The Malhotra family of St. Louis capitalized upon the School of Medicine's current Power of One Scholarship Campaign by a factor of three, resulting in a newly endowed scholarship fund of $50,000 that will benefit Year 6 medical students.

Ranjan Malhotra, M.D., '95, and wife Kristen Malhotra, Ph.D. – along with brother, Raman Malhotra, M.D., '00, his wife, Shalini Paruthi Malhotra, M.D., '03, and parents, Ravi and Swadesh Malhotra – contributed $25,000, which was matched by Caring for Missourians funds to increase the education of physicians in Missouri, to establish the Malhotra Family Scholarship for Academic and Clinical Excellence. The $2,500 scholarship will be awarded to Year 6 medical students from the St. Louis metropolitan area who have an exemplary record of academic achievement and have demonstrated clinical excellence.

"The education I received in the accelerated six-year program at the UMKC School of medicine allowed me to enjoy my college years and still secure the residency program of my choice," Ranjan said. "I want to encourage St. Louis area students to consider the UMKC School of Medicine."

Year 6 students face extraordinary expenses: interviewing for residency positions and relocating. The Malhotra Family Scholarship is one of the few that address this extraordinary need.

"My family hopes our scholarship will lessen the financial pressures that so confront Year 6 students and that many will consider staying in Missouri," Ranjan said. "I think it is essential that graduates of the School of Medicine at UMKC support academic endeavors, including financial support for our medical school. It is only through charitable gifts that our School of Medicine can proportionately increase in quality and stature, and my family and I are delighted that the state of Missouri is matching our contribution to provide scholarships to lessen the financial burden of Missouri residents who wisely choose the UMKC School of Medicine."

Raman echoes his brother's sentiment about the importance of lessening students' financial struggles. "I strongly encourage other graduates of the School of Medicine to establish their own scholarship funds or contribute to funds that have been established for each graduating class," he said.
