A Note from the Director

Seussical creates a musical world that not only entertains but challenges you to think. Sanford Meisner, the mind behind the Meisner technique, once said “with a developed imagination, there’s no place you can’t go.” This message truly epitomizes the the stories within Seussical the Musical and embraces our message at the Studio: Be Bold, Be Brave, Be YOU. Because after all, “there is no one alive who is youer than you.” Our mission at the Acting Studio is life skills through stage skills, and the adaptability, trust, and dedication that this incredible cast has exhibited throughout this process has proven the value of this motto more than ever before. These students have put their heart and souls into this production, and I know you will be just as proud of them as we are. To the production team, Vahn Phollurxa, Tiffany Murphy, and Kennedy Styron, thank you for going above and beyond to create the most incredible production experience possible. To our founders - Shane & Erica Peterman and Kellie Carroll, thank you for creating such a special place for young artists to learn and grow. To our students and families, thank you for trusting us and joining us in this new and memorable artistic journey. And to my family and wonderful husband, thank you for all that you have done to ensure the success of our production!

A Note from the Musical Director

Getting across the magic and absurdity of Dr. Seuss in a musical form requires more than just the 506 pages of music and learning the notes and rhythms. Ms. Hannah and Ms. Tiffany have worked so hard in making this show happen and I am so delighted to be given the opportunity for theatre during a time of record breaking events. Multiple ones. As you all sit back to enjoy the show, I ask you to keep this Dr. Seuss quote in mind – it has been a great motto for me whilst music directing, and I think it is great advice for those watching this production: ‘If things start happening, don’t worry, don’t stew, just go right along and you’ll start happening too.’

I hope you have as much fun watching Seussical as we have had preparing it for you!

Life Skills Through Stage Skills

Thoughts from a mom

We see it hanging on the green walls...we read it in the playbill...we hear it from these adults who have become mentors to our children...and our children repeat it. As I observed the process of this production becoming what you are seeing tonight, this statement took on a new meaning for me. Yes, I have been sending my kids here for many years (they live in the green walls, really!) and I've often had to explain and justify the time commitment to people outside the walls. I've reached the age where it seems the norm to complain about this next generation but what I've seen this week is two of "this generation" that were raised in the walls do work with cooperation, respect, professionalism and a maturity that is well beyond their years. Why are your kids here?...for me its because of the adults they will become when they've mastered these life skills through stage skills.

Our mission is to teach life skills through stage skills. As working professionals in this industry, theatre has shaped who we are. It is our passion to inspire and nurture both the artistic and personal growth of our students at the Acting Studio. Our goal is for each student to develop a healthy sense of self-worth, have the courage to make mistakes and be prepared to go out into the world with the tools and the confidence to live truthfully and make their mark in the world.

Choreographer's Note

I am so excited to be a part of this amazing team putting on Suessical the Musical. This super talented cast of performers have taken up the challenge of putting this show in a thrust theater. It's so inspiring that this group of performers have, with some direction, created such a beautiful show for you to see today that praises Friendship and being different. I could not be more proud of all the work everyone on and off stage has put into creating this stunning show.

I was first drawn to want to be a part of this musical because of the story it tells. That a challenge in life should not teach you to be fearful, but instead help you become a person who can rise to the occasion and persevere. Dr. Suess has been a big part of my life every year when growing up my mother would always start off the school year by reading "Oh the Places You'll go" to my siblings and I. The Cat in the Hat has always been a favorite of mine since I can remember.

I would like to thank the entire production team of this show for granting me this opportunity once again to choreograph an Acting Studio Rockwall Show. I wish this wonderful, talented, magical, and beautiful cast and family a wonderful show. Be ready to see an amazingly "Suess!" Performance!

Tiffany Murphy

ACTING

THE ACTING STUDIO

About the Studio

The Acting Studio is a place for actors, singers and dancers of all ages to study and grow in the theatrical arts. The studio opened in the fall of 2009 in Grapevine, TX. Then in the fall of 2012 expanded with their location in Frisco. Owners Shane and Erica Peterman believe strongly in raising the bar for young artists while having fun! We offer classes in all three aspects of the performing arts and produce three full-scale productions each year.

Our Philosophy

The Acting Studio is a studio for excellence in the theatrical arts. We believe in teaching life skills through stage skills in a professional and positive environment. Excellence begins in the classroom and filters onto the stage, into the work and, most importantly, into the lives of our students. Each class, rehearsal and production are lead by positive, qualified instructors who truly care about shaping their student's character as well as sharpening their performance skills.

STUDIO

TRAIN. TRAVEL.

The Triple Threat

Conservatory is an exciting opportunity for students to train with professionals in the industry, perform both locally and abroad, tour in the summer to exciting locations, and give back to their community through our outreach program.

Do you want to be a performer who can do it all?
