online orders (VendorNet will contact the vendor within 30 days of notification from the Exchange). Drop ship vendors must also have electronic data interchange (EDI) capability, guaranteed quick-ship, and guaranteed merchandise availability for the life of the agreement. When submitting merchandise for the internet, send your submissions to the applicable Exchange MD buyer. For assistance with internet item submissions, see the important documents on our Doing Business with the Exchange Ecommerce web page and work with your buyer.

Section 3

Exchange Guidelines to Quality Assurance

3-1. The Exchange Quality Assurance Program ascertains the quality of items we buy and sell. We test and evaluate many items before and after purchase. We also visually inspect merchandise at suppliers' plants and our warehouses using random sampling techniques. Our aim is to keep poor quality merchandise out of our stores.

3-2. Most food items bought by the Exchange must be processed in plants approved by the Department of Defense (DoD) using either their own inspection or, in certain cases, other federal inspection services. Some items are exempt because of their low potential for disease transmission. The Office of the Staff Veterinarian or the food buyer can tell you if source approvals are unnecessary. Delivery of food items directly to exchanges requires an inspection by the resident military food inspection unit for terms of the contract, wholesomeness, condition, identity and sanitation of the vehicle.

3-3. The Exchange is determined to be a proactive partner to the community we serve and to the suppliers whose merchandise and services we offer. Suppliers should be environmentally responsible, offering products and packaging which create a minimum of hazardous waste, are made from recycled products or can be reused or recycled themselves, are energy efficient, enhance the environment and whose claims can be verified.

3-4. Laboratory testing and technical evaluations are performed on a wide range of merchandise. Items are tested, analyzed and evaluated under various conditions to see how well they will perform under actual use. Such characteristics as colorfastness, shrinkage, elongation, permanent press, strength, electrical performance and safety factors are checked.

3-5. We use sampling plans derived from the American National Standards Institute (ANSI)/ASQCZ1.4, "Sampling Procedures and Tables for Inspection by Attributes," for visual inspection of merchandise. This standard is approved by the DoD and is widely used and accepted throughout industry. Ordinarily, we inspect items using normal sampling plans. We use tightened inspection for re-inspection of a previously failed lot and when a supplier's quality indicates that a higher than normal risk of substandard quality may be offered. The Acceptable Quality Levels (AQLs) we use, in conjunction with ANSI/ASCZ1.4 sampling plans, define the maximum percentage of defective product the Exchange will accept before rejecting a shipment. AQLs vary by product and price line.

3-6. It's each supplier's responsibility to ensure the quality of their merchandise by establishing an effective statistical in-process quality control system including end item testing/inspection. We accept quality merchandise only. We can and do verify product quality at suppliers' plants, Exchange warehouses and in our stores. We inspect as a discriminating customer would. Each sample is examined for defects adversely affecting appearance, serviceability or customer acceptance. Examples of defects are:

a. Softline Merchandise – Open seams, exposed raw edges, spots or stains and material defects such as slubs, floats, shade bars, knots, holes or badly shaded parts.

b. Hardline Merchandise – Mechanical or electrical malfunction or misalignment; dents, scratches, rust, poor finish; loose, missing or damaged hardware; distorted audio or video; loose electrical connections; and safety-related defects such as sharp edges, ingestible components or other hazardous conditions.

3-7. In addition to quality defects, noncompliance with Exchange Retail Purchase Order Terms and Conditions, or applicable Federal laws or acts can cause an item to be unacceptable, such as:

a. Missing or incorrect Underwriter's Laboratories (UL) or equivalent labels, size labels, textile care labels, fiber content labels, manufacturer's or brand labels, military uniform certification labels, flame-resistant identification and so forth.

b. Missing or improper pre-ticketing or universal product code (UPC). The Exchange requires authentic GS1 bar codes that meet GS1 specifications for labeling and readability. For more information on GS1 bar codes, please visit www.gs1us.org.

c. Unauthorized substitutions or variations in ordered quantity.

d. Not packed or packaged as required by law, contract or good packaging practices; for example, non child-resistant caps, non tamper-resistant/safety-sealed vitamins, non leak-proof packages or insufficient inner packaging to prevent rattling and damage to contents.

3-8. Supplier liability for supplying defective or nonconforming items is explained in detail in the Exchange Retail Purchase Order Terms and Conditions applicable to contracts and purchase orders.

3-9. As part of the Supplier Requirements, suppliers are required to maintain and have an acceptable Quality Control (QC) or Quality Assurance (QA) program in place. At minimum, suppliers must have products tested for safety and performance in addition to performing self end-item inspections prior to shipping products to the Exchange.

3-10. As stated in the Exchange Retail Purchase Order Terms and Conditions, suppliers providing the Exchange's private label or direct import merchandise must ensure that their factories and sub-contractors comply with Exchange Social Responsibility and Labor Standards. These suppliers are required to provide factory's social responsibility audit or certification documents via email to QAManagement@aafes.com for the Exchange quality Assurance to review and approve. Suppliers can provide the documents from other retailers or brands or independent social responsibility certifying organizations, or can hire independent auditing firms to audit the factories.

- 5-1. Dan Daniel DC (DDDC), located in Newport News, Virginia, is a 1.4 million square foot mechanized facility distributing general merchandise to facilities located throughout the Northeast and Europe. The DDC houses the new mechanized Fashion Distribution Facility (FDF), providing women's, men's and children's clothing, as well as shoes and other accessories, to Exchange sites around the world.
- 5-2. West Coast DC (WCDC) is a fully mechanized state-of-the-art distribution center located at French Camp, just outside Lathrop, California at the Sharpe Army Depot. The 850,000 square foot facility serves retail facilities throughout the Western United States, Pacific, Alaska and Hawaii.
- 5-3. Waco DC (WADC), located in Waco, Texas, is a 688,000 square foot mechanized facility distributing general merchandise to exchanges east of the Rocky Mountains and west of the Mississippi.

How Merchandise is Distributed

- 5-4. The Exchange performs an economic analysis on every item purchased to determine the best way the merchandise should be shipped to our facilities. Factors considered in the analysis are the supplier's free on board (FOB) terms, type of service needed, nature of the merchandise category, and an evaluation of the economic/operational benefits to the Exchange and our customers.

Transportation

- 5-5. The Exchange transportation network utilizes a mix of commercial carriers (less-than-truckload, truckload and inter-modal), consolidation centers and our private Exchange fleet.
- 5-6. Commercial carriers submit all rates in tender format and must utilize EDI for billing and shipment status information. LG limits the number of carriers used to a select group based on quality measures, financial strength and transportation costs. These are often referred to as "Preferred Carriers."
- 5-7. Suppliers may be required to ship direct to a facility, CCC, DC or port, depending on the service requirements and transportation costs. Routing instructions will be transmitted with the purchase order. If no routing instructions are received, call HQ-LG. The Exchange does not issue a routing guide.
- 5-8. Once shipments enter the Exchange transportation network, they are tracked through the Exchange system using carrier EDI updates and are completely visible to anyone with access to the Exchange mainframe.
