RIDING THE RAILS OF LIFE

Dear parishioners and visitors,

“All I Want for Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth” is the title to a song written by Donald Gardner in 1944. He was a public school music teacher who had asked his students what they wanted for Christmas. When he noticed that many of his students were missing their two-front baby teeth, it inspired him to write this song; it took him 30 minutes. With the beginning of the New Year, what do we need most?

There are many things for which we can ask whether it be personal or for our family. However, the greatest thing for which we might want for the world is to ask God for peace. It is not that he doesn't give it but that humanity doesn't do a very good job accepting and sharing it. It would certainly make the world a better place if human beings did.

Please pray for peace as the New Year begins; we and the entire world need it badly. Even though the world cannot be perfect, it shouldn't stop us from trying to make this world a reflection of the kingdom of God. If all of humanity did, people could live in peace with a tremendous lessening the threat of terrorism and war.

Thank you and God bless you.

Msgr. Stotzel

The intercession this week is to pray for peace in the New Year.

2016 CALENDARS

The 2016 calendars are at the entrances to the Cathedral for parishioners and visitors. Please take one per household.

Here is the schedule for Masses on New Year's Eve and Day for our parish cluster:

New Year's Eve: 4:30 PM at St. James
New Year's Day: 6:30 and 8:30 AM at the Cathedral

LITURGICAL MINISTERS

To lectors, servers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion from the Cathedral: the sign-up sheets are in the sacristy. Please sign if you can assist and do so as soon as possible.

TITHING

Please do not forget your parish family this Christmas. We need your financial tithing to support the work of the parishes. May the Lord bless you for your generosity!

EMBRACE THE YEAR OF MERCY

See Christmas with Fresh Eyes

Isn't it funny how we get used to things?

We should never get used to Christmas. This past Friday we celebrated the mind-boggling truth that God became man. When was the last time you really thought about that?

Why would the Son of God, the second person of the Trinity, do that? Why enter into a life of human limitation, fatigue and hunger? Why subject Himself to being misunderstood, hated and ultimately put to death? He could have come down to earth as a glorious King and struck dead everyone who opposed Him with a wave of His hand.

But He didn't. He came to an unknown maiden and her unknown husband and let Himself be placed in a feeding trough for animals. He spent the first 30 years of His life in obscurity. He pulled together a ragtag group of 12 followers who showed themselves to be confused much of the time, argumentative about who was the greatest, and mostly cowardly in His time of greatest need. Not to mention the one who betrayed Him to His death.

This has been the history of God's dealings with us, from ancient Israel that repeatedly

Sacraments & Services

Baptism: Parents may request the baptism of their infants at least two months prior to the anticipated date of baptism. The baptism of infants at the Cathedral is ordinarily celebrated on Sundays at 12:00 noon. To request a baptism, please call 782-0322. Baptism of infants at St. James the Less on Sundays at 10:00 am. A class for parents is required.

Marriage: Couples who want to request the celebration of the Sacrament of Marriage should contact the rector/pastor at the time of formal engagement or at least six months prior to the anticipated date of marriage. In the case of a mixed marriage, the turned its back on Him and stoned the prophets, to the sin and nonsense of our own day.

The only explanation is divine Love, a love so deep and merciful we can barely begin to fathom it. The earthly loves we know – that of parents, or spouses – as beautiful as they are, are only faint shadows of God’s love for us.

This is a love that saves us, rescuing us over and over again from the sin begun in Adam and Eve, and multiplied ever since.

God had given our first parents everything they could have wanted. For their own good, he had placed one limit on them, but the devil persuaded them that God was jealously holding back, and that if they would only defy that one limit, they would become like gods. Tempted by pride they disobeyed, rebelled against their status as creatures, and tried to become equal to God.

It did not end well, but from that very moment God promised a Redeemer. At this time we celebrate the coming of this One, the only Son of God, and the manner of His coming precisely reversed the proud sin of Adam and Eve.

Listen to the words of St. Paul to the Philippians:

Though He was in the form of God, [Christ] did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, He emptied Himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, He humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in Heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

During this Holy Season, let us intentionally give thanks to our Heavenly Father, who in His merciful love, has given to us the gift of His Son. In doing so, we will know the true meaning of Christ’s birth and see Christmas with fresh eyes.

non-Catholic party must arrange to receive instructions about the Catholic faith prior to the celebration of the wedding. Weddings are not ordinarily celebrated during Lent.

Anointing of the Sick: Those who are seriously ill or have been sick for a long period of time should receive the Sacrament of the Sick and Holy Communion. Please call YOUR parish office to make arrangements.

Visitation of the Sick: If you become homebound because of illness and would like to be visited, please call the Cathedral parish office.
