“I like having the whole year so I can start rehearsing the choir in advance of a specific liturgical season.”

—Denise Weaver, Music Director
St. Bernard Church, Assonet, MA

Inspire worship with the best elements of a missal and hymnal. Updated annually, Breaking Bread gives you seasonal music, the Order of Mass with chants from the Roman Missal, Scripture citations, reading synopses and assembly responses arranged together for each Sunday and holy day.

Appeal to the wide musical tastes of your congregation with the most balanced repertoire available—more than 850 songs from liturgical composers you know and love, including Mass settings approved by the Bishops’ Committee on Divine Worship.

Do you need full Lectionary readings or daily Mass propers?

Expanded versions of Breaking Bread are available to help you serve your community.

New for 2013!

- Newly added hymns and songs by Michael Joncas, Carey Landry, Stephen Dean, Grayson Warren Brown, Steve Angrisano and others
- Mary Frances Reza’s Misa Santa Fe, which can be performed in English, Spanish or bilingually, added to Mass settings section
- Expanded Psalter with 14 newly added psalms, including settings by Barbara Bridge, Jaime Cortez, David Haas, Marty Haugen and Bob Hurd

“Very melodic, the phrases flow where you anticipate them to, making them easier to learn (for both the music liturgists and the congregation)”

—Richard Putorti, Director of Music, Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish, Albany, NY
(Mass of Christ the Savior by Dan Schutte)

Dan Schutte

Mass of Christ the Savior

Featuring beautiful melodies that will quickly become like old friends, this setting will help your parishioners embrace the new translation, thanks to a masterful wedding of music and text. Scored for SAB choir, the arrangement lends itself well to simple guitar or keyboard to full instrumentation with oboe, cello and two trumpets.

ocp.org/ChristTheSavior

Stephen Lee

NEW Mass of Freedom

Combining the accessibility of folk music with the rousing rhythms of true gospel, this refreshing Mass setting speaks to the collective heart of the assembly. Invite children and grandparents alike to clap their hands and lift their voices in joyful praise of our Lord!

ocp.org/MassOfFreedom ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Ken Canedo & Bob Hurd

Mass of Glory

Proclaim the new texts with joy, thanks to the contemporary and prayerful themes of this popular Mass. You will also find revised musical elements that thoughtfully serve the new Order of Mass, helping you provide a smooth transition for your parish.

ocp.org/MassOfGlory

Dan Schutte

Mass of God’s Promise

Dan’s revision offers congregations an accessible way to learn and sing the new translation. The poetic meter and accents combine with memorable melodies that are equally beautiful when performed as a cathedral choir, a contemporary ensemble or even a single cantor accompanied by piano.

ocp.org/GodsPromise ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Bernadette Farrell

Mass of Hope— Eucharistic Acclamations

This skillful revision of the eucharistic acclamations preserves the simple lyrical character of the original and maintains Bernadette’s intent to “offer people an equally accessible way to sing the Mass, whatever their resources.”

ocp.org/MassOfHope ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Scott Soper

Mass of New Life

Embark upon a new journey of faith with fresh, elegant melodies that call us to worship with revived energy and purpose. Arranged for a variety of liturgical scenarios, this rich setting will appeal to both choir and assembly.

ocp.org/MassOfNewLife ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

John Michael Talbot

Mass of Rebirth

Combining modes and harmonies from both the Eastern and Latin Rites, this contemporary chant setting honors Pope John Paul II’s call to breathe from “the Eastern and Western lungs of the body of Christ.”

Luke Mayernik

Mass of St. Gregory the Great

Capture the beauty of chant with this majestic and accessible new setting from Luke Mayernik. Mass of St. Gregory the Great links the liturgical renewal of today with that of the sixth and seventh centuries, while framing the new texts with fresh harmonic language.

ocp.org/StGregoryTheGreat ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Bobby Fisher

Mass of St. John

Bobby pays wonderful homage to John 3:16—the verse that brought him to the Lord and continues to shape his spiritual journey. From small groups backed by a single accompanist to large choirs with more elaborate instrumentation, this flexible setting features energetic rhythms and arrangements that support congregational singing.

ocp.org/MassOfStJohn ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Christopher Walker

Mass of St. Paul the Apostle

The sung parts of the Mass are truly the song of the assembly. Express the new texts with enthusiasm through spirited rhythms and comfortable melodies that your parishioners will look forward to singing week after week.

ocp.org/StPaulTheApostle

Julie Hoy

Mass of Simplicity

After years of cantoring weekly children’s Mass, Julie asked the children why they wouldn’t sing the Mass parts with her. The answer: “They’re too hard to sing and they’re too long!” Simple, singable and succinct, this setting gives Catholics of all ages an accessible way to celebrate the liturgy.

ocp.org/MassOfSimplicity ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Ricky Manalo, CSP

Mass of Spirit and Grace

Inspired by his eucharistic hymn “Spirit and Grace” and the role of the Holy Spirit during the Communion rite, this approachable setting can be adapted to fit a number of different ensembles. Unite your congregation in song with melodies written to serve the voice of the assembly.

ocp.org/SpiritAndGrace

Carey Landry

NEW Mass of Thanks and Praise

Joyful and upbeat, this spirited Mass is accessible for children and also resonates with adult and young adult congregations. Share this setting with your entire community, whether you lead with a cantor, a full music ministry or a two-part choir.

*“Respects the literary form of the new texts.
I was very impressed by the elevated level style”*

—John Ignatowski, Director of Sacred Music and Liturgy, Diocese of Marquette, MI
(Mass of the Resurrection by Randall DeBruyn)

Bob Hurd

Mass of the Incarnate Word— Eucharistic Acclamations

Drawing inspiration from the Gospel of John, traditionally known as the “spiritual Gospel,” this revision of the eucharistic acclamations from the Hurd Mass retain the transcendent character of a setting cherished by parishes large and small.

ocp.org/IncarnateWord ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Mark Friedman & Janet Vogt

Mass of the Little Flower

Mark and Janet have always admired Saint Thérèse of Lisieux (known as the “Little Flower”) for her youthful approach to life and prayer. Composed for even the youngest singers, this joyful setting is perfect for weekday school Masses, liturgies for young people, as well as weekend Eucharist!

ocp.org/LittleFlower ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Ken Canedo

Mass of the Most Holy Trinity

Blending traditional hymnody with contemporary approachability, Ken’s new setting will resonate with worshipers of all ages. Familiar hymn tunes such as GOTT VATER SEI GEPRIESEN and ST PATRICK’S BREASTPLATE—supported by an inviting, guitar-friendly arrangement—make this Mass a wonderful way to teach the new texts to your assembly.

ocp.org/MostHolyTrinity ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Gael Berberick & Barney Walker

Mass of the New Covenant

Featuring intuitive and memorable melodies, the Mass parts are written in a comfortable vocal range that will quickly engage both assembly and choir. Enrich the liturgy with a versatile setting for Ordinary Time, daily and youth Masses, as well as summer months when many choirs are on break.

ocp.org/NewCovenant ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Randall DeBruyn

Mass of the Resurrection

Whether you lead with a cantor or a choir, Mass of the Resurrection will help you lift voices to sing of our salvation. Draw your parishioners deeper into the liturgy with simple, strong melodies—founded on the familiar DUKE STREET hymn tune—that illuminate the new Order of Mass texts.

ocp.org/MassOfTheResurrection

Timothy R. Smith

Mass of the Sacred Heart

Embracing changes to words we can recite in our dreams is not an easy task. Composed with a single question in mind (“Can a community sing this?”), Mass of the Sacred Heart helps parishioners gain a familiarity and appreciation for the solemnity of the new texts.

ocp.org/SacredHeart ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Estela García-López & Rodolfo López

Misa Santa Cecilia

Whether your Spanish-speaking assembly is growing or already established, this new bilingual setting will help your entire community feel God’s presence as they come together in worship. The arrangement features lively syncopated rhythms, especially for guitar—the main instrument for most Hispanic choirs.

ocp.org/MisaSantaCecilia

Misa Santa Fe

Introduced in 2010 at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi, Misa Santa Fe commemorates over 400 years of history for the city of its namesake. The folkloric New Mexico style and comfortable melodies of this charming Mass will inspire both Spanish and English speakers to worship together in song.

“Being an English-speaking music director in a newly bilingual merged community, I found that the words and music fit wonderfully”

—Joan Nipe, St. Gabriel the Archangel Parish, Carney's Point, NJ
(Misa del Pueblo Inmigrante by Bob Hurd)

Bob Hurd

Misa del Pueblo Inmigrante

The Eucharist is about unity. Offering an all-English, an all-Spanish and a fully bilingual option, the flowing melodies and contagious rhythms of this setting will bring the Word of God to the lips and hearts of your community throughout the year—from Easter Vigil to the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

ocp.org/MisaInmigrante

Christopher Willcock, SJ

Missa Magis

“Magis,” Latin for “more,” is one of the central themes found in the spiritual tradition of St. Ignatius Loyola—doing more for Christ, and in turn, more for others. Written for World Youth Day 2008, Christopher’s new Mass setting is accessible for all ages as we welcome this exciting time of renewal.

Richard Proulx

NEW Missa Oecumenica

Preserving the accessible melodies and rich choral harmonies composed by the late and incomparable Richard Proulx, this masterful revision beautifully weaves elements of chant from Eastern Christianity into the language of modern English liturgy. Plus, enhance the liturgy with stunning settings of the Our Father and the Trisagion.

ocp.org/MissaOecumenica ❖ Exclusively Online ❖

Bob Hurd

Missa Ubi Caritas

Equally solemn with full choir and organ or in unison a cappella, this Latin/English setting illustrates the profound beauty of chant. By combining a beloved Gregorian tune with the new Roman Missal texts, Bob has provided a wonderful way to honor tradition and foster renewal.

Catholic Prayer Supplement

A practical resource for individual, small group and parish use, this handy book makes an excellent worship program supplement. Support devotions and prayers at home, on retreat, in catechetical programs, RCIA and other settings with over 100 of the most treasured prayers in the Church!

- Traditional favorites, including: the Prayer of St. Francis, Memorare, Hail Holy Queen, Prayer to St. Michael, Salve Regina (in English and Latin).
- Seasonal prayers and prayers for special intentions such as peace, vocations, and families.
- The Apostles' Creed and many other popular devotions: Angelus, the Way of the Cross and the Rosary.

Affordably priced, it's sturdy enough to stand alone in pew shelves and the right size to slide into missal covers and hymnals with pockets on the inside back cover. Worshipers will reach for it again and again—before Mass, after Mass and anytime we lift up our hearts in prayer!

ocp.org/6150

Remembrance

This spiral-bound volume is designed for use during the month of November, when we are called to be especially mindful of the faithfully departed. Placed at the entrance of the church, it provides a meaningful way for the parish community to celebrate the memory of those who have died.

LECTIONARY READINGS

The word of God proclaimed in worship makes Christ present through the power of the Holy Spirit. In the liturgy of the Church the Sacred Scriptures find their true home, for here both creation and redemption are crowned in mystery. God's word and the liturgy quench the thirst of all who seek the way, the truth and the life. We pray that the word of God be etched indelibly in our heart and on our lips that we may faithfully conform to it and boldly proclaim its love. It is music for the Responsorial Psalm may be found in #15-125; music Acclamation is also found in #172, 178, 182, 188, 192, 198, 202, 212, 245, 246, 259-266.)

FAST READING

This is what Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In days to come, the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it; many peoples shall come and lay their spears and bows down before the Lord's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths.¹ For from Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the Lord shall be proclaimed from Jerusalem. He shall judge before the nations, and impose term on many peoples. They shall bring their tribute into plowshare and pruning hook; one nation shall not sword against another, nor shall they train their bows against one another. O house of Jacob, let us walk in the Lord's instruction.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 122: 1-2.

R. Let us go up to the house of the Lord.

Unite the voices of your Spanish-speaking community

FLOR Y CANTO TERCERA EDICIÓN

By 2020, an expected 41 million of all U.S. Catholics will be Hispanic. Are you looking for a way to engage the fastest-growing community in our Church?

Enjoy a balanced collection of over 740 songs—the best from the previous two editions, plus 200 new titles—that speaks to the whole family and supports living faith, both within and beyond the liturgy.

- Represent more regions: songs added from the Caribbean, Central and South America, Spain and the many cultures that make up the Spanish-speaking population in the U.S.
- Enrich ritual moments: increased selection of songs for sacraments, funerals, quinceañeras and RCIA
- Share updated Mass settings: Nueva Misa Latinoamericana, Misa del Pueblo Inmigrante and more—plus eucharistic acclamations from the new bilingual setting Misa Santa Cecilia
- Worship with confidence: all service music was guided by Church documents and expanded to include more Latin selections for the liturgy, such as Misa Gregoriana (Chant Mass)

You spoke, we listened!

Flor y Canto, Tercera Edición gives you more titles for entrance and Communion, more offertory songs and more music for the liturgical year—Holy Week, Easter Triduum, Holy Trinity, Marian celebrations and feasts important to the Latino community.

Perfect blend of old and new

“Adoraton” by Matt Maher

Our faith holds such a treasury of texts that have been set to music. As the young Church discovers these texts, their enthusiasm sparks new musical expressions. That is what Matt Maher has done here with St. Thomas Aquinas’s “Tantum Ergo.” He has maintained the melody to the English translation and added a contemporary worship chorus, resulting in a perfect blend of old and new that appeals to all ages. Suited for worship of the Blessed Sacrament outside of Mass, “Adoration” can also be used during the communion rite.

Welcomes all into the Lord’s embrace

“Come to Jesus” by Josh Blakesley & Sarah Hart

Many of the songs on Josh’s CD, Waiting, have become popular, but “Come to Jesus” holds a unique place. Upon using it as the entrance song at a Mass, the archbishop repeatedly referred back to the song and the invitation it holds for all: to enter into the embrace of the Lord regardless of our circumstances. Contemporary, reflective and reverent, this song is also ideal for the preparation of the gifts and altar, as well as during the communion rite.

Illuminates Christ’s sacrifice

“Endless Is Your Love” by Tom Kendzia

Pondering God’s immense love for us, Psalm 139 comes alive with a beautiful melody that goes straight to the heart. Especially appropriate for weddings and funerals, this moving song can also be used during the preparation of the gifts, as a communion processional or as a song of praise after communion. The phrase, “How vast the sum of all your deeds!” illuminates the profound gift of Christ’s ultimate sacrifice and victory over death celebrated at every Eucharist.

Joyful profession of hope

“El Que Cree en Mí” by Eleazar Cortés

The refrain, based on the antiphon to accompany the procession during the Ritual for Christian Burial, is joyfully rendered in this interpretation of hopeful texts that profess life after death. I have used it numerous times at funerals and graveside rituals and witnessed folks make the prayer their own, to the point of singing the simple harmonies unrehearsed! It also works well in liturgical celebrations that call for themes of faith, hope and resurrection, particularly during the Easter season.

Mantra for Taizé Prayer

“For the Sake of Christ” by Ken Canedo

Ideal for healing services and the Eucharist, this song is an act of faith that builds faith. I often use Ken’s chant-like refrain as a mantra for Taizé Prayer that is easily learned by the assembly. The texts—from Paul’s second letter to the Corinthians—is particularly encouraging for those who live with illness, depression or addiction: “For the sake of Christ, I willingly accept my weakness and my trials, for when I am powerless then I am strong.”

Passionate song of thanksgiving

“Gracias, Señor”

by Diego Correa & Damaris Thillet

Inspired by Psalm 136 [135], this exemplary song of thanksgiving embodies the passion portrayed by a psalmist within the Puerto Rican cultural expression. The driving, yet contained, rhythm allows the melody to skillfully accompany this litany-like song. It has become a favorite in multicultural parishes for use after communion and naturally fits many prayer occasions outside of the Eucharistic liturgy.

Powerful anthem for Lent

“Loving Lamb” by Ruth Krusemark

Beautiful in its austerity, “Loving Lamb” is a perfect synthesis of text and music. Drawing from the rich harmony of Sacred Harp melodies and the powerful poetry of Isaac Watts, this choral work has the feel of Aaron Copland’s hymn arrangements and choral works. Draw your assembly toward the resurrection during penance services and throughout the Lenten season with this powerful anthem, which is particularly appropriate for Palm Sunday.

Honors the faithful departed

“Pie Jesu” by Ricky Manalo, CSP

During the month of November, many parishes display a Book of Remembrance (p. 33) for the names of loved ones who have “gone before us marked with the sign of faith.” Scored for SATB choir and 2 soloists, this piece is a fitting choice as a choral anthem during this time of the liturgical year. The beauty and simplicity of the melody is supported by a rich harmonic structure well suited for the prayer: “Compassionate Jesus, grant them everlasting rest and eternal light.”

Partners mystical melodies with poetic texts

“Purificame, Señor” by Carmelo Erdozain

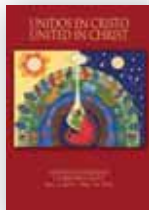

Renowned liturgical Spanish composer, Carmelo Erdozain, offers a versatile piece to accompany Lenten processions during the Eucharistic liturgy. There is a mystical and simple beauty to the melody that finds its partner in poetic and theological texts, calling to mind scriptural images of discipleship, ministry, mission and petition. Equally effective in hymn form with SATB choir or sung in unison with a single guitar, this song is a welcome addition to any parish repertoire.

Moving selection for funeral liturgies

“Saints of God” by Luke Mayernik

Written to impart peace to those grieving the loss of a loved one, this composition is a moving selection for final commendation at funeral liturgies, an offertory at memorial services, or on the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. The versatile structure of the arrangement allows it to be sung with a congregation, as a solo, or with SATB choir and a full array of solo instruments, including flute, violin and cello.

Transformative Eucharistic song

“This Body of Christ” by Lawrence Rosania

This beautiful piece for choir and assembly weds the profound statement of St. Augustine—who calls us to be “one in the Body of Christ”—to the rich musical language of Lawrence Rosania. This versatile work is equally beautiful when sung by cantor and congregation, or with full choir and organ accompaniment. The transformative Eucharistic text is perfect for ordinations and confirmation or any Sunday throughout the liturgical year.

Reminds us of God’s compassion

“You Stand Knocking” by Tom Booth

Many of us are familiar with the painting that depicts Jesus standing outside of a wooden door, with a gentle look on his face and his hand raised as though he is knocking. Providing a lyrical image and, perhaps, a backstory to that striking painting, “You Stand Knocking” indicates that this is not the first knock on the door. Instead, Jesus has returned to one who has strayed from his friendship as a reminder of the depth of God’s compassion.

Capture the spirit of the young Church

Steve Angrisano & Tom Tomaszek Mass of a Joyful Heart

Originally commissioned for the National Catholic Youth Conference, the revised edition of the beloved Mass of a Joyful Heart captures the spirit of the young Church with fun, upbeat rhythms and accessible melodies filled with joyous enthusiasm. Plus, enjoy a special bonus track—“Psalm 40,” by Steve Angrisano!

Steve and Tom have masterfully combined familiar themes with new elements that faithfully present the new Roman Missal. By popular demand, they’ve also added settings for the Penitential Act and Lenten Gospel Acclamation. The simple, melodic approach for the Gospel verses work wonderfully with the Alleluia, providing a consistent setting for all occasions.

Offering FREE lyric sheets, links to LicenSingOnline.org for downloadable assembly editions and music reprint permissions for worship aids, as well as links to two videos—providing insights and suggestions for use in worship from Steve and Tom—this enhanced CD helps you introduce this setting to your parish with ease.

Ricky Manalo, CSP Spirit and Grace

Celebrating the mystery of the Holy Spirit, Mass of Spirit and Grace infuses texts for the new Roman Missal with strong and approachable melodies from the title song (also included in this collection). This versatile Mass also includes two settings for the Sprinkling Rite, as well as general and seasonal verses for the Gospel Acclamation that engages the assembly in a call-and-response format.

Developed in close collaboration with the USCCB Secretariat on Cultural Diversity, diocesan leaders and liturgical composers, the Multilingual Intercessions can be sung in 30 different languages! Unite your community in prayer at Liturgy of the Word during Mass, Liturgy of the Hours, prayer services and more.

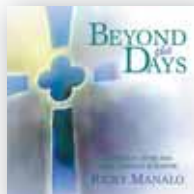

Father Manalo has a gift for composing music that honors the song of the assembly, such as “Beyond the Days” to “With One Voice.” Featuring two Communion songs and his beautiful new Mass setting, Spirit and Grace gives communities large and small a wealth of music to enrich the liturgy.

Laurence Rosania Works of the Heart Words & Music of Laurence Rosania

Beauty can transform the human spirit, providing a direct pathway to the divine beauty itself. Offering six fresh compositions by Laurence Rosania and a bilingual version of “Supper of the Lord,” Works of the Heart weds profound texts to music that is memorable, moving and, most significantly, beautiful.

“The Call of Micah” expressively echoes the ancient Hebrew text of the prophet. Jamie Cortez’s highly anticipated Spanish translation and Luke Mayernik’s exquisite arrangement breathe new life into “Supper of the Lord/Cena del Señor.” Inspired by Duke Ellington’s sacred concerts at Grace Cathedral, the title track juxtaposes simple, heartfelt text with the rich and sophisticated musical palette of jazz.

Dan Schutte To Praise You

Music for the Journey of Faith

From folk ballads to traditional hymnody and chant-inspired songs, To Praise You provides a wealth of liturgical music to deepen communal worship and promote personal prayer. Parish ensembles of all sizes will enjoy accessible SAB choral arrangements and versatile instrumentation for piano, guitar, as well as a variety of solo instruments.

“Saints of God” and “Let Me Go Now In Peace” (based on Simeon’s song) are joyous and hope-filled additions for the funeral liturgy. One of many songs for praise and gathering, “Hymns of Praise”—inspired by the Te Deum hymn and based on the Gregorian Regina Coeli chant—combines timeless texts with a melody that delves straight to the heart of prayer.

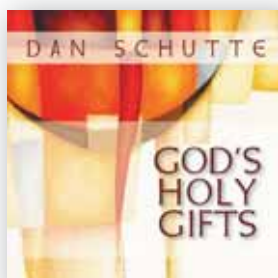

Looking for music to engage your choir and assembly? Do you want to draw closer to God’s presence in your daily life? Grounded in Scripture and crafted with care, these 12 songs reflect the grace and sincerity of one of the Church’s most revered composers.

Amid Passing Things

Liturgical Music by Curtis Stephan

The music of Curtis Stephan has helped enhance worship in parishes across the country. Packed with full recordings of his new Mass setting, Mass of Renewal (p. 23), five of his most popular songs and three fresh titles, Amid Passing Things offers up an incredible sample from one of today's best contemporary songwriters!

Appearing in the Breaking Bread (p. 6) and co-written with Grammy-nominated Sarah Hart, "Take Up Our Cross" has quickly become a favorite of all ages. "Into the Desert" is a melodic and inviting anthem for the season of Lent. Great as responsorial psalms, "Rest In God Alone (Psalm 62)" and "Go Out, Go Out (Psalm 117)" can also be used throughout the year to enrich various moments in the liturgy.

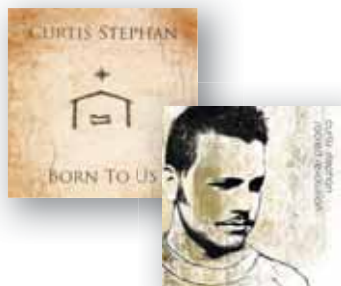

If you're looking for a way to introduce your community to contemporary music, this is the collection and this is the composer. From seasonal selections for Lent and Advent to pieces for ritual moments, funerals and baccalaureate Mass, Amid Passing Things gives you a broad range of songs to inspire your congregation.

A Contemplative Rosary
Praying the Mysteries with Scripture, Song & Icons

Designed for both communal and individual recitation, A Contemplative

Rosary engages the whole person through music, Scripture readings, icons and meditations.

Featuring simple chant settings for the Our Father, the Hail Mary and the Glory to the Father, this resource allows you to fully "sing the rosary." These simple melodies may be enriched with choral harmonies and instrumental accompaniment, especially in communal recitation (full score in Leader's Guide).

The CDs illustrate how it might sound in its most communal form, enacted in a church with an assembly, presiding minister, choir and readers. The people's book and the CD-ROM feature stunning, full-color icons for all 20 mysteries by Charles Rohrbacher.

 Songs for Communion and Gathering

In previous works, Bob approached the Communion song as an echo of the day's readings. Here, he focuses on the Eucharistic rite itself, allowing these songs of unity to be used all year long.

"With All the Saints" is packed with brass and majestic choral movements. Bluesy guitar phrasings provide added depth to the joyful anthem "Here I Am, O Lord." In the calming and peaceful "A Listening Heart," soloists effortlessly emerge and return to the choir with vocals that act as a soothing meditation.

 Devotional Song of the Year
 ("Endless Is Your Love")

Tom Kendzia
Endless Is Your Love

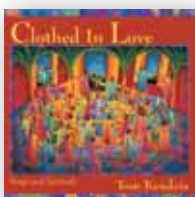

This collection has all the marks of this gifted composer's good hand: innovative arrangements, lively rhythms, and a delightful mix of contemporary styles.

Support liturgies in Advent, Lent, Holy Week, Easter and Ordinary Time, with psalms, gathering songs, Communion processions and more. Combining elements of gospel, jazz, Celtic, folk and other styles, these 13 songs bring a life-giving joy to the ritual experience for both choir and assembly.

In "Lord of the Dance," Tom has taken Carter's popular Easter text and set it to an Irish-flavored arrangement of the familiar Shaker tune. A setting of Psalm 139, "Endless Is Your Love" expresses awe in the face of God's intimate and eternal love.

Walking the Sacred Path
 Spiritual Exercises for Today

Modeled after the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, Walking the Sacred Path challenges us to engage the gospel stories through a simple process of prayer and reflection.

Each exercise is followed by a carefully selected piece of music from his extensive collection. These songs can be used as a way to calm the soul or as a prayerful reminder throughout the day. Whichever you choose, the goal remains the same: to slowly incorporate prayer into our everyday lives.

By combining the exercises in the book with the music from the CDs, as Dan explains, “we allow ourselves to become one of the people in the Bible story, to see, hear, smell, taste and respond to what is going on.” Walking the Sacred Path is an invaluable way for parish staff, catechists and individuals to build a more intimate relationship with Jesus Christ.

Glory in the Cross
 Music for the Easter Triduum

Glory in the Cross is a comprehensive liturgical resource that contains music for nearly every rite of the Triduum.

The celebration of the Easter Triduum is the heart and soul of our Christian faith, commemorating the triumph of God's love over the darkness of death.

Dan Schutte conceived each piece in Glory in the Cross for particular moments in the three days of this one great liturgy. There are processions, litanies, prayers of intercession, psalms, hymns and acclamations for every rite—over 30 selections in all. Dan weaves the pieces together into a unified tapestry of music that captures the spirit of the season, from Holy Thursday's mourning to Easter's “alleluia.”

Though intended for the Triduum, many of the pieces also can be used effectively in other liturgies. “Where Love Is Found,” for instance, is well-suited for the wedding liturgy, “Come to the River,” for the sprinkling rite.

Inspire your assembly to celebrate and reflect on the mysteries of the Triduum with the magnificent music of Glory in the Cross.

The Passion of Our Lord
Jesus Christ According to John

This setting of the Passion is powerful, tender and haunting. The inspiration for it, the composer explains, came from his desire to give added meaning and power to the Passion reading on Good Friday. Reverent and emotionally immediate, the music is a very appropriate setting for St. John's telling of the story.

Morning and Evening

Master composer Christopher Walker and acclaimed author and Daughter of Charity Sister Paule Freeburg have teamed up once again! This collaboration helps you begin and end your day with prayer, whether you're in the sanctuary of the driver's seat or the sanctuary of your home.

For each prayer service, Morning and Evening provides an invitational, a hymn, two psalms, a Scripture reading, a short response, a Gospel canticle (Benedictus or Magnificat), intercessions (with time to add your own prayers), the Lord's Prayer and a closing blessing. Each service is about 15 minutes long—easy to fit into a busy schedule. Ideal for commuters, this resource is also suitable for use by individuals and small groups at home, in hospitals, nursing homes, on retreat, and other settings.

Christopher composed rich, melodic settings for nearly every psalm and prayer. The songs feature an eclectic mix of contemporary and traditional styles, from gospel to plainchant. Sister Paule provided her usual poetic, Christ-centered song and prayer texts. Easy-to-learn, the melodies and words will soon become familiar, enabling you to sing and pray along.

MULTICULTURAL MUSIC

Give new expression to generational anthems

Juan Antonio Espinosa Canciones de un Pueblo Caminante Lo Mejor de Espinosa, Vol. 2

As a follow up to volume one of Canciones de un Pueblo Caminante (p. 85), this collection gathers 12 additional beloved songs—including five published in the U.S. for the first time—from revered Spanish liturgical composer Juan Antonio Espinosa.

Contemporary arrangements with rock guitars and elements of jazz and Gospel give new expression to poetic anthems cherished by generations of Latino-American Catholics. As Espinosa describes, these songs “invite us to taste the warmth of the Spirit who is near; the Spirit that surrounds our existence, our life and our story.”

The folk-style “Todo lo Podemos” reflects our surrender and trust in God. Like a heartbeat, the drum and bass in “Resucitó el Señor” create intense anticipation that explodes in a cry of joy: He’s Risen, He’s Risen! Overflowing with Latin flavor, “Santa María de la Esperanza” provides an energetic close to the album.

¡Bienaventurada!

This beautiful compilation, created specifically for liturgical ministers and for home Marian devotions, combines lyrical, prayerful texts with moving classical melodies. The resulting effect is profoundly meaningful.

These recognizable worship songs, many based on ancient canticles and on texts composed by Erdozain himself, are perfect for any Marian occasion. Everything is included, from the serene “Hail Mary” to the pretty “Porque Mi Niño No Tiene Nada” to the entire Magnificat set to music. Rich orchestration and pleasing arrangements play against fascinating choral textures to create a sense of mystery and reverence.

Spanish Song (“Un Canto Nuevo”) and Album of the Year

Santiago Fernández
Un Canto Nuevo

Santiago's latest collection will bless and delight Spanish-speaking youth and young adults, and all who worship with contemporary Spanish music.

Based on Psalm 98, the festive title track features rhumba rhythms and amazing Latin trumpets and guitars. “Junto a Mi” captures God's loving, forgiving embrace, as described in the story of the Prodigal Son, with accordion and lively cumbia rhythms. If there was ever a fiesta in heaven over a repentant sinner, this is it! “Vivir Así” encourages young people to resist the world's temptations and live the Lord's way. Modern in style and up-tempo, it's perfect for youth rallies and retreats.

Sigán la Bandera

Sigán la Bandera (Follow the Banner) is a musical celebration of Mary, who appeared to St. Juan Diego as the Virgin of Guadalupe in 1531, and who continues to inspire and intercede for the people of Mexico and all who seek her help.

These 12 Marian songs, expertly performed by the mariachi ensemble Mariachi Tepeyac, feature Donna on vocals and flute. Sigán la Bandera captures all the color and mystique of this spirited music. Besides seven beloved traditional songs, the collection includes two new compositions by Donna.

Of course, the music of Sigán la Bandera will be especially meaningful on December 12, the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe; it can create a “Mañanitas” experience for that celebration. But these mariachi serenades in honor of Mary make delightful listening any time of the year.

Cantemos al Amor de los Amores
Cantos de Nuestra Fe y Tradición

Cantemos al Amor de los Amores (Let Us Sing to the Love of All Loves) collects 12 of the most popular devotional songs written in Spanish. Drawn from Spain and Latin America, these "songs of our faith and tradition" make a powerful invitation: entrega total a Dios—total surrender to God.

The collection features Marian classics, eucharistic songs and more—songs treasured by generations of Hispanic Catholics. Especially appropriate as processions on holy days and patronal feasts, they convey a strong sense of the sacred. Each brings its own colorful history of use in popular piety.

Produced by David Silva, the beautifully recorded disc features authentic Latin instruments and outstanding performances by professional musicians. Rooted in faith and tradition, the songs of Cantemos al Amor de los Amores transcend time and borders. They deserve a place in the home—and the heart—of every Spanish-speaking Catholic.

Josh Blakesley You Are the Light

At World Youth Day in Sydney, Pope Benedict XVI spoke about “the search for the true, the good and the beautiful.” Answering this call, Josh Blakesley offers seven unique expressions of the power of God’s love to heal and restore. Great for inspired listening, this enhanced CD is also packed with bonus features to help you enrich worship in your community.

Co-written by Marc Byrd (Third Day’s “God of Wonders”) and Grammy-nominated Sarah Hart, “That We Might Live” is an epic and vivid proclamation of the Eucharist. The fun and rhythmic “I Will Give Thanks”—co-written by Dove-nominated Audrey Assad—rejoices in the restoration received in Christ. Composed to be a rousing sending forth song, “You Are the Light” conveys a sense of being sent out on a mission.

Musicians, music directors and contemporary groups—this enhanced CD gives you everything you need to learn, play and share these songs with ease:

- FREE chord sheets (guitar chords and lyrics)
- Links to downloadable guitar/melody lead sheets for purchase
- Instructional videos from Josh and his band—including suggested use, up-close demonstrations and live performances

Celebrate life with eight contemporary songs of joy and tenderness

Jackie François Divine Comedy

In Greek theater, the happy endings found in comedies often take the form of a wedding. With this highly anticipated follow-up to her debut album (below), Jackie presents our lives as a divine comedy that concludes with the happiest of all endings: the salvation we find when we, as the Church, are finally married to Christ at his return.

Opening with an ethereal sound, “Your Love Is Better” builds to a passionate expression of the everlasting love that only Jesus can provide. “Divine Comedy” may be playful and upbeat, but bears profound testimony to the theology of the body. Wonderful as an entrance song or for Preparation of the Gifts, “Cornerstone” has also become a popular contemporary hymn for liturgy with teens.

Ranging from fun and energetic arrangements to longing ballads, these eight songs encourage us all—especially teens and young adults—to live a Gospel-focused life. Do you want to breathe new life into liturgies, youth rallies, praise and worship, adoration and other parish events? This enhanced CD is loaded with bonus features, including FREE chord sheets, links to downloadable guitar/melody lead sheets for purchase and instructional videos from Jackie and the Ike Ndolo Band!

Whatever Makes You Dance

Ceili Rain's second OCP release is bursting with charm, humor, zest and spiritual depth—everything you'd expect from these whimsical musical geniuses.

The instrumentation remains the same: that quirky combination of rock and Celtic, distinguished by tin whistle, uilleann pipes, button accordion, fiddle and mandolin. But this album takes a noticeably different approach. Earthier in sound and more spiritually candid, these 14 new tracks make a case for the power and purpose of prayer.

"Ceili Rain further demonstrates they're not confined to one sound, capable of jamming like Dave Matthews Band or early Big Daddy Weave. ... Ceili Rain remains one of the more thoughtful and unique Christian bands around, seemingly on its way to earn more attention (4.5 out of 5 stars)." —Russ Breimeier, Christianity Today

“Sing Alleluia” kicks off the album with a joyful opening that makes you want to get up and dance. “Now” begs for you to sing along. The powerfully dynamic “Rain On Me” features chilling cello runs and vocals so heart-felt, you’d swear Cooper was right in front of you.

Produced by Tom Booth, Wake the Dawn encompasses the core of Cooper’s ministry: saying to God, “This is what I have to offer, use it, take it, do with it what you will.”

New from Curtis Stephan

Amid Passing Things (found on p. 64)

Curtis Stephan
Sacred Revolution

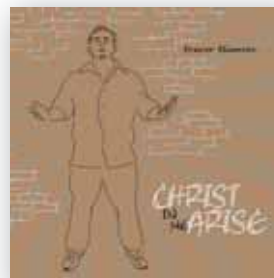

What could be more countercultural than following Christ? That’s the kind of revolution Curtis Stephan instigates in his first exclusive release for OCP/ spiritandsong.com, which won him the 2006 Unity Award for New Artist of the Year. Featuring his signature hard-driving sound and look-you-in-the-eye lyrics, Curtis’ music attests to the power of an authentic life of faith to change the world.

The title track builds slowly then floods the ear-scape with layers of sound, demanding nothing less than total commitment: “Rise up, rise up, let us stand and be a witness to the love that makes a difference.” “To the Extreme” is a gripping, rapid-fire, alt-rock gem with a mesmerizing and edgy lead guitar line.

Trevor Thomson
Christ in Me Arise

Parishes who use Breaking Bread (p. 6) or Music Issue (p. 8) know Trevor from liturgical staples, such as “We Belong To You” and “In This Place.” With his latest release, this seasoned composer provides another collection of 11 songs that call us to worship.

The title track speaks of overcoming the trials of life with the hope that only Christ can offer. “Immortal, Invisible” gathers some of the biggest names in contemporary Catholic music, including Tom Booth, Matt Maher and Danielle Rose! On the poetic “Firefly,” Trevor’s soaring vocals are reminiscent of Chris Martin’s (Coldplay) work on “Yellow” and “Fix You.”

Greg Walton
I Won't Back Down

Greg's latest album is about taking a stand for your faith, a challenge young Christians face more and more often in our world. A high school teacher, Greg is all too familiar with this. I Won't Back Down offers 11 songs that encourage all the faithful to stand strong in their commitment to Jesus and to stay on the narrow way that leads to the Kingdom of God. Includes "Dear Dorothy," "Blinded," and Greg's excellent cover of the Tom Petty hit, "I Won't Back Down."

A Celtic Christmas
The Ships that Sailed, Volume 2

A Christmas sequel to The Ships that Sailed, this instrumental collection showcases musicians regarded as among the best in Ireland. Tom Kendzia masterfully captures the energy of this enthusiastic group as they belt out reels, jigs, airs and other traditional Irish favorites.

"Apples in Winter" opens the album with a swift, non-stop tempo. Cello longingly cries out with droning lows and weeping highs in "What Child Is This." Finally, feet will stomp and hands will clap to "Gooseberry Reels" as flute, fiddle and accordion playfully battle back and forth.

Reflect on the goodness of God with 76 poems from Father Bob Fabing

Bob Fabing, S.J. With Roses for All

Inspired by his daily human experiences—the people he meets, the wonders of nature he encounters and the questions life presents to him—Bob Fabing, SJ offers a beautiful book of poetry to help Catholics seek a deeper life of prayer and reflect on the gifts received each day from God the Giver.

The very nature of poetry is to create a shared emotional experience between the reader and author. Accessible and straightforward, each of the 76 poems found in With Roses for All invites us to heighten our sensitivity to the moments in which God reveals himself to us.

Owen Alstott
Hymns of Light

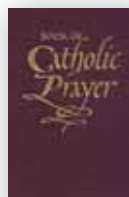

Grounded in strong scriptural themes—such as discipleship, humility, justice and love—these 14 contemporary hymn texts give church music directors an inspiring resource for prayerful reflection. Breathing new life into beloved tunes like SLANE, LAND OF REST and PICARDY, Owen Alstott also introduces his original hymn, “New Cities.”

Hymns of Light is conveniently divided into two parts. The first part contains the scripture passage on which the hymn text is based, along with the new text in poetic stanzas. The second provides music with Owen’s well-crafted texts, in addition to corresponding topical themes and suggestions for seasonal use to help you enrich worship throughout the year.

The Song of Luke (DVD)

An Oratorio on the Infancy Narrative of Jesus According to the Gospel of Luke

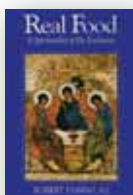

Capturing a stunning live performance of the oratorio from Cyprian's collection The Song of Luke (p. 66) this DVD provides a moving meditation on Luke's Infancy Narrative.

Contemporary melodies combine with vibraphone, harp and piano, as Gospel characters are brought to life in divertissements by solo instruments (oboe, clarinet, bassoon and cello) and liturgical dancers.

Featuring captivating performances by the Choir of Augustana College and the Department of Performing and Visual Arts, this beautiful re-enactment also showcases Cyprian singing the role of the Narrator, in addition to John Pennington on vibraphone and a variety of percussion instruments.
