GRADUATE STUDIES

WELCOME FROM THE SENIOR ASSOCIATE DEAN OF GRADUATE STUDIES

Welcome to Graduate Studies at the Eastman School of Music! Whether you are a current master's or doctoral student, or planning to apply for a graduate degree in the future, you will find that our school is dedicated to the highest levels of artistry, scholarship, and leadership, to the broad education of musicians within the context of a university, and to the musical enrichment of the greater community.

Eastman is an institution where performance and research mutually inform and enhance each other, and where we train the musical artists, scholars, teachers, and leaders of tomorrow. Our graduate programs in performance, composition, musicology, music education, and music theory rank consistently in the top tier in national surveys, such as the last study conducted by the National Research Council, which noted in particular Eastman musicology and theory faculty's high productivity in research and publications.

GRADUATE STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

The Eastman Graduate Students' Association (GSA) is a graduate student organization funded by mandatory activity fees and is advised by the Office of Student Life. GSA's primary mission is to plan social activities, events, and programs for Eastman graduate students. GSA also represents the broad interests of graduate students at Eastman; provides a forum for interaction among an extraordinarily diverse graduate and professional student population; encourages and facilitates communication with and interaction between other graduate and professional student organizations at UR; and promotes a sense of community among Eastman's graduate and professional students.

OFFICE OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

A MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT DEAN OF STUDENT AFFAIRS!

Welcome to the Eastman School of Music! I am very pleased to welcome you to our New Student Orientation. Please review this orientation booklet, as it is designed to help you make a successful transition into the Eastman community. During Orientation, you will learn more about Eastman and the College's expectations, have opportunities to interact in meaningful ways with other new students, meet faculty and staff, and familiarize yourself with the resources necessary to be successful as you begin. Orientation is intentionally structured to help you meet your goals as a new student and meet our goals to assist you along the way.

The Office of Student Affairs is a department tasked with enhancing student growth and development. While your academic deans and faculty members may push you to excel artistically and academically, Student Affairs practitioners work to challenge and support your learning outside of the classroom. The Office of Student Affairs directly oversees the Office for Residential Life and the Office for Student Activities & Engagement. The Office for Residential Life contributes to the holistic development of students through support, programs, and collaborations which foster a safe, inclusive, and engaged community for students living in the Student Living Center (SLC). The Office for Student Activities provides opportunities for student-focused extracurricular activities, diversity, leadership within clubs and organizations, fun events, and civic engagement.

I encourage you to take advantage of the special opportunities to engage with the Eastman and Rochester communities at large. The relationships you begin to forge this week will be the foundation of your professional networks here at Eastman and into the future. From the Office of Student Affairs, we wish you every success.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Bones, Ed. D

OFFICE FOR STUDENT ACTIVITIES!

A MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR STUDENT ACTIVITIES & ENGAGEMENT!

Congratulations! You're here - the Eastman School of Music. You've joined the select group of individuals at this prestigious institution to make your passion into a life-long pursuit. As you continue to dive head-first into study, practice, and a deeper understanding of your unique musicianship, it's always important to remember and be motivated by the University of Rochester's motto: "Meliora", meaning "Ever Better." In the Office of Student Affairs, our goal is to make your holistic experience at the Eastman School of Music "Ever Better" by providing opportunities for you to engage with other students in co-curricular activities and special events on campus and throughout the Rochester area.

My personal goal is to help cultivate a community of belonging and fun for the purpose of building relationships and relieving some of the pressures of student life. As the Assistant Director for Student Activities & Engagement, I am thrilled to take part in many activities, outings, clubs, and events that we have throughout the year. I want to see each one of you involved at Eastman, beyond your academic studies, in order to enhance your overall experience at this incredible school. Some of the events that I am particularly excited about are: Welcome Weekend, Spring Fling, midnight movie premieres (my personal favorite), the occasional free "on your way to class" breakfasts in Lowry Hall, and (most importantly) the free food trucks right outside my office.

I look forward to participating together in these events and connecting with you throughout the year. On behalf of the Office of Student Affairs, the Eastman Orientation Crew, and the faculty and staff of the Eastman School of Music, welcome!

Sincerely,

Austin Curtis
