

Executor Checklist

Getting Started

If you've been named as an Executor, which is the person responsible for carrying out the terms of a Will, there are some important things you should know about your new role—whether you're called upon soon or in the far future.

This checklist includes the following:

- Preparation
- Determining Beneficiaries
- Asset Inventory & Debts
- Setting Up Estate Bank Account
- Probate
- Paying Debts, Taxes, Ongoing Expenses
- Distributing Assets To Beneficiaries

Remember

Create an Everplan to easily and securely update and share vital info with the people you love and trust.

PREPARATION

While an Executor's duties go into effect when the person who named you passes away, here are a few things you can do to prepare well in advance. Location of Will:
Contact Info (Name Number Website):
Doctor	Name/Info:
Financial/Accountant	Name/Info:
☐ Insurance Agent	Name/Info:
Professional Guidanc	e
	york on your own. You can hire professionals to help assist the process. Gather the you may need to work with to settle the estate.
Financial Advisor	Name/Info:
Legal Advisor	Name/Info:
Other Advisor(s):
General Estate Wishes	That Aren't Included In The Will:

BENEFICIARIES

Put together a list of all the people nam	red as beneficiaries with the following	into.
Beneficiary Name:
Address:
Phone Number/Email:
	SSN_
Assets Due:
Beneficiary Name:
Address:
	SSN
Assets Due:
Beneficiary Name:
Address:
	SSN
Assets Due:
Beneficiary Name:
Address:
Date Of Birth:
Assets Due:

ESTATE INVENTORY

Put together a list of assets the deceased person	n owned; focus on cash and most valuable items.
Financial Assets & Valuables
Checking/Savings Account	Cash
Life Insurance Policies	☐ Investments: Stocks/Brokerage Accounts
Savings Bonds	Retirement Plans: 401(k)s, IRAs, or 403(b)
Social Security	Benefits: Veterans, Pension, Other
Jewelry	Art/Collectibles
Other Financial Accounts Or Valuables:
D. J. Falada
Real Estate
Include the following information for each piece than one state you will have to initiate Probate page 1.	of owned property. Note: If the deceased owned property in more roceedings in each state.
·
% Of Property Owned:
☐ Does This Property Already Have A Bene	eficiary: Yes No
Notes & Instructions:
Property Name/Address:
Deed Location:
% Of Property Owned:	Fair Market Value:
Does This Property Already Have A Bene	eficiary: Yes No
Notes & Instructions:

Vehicles
Gather up the following information on all cars, tru	ucks, boats, and other vehicles that were owned by the deceased.
Type Of Vehicle:
Original Title Location:
License Plate (if applicable):	Ownership: Owned Outright Financed
Does This Property Already Have A Bene	ficiary: Yes No
Notes & Instructions:
Type Of Vehicle:
Original Title Location:
License Plate (if applicable):
Does This Property Already Have A Bene
Notes & Instructions:
is completed. While you might want to start a	nake sure all estate assets remain in your care until Probate illocating Grandma's jewelry immediately, use your mamics. If an issue surfaces during Probate you may have to est pleasant experience.
DEBTS
include the most recent statements and invoices.	ns, or companies the person who died owed money to; be sure to Note: Keep this list handy because you'll need to go through and e, cancel, or transfer them once Probate is complete.
Credit Cards	Medical Bills
Student Loans	Car Loans
Mortgages	Alimony
Child Support	Payday Loans
Other:

ONGOING EXPENSES

using these serv	vices should pay them and accour afford these expenses without mo	even if Probate is not complete. The person who will still be nts should either be closed or transferred into their name. Oney from the estate, get in touch with the companies that are you may be granted a deferral on those bills.
Rent	Utilities	Insurance (Home, Car, Disability, etc.)
Other:
	cutor should only use money f oills – once probate has conclu	rom the estate to pay final bills – including taxes, credit card ded!
PROBATE F	PROCEEDINGS
		of a Will. As an Executor, you can't sell assets, pay debts, or ell creditors the estate is in probate to prevent being hassled.
☐ File Will At	Local Courthouse (you can do	this yourself or hire an attorney)
Obtain Lett	ters Testamentary or Letters O	f Administration When Will Is Validated
Arrange Ar	nd File Probate In Other States	Where Deceased Owned Property (if applicable)
☐ Notes & Ins	structions:
SET UP BA	NK ACCOUNT FOR EST	ATE
		arate from your own, so setting up a separate bank account in the off debts easier. You will need the following to set up the account:
Death Cert	ificate	Letters Testamentary or Letters Of Administration
Obtain Emp	ployer Identification Number (E	IN) from the IRS
Once you've c	hosen a bank, they will provide	e the forms you need to fill out to open the account.
Bank Name	e/Location:
Estate Acco	ount Name:
Account No	umber & Info:
	are any money owed to the dec as, stock dividends, and payme	ceased is deposited into this account, which could include nt of debts owed.

PAYING DEBTS, TAXES, AND ONGOING EXPENSES Before beneficiaries named in a Will can receive any inheritance, the deceased person's debts and creditors need to be paid off. You also need to file taxes on behalf of the deceased. Pay Off Debts Cancel/Transfer Accounts (Credit Cards, Utilities, Cell Phone, etc.) ■ Notify Social Security Administration File Taxes Other: ALLOCATING ASSETS & FINAL STEPS It's time to close down the estate. Distribute Assets From Financial Accounts To Beneficiaries Distribute Physical Assets & Valuables To Beneficiaries Distribute, Sell, or Donate Any Personal Items that Were Not Included In the Will Other: NOTES & PERSONAL THOUGHTS Use this section for any important information, personal thoughts, or anything we may have missed. It's also important for the person naming you as an Executor to create an Everplan and name you as a Deputy so this info, along with much more, is neatly organized and securely stored when you need it.

CREATE YOUR FREE EVERPLAN NOW: www.everplans.com

Create, store, and share all of the digital and online account information in this document (and so much more) in a personalized Everplan so it's accessible to those who will need it.