1. Introduction

Who is this book for?

This book is simply for students who want good marks in the writing section of the Cambridge First Certificate Exam. It is also useful for any intermediate or advanced student who would like to improve his or her writing.

It is also for teachers. Use it exactly as you like. Forward it to students. Print it out. Use it in class. It's completely up to you.

I hope it works.

Enjoy your English and every success with exams.

What's in the FCE writing exam?

From 2008 FCE Writing paper has two parts:

- Part 1 (Question 1) is a compulsory task. You write 120 – 150 words.
- Part 2 (Questions 2 – 5) is made up of four questions from which candidates choose one.

Question 5 has one task on each of the two set texts. You write 120 – 180 words.

You are given 1 hour 20 minutes and write your answers in a question-paper booklet.

Part 1

In Part 1, you are asked to write either an email or a letter, basing your answer on input material which comes from a variety of sources such as emails, letters and advertisements. There may also be added visual support in the form of photos and timetables with prompts which provide the basis for the reply.

These prompts require you to respond to an invitation, give or request information, express an opinion, give reasons for doing or not doing an activity, express preference or ask a question.

You are expected to show awareness of the target reader and write in an appropriate style.

As this question is worth half the marks it is very important to improve your letter/email writing skills.

Part 2

In Part 2, you choose from a variety of tasks. These may include:

- a letter
- an article
- an essay
- a report
- a review
- a story.

Questions 2-4 are general questions, based on a range of topics, such as health and fitness, sport, music and so on.

Questions 5a and 5b are based on two set texts. There will be one question on each of the set texts.

Task types for the set text options are as for Questions 2-4 with the exception of a story.

Each writing task in Part 2 has a context, a purpose for writing and a specified target reader. You are expected to show that you are aware of the kind of writing required to accomplish a task, and must be able to demonstrate appropriate use of one or more of the following functions: describing, explaining, expressing an opinion, giving information, narrating.

How is the exam assessed?

Answers are assessed using both a general mark scheme, which is used for all the questions, and a separate task-specific mark scheme for each question. The criteria used to assess the candidates' answers in the general mark scheme include:

- range of structure, vocabulary and expression
- effectiveness of organisation, including paragraphing and linking devices
- accuracy of grammar and spelling
- awareness of the situation and target reader.

4 essentials for good answers

1. Answer the question
2. Plan
3. Use paragraphs
4. Revise your work

Make sure you answer the question exactly and no more.

It is essential to plan your writing. This should take at least 10 minutes to plan for each question.

In a relatively short piece of writing you will need 4 or 5 paragraphs. The first paragraph will be your introduction. Paragraphs 2, 3 and perhaps 4, will contain the body of your answer, and the last paragraph your concluding comments.

Allow at least 5 minutes for each question to check your answer. Look out for silly mistakes with tenses, word order, spellings etc.

2. Writing formal letters or emails

Introduction (Writing formal letters and emails)

Writing formal letters is a necessary skill that you need for most ESL or EFL exams at Intermediate Level and above.

Examples:

- You are given an article to read from a newspaper. You write to the newspaper disagreeing with the article.
- You write to complain about something.
- You write making suggestions about something.
- You write requesting information.
- You write giving information.
- You write requesting permission.

Useful phrases (Writing formal letters and emails)

a) Writing formal letters generally:

Greetings:

- Dear Sir
- Dear Madam
- Dear Sir/Madam
- Dear Mr Brown
- Dear Ms Jones etc.

Reason for writing:

- I am writing in response to your article/advertisement/letter
- I am writing with regard to your article/advertisement/letter
- I am writing regarding your article/advertisement/letter
- I am writing on behalf of

Ending the letter:

- I look forward to receiving your reply
- I look forward to your reply
- I look to hearing from you
- I am, yours faithfully (if you don't know the name of the person you are writing to)
- I am, yours sincerely (if you know the name of the person you are writing to)
- Yours faithfully
- Yours sincerely

b) Writing formal letters to complain:

Reason for writing:

- I am writing in order to complain about
- I am writing to complain about

Introducing the complaint:

- Firstly
- In the first place
- First of all
- My first complaint is
- The first problem is
- The first thing I would like to draw your attention to is
- My first concern is

Introducing further complaints:

- Secondly
- In the second place
- Not onlybut also
- In addition
- In addition to this
- Added to this
- .....was also unacceptable

Demanding action:

- I suggest that you replace the item
- I therefore suggest that I be given a full refund
- I would be grateful if my money was refunded
- I would be grateful if you could give me a full refund

Ending the letter:

- I look forward to hearing from you
- I look forward to receiving a full refund
- I look forward to receiving a replacement
- I look forward to receiving your explanation

c) Writing formal letters to make suggestions:

Reason for writing:

- I am writing to suggest
- I am writing to arrange
- I am writing to offer suggestions
- I am writing make arrangements

Making first suggestion:

- My first suggestion is
- First of all I suggest
- I would like to suggest

Making further suggestions:

- Another possibility is
- A further possibility is
- I further suggest
- I would further suggest
- Secondly

Offering a choice:

- Would you therefore mind choosing between?
- Either.....or
- You might choose either or

d) Writing formal letters to request information

Reason for writing:

- I am writing to receive further information about
- I am writing to enquire about
- I am writing to receive more detailed information about
- I am writing to receive further details about

Requesting first piece of information:

- The first thing I would like to know is
- First of all I would like to know
- I wonder if you would mind telling me first of all?

Requesting further information:

- Could you also tell me?
- Could you also inform me?
- Would you also mind informing me?
- Would you also mind telling me?
- Do you know?
- I would also like to know if
- I would also like to know whether
- I hope you might also let me know about ...

Thanking for information:

- I would like to thank you in advance for this information
- Thanking you in advance for this information
- Thanking you in advance

e) Writing formal letters to give information:

Reason for writing:

- I am writing to inform you about
- I am writing to provide you with information about
- I am writing to let you know that

Providing first point:

- The first thing I would like to inform you of is
- The first thing I would like to tell you is
- The first thing I wish to inform you of is
- I would like to begin by informing you

Providing further points:

- I would also like to let you know that
- I would also like to inform you that
- You might also find the following information useful
- It might also be useful for you to know that
- Another piece of information that might be useful

Ending the letter:

- If you require further information, please do not hesitate to ask
- If I can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to ask
- I will willingly provide further information on request
- I am at your disposal should you require further information
- I am at your disposal should you need further assistance
- Please do not hesitate to ask should you require further information

f) Writing formal letters to request permission

Reason for writing:

- I am writing to ask permission to
- I am writing to ask permission for
- I am writing to request permission to
- I am writing to request permission for
- I am writing to ask if I might

Making first request:

- Firstly I wonder if you would
- First of all I wonder whether you would mind
- The first request I would like you to consider is Making further requests:

- I would be grateful if you would also consider
- I wonder if it might be possible for me to
- I would also like to request permission for
- I would also like to request permission to

Thanking for permission

- Many thanks for kindly considering my requests
- Thank you for considering my requests

Sample questions (Writing formal letters and emails)

1. You are helping to organise a visit to an English Language Academy in Manchester. You have received a letter from John Webster, the director of the Academy. Read the letter and the notes you have made. Then write a letter to Mr Webster using all your notes.

I am very glad to see that you are coming to our academy in July. I am sure you will all have a very enjoyable time and that you will learn a lot of English.

You can either stay all together in a youth hostel, or individually with local families. Please tell me which you would prefer.

Tell me something about your group so that I can organise interesting spare time activities. What sort of things do they like doing?

Please ask if you need any further information.

Yours sincerely,

John Webster

Your notes:

- Paragraph 1 – learning a lot of English is very important because
- Paragraph 2 – say which you prefer, and why.
- Ask what the weather's like in Manchester and what clothes you will need.

| How much for a week? | What type of exercise? |

Write an email in 120-180 words in an appropriate style

3. Writing informal letters and emails

Introduction (Writing informal letters and emails)

Writing informal letters and emails involves writing letters or emails to friends or relatives.

When writing an informal letter or email our language is more relaxed and we are able to use abbreviations which is rare in other forms of English writing, except perhaps when using direct speech.

Look also at Writing Formal Letters and Emails and compare.

Useful phrases - (Writing informal letters and emails)

Sample Questions - (Writing informal letters and emails)

1. Write 120-150 words in an appropriate style

Your Scottish friend, Maggie, has sent you an email asking you to help her organise a special surprise birthday party for her brother Rupert. Read Maggie's email and the notes you have made. Then write an email to Maggie using all your notes.

We must make sure that Rupert doesn't know we are planning this surprise. I'm not sure how many people to invite but our house is definitely too small. Do you think we should book the Royal hotel for the evening and have the party there? You know that Rupert is very keen on music so we could hire a live band.

I've also been wondering what we could all buy as a present. What do you think?

Could you come the day before the party to help with preparations. There's a lot to plan so I'd really like your help.

Can you suggest something else that will really make the party special?

*All for now, best wishes,
Anne*

Your notes:

- Paragraph 1 - Royal Hotel sounds OK but very expensive
- Paragraph 2 - Rupert really enjoys fishing
- Paragraph 3 - Sorry, busy that day.
- Paragraph 3 - Something else - Yes, how about

Write your email. You must use grammatically correct sentences with accurate spelling and punctuation in a style appropriate for the situation.

2. Write 120-150 words in an appropriate style.

You are studying in Britain and you've recently received a letter from a friend, Susan, who is interested in arranging a day trip for a group of students. Read Susan's letter, the advertisement and the notes you have made. Then write a letter to Susan, using all your notes.

..... and the students in my class are really interested in going on a day trip. I know you went on a boat trip with your class recently. Could you tell me what it was like and whether you'd recommend it?

Susan

Castle and Lake Boat Trips

- Departures 9 a.m. or 11 a.m. daily

Sample questions (Writing reviews)

1. Your teacher has asked you to write a review for a book you have read recently. The best reviews will go in the school magazine. Review the book giving your opinion and saying whether or not you would recommend it.

Write your review in 120-180 words in an appropriate style.

2. Your teacher has asked you to write a review for a film you have seen recently on DVD or at the cinema. The best reviews will go in the school magazine. Review the book giving your opinion and saying whether or not you would recommend it.

Write your review in 120-180 words in an appropriate style.

3. At school you are building a tourist website in English. Your teacher has asked you to write a review of a restaurant you have eaten at in your town. Review the restaurant giving your opinion and saying whether or not you would recommend it.

Write your review in 120-180 words in an appropriate style.

9. Finally

We at Brays hope that the information you have read helps you master the English language.

The fact that you have read this far should prove useful. But, obviously, the more you write, the better you become, especially if you have a good teacher to guide you.

To get the best from what you have read you need now to go to the next important stage:

- Select a question!
- Answer it
- Ask a tutor to guide you through the correction
- Repeat the process
- Repeat again and again

The more practice and guidance you have, the better you will become.

If you don't have someone with a high level to guide you then contact us. We will be happy to revise your work and set you on the right path.
