

Experiencing God

Most Bible studies help people; this one changes them forever. For more than 15 years, God has used Experiencing God in His work, showing believers how to know Him intimately while encouraging them to step out in faith and join Him in His work—with miraculous results.

His Needs, Her Needs

Thousands of couples have restored passion to their marriage by learning habits that meet each other's important emotional needs:

- A wife tends to find her husband irresistible when he
 - a. learns to create an environment of affection that clearly and repeatedly expresses his love for her;
 - b. sets aside time every day just to talk to her with undivided attention and interest;
 - c. is completely honest and open with her;
 - d. provides financial support for her and;
 - e. is committed to the moral and educational development of their children.
- A husband tends to find his wife irresistible when she
 - a. learns to join him in a sexual relationship they both find satisfying and enjoyable;
 - b. becomes his favorite recreational companion;
 - c. maintains overall appearance in a way that he finds physically attractive;
 - d. manages household responsibilities and;
 - e. understands and appreciates him more than anyone else.

Discovering God's Way of Handling Money

There are more than 2,350 verses that address everything you need to know about handling money. The Bible is, indeed, a blueprint for managing your finances. Not only is Discovering God's Way of Handling Money practical, but in it you will learn the profound impact managing your money has on your relationship with God.

- What does the Bible say about borrowing and lending money?
- How do you evaluate financial counsel from others?
- Is honesty always the best policy?
- How can I know when to give to others?
- How are money and being a godly employee related to each other?

Dealing with Today's Teens

(Checked out: Ken Graham)

In this encouraging and instructive video study, Gregston provides proven answers and practical strategies for parents to prevent their teens from falling prey to the culture in which they live.

The focus of Mark's teaching is biblical, loving and relational and helps maintain an open and honest relationship while dealing with behavior, lifestyle and choices in life.

You'll find Mark's insights to be right on, since they are based on the practical reality of his daily counseling work with thousands of teenagers over the past 35 years. You, too, can learn the key principles he's successfully practiced and taught parents throughout North America.

Far too many families have issues with their teenagers today and need the kind of help that Mark Gregston provides. With the lifetime viewing license that is included in the cost, the seminar can be shown to groups again and again for years to come, or individual families can take it home and view it as the need arises. It's a powerful investment for your church, school or group.

Just Walk Across the Room

(Checked out: Mike Bohl)

Just a few steps and a friendly hello may be all it takes to change someone's life—and their eternity! And the good news is, it has more to do with taking a genuine interest in another person and listening to their story than it does with learning evangelism tactics and techniques.

Thousands of churches are already implementing the simple, personal approach described in Bill Hybels' award-winning book, Just Walk Across the Room. Now is your church's opportunity. Learn how to equip your members to walk in a totally new way of evangelism. The concepts aren't hard, just effective.

He Chose The Nails

The wood. The thorns. The nails. Christ's sacrifice has defined the very essence of mankind's faith for the past 2000 years. And now, Max Lucado invites you to examine the cross, contemplate its purpose, and celebrate its significance with He Chose the Nails. With his warm caring style, Max examines the symbols surrounding Christ's crucifixion, revealing the claims of the cross and asserting that if they are true, then Christianity itself is true. The supporting evidence either makes the cross the single biggest hoax of all time, or the hope of all humanity

Building Strong Families (VHS)

How can Christians build strong families in today's culture? By starting with a foundation built on the timeless wisdom of Solomon. Based on Proverbs 22:6, Building Strong Families presents the characteristics of a strong family, the importance of parental leadership, and the value of establishing family goals and parenting philosophies. And not only does it explain what strong families are made of, it shows how you can apply Solomon's teachings to real life situations in your own family.

One Month To Live

Are you suffering from “someday” syndrome – always waiting for someday when your schedule calms down, your finances improve or your kids grow up so you can begin to live the life you’ve always dreamed of?

Consider how your perspective would change if you found out you had just thirty days to live. After the initial shock, you’d probably resolve to squeeze all you could from the days that remain. You’d say what you really think. You’d love with abandon. You’d focus on whatever you care about most. In short, you’d stop wasting precious time, and in whatever time you had left, you’d throw yourself into becoming the person God intended you to be.

Why wait to answer the longings of your heart? You can live this way now, thriving in a life of passion and purpose as you engage fully in each day.

In One Month to Live, Kerry and Chris show you how to stop waiting for “someday” and start making each day really matter. By taking their 30-Day challenge, you’ll learn what it means to make the most of your time on earth and live life with no regrets.

Believing God

In Believing God, Beth Moore challenges us to take God at His word, believe His promises and, as a result, live fuller lives. If God is who He says He is and can indeed do what He says He can do, why are so many Christians living mediocre lives? Moore thinks that there is a simple answer to this question: unbelief. Don't be afraid to set aside your unbelief and experience the great blessings of God's promises.

Beloved Disciple (VHS)

"Every disciple and early follower of Christ left a legacy for future believers. John's legacy was love. Perhaps like no other disciple, John understood that relationship is the point. Every command of Christ and call to obedience is to enhance relationship and place the recipient in a posture the Giver can bless. This study is about finding our way to the heart of Jesus and reclining so closely that our pulse begins to throb in tandem, loving what He loves and hating what He hates."

Daniel

Join Beth in a faith-building study of prophecy and learn how to live with integrity in today's self-absorbed society. The prophet Daniel faced unbelievable pressures to compromise his faith, to live in a hostile culture, and to confront temptations and threats. Today, believers in Jesus Christ face many of the same trials.

This Old Testament Bible study falls in two parts and can be used as one (12 session) study or two separate (6 session) studies. The first portion, from Daniel chapters 1-6, deals with Daniel's life as he faced the kind of pressures and temptations Christians encounter today. Daniel models how to develop enduring integrity in an enticing world. The second portion, chapters 7-12, explores thrilling prophecies from the time of Daniel through the second coming of Jesus Christ.

When Godly People Do Ungodly Things

When Godly People Do Ungodly Things: Arming Yourself in the Age of Seduction - helps a leader facilitate this women's Bible study experience and contains all that is needed to conduct the 6 weeks of small group time. In this biblical guide to authentic repentance and restoration, Beth examines why devoted followers of Jesus Christ can fall into the traps of Satan.

Christians are still subject to Satan's attacks. He is determined to disrupt the lives of believers, destroy their ministry, and steal their joy. Sadly, those who have "fallen" may not recognize the devil's schemes until they have already been caught in a snare of defeat. This six-week Bible study is written in three parts. The first part is a warning to believers, while the second part shows women how to prepare for attacks by the Enemy. The third part is directed to those who have been snared by seduction, and compassionately points the way back to God.

To Live Is Christ: The Life and Ministry of Paul - helps a leader facilitate this women's Bible study experience and contains all that is needed to conduct the 10 weeks of small group time. Join Beth on a journey into the life and heart of Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles, who served faithfully and loved heartily. You will discover him to be a man who formed many close friendships with both men and women.

More than any other person, Paul provides us an example of sold-out servanthood. He understood what it means to die daily, crucified with Jesus Christ. As a result, Paul shows us how to live fully as a bond servant to Christ. As you study the Book of Acts and the Letters of Paul, you will come to know the characters personally. Most of all you will feel the challenge to follow Paul's example just as he followed the example of Christ.

An Ordinary Day With Jesus (VHS)

In the routine moments of an ordinary day . . . you can experience the reality of God's presence.

Christ entered our broken world to give us life in all its fullness. Not just in pinnacle experiences, but in every situation, every relationship, every activity. As you learn to recognize and welcome Christ's presence into every moment, ordinary days become filled with a tangible sense of God's presence. Suddenly, you are experiencing all of life with God--not just Sundays or 'quiet times.' Even more, he is transforming you in the process. You begin to experience the kind of ongoing, close connection to God you've longed for.

Experiencing God's presence in your everyday life doesn't necessarily mean doing new things. It means doing the things you already do in new ways--with him. An ordinary day with Jesus truly can be the greatest day you've ever had. Best of all, it can lead to an extraordinary life!

Parenting The Early Years

Recently we've been working with Drs. Les and Leslie Parrott with some things for the parents of young children. They are best selling authors, who have sold over one million copies of their books. They are a very solid Christian couple that has been featured on Christianity Today, ABC's Good Morning America, Focus on the Family, The New York Times and they've even made their way on to Oprah.

What we've been finding is that so many parents out there are wondering, "Do I have what it takes to be a good parent?" A lot of times parents need help, but nobody likes to ask for help.

That's why we've teamed up with Les and Leslie Parrott to create a new video-driven study called Parenting: The Early Years. Now, this goes deeper than any technique of just getting kids to eat their broccoli and clean their room. It takes a Biblical approach into the traits parents want their children to have and what traits they want their children to see modeled in them.

On this six DVD series our team took their cameras into the homes of 20 families and captured real-life parenting moments. Some of these are funny moments and some are just completely honest moments that every parent can relate to.

The study looks at what it's like for married, single and blended families. It works well in a Sunday morning class or small group Bible study, a parenting seminar or even to send home with expecting parents or even grandparents who are finding themselves raising their grandkids (because we all know children don't come with instructions).

He Speaks To Me

He Speaks to Me: Preparing to Hear from God - helps a leader facilitate this women's Bible study experience and contains all that is needed to conduct the 7 small-group sessions. A common question of many Christians is, "How can I know when God is speaking to me?" Priscilla uses the account of God speaking to Samuel in 1 Samuel 3 to show how God speaks to Christians and how we can discern His voice and position ourselves to respond. In this exciting adventure, participants will discover how God spoke to Samuel, Samuel's response, and how He speaks to believers today; they will be encouraged to listen and respond to God's voice; and by listening to God's voice and obeying Him, women will experience spiritual growth, Christian discipline, and the desire to serve.

Community: Your Pathway to Progress

(Checked out: Ken Graham)

Group Link Starter Kit

We believe life change happens best when people intentionally connect with each other. Our primary way to connect people into small groups is through GroupLink! GroupLink is a two-hour event where people connect with others in their same stage of life and area of town to form community groups. Is your church ready to connect more people into groups? If so, you're ready for GroupLink!

We have developed this Starter Kit to enable you to create GroupLink at your church. From logos to videos to leader training materials, this resource is all you need to get started.

Community: Your Pathway to Progress

In this study, specifically designed for new small groups, you will learn that community is essential to spiritual progress.

You will spend the first sessions of this study getting to know your other group members where they have come from and where they are now. Then, during the remaining sessions, you will discuss the importance of community and how to stay on course. Study guides are recommended for each group participant. The DVD has been designed to complement sessions 5-7 of the study guide for you to watch as a group and contains messages by Andy Stanley that will introduce you to the importance of community.

Dealing With Doubt

Since we all experience doubt at some point in our lives, we need to learn how God wants us to deal with that doubt.

In this series, Andy Stanley challenges us to focus on God's past faithfulness and His present activity to get us through times of doubt.

God is Great, God is Good

In the wake of a natural disaster we come face-to-face with the reality that the world is not as it should be. The jarring images of indiscriminate destruction on the news beg the question, "Why God?" "Why did this happen?" "Why would you allow such meaningless suffering?" While we default to "Why?" perhaps we should be asking another question — "Who?" "Who is this God?" In the face of tragedies and atrocities are we to believe in a God of judgment or a God of love?

This two-part series sets out to answer the question of who God is by spanning the Bible from creation to re-creation. Along the way you will discover what went wrong with our world and how God has been at work fixing it.

Why Worry?

(Checked out: Ken Graham)

Worry. It's universal. It is as much a part of life as breathing. Yet Jesus said, Don't! Don't worry! Easier said than done. In Why Worry, Andy Stanley explores what Jesus had to say about this important topic. You'll discover where worry comes from, why it's so difficult to overcome, and what you can do to conquer worry in your life.

Andy guides you through one of the Bible's Old Testament stories in which the main character is challenged with a single question a question that brought a new and needed perspective to his worries. This question may be the key to overcoming worry in your own life as well! (Three parts)

Verdict

We live in a culture that urges us to accept all religions as valid approaches to God. We are surrounded by intellectuals who urge us to abandon the notion of moral or theological absolutes. Our universities are filled with skeptics and cynics who delight in dismantling the Sunday school faith of our children.

And yet in spite of all that, millions of people world wide cling to the notion that 2,000 years ago a man came from God, spoke on behalf of God and then died for the sins of the world. How can that be? Are we simply deceiving ourselves? Do we need propping up that bad? Have we checked our brains at the door? Why would so many continue to believe in such narrow, politically incorrect, divisive ideas?

This three-part series examines the evidence that has led so many to accept the Bible as a credible record of actual events. Listen and decide for yourself.

Listen and Learn

What and who you listen to will influence what you do.

Sounds like advice you might give your kids or a younger brother. But this is sound advice for kids of all ages. Let's face it . . . your life has been defined by the voices you've chosen to tune in, as well as those you've opted to tune out.

All of us wish we could go back and dial up certain voices in our lives. And if we could go back, there are voices we would tune out altogether. But, we can't go back. What we can do, however, is begin to listen with greater discernment NOW.

In this engaging, 3-part series, Andy Stanley introduces us to the three primary voices we should tune into beginning today!

Inside Out Living

Living a Blessed Life – Beatitudes

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven” so begins the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus’ longest sermon in the New Testament. And with these words, Jesus introduces us to a whole new way of living – inside out living!

The Sermon on the Mount is a blueprint for building the Christian life that covers three chapters of the book of Matthew, and includes the Beatitudes, the Lord’s Prayer, Jesus’ teachings about worry, forgiveness, integrity, loving our enemies, storing up treasures in Heaven, and many other topics. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus reaches beneath our actions to the attitudes that motivate us. He teaches us how to stop living for ourselves, and how to start living beyond ourselves. And that kind of living is inside out living.

This DVD contains a full length message from the founder of Choice Ministries and the popular Passion Conferences, Louie Giglio, who has impacted millions of people from around the world.

The Heavens are telling the glory of God, and their expanse declares the work of His hands. Night after night they remind us of just how small we are, and how huge God is. Looking out into the far reaches of the Universe, we find a seemingly infinite expanse of mystery and wonder, intricately fashioned by a God of unfathomable size and power. Just a glimpse of one of the billions of visible galaxies He has formed resizes us, shrinking us and the world we call home to a seeming insignificance in an instant. But as tiny as we may seem, the God who knows every star by name also knows yours and mind. And in the most stunning rescue imaginable, God sent His Son to this spinning planet we call home – the Creator reconnecting us to Himself with life that never ends.

Indescribable take us on an image-rich journey through the Cosmos, allowing us to peer into God's universe to discover the amazing magnitude of His greatness and grace.

Prayer: Does It Make Any Difference?

In theory, prayer is the priceless point of contact between us and God. In practice, it's often frustrating, confusing, and mysterious. Throughout this 6-session interactive journey, Philip Yancey explores this enigmatic intersection where we meet God, asking---and answering---key questions: Is he listening? What's the point? God's Story (VHS)

God's Story: Finding Meaning for Your Life Through Knowing God - helps a leader facilitate this women's Bible study experience. The Book of Genesis is something of a closed door for many people. Although the stories of creation, Adam and Eve, Noah and the flood, and the tower of Babel are fairly familiar, there seems to be a great lack of understanding about what meaning these stories have for our lives today. Anne will guide you through not only the main events of God's story that are obvious to even the most casual person but also into places inhabited by God Himself. And in finding God, in coming to know Him as He describes Himself in His own words, you will find more than a Deity who created the universe. As you come face-to-face with the Creator of the universe you will find the meaning of life for which you have been searching.

Dinosaurs, Creation, Evolution – Dinosaurs And The Bible

Creation Seminar Part 2

Did you know dinosaurs are mentioned in the Bible? Are we being told the truth about the dinosaurs? Nearly all public school textbooks teach that dinosaurs lived “millions of years ago”; however, on this two-hour video, Dr. Kent Hovind shows that dinosaurs did NOT live millions of years ago, but have always lived with man. He explains how dinosaurs were in the Garden of Eden with Adam and Eve, on the ark with Noah, and were hunted by man after the flood to the point of extinction for most species. Dr. Hovind also shows amazing evidence that a few small ones may still be alive in various parts of the world today!

Creation Seminar Part 3

Is it possible that there was an animal that breathed fire? Scoffers have ridiculed the Bible for years over its story of a “fire-breathing dragon.” Learn the truth on this video by Dr. Kent Hovind. Also, see why God used dinosaurs to help Job get a new outlook on life and to expose one of the greatest and most common problems people deal with today.

Dinosaurs, Creation, Evolution – Evolution, Foundation For Communism

Creation Seminar Part 5

What difference does it make whether you believe in creation or evolution? Did the theory of evolution play any part in starting World War I & II? How does evolution relate to Communism, Socialism, Nazism, abortion, liberalism, and the New Age movement?

How and why did the theory of evolution become so popular so quickly in the 1800's? Did Darwin really start this crazy theory that controls our schools today? How do scientists tell the age of fossils and rocks? What "evidence for evolution" will students face in their textbooks and what is the creationist's answer to these so-called evidences? Creation Seminar Part 6

If the entire world flooded in the days of Noah, where could that much water have come from and where did it go? Where does the ice age fit into the Bible? Did it really take millions of years to form Grand Canyon as the textbooks teach students, or could the flood have formed Grand Canyon in a few days? What phenomena occurred to freeze thousands of mammoths? What about Pangea and continental drift? Of what geological significance was the Mt. St. Helens eruption to support the creationist's view? Wild At Heart

Helping men rediscover their masculine heart, Wild at Heart, a guide to understanding Christian manhood and Christian men, offers a refreshing break from the chorus of voices urging men to be more responsible, reliable, dutiful ... and dead. God designed men to be dangerous, says Eldredge. Simply look at the dreams and desires written in every boy's heart: to be a hero, to be a warrior, to live a life of adventure and risk. Sadly, most men abandon those dreams and desires---aided by a Christianity that feels like nothing more than pressure to be a "nice guy." It's no wonder that many men avoid church, and those who go are often passive and bored to death. In this provocative book, Eldredge gives women a look inside the true heart of a man and gives men permission to be what God designed them to be--- dangerous, passionate, alive, and free.

Five Love Languages

(Checked out: Michael Roche)

After many years of counseling, Dr. Chapman noticed a pattern: everyone he had ever counseled had a “love language,” a primary way of expressing and interpreting love. He also discovered that, for whatever reason, people are usually drawn to those who speak a different love language than their own.

Of the countless ways we can show love to one another, five key categories, or five love languages, proved to be universal and comprehensive—everyone has a love language, and we all identify primarily with one of the five love languages: Words of Affirmation, Quality Time, Receiving Gifts, Acts of Service, and Physical Touch.

The 5 Love Languages has helped countless couples identify practical and powerful ways to express love, simply by using the appropriate love language. Many husbands and wives who had spent years struggling through marriages they thought were loveless discovered one or both spouses had long been showing love through messages that weren't getting through. By recognizing their different love languages, they witnessed the rebirth of the love they thought had been gone for good.

Parenting: The Early Years

A lot of times parents need help, but nobody likes to ask for help. That's why Drs. Les and Leslie Parrott have created a new video-driven study called Parenting: The Early Years. This teaching takes a Biblical approach into the traits parents want their children to have and what traits they want their children to see modeled in them. Captured on these six DVDs are real-life parenting moments taken inside the homes of 20 real families, who are trying to raise their kids in the best way possible.

What's So Amazing About Grace

(Checked out: Rich Kiefer)

Master the leadership skills you need to be your very best! Wilkes discusses every aspect of an honorable servant leader---from humbling your heart to building a winning team. His personal stories show how following Jesus, taking risks, sharing responsibility, exercising authority, and other essential skills work in real life.

Mention the word "grace" and what immediately comes to mind for most of us is a bagpipe wailing the solemn notes of "Amazing Grace."

The grace of which Philip Yancey writes is the freely given and unmerited favor and love of God. This grace seems a remote, almost sentimental concept, without a place in our lives or our society. It is a vague, slippery thing to us, probably because we seem to experience grace so rarely and have managed to leech the word of meaning. But Philip Yancey has set about to rescue grace in his book What's So Amazing About Grace?

This grace is the true message of Jesus. All faiths have virtues and creeds and justice and truth, but Jesus speaks merely of receiving the love that God has for us. Accepting it, not earning it or making ourselves worthy of it. And frankly, accepting something we have not earned or are not worthy of is not an easy thing for most of us.

In truth, grace is both utterly simple and utterly confounding. Little by little, Yancey guides us into a clearer understanding of grace by using stories, in much the same way Jesus did. We read stories of both grace and ungrace at work in people's lives. Sadly, it is stories of ungrace that are more prevalent today, the current culture wars painful acknowledgments of ungrace in our lives as Christians in this country. Yancey helps us understand that ungrace is that state of being in which self-righteousness and pride are a result of thinking that we have somehow earned God's approval and may now stand in judgment in his behalf.

Philip Yancey was awarded the Gold Medallion Christian Book of the Year award for this book in 1998 by the Evangelical Christian Publishers Association. Readers concurred with this decision, making this book an immediate bestseller. Believers and nonbelievers alike should accept Yancey's challenge to become agents of grace rather than agents of vengeance or judgment or anger. In truth, we are each starving for grace, ready to grasp it tightly. And it is through grace that all other hungers--for justice, for righteousness, for love--are satisfied. Yancey opens his book by telling us that "grace" is the last best word, and in What's So Amazing About Grace?, he proves that he's right. --Patricia Klein

11 Core Truths To Build Your Life On

Many Christians today live their lives, plan their schedules, and use their resources completely disconnected from what they say they believe. This spiritual disconnect is the cause of so much of the stress and problems in our lives. Foundations is a fresh, innovative curriculum about the essential truths of the Christian faith and how these truths are to be lived out- in your relationships, your character, and your work. Rather than just teaching doctrinal knowledge, Tom Holladay and Kay Warren show you how to apply Biblical truths and implement them in your everyday life.
