Overlooking Cheat Lake, this Morgantown home was built by Master Certified Green Professional Robert G. Riffle. The lower level offers a media room, office, exercise room, laundry room w/laundry chute, and full BA plus mechanicals. The main level features a massive 3 car garage opening to a mud room, kitchen open to the two story (17') great room, hearth room & grand entry, a second bedroom, pantry, bar and multiple decks. The top floor offers a large loft area, study/library, bedroom and bath plus the large master suite with walk-in closet, contemporary bath including a tiled rain shower, and private deck. In addition to the many custom features you would expect in a 7,000 sq.ft. home, there are a large number of Green design features that make this home environmentally friendly, extremely energy efficient and compliant with the National Green Building Gold Standard. The windows in this home not only allow lots of natural light, but are rated for climate zone 5, offering high performance energy savings. A rain water harvesting system uses French drains that tie to a 1,200 gallon cistern for lawn irrigation, which features a drip system. Three solar panels provide energy for hot water. The house is automated including timed LED lights & blinds, thermostats, video & intercom, carbon dioxide detectors & other "Smart" features. From the carpet to the paint to the counter tops, Energy Star appliances and locally sourced hardwoods and stone, everything is environmentally friendly.

Best Residential Remodeling Project - Class II

Best Commercial Remodeling Project Meta-Builders, LLC

The HUB in Martinsburg offers a community workspace with a variety of spaces that can be rented on a daily, (even hourly), weekly or monthly basis for business groups of all sizes. The project began by demolishing old partition walls & light fixtures, and updating plumbing fixtures throughout. There are 18 unique wall selections to create accent walls to customize office spaces utilizing hardwoods, tile and river stone. Some floors use a designer epoxy floor system on concrete. Others use tile, LVT, construction paper or bottle caps. The ceiling in the common area uses chain link fencing and spreader bars. Fire-rated hardwood bamboo was used for stair walls. The space includes 4 public work areas for up to 50 individuals, a cafe, 9 fully furnished offices (clients furnish their own computer & printer) on the upper level and 8 on the main level, 3 conference rooms, self-serve beer cave, pool table, lockers, relaxation & conversation spaces. There are 11 TV's, high-speed internet, dry cleaning & mail delivery services, security, custom fireplace, private entrances & 117 metered parking spaces with permits for full-time tenants.

Rater Training Seminar

A Statewide Rater Training class was conducted January 4, at the US Fish & Wildlife Service National Conservation Training Center in Shepherdstown. This group will be performing tests on new construction projects as part of the Marshall University WV Residential Codes Study. Participants included Jason Johnson and Todd White of Johnson & Johnson Heating & AC Inc.; John Keener, Mountaineer Inspection Services; Randy Swartz, Home Efficiency Solutions, LLC; Greg Paxton and Travis Paxton, Mr. Handyman. Also attending were Sheila Coleman-Castells, Chris Ilardi and Dale Oxley. The training was presented by Gary Boyer, former project manager for the Maryland Residential Codes Project.

Bringing Housing Home March 8-12

We must have 250 applications by June 8 in order to proceed. This is open to all HBA members, companies, their employees and their families.

The association is working with the DMV to have a state license plate for home builders. The preliminary interest application is online at www.hbawv.org and should be sent to the state office with your processing fee.
