SECTION 5: CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

An applicant for certification as a specialist in the field of Family Relations Law must be an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Ohio and in good standing and, in addition, must meet the following mandatory requirements as of the date of the filing of the application:

The applicant must list three cases, from the previous three (3) years, on the application form that best demonstrate substantial involvement in the field of family relations law. Applicant must provide all information requested, including a description of why the case demonstrates substantial involvement. Upon the affirmative decision of the majority of the members of the Specialty Board, the Specialty Board may require an applicant to submit further specific information as to the substantial involvement requirement, for example, an additional list of representative cases or examples of work product, to aid the Specialty Board in its review of a given applicant's claim of substantial involvement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no sitting, full-time judge, or magistrate shall be eligible to apply for specialty certification.

5.2 Specialists Who Become Judges: No sitting, full-time judge or magistrate may represent or hold the judge's or magistrate's self out as a certified specialist nor may any Accrediting Organization represent or hold out a sitting, full-time judge or magistrate as a specialist. If the specialist's tenure as a sitting, full-time judge or magistrate concludes before that expiration date, and provided the specialist has in the interim continued to satisfy the continuing legal education requirements of Gov. If more than five (5) references are returned to the OSBA, the board may consider all of the references completed and returned. Persons recommending applicants for specialty certification must themselves demonstrate a familiarity with the competence of the applicant in the field of family relations law. References must come from attorneys already certified in family relations law, sitting judges, magistrates or from an attorney who meets the "substantial involvement" requirement and who are familiar with the applicant's competency in the specialty. The Specialty Board reserves the right to reject recommendations and request additional recommendations. The recommendations in regard to thereto shall be forms created by the Association, or Specialty Board for such purposes.

5.4 Written Examination: The applicant seeking certification must pass a written examination of suitable length and complexity. Any attorney so de-certified may request reconsideration and, if denied, appeal such de-certification pursuant to the procedures outlined by these Standards under Section 10: Appeals Procedure. or any such subcommittee thereof convened for such purposes.

Applications for recertification shall be available between October 1st and December 1st of the calendar year. If a full and complete application is not completed by December 31 of the calendar year, the applicant shall be decertified, and must apply for recertification under the same criteria as set forth in Section 5 hereof including the written examination.

(a) A certified specialist may exempt from the requirements of Section 6.2 & Section 7 of these standards in the event of a severe, prolonged illness or disability that prevents the specialist from participating in accredited continuing legal education programs and activities and in the requirements for certification renewal established by the Commission and the OSBA as follows:

(3) The duration of an exemption granted pursuant to Section 7.2 (a) of this section shall be dependent upon the severity of the lawyer's illness or disability and may be limited, as determined by the OSBA and the specialty board.

No member of the Review Panel shall have had previous involvement in considering the applicant's or specialist's applications.

10.4 Hearing. The hearing before the Independent Review Panel will be de novo. The Board may send a representative to the Independent Review Panel hearing.
