Our dues year begins January 1 and continues through December 31.

It is most important that we receive your renewals before the end of January, or by February 15 at the latest. Early renewal allows us to determine the printing needs for the year.

Use the Query form below and return this form with your renewal. Queries will be published in the order they are received. Queries are free to members. Sorry, only one at a time may be accepted and they should be no more than 50 words in length, must pertain to Arkansas at some point, and should contain a location and, at least, an approximate date. Be sure your name and address are on the query form.

If you do not know your +4 ZIP code, call your post office and ask for it. It will be important in the future.

Let us know of any family reunions planned for next year. Early notice will again help get your reunion notice published before the event.

Time is growing short - the deadline for submitting your entry for the Surname Directory is 15 January 1990. We have had a wonderful response so far, but we want everyone's participation! Imagine how rewarding it might be to receive missing pieces of information about your family from a distant relative. Submitting information for this directory is a variation on the query technique - it's like casting corked bottles with 'help' messages into the sea and waiting to see if, when and where they'll be recovered and answered. If you've delayed your entry looking for just one more name or date, this is your final reminder. It's free! We'll offer the directory for sale, but there is no obligation to buy. We've gained new AGS members from this project and hope you will find new information through it. Act now.

Are you doing paid genealogical research? If so, our researcher's registration form is included in this issue and must be returned by 15 January if you want to be included on the list. Not only do we send the list in response to requests received directly by AGS, but the Arkansas History Commission furnishes the list to all who inquire there about paid research. The list isn't just for those who do research in Arkansas - it includes AGS members in distant states who do paid research in their own areas. After the deadline, the information from the forms we have received is printed and it is difficult to include a late entry, so please tear the form out now and drop it in your outgoing mail box.

Attention AGS members in central Arkansas: your help is needed at the Main Branch of the Central Arkansas Library System. How would you like to volunteer to spend a few scheduled hours each week or each month in a wonderful genealogy collection of books and materials? The library needs volunteers for the genealogy section. The most critical hours when help is especially needed is from 2:30 pm to 4 pm, Tuesday through Saturday, and Sundays from 1 pm to 4 pm. If you can schedule time regularly, whether it is on a weekly or monthly basis, the library needs you. The hours of the genealogy section are 9 am to 4 pm, Tuesday through Saturday and 1 pm to 4 pm on Sunday. Perhaps you could choose one Sunday a month or every other Thursday afternoon. You do not have to be an expert by any means - just be a helpful, smiling volunteer. Interested? Call Philip Jones, the volunteer coordinator, at 370-5952.

A final request for 1989: please renew as early as possible for 1990. The renewal form is included in this issue and now is the time to send it in. Some members wait until their March quarterly doesn't arrive, then remember to renew. Don't let that happen to you! Since preparation of The Arkansas Family Historian begins months in advance of when members actually receive it, send in a notice about your family's reunion with your renewal form. If the details aren't complete, list the approximate time and your name and phone number as contact person. Submit your query now - they appear generally in the order in which they're received - send yours early with your renewal.

Now a thought about your gift list during 1990. Consider giving an AGS gift membership to a friend interested in genealogy. We'll acknowledge your gift with an appropriate card. Or give a friend one of the statewide reference books published by AGS listed elsewhere in this issue. Better yet, drop a hint about the books to those searching for the perfect gift for you.

Best wishes for a happy and prosperous 1990....

Desmond Walls Allen, President

In the September issue appeared my query. Unfortunately the name of the person I was seeking was misspelled. On page 142, the query for Ward should have been Warden. Submitter Richard F. Shaw, 70 Stannson Drive, No. Attleborough, MA 02760. [Our apologies for the error and we hope this correction will be of assistance.]

I wish to thank the "Arkansas Genealogical Society for the help that I have received through your office, and the information that I have found in "The Arkansas Family Historian."

I started searching to find my "Cherokee Heritage", but as I went along it all became very interesting and dear to me. Genealogy is never a chore - it is very exciting; we find many disappointments and false leads, but with love and patience it does pay off, and I am still searching for more!!

Thought you may want to use this or part of it in the "Family Historian" if someone else is also searching for these families.

Let me thank you again.

SELLS-LOVETT-McCANN-HARBISON-ROBINSON-CRAIG FAMILY

[Cherokee descent] Peter Daniel Sells- borned ca Nov 1855, his father was from Alabama, his mother from Tennessee. The family moved to Arkansas in the early 1880s, in the area of Crawford County, Arkansas. They were farmers.

[Cherokee descent] - Seal (Celia-Sealey) Lovett (Lovitt-Lovoitt)-borned ca Jan 1867. Both parents were from Kentucky - moved to Arkansas in the 1870s. Also farmers.

Peter and Seal were married in 1886 in Crawford County, Arkansas. He was 25 and she was 18. They started their family of eight children in Crawford and Franklin Counties, Ark. areas. The deaths of Peter and Sealey are not known at this time.

1900 census for the "Indian Territory" Cherokee County (now named Sequaha County) shows the Sells family listed as: Pete, age 44; Seal, age 33; the children listed as Rachel, age 13; Emma, 12; Henery, 12; Mary, age 7; Soeil, 6; Martha, age 4 (my grandmother); Billie, 3. Jimmy Sells, age 4/12.

Martha Jane Sells married a William McCann in 1893, and they had 1 son, Amos McCann. William died in 1895 and is buried in Randolph County, Arkansas.

Martha McCann married my grandfather, Lee Roy (or L. H.) Harbison, in 1897. The Harbison family lived in the Datto, Reyno and Corning, Arkansas, areas. They were farmers. The Harbison children are: Cora, Laura, James and Frank Harbison (my father).

Lee Roy Harbison died ca 1906 at his farm in Clay County.

Martha Jane Sells McCann Harbison then married an Oscar Robinson in 1910 at Corning, Ark. Oscar died in 1945 and Martha in 1953. They are both buried in the old "Richwood Cemetery" in Randolph Co. The Robinson children are: Vernon, Bill, Elector, and Ruben.

William Frank Harbison was borned in 1902, at Corning, Ark. When Frank was four years old, his dad died, and he was sent to Coweta, Okla., to live with his uncle - a Perry Harbison. Frank had an accident at school when he was six years old and had to have his right leg amputated; when he was 13 years old he returned to Arkansas, finished his schooling and went to work. Frank met Lula M. Edward and they were married in 1925 at Piggott, Arkansas. They farmed in their early married life, then moved to Cross County, Ark., and Frank went to "Barber School" in Memphis; this was to be his occupation. The Harbisons lived in Cross County, Crittenden County and Phillips County in Arkansas. They had seven children: Wilma, Jewell, Linder, Troy, Betty, Illa and Dennis. Frank died on April 22, 1978, and is layed to rest at Sunset Memorial Gardens", in West Helena, Arkansas. Lula is still living and is staying with her daughter in Dresden, Tenn.

Betty L. Harbison, borned July 10, 1938 at Parkin, Arkansas, married Curtis Eugene Craig, Jr., borned May 27, 1935 at Round Pond, Arkansas. The marriage took place on Nov. 25, 1953, at Helena, Arkansas. Curtis has worked on the Mississippi River all of his life. Now he is a Captain on the M/V Jason. He and Betty had four boys. We lost one son in 1971. The other boys are: Curtis III, Jimmy and Billy Joe.

Curtis III married Shauna Craddock, 1974. They have one son, Joshua. Jimmy is divorced but has a son, Jason. Billy Joe married Leisha Chiver, 1980. They have one son Clayton.

The Craig men followed in their dad's footsteps, and came to work on the River - Curtis and Jimmy are engineers on river boats, and Billy Joe is a captain on the M/V Judy S. Betty is also working with her husband on the boat, as "Cook". The River is a very interesting place to work. The many different people that you get to meet, and the Beauty of the "Mississippi" is awesome.

Tracing my family history has been very rewarding for me; it has made me really appreciate my pioneering family--the life that they led, the work they had to do, the many obstacles they each had to overcome makes me very proud that I am a part of it.

PLEA TO AN ANCESTOR

Ancestor! Oh Ancestor! Why be so elusive?
When all I seek of you is proof conclusive?
Your birth date, place, and date of your wedding, and to whom- That's all that I'm asking.
I spy and I pry into family traditions,
Old letters I read -- they're in awful condition!
Court records were burned in THE WAR (as you know)
To graveyards in brambles And briars I off' go.
So, somewhere and somehow, I'll find you one day,
With "preponderance of evidence," as we like to say.
Then, Eureka! Rejoice! I'll write me a book!
I'll cite all sources, Be you gentleman - or crook.
So help me, do please; neither shy nor coy be.
If you were where it would help, I'd send an SASE.

WILLIAM LOTT FEWOX

Contributed by Bill Farley, 1306 Spruce Ave., Alamogordo, NM 88310

William Lott Fewox was born February 2, 1868 in Washington County, Mississippi. His father was J. P. Fewox and his mother was Mary (last name unknown). His father was a common laborer around the county and in Yazoo City. When Will was a young boy his parents divorced. Will was taken to Dumas, Arkansas, to escape a yellow fever epidemic back in Mississippi. He was abandoned there and was taken in by a family named Martin who lived along Wells Bayou. He worked on their farm until he was old enough to strike out on his own. He never attended school so therefore could neither read nor write.

In 1901 Will married Fannie Edmonds. Fannie was the daughter of Bill Edmonds, an emigrant from Ireland. He was a blacksmith on the Hudson farm. Fannies mother was Jennie McCall whose parents came from Michigan via Ireland.

Will and Fannie began farming on forty acres of land near Reedville, Randolph Township. Will was known for his love of dancing, particularly the waltz. His favorite song was "Over the Waves". Fannie preferred to dance the schottische. Will owned a magnificent buggy with little tassels hanging from the roof that he drove to church every Sunday. Lee Cox, a young man living with the Fewoxs loved to ride to church in the buggy and never missed an opportunity to be seen with Will driving around the countryside.

The Fewoxs had nine children, three of whom died within a short period of each other. No cause of death was ever established; however, from available records, the very high fever and related symptoms indicated possible water well contamination. The three were Manon, Edward and Willie. Two other children were to succumb to illness later - Dot Cleone from polio and Katherine from diphtheria.

In 1927 when the Mississippi River overran its banks, Will's farm near Back Gate, east of Dumas, was almost covered with flood waters.

During the depression, Will and Fannie lost their land and moved into Dumas where he went to work as a clerk in a store. He and Fannie eventually opened a hamburger stand. Not being too successful in either, they eventually went to farming after the depression.

They moved to Hebornville, Texas, to be near their son Marion. They had one grandchild, Billy Joe Farley, with them and raised him until his mother Margie Fewox Farley sent for him. Will and Fannie were always known as kind people, religious and hard working. They often took in children or adults who didn't have any other place to go. Both returned to Dumas in later life and lived out their days among people they knew best.

The Fewox Family

Little is known about the early members of the Fewox family in America. James Fewox and his wife Ann were living in Tyrell County, North Carolina, perhaps as early as 1700. He was born around 1668 and she around 1670. He died about 1711. They had three children, Edith, Robert and Martha. Edith married William Hardy, Martha married Jacob Parrott and it is unknown whom Robert married.

In the late 1700's two brothers Jacques Pierre Feoux and Jean Feoux, later to become James Peter and John Fewox, came to America from Caen France. They probably got off the boat in Charleston, South Carolina, since other Fewox's can be found in that area at that time. Caen France, their birthplace, was linked to the sea by a canal and was an historic city. It was noted for its old university, hard limestone quarries and farming. Stone from the quarries was used by the Norman Kings to build St. Paul's Cathedral in London.

The brothers settled down to farming around Collenton County, South Carolina, after roaming throughout the northern states. Their children became the pioneers of such states as Alabama, Georgia, Florida and Mississippi. Almost every census thereafter will list a Fewox in each of these states.

Most of the Fewox family were farmers; however, there were railroad laborers and general laborers among them.

During the Civil War there were Fewox's fighting on both the North and South sides. Perhaps more on the side of the South than the North.

The descendants of James and John began to move south just before and after the war. Some went to Florida - others to Georgia, Alabama, and finally Mississippi. Those settling in Mississippi were farmers and later some worked for the railroad.

During the yellow fever epidemic in Mississippi about 1885, several lost their lives and at least one, Will Lott, fled to Desha County, Arkansas.

Dumas, Reedville and several other communities in southern Arkansas became the birthplace of members of the Fewox family.

Farley Family History

James Farley, George Farley, and Michael Farley were three brothers from England and were colonial settlers in America about the middle of the 17th century.

The Farleys of England trace their family history back to A.D. 600. Old records of the 12th and 13th centuries record that the Farleys were scattered throughout England and that the family was imminent in history. A complete history of Farleigh Castle is in existence which carries the record back to A.D. 50 when it was a Roman camp. No other castle in England can show an equally unbroken narrative of owners, those who were in possession of Farleigh Castle. Numbering fifty beginning with the days of King Aethelrid the first who gave the site to his chief huntsman, naming it Farnleaga, and thereafter orthography changed five times before it became Farleigh of Farley. The records shows that the ancestors of the American immigrants were connected with the history of the castle often.

James Farley landed in Jamestown, Virginia, in 1624, bringing from England his wife and one servant. In return for his service to King James the first, he was granted nine square miles of land on the James River.

George Farley landed in Boston Bay Colony in 1640. Michael Farley, the other brother, came from England in 1675, landing at Ipswich, Mass. where he and his two sons Michael and Meshack established the first wool mill in America.

From this brief history we see that perhaps most of the Farleys in America are related, being descendants of these three brothers.

GREEN J. BREWER

Submitted by Shirley Schulze, 538 W. Hermine, San Antonio, TX 78212

GREEN J. BREWER
born about 1824, Kentucky
died January 1898
Cleburne County, Arkansas

SARAH BITTLE
born about 1828, Kentucky
died about 1865-1870
Van Buren County, Arkansas

Green and family came from Kentcky about 1841 and bought land near Shiloh, Arkansas, and started farming. He raised cotton, corn, hogs and molasses. Mr. Andy Dillon hauled produce for him in the early days. Green was said to have had some 30 slaves. He was good to them and they were freed.

In March, 1959, they began work on Greers Ferry Lake. The lake and dam were finished in July 1964 creating a 40,000 acre lake. This covered the original Brewer lands and several small towns, including Shiloh. Several old family cemeteries had to be moved. They were relocated at Mount Olive Cemetery near Heber Springs, Cleburne County. Green and Sarah Brewer were moved to this cemetery. In searching in this area, records can be found in either Cleburne County or Van Buren County.

Many of the "blanks" in this family record are known. Anyone interested should contact Kathleen Barger-Harbert, Route 1, Box 82, Rosebud, MO 63091 for further information. Words in Parenthesis are my own, added for clarification.

Also found in this Bible was a note, written in pencil, and carefully placed at Isaiah XI. It reads:

"Springfield, MO.

November 11, 1918

"Peace was declared between Germany and United States on this day, Germany surrendered.

BALD KNOB CEMETERY

In June of 1988 I got to visit Bald Knob Cemetery for the very first time. Howard Holt Barger and wife Sue, and Howard's father Claude (all of Rally Hill, Ark.) took me there to see the final resting place of Wiley Barger.

We took highway 65, south out of Harrison, to highway 206 toward Everton (a left). It seems we travelled about two miles, although I may be mistaken for we talked along the way of family long ago. Claude pointed south (off to the right) just past a stretch of woods along the road. "Back there", he said, "was where the old homeplace was. You used to be able to see the chimney, that's all that's left standing now.: But we couldn't see it.

Then we began to slow for a right turn onto a gravel road. A column of handpainted signs described what was to be found on down the road a ways. "Bald Knob Cemetery: was near the top; in faded black lettering on white-washed board. A little further on, on the right side of the road, another faded sign like the first pointed the way down a narrow easement. This was part of the old McAlister farm (old-time residents of this area) and currently owned by Breedloves. We passed a tremendous old oak on the left, and passed through two gates, closing them behind us. Cows woke from their daydreaming and cud chewing to get up and watch us.

A steep hill stood before us. There were no trees upon it, just scorched grasses swaying stiffly in the occasional breeze. We headed the car towards a ravine off to the right choked thick with elderberries, and followed it up to an easier slope, then left across a ridge to the cemetery gate.

As I got out of the airconditioned van the 100 degree heat hit me like a wall, but I had no intention of letting that interfere -- I was finally here after two years of anticipation.

The first grave inside the gate was a relatively new one and possibly the last one placed here. Lee P., Claude's father and my great great grandfather's brother. Next to Lee's marker was the one I wanted most to find: Wiley Barger Born: April 8, 1823, and Died: December 20, 1901. Next to his was his wife, Maryann Barger (nee Cates), Born: February 12, 1831, Died April 17th, 1894. A surprise finding was Maryann's parents buried alongside: James and Rebecca Cates.

I took pictures and notes for about twenty minutes with the help of my family, then stood up and looked all around. What a beautiful spot! We were very high and with no obstruction could see for miles in every direction. We could see Howard and Sue's home on top of Rally Hill to the north and farmland all around the base of the hill.

The heat was blistering and the kids were getting crabby. Claude needed to get out of the sun and Howard walked with him to the car. I took their picture quickly against the backdrop of the cemetery and the view beyond.

Several family names could be found in this burial place of the early settlers - McAlisters and Ramseys are those that I recall besides Cates and Bargers. Some graves were marked only with a large rock; if there were ever any inscription or writing, it was long gone now. Many tiny headstones marked the graves of children who died in their first year of life. I imagine the infants Thomas D. (born Nov. 2nd, and died Nov. 30, 1852) and William Henry (born July 21st, and died Aug. 21st, 1858) are buried there too under one of those tiny unmarked headstones, because I could find no marker with their names.

One last look out at the view, and then back into the cool of the car. All too quickly we were back out on the road. I forgot to get a picture of the cemetery from the bottom of the hill as I'd planned. I forgot to get a picture of Sue and I at the sign pointing to the cemetery. I wished I could have stayed a while longer just to "absorb" some of the feeling about the place. But there were too many other people to consider and it was so terribly hot.

I think I will have to return to this place... perhaps in the fall of the year. I'd like to just come and sit and think about times gone by, about homesteading in those days and what the countryside looked like then. I'd imagine the oxen wagons coming over the hills in the distance, the first rudimentary shelters, the wildlife, the creeks and springs, the hardships, the birthings, the children playing as children play in any century. I'd like to imagine John Wesley Barger and Laura Stubblefield being married up on Rally Hill, perhaps at that old church that we saw - wagonloads of happy celebrants winding their way to the hill to witness the event. I'd imagine their deaths - dignified deaths in their homes, their bodies washed and dressed by the women and laid out for a day at home so their families could gather and pay their last respects. Then, a last wagon ride up to this high place and burial with the rest of their kin and acquaintances. There were no strangers here at Bald Knob - all the folk buried here were the first settlers to this area and most were related in some way, by blood or by marriage sooner or later. They probably all got together many times for marriages and funerals, not to mention the corn shucklings, hay gatherings, quilting, butchering, barn raisings and all their other affairs of daily living that would bring people together. And to be buried here in this lovely spot, in view of any of their farms would have been a comfort to the dying as well as those whom they left behind.

COTNER AND ALLIED FAMILIES

Submitted by Ina May (Butler) Friend, [new address] 7262 Palo Alto Ave., #2, Yucca Valley, CA 92284.

The Cotners came into this country (we believe as "Goertner") about 1725/30 from Germany. They came in at Philadelphia, PA. First they went to upper New York, but many of them moved down into Pennsylvania. Here we pick up the family in Oley, Berks Co., PA, where old Peter Cotner lived with his family. Peter's will was dated 1752. One son, George, born in 1738, in Oley, married Maria (we believe Clapp) and had 13 children. George moved his family to Guilford Co., North Carolina, and was State Legislator during the Revolutionary War. His son, Jacob, married Milly Neese and later moved to Henry Co., Tenn. One of their children was Daniel Neese Cotner.

Jacob Cotner died about 1839 in Buchanan (Henry Co.)TN, and is buried in the Cotner Cemetery (also known as the Neese Cemetery). His wife, Milly (Neese) Cotner was born 23 April 1787 in Orange Co., N. Carolina, died 11 Dec, 1869 in Webster Co., MO, and is buried in the Rader Bridge Cemetery.

[The above is the original article submitted by Mrs. Friend. She has recently added the following]

Before the Cotner & Allied families is published in your quarterly I had to send along some information that Neal Cotner recently sent me.
This document was found in Dade Co. Courthouse (MO). This changes my family considerably. This spells out clearly that the Cotner's of Drew Co., Ark., are not from Jacob & Milly Neese Cotner, but they are from David C. & Milly Coble Cotner, through their son Peter.

This David C. Cotner I am pretty sure is the son of old Peter Cortner Jr. of Orange Co., N.C. This is being worked on but that is about the only place that he can fit into.

This document makes me related to old George Washington of Dade Co., Mo., and a whole new ballgame.

"Dade Co., Courthouse, Greenfield, Mo Recorder's Office - 1828-1882

State of Arkansas
County of Drew

I, George W. Cotner, being duly sworn on oath says that Daniel N. Cotner late of Drew Co., Ark., deceased, left the following named heirs at law and no others to wit: Martha J. Cotner, his widow and the following children, Emma J., George W., William H., Anna, Charles L., Robert H. and Edna I. Cotner. That Emma intermarried with one F. P. Butler and the said Anna intermarried with one D.K. Reep and since her marriage departed this life having no bodily heirs. That the said Daniel N. Cotner was the son of Peter Cotner, now deceased, and the said Peter Cotner was the son of David C. Cotner late of Dade County Missouri, deceased.

G. W. Cotner

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of Jan. 1888. In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand as Clerk of the Circuit Court of Drew County, Ark. and the seal of said Court at office in said county this 20th day of January 1888.

S.A. Matthews"

SAND HILL CEMETERY (formerly known as Erwin Cemetery)

Prairie County, Arkansas

Located 5 miles east of Des Arc, Prairie County, Arkansas, on Highway 38, Section 5, Township 4 North, Range 4 West.

This cemetery began before the Civil War, possibly before 1850. The earliest tombstone found was for a death in 1852. It started on a plantation owned by the Erwin family, pioneers in Des Arc and Prairie County. The land adjoining the cemetery is still a plantation owned by the Southwest Land Company, whose president is Grady Miller, Jr.

On March 9, 1949, Trustees of Sand Hill Baptist Church Edward A. Pandelas, Lee Wright and Lonnie R. Harris purchased land adjoining the cemetery and a church was built.

Since that time a Sand Hill Cemetery Association has been formed and on July 6, 1987, land was purchased from Southwest Land Co. for addition to the cemetery. Lots are now being sold with preference to those living in the community or those having relatives buried there.

Many of the older tombstones are deteriorated or have been destroyed. Most of the unmarked graves listed were in records kept by Garth Funeral Home in Des Arc, Arkansas, and the previous owners, Willis Eddins and W. J. Caskey.

Some names were given by relatives who know their people were buried there but didn't remember dates.

We are very grateful for all who helped in researching this cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Garth and the White River Journal were very cooperative.

There are many we couldn't find, but this is as accurate as we could obtain.

Any corrections and additions will still be greatly appreciated.

BOOK REVIEWS

Desmond Walls Allen and Bobbie Jones McLanne

Genealogists' Arkansas Address Book, compiled by Desmond Walls Allen, published by Professional Genealogists of Arkansas, Inc., PO Box 1807, Conway, AR 72032. 5 1/2 X 8, softcover, 108 pages. Lists, county by county, all the County and Circuit Clerks' addresses and phone numbers, funeral homes, Chambers of Commerce, libraries, newspapers and genealogical and historical societies. Gives publication, dues, meeting, and library information for societies. Lists statewide organizations and addresses and gives sources for the material. Also included is a place name/county index for over 1,000 places in Arkansas. Price $5.50 postpaid. - BJM

Samuel Wade Young: His Life and Descendants, by Carolyn Earle Billingsley, Saline Research, 270 Midland Road, Alexander, AR 72002, 280 pages, softbound, $25.00 postpaid. Refreshing presentation of descendants using computer program, Personal Ancestral File, to generate family group sheets and descendancy charts. Samuel Wade Young was a War Between the States Confederate veteran who married (2) Sarah Cagle. Biographical information about Samuel and his wife with information on their parents and siblings is presented in narrative form with transcriptions of two autobiographical monographs by a daughter and grandson of the couple. A major advantage of using the PAF group sheets is that they form a work-book in which descendants can record additional information. - DWA

Turnbo's Tales of the Ozarks: Snakes, Birds and Insect Stories, edited by Desmond Walls Allen, Arkansas Research, PO Box 303, Conway, AR 72032. 100 pages, softbound, $15.00 postpaid. Full name/subject/place index. This is the ninth and final volume in the Ozark tales series. Silas Claborn Turnbo wrote over a thousand little stories around the turn of the century about the early people, places and events of the Ozark region in northern Arkansas and southern Missouri. They are rich with genealogical detail as Turnbo often mentions maiden names and parents of women in his stories. He digresses from some hunting tale to mention the circumstances of a hunter's origins, migrations, or death. The stories are a treasure trove of details about what pioneer life was like in the hills. A surname index of all the Turnbo volumes is available from the editor upon receipt of a 45 cent self-addressed, stamped envelope. - BJM

A Montgomery and Cole Record: Some Descendants of Alexander Montgomery of Amherst County, Virginia and Orange County, North Carolina, compiled by Marian Carter Ledgerwood, PO Box 8081, Hot Springs Village, AR 71909, 75 pages, softcover, full name/place indexes (write for price and availability). Covers six generations of descendants of Alexander Montgomery, born about 1705/10, who resided in Albermarle County, Virginia, as early as 1745. The work is well footnoted with extensive source documentation. - DWA

Captain Robert H. Kuykendall of Austin's Colony, 1790 - 1830, by Marshall E. Kuykendall, PO Box 3543, Austin, TX 78764, 22 pages, softcover, (write for price and availability). Robert H. Kuykendall was a member of Stephen F. Austin's "Old 300," settling in Texas from Kentucky. Information about his life is taken from primary and secondary sources. There are transcriptions of correspondence with Stephen F. Austin. Interesting material on early Texas. - DWA

Our Days, Volume I, Family Histories: Rushing, Morris, Bradford, Estes, Day, compiled by Merle Virginia Morris Hayes Day, 4705 Westerly Court, Oceanside, CA 92056. Softbound, about 150 pages, $20.00. This is a collection of information about the compiler's family lines including source documents, maps, photos, census transcriptions, pedigree charts, reminiscences and lists of descendants. - DWA

Turff and Twigg, Volume One, The French Lands, by Priscilla Harriss Cabell, donated by The Huguenot Society of the Founders of Manakin In the Colony of Virginia, Arkansas Branch, represented by Mr. Jack K. Gray. The book is hardbound, 468 pages, with accompanying map, $60.00 - available from Priscilla H. Cabell, PO Box 17091, Richmond, VA 23226. This is a wonderful compilation of information about the French lands near Richmond, Virginia. Much of the information is from land patents, wills and other primary documents. Explicit information about surveys is included. There is a bibliography and full name index. Fortunate are the folks who have ancestors who settled on this portion of the James River! - DWA

How to Write and Publish Your Family History Using WordPerfect (TM) by Stanley Richard Ames, 161 pages, softbound, $17.95, plus $1.50 postage. Order from Heart of the Lakes Publishing, PO Box 299, Interlaken, NY 14847-0299. This is a detailed, software specific, guide written from the author's experience about preparing his family history for publication. If you are not using WordPerfect on a PC compatible, most of the book will be of no interest to you. Some of the author's information on other aspects of publishing and marketing are a bit simplistic. - DWA

Pine Grove Baptist Church History 1869 - 1902, by Doss Brown Reed. Donated to AGS for inclusion in the library - not for sale. The book was published for the 120th anniversary of the founding of the church. The church is located near Sweet Home, Pulaski County, Arkansas. There are transcriptions from the minutes, photos and membership lists. There is a full name index. We are very pleased to have this heretofore inaccessible material in print and available to researchers. - DWA

The Family of Frank and Mary Klima, compiled by Allen D. Cavell, 5904 Kellogg Ave., Edina, MN 55424. 80 pages, softbound - write for price and availability. This is the story of Frank Klima and Mary Babinec who were married in Chelsea, Iowa, in 1877, and lived 17 years in Nebraska before moving to Dardanelle, Arkansas. Mr. Cavell does a very good job of supplying background information about the European countries from which the couple originated, and recording their lives and descendants into the 6th generation. Facsimiles and transcriptions of original source material, many photos, charts, a bibliography, and full name index make this a quality production. - DWA

Saline County, Arkansas, Chancery Court Book A, 1841 - 1871, Indexed by Eddie G. Landreth, 123 Elaine Street, Benton, AR 72015. 50 pages - softbound, $8.00 postpaid. Over 500 case entries and over 1,800 names references are included in this index! The database lists plaintiff(s), defendant(s), date and action and original page of the record book. The material is presented in chronological order with a full name index. For those unfamiliar with this type record, chancery court was where a variety of matters were settled - divorces, land battles, foreclosures, injunctions and more. If you have Saline County folks in this time period, order the book. - DWA

1910 Saline County, Arkansas, Federal Census Index by Eddie G. Landreth, 132 pages, softbound, $17.00. Order from Saline County History and Heritage Society, Inc., PO Box 221, Bryant, AR 72022-0221. This is an index - not a transcription - it lists heads of household and people within households whose surname was different than the head of household's. There is an alpha section of these names, but there is also a list by dwelling number to help identify folks by proximity to neighbors. The index lists full names, race, dwelling number, township and whether or not there was someone of a different surname in the household. Introductory material includes more about the contents of the 1910 census, notes about the transcription process and a map of Saline County townships. - DWA

Saline County, Arkansas, 1880 Census, by Virginia Prothro, Vivian Turbyfill and Shirlene Chilton, 222 pages, softbound, $23.00. Order from Saline County History and Heritage Society, Inc., PO Box 221, Bryant, AR 72022-0221. This is a transcription of the 1880 census done in original order with a surname index. It includes township, dwelling and family numbers, full name, race, sex, age, relationship to the head of household, occupation, reported place of birth for respondent and parents, and more. In some cases, it has been annotated by the compilers with maiden names of women. Information pertaining to Saline County from 1880 Mortality Schedules of Arkansas by Capitola Hensley Glazner and Bobbie Jones McLane is included. Some family history material and photos are interspersed among the townships. - DWA

FULL NAME INDEX

We're trying something new with this issue! There has been much discussion about the need for a full name index for The Arkansas Family Historian, so this year, through a joint effort, we are supplying part of that need.

Bobbie, Desmond and I have worked together on a full name index for 1989 using three different computers in three locations. We think you will enjoy this and hope to continue it, although it may be that we will index each issue because of the length. Which would you prefer? One index in the December issue, or each issue indexed?

There are, we are sure, errors in this first attempt. We will share the fault for that, too.

If you have a preference, let us know with your renewal. Thanks, and Happy Holiday Season! [MH]

QUERIES

Prepared for Publication
by
Bobbie J. McLane

Material submitted for this 'Query Section' must pertain to an area of Arkansas at some point in time. Since we always work with a "backlog" of queries, we have no time-table for printing them, as we work several months ahead of the actual appearance of this quarterly. We do, however, strive to print them in the order in which they are received. In order to be fair to all our members, PLEASE SUBMIT NO MORE THAN ONE QUERY AT A TIME AND PREFERABLY ONLY ONE PER CALENDAR YEAR.

Queries are limited to members only. It simplifies the work of the all-volunteer staff of this publication if you send your queries with your membership fee, to the Arkansas Genealogical Society, PO Box 908, Hot Springs, AR 71902-0908. Queries should be confined to approximately fifty words.

If the name of the County is known and included, it increases your chance of receiving replies to your questions. Always give a full name and a date for reference.

EACH QUARTER, WE HAVE SOME FEW QUERIES WHICH HAVE NO NAME INDICATED. THIS ISSUE, WE PUBLISHED ONE, ASKING FOR THE NAME OF THE MEMBER WHO SUBMITTED IT; HOWEVER, IN TYPING THESE FINAL QUERIES FOR 1989, WE HAVE FOUND SEVERAL OTHERS. THIS COMPLETES THE QUERIES WE HAVE RECEIVED TO DATE (OCT. 1, 1989). IF YOUR QUERY HAS NOT BEEN USED IN ONE OF THE FOUR ISSUES FOR THIS YEAR, IT IS POSSIBLE YOUR NAME WAS NOT ON THE QUERY ITSELF. MAIL DOES GET SEPARATED FROM ENVELOPES. AGS GETS A TREMENDOUS AMOUNT OF MAIL AND IT IS DIFFICULT TO REMEMBER TO CHECK EACH PIECE TO MAKE CERTAIN THE NAME AND ADDRESS IS ON IT PRIOR TO PUTTING IT IN THE "QUERY" STACK! WE ALSO CONTINUE TO RECEIVE QUERIES WITH NO ARKANSAS CONNECTION, WHICH WE CANNOT USE.

PLEASE MAKE CERTAIN YOUR ONE QUERY PER YEAR IS LEGIBLE AND THAT THE PAGE ON WHICH IT IS SUBMITTED CONTAINS YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS.
