

Hola Parents! Feliz Día de San Valentín (Happy Valentine's Day!)

Once more, Liesl and I are coming together to help you teach Spanish to your homeschooler! Growing up in Guatemala I remember how I used to celebrate Valentine's Day with my friends. It was a day to celebrate "friendship" we also called it "El Día de la Amistad" (The Day of Friendship).

Have fun learning the words and make them part of your Valentine's Day. Maybe you want to make Spanish cards and give them to your friends or family members. Here are a few phrases in Spanish that you could write in a Valentine's Day card:

- I love you! -- ¡Te amo!
- I am glad you are my friend! -- Me alegro de que seas mi amigo
- Thank you for being my friend! -- ¡Gracias por ser mi amigo!
- I am happy when I am with you. -- Soy feliz cuando estoy contigo.

Also, here is a bilingual song you can sing along to complement your learning. Enjoy!

In addition, I want to share some exciting news! Many parents have requested a Spanish course for Primary Years. I am in the process of putting together the themes, the structure and the logistics of the course. My focus will be primary ages from grades K-6th, by the way I also have a personal reason to create the course my 7 year old daughter have asked for it! If you would like to receive more information about the course please sign up below and you will be the first one to know about the latest update.
