Regina BOGAT
Lynn UMLAUF
Merrill WAGNER

TROIS AMÉRICAINES DE NEW YORK

EXPOSITION

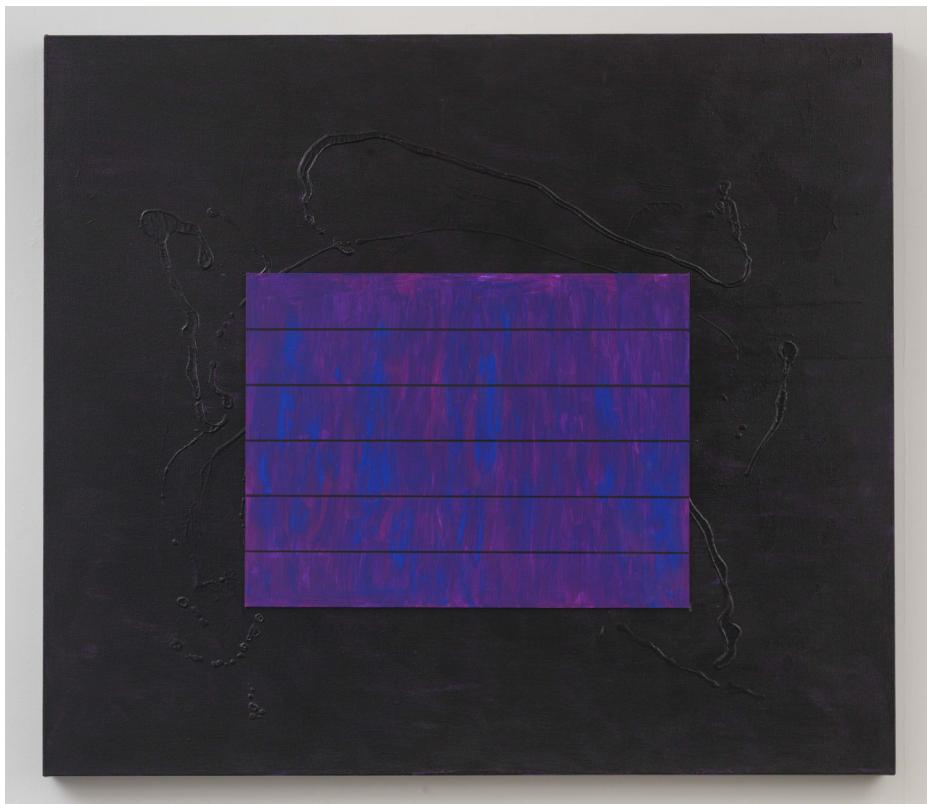

23 février - 23 mars 2019

VERNISSAGE

mercredi 23 février de 18h à 21h

La Galerie La Forest Divonne est très heureuse de présenter Regina BOGAT, Lynn UMLAUF et Merrill WAGNER , 3 artistes de New York, en collaboration avec la Zürcher gallery, New York/Paris qui représente leur travail.

Ces trois artistes ont été ignorées aux USA jusqu'à récemment car les temps étaient peu propices de manière générale à la reconnaissance des artistes femmes, et parce qu'elles ont chacune vécu dans l'ombre de leur mari, artiste reconnu ou en passe de l'être. En effet, Regina BOGAT (née en 1928 à NY) a épousé en 1963 l'un des meilleurs amis de Mark ROTHKO, le peintre Alfred JENSEN (décédé en 1981), Lynn UMLAUF (née en 1942 à Austin, TX) était la femme du peintre Michael GOLDBERG (mort en 2013). Quant à Merrill WAGNER (née en 1935 à Seattle) elle vit avec Robert RYMAN, grande figure du minimalisme américain. Ces trois artistes font actuellement l'objet d'une redécouverte et d'une nouvelle appréciation de leur travail auprès de plusieurs institutions américaines notamment le Metropolitan Museum of Modern Art de New York, le Jewish Museum, le Whitney Museum et le Blanton museum of Art, Austin, TX. Elles ont en commun une pratique artistique tournée vers l'abstraction.

Regina BOGAT, au départ peintre « hard-edge » s'est employée dès 1964 à inclure des matériaux extra-picturaux comme des baguettes de bois peintes afin de diviser la couleur ou à appliquer des cordes sur la toile pour ajouter une qualité tri-dimensionnelle à sa peinture. Nous présentons ici quelques rares tableaux et œuvres sur papier des années 90 ainsi que des peintures de la série Palmyra (2013-2015) dont le sujet est la lumière avec le jeu abstrait des contrastes et des reflets qu'offrent les ruines de la « Venise syrienne des Sables ».

Lynn UMLAUF, fille du sculpteur Charles Umlauf, est peintre et sculpteur ou sculpteur et peintre, il serait difficile de dire quelle est pour elle la priorité. Elle fait parallèlement une sculpture et une œuvre sur papier et tente d'exprimer la même sensation sur différents supports. Elle se compare volontiers à un écrivain qui étudie et évalue chaque étape, chaque « chapitre » au cours de son travail ou à un architecte qui perçoit l'aspect tri-dimensionnel dans un dessin . Nous présentons dans cette exposition des œuvres réalisées au pastel et à l'acrylique sur papier encollé sur toile ainsi que des œuvres sur papier au pastel avec parfois un élément de collage datées du jour ou du mois où elles ont été terminées (May 5, 1978), d'où leur titre donné par Lynn Umlauf.

Merrill WAGNER originaire de la Côte Ouest des USA a une approche plus conceptuelle du moins en apparence. Dès les années 70, elle utilise à la fois des matériaux orthodoxes et non-conventionnels comme les bandes-scotch, puis l'ardoise, la peinture anti-rouille sur de l'acier, le marbre, la pierre naturelle dans une recherche d'équilibre entre l'aléatoire et l'ordre. Les matériaux qu'elle choisit portent l'empreinte du temps et du réel et témoignent de sa très grande sensibilité à la nature et à l'environnement. Robert Storr écrit dans Matters of Fact and of Vision (catalogue d'exposition de la New York Studio School Novembre 2016- Janvier 2017) : « Wagner, matérialiste, formaliste, empiriste, et poète de la chose trouvée, accidentelle, comme systématiquement transformée est à tous les égards une artiste profondément américaine. »
