Designed by Kristen Hutton Connor Michalek As I write this letter in late August, it's amazing to think about, but with the fall season coming together like the pieces in a jigsaw, we've got a week of quiet going into Labor Day weekend. Our midyear numbers put us at #1 in the world, and with the fall we've lined up including this spectacular auction, we have every expectation of holding on to that number.

This auction is the type we love to put together. Myriad cellars, with an unparalleled selection of fine wines. One of my favorites has to be Fine Wines from the Esteemed Collection of a Lady (Lots 844-1154). There are far too few women wine collectors in our universe and that's got to change! She has been a client of mine at Zachys since I started over a decade ago, and a collector for years before that. In fact, she comes from a family of collectors. Not only does she have 2005 Romanée-Conti and multiple vintages of Haut-Brion Blanc, 1990 Haut-Brion and Latour, she has the wines of Vietti, Ygay, Cerbaiona and Didier Dagueneau's Asteroïde. Now that's a palate I can get behind.

Other amazing collections in this auction include The Magnificent Private Cellar of Ambassador James Pipkin (Lots 676-696), a cellar of wonderful provenance, with a great story behind it. Ambassador Pipkin has been collecting for decades and has taken special care with the wines in his collection. The Pristine Cellar of Joseph Ward (Lots 697-843) comes from the longtime Wine Editor/Wine Writer at Condé Nast Travel. Every bottle from Mr. Ward's collection was bought by Mr. Ward himself, on release. There's no better stamp of confidence than when the owner himself puts his name to the collection.

We're excited to be back at Zuma for this auction, and for its companion auction, The White Tie Collection II the preceding evening. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me or any Zachys specialist.

We'll see you at the sale!

Cheers,

Jamie Pollack Global Managing Director

Raiding the Reserve Cellar

Zachys is pleased to feature our new dinner series Raiding the Reserve Cellar.

These bespoke dinners will provide guests with rare opportunities to indulge in comparative tastings of the greatest wines ever made.

From a DRC Richebourg vertical to a Château Latour vertical going back to the 1911 vintage, complete with President Frédéric Engerer in attendance. These dinners are always highly soughtafter and very exclusive. We limit each dinner to 14 guests, so everyone can fully experience the wines.

Please stay tuned for information on our fall lineup, which will be posted on our Zachys tasting page.

Alternatively, you can contact your host Shoshana Filene for information (sfilene@zachys.com).

Looking for a pristine selection of top Bordeaux from the legendary 2010 vintage? Look no further. Our consignor, having accumulated such an extensive collection, has to thin out a few items which are held in storage in very large quantity. The follow lots have been held in Bordeaux (and remain so today!) since their original en premiere purchase and include some of the most sought-after names in France - Ausone, Haut-Brion, and La Mission Haut-Brion. Rarely seen cases of Duclot Collection are also on offer here and not to be missed.

Note on location and shipment: Please note all wines in this consignment are currently held in bond in a professional temperature-controlled wine warehouse in Bordeaux and will not be available for shipment until 6-8 weeks after the auction. There will be two shipments from this warehouse, and Zachys can't accommodate special requests. If a buyer would like his or her purchases to remain in Europe, he or she must take possession of them immediately after the auction. Buyers will then have the following shipping options:

- 1. Complimentary temperature-controlled sea shipment to Zachys NY. Appropriate taxes will apply to purchases.
- 2. Complimentary temperature-controlled sea shipment to Zachys HK.
- 3. If the wines are to remain in France, they can be put into buyers' storage facilities. All fees associated with the accounts, duties/taxes owed & delivery will be charged.

THE BLUE CHIP COLLECTION

The following 96+ point offering hails from one of Europe's top fine wine merchants, coming to us with an expertise in high quality wines with long ageing and investment potential-and this consignment is just that.

The lots that follow concentrate on a diverse selection of the most coveted wines in the world - both "blue chip" and "boutique". Priding themselves on selection and provenance, they've selected only wines that are regarded as 'extraordinary' by Robert Parker Jr's Wine Advocate (in other words, scored 96-100/100), or that have received a similarly high level of recognition from other internationally acclaimed wine critics. This approach is clearly evident in the lots on offer here-they've spared nothing to collect the best of the best, from top vintages of Le Pin, Cheval Blanc and Margaux to Guigal's 100-point 2010 LaLa's.

All wines have been purchased and stored in bond at a state-of-the-art facility in London at a constant temperature of 13 degrees, controlled humidity of between 68-70%, and minimal light and disturbance.

THE MAGNIFICENT PRIVATE CELLAR

AMBASSADOR JAMES PIPKIN

(LOTS 678-696)

Zachys Wine Auctions is truly honored to present a meticulously-curated selection of treasures from the extraordinary cellar of former Ambassador James Pipkin.

Ambassador Pipkin's collection is truly rare, with virtually every bottle having been bought on release - in many instances from the Domaines themselves.

Jim, my friend for more than two decades, has had a fabulous career as a collector. As a young man, his father introduced him to great Burgundy, and the passion grew over time. After completing his studies at Princeton and Harvard Law School (and a clerkship at the United States Supreme Court), Jim moved on to advanced studies at Oxford, where his exposure to great French wine increased exponentially.

He returned to the United States where, as a fledgling lawyer, he started building his wine cellar and also began making regular trips to Burgundy.

Ever the diplomat, Jim's charisma endeared him to many of Burgundy's most cherished producers - many of whom remain his friends to this day and are the source of a notable portion of his cellar.

Jim never sought to acquire "trophies". He simply purchased wines that he liked. As time has passed, however, it is clear that Jim's foresight was formidable. His "drinking wines" have become highly sought - and, more so, because of their impeccable provenance.

Jim's temperature-controlled cellar in the basement of his Maryland home contains so many gems. Always a generous host, Jim has shared numerous bottles with me, and they have been memorable.

You may purchase Jim's bottles with confidence. Provenance, in a private collection, does not get better than this!

Rob Caine

The Cellar of James Pipkin, in His Own Words

My father was the son of a southern Baptist preacher, and drinking was not allowed in the house where he grew up. When I was about 12, my father told me that if I did not drink or smoke until I was 21, he would give me a substantial amount of money. I say "substantial," and it seemed that way at the time, though in retrospect, it was not much. In any event, I said I would try, and I actually did comply with that request.

One exception was made to the "no drinking" pledge. We lived in Pelham Manor, New York. One of our neighbors was the man who headed the Chevaliers du Tastevin in the US (Cliff Weihman). At Cliff's suggestion, my father also became a member of Tastevin. On Christmas Eve every year, Cliff would appear at our front door with two bottles of great Burgundy from his personal cellar. When my father opened them, he would allow me a sip (no more than a thimble-full) and did not consider that sip to be a breach of my promise. So, the first wine I ever had --- and the only wine for many years --- was great Burgundy.

When I was 23, my family took me on an extended summer trip to Europe. Great dinners were definitely part of that trip. But so were mid-day stops in small towns to pick up bread, cheese, ham or pâté, and a bottle of wine. I, as the driver, would then drive into the countryside and find a good place for a picnic. The wine was local and cheap. I remember that it often turned my mouth purple. But I loved those experiences, and wine was becoming a regular part of my life.

Graduate study at Oxford University gave me additional opportunities to explore France and its wines. Then when I returned to the States, I joined a law firm and, for the first time, had some extra money to spend. Beginning in 1965, much of that money went into wine --- especially the wine of Burgundy. At that time, the greatest wines could often be purchased for less than $10, and I recall purchasing the most expensive wines I had ever bought ---- two cases of DRC La Tâche and Grands Echézeaux from the 1961 and 1962 vintages. I paid the staggering price of seven dollars a bottle for those wines.

I never thought of wine as an investment, but rather as something I very much enjoyed consuming at dinner. I bought Frank Schoonmaker's Encyclopedia of Wine and several other wine books. Every night when I opened a bottle, I wrote on a 3x5 card information about the wine, as well as what I read about the characteristics of the vineyard and what the experts had to say about the wine's aroma and taste. I kept that up for several years. (My poor long-suffering wife tolerated my eccentricities).

In the late 1960s, my father became a member of the Tastevin chapter in DC, and he started taking me as his guest. In 1972, I became a member myself. At that time, I was the youngest member of the group, but because I had learned something about wines, I was often asked to discuss a wine at a dinner. I enjoyed that, and it led to later experiences of organizing wine tastings and wine dinners. One of the pivotal moments for me came at a Tastevin event shortly after I joined the group. At one dinner, we drank DRC Grands Echézeaux from both the 1952 and 1953 vintages. Those wines blew my feeble mind. I was stunned. It was a transformative experience, and I decided I wanted more of that. I was really hooked.

I still have a few bottles of the great Burgundies from the 1960s that I purchased during this time period. Some of these bottles are included in the Zachys October auction --- in the hope that they can bring to other people some of the pleasure that those wines have brought to me over many years.

Sincerely,

James Pipkin

THE PRISTINE CELLAR of JOSEPH WARD

(LOTS 697-843)

Joseph Ward was the longtime Wine Editor/Wine Writer at Condé Nast Traveler, but he began his wine writing career in London in the mid-1980s with The Wall Street Journal Europe. After returning to the US he continued buying wine from English merchants. The list includes long established pillars of the London fine wine trade: Berry Bros. & Rudd, Corney & Barrow, and OW Loeb, as well as newer merchants in London and beyond: Armit, Private Cellar, and Yapp Brothers. Ward's relationship with a few of these merchants stretches back nearly forty years.

His collection is wide ranging but particularly strong in Burgundy, the northern Rhône, Piedmont, and Tuscany. Most of the wines in this sale were purchased upon release in England, and stored in merchants' cellars until being shipped to New York for this sale. The rest come from Ward's own cellar or from his storage account with Zachys. He is also a longtime customer of ours. In every instance Ward is the first and only owner.

DUJAC

This domaine was founded in 1968 by Jacques Seysses and currently comprises approximately fifteen hectares. Winemakers Jeremy and Diana Seysses have been at the helm of the Domaine since 2001. They believe that the success of their wines lie in the team effort at the Domaine from their Chef de Culture in the vineyard, Lilian Robin, to Jeremy's brother, Alec, and father, Jacques, who contribute in the cellar. In 2009, the Domaine began its conversion to total biodynamic farming practices. The Domaine chooses to emphasize intensity over power and prides itself on producing individualistic wines that are elegant, delicate, and complex.

ARMAND ROUSSEAU

One will get little argument to the assertion that Domaine Armand Rousseau is the finest estate in Gevrey-Chambertin...

The vintages of the 1980s and 1990s at Domaine Rousseau have produced one of the greatest runs of profound Burgundy ever witnessed by any estate in the region, with the domaine producing legendary efforts in the widely recognized great years of the span from 1985 to 1999. Their two flagship bottlings of Chambertin and Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" have always ranked amongst the top dozen wines to be found in these vintages.

Of the two Grand Crus at the pinnacle of the brilliant portfolio of Rousseau wines, the Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" tends to be the more exotic and spicy of the two wines, with glorious fruit tones of black cherry, plum, blood orange often augmented by notes of Gevrey's grilled meat, chocolate and exotic spices. The Chambertin is typically the slightly slower wine to unfold, with a more understated profile of plum, red cherry and strawberry, coupled with notes of cocoa powder, coffee, grilled meats and violets... impeccably balanced, tangy and never come across as over-oaked. They are amongst the very greatest red wines to be found in the world.

COMTE GEORGES DE VOGÜÉ

Delicate, feminine and fragrant, the epitome of finesse: lace, silk and taffeta; violets and dog-roses; raspberries and blackcurrants with a finish of liquorice; amplitude and generosity; intensity without a trace of hardness. All this has been said by those attempting to describe the taste of Le Musigny. Le Musigny consists of two sub-climats, Le Musigny itself and at the same altitude next door to the south, Les Petits-Musigny. The lion's share, more than seven hectares, almost seventy percent, and including the totality of Les Petites-Musigny, belongs to the Domaine Comte Georges de Vogüé. This estate proclaims itself the Domaine des Musigny. The domaine also comprise 2.75 hectares of Bonnes-Mares, located entirely in the southern, Chambolle end of the climat, sixty ares of Amoureuses, 1.80 hectares of Premiers Crus (Baudes and Fuées) and a small parcel of village wine. Wines of the domaine are defined as classy and fragrant, very exciting indeed. The domaine is in good hands. The future is bright.

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

Joseph Leflaive was a very astute purchaser of vineyard land during the first two decades of the twentieth century, so that today the domaine's roster of vineyards is the greatest constellation of white Burgundy patrimony in the Côte de Beaune. These include just under two full hectares in Chevalier-Montrachet, an equal slice in Bâtard-Montrachet, a bit more than a hectare in Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet (out of a total of 2.3 hectares), just over three hectares in the beautiful Premier Cru of Pucelles, three-quarters of a hectare in Combettes, 1.27 hectares in Folatières, and nearly five hectares in Premier Cru Clavoillon. In 1991, the topping on the cake was added when the domaine purchased a very small, .08 hectare slice of Le Montrachet itself.

RHÔNE

Considered widely as the quintessential Hermitage producer, Chave typifies traditionalism in both viticulture and his winemaking philosophy. The Domaine, begun in 1481, has been handed down from generation to generation. While Gerard Chave still maintains a presence, it is his son, Jean-Louis who is at the helm making some of the best wines in France, if not the world over. The family owns eight plots of land on the hill of Hermitage and in a time when single vineyard Cuvées are all the rage, still holds true to the belief that the assemblage of all of the grapes produces a more complex, powerful and artisanal wine. To Jean-Louis the soil differences found in each plot of land profoundly affect production which is why the expression of the blend is superior to the single vineyard. Chave is passionate about allowing the grapes to achieve complete ripeness via a long hang time on the vine and therefore the wines exude profound extraction as well as substantial alcohol. There is also a natural selection of low yielding fruit due to an average vine age of sixty years or more which adds greater intensity to the wines. The vineyards are farmed organically and the horse and plough are utilized to this day!

The Hermitage Rouge is made of 100 percent Syrah while the Blanc is generally eighty percent Marsanne and twenty percent Roussanne. In vinification, contrary to modernist techniques once again, Chave eschews new oak, using only ten percent for the Rouge and mostly old oak and stainless steel for the fermentation and aging of the Blanc. The white Hermitage has the texture and richness of a great white Burgundy with immense complexity and the ability to age substantially. When serving the Blanc, Jean-Louis advises that they are not chilled too much, and are always decanted for a short period. The Rouge is a highlight.

MASSETO

Masseto is the famous 100% Merlot IGT...and is regarded as one of the best expressions of Merlot in the world. The Merlot vines are cultivated in alluvial, sandy-clayey soils that are rich in minerals. The same care and attention is paid in the vineyard as Ornellaia, with meticulous vineyard husbandry and rigorous sorting.

However the vinification is slightly different, with alcoholic fermentation carried out in wooden vats rather than stainless-steel, ranging in size from 65hl to 125hl. The wine is racked and then transferred into oak barriques where is remains for 24 months, with blending at 12 months.

From one of this country's great collectors comes this offering: the cornerstone to our October auction. This offering was lovingly curated over the years, and the attention to detail shows. She has been a client of Zachys for years, and a collector for decades. In fact, she comes from a family of collectors. Not only are the legends present and accounted for: multiple bottles of 2005 Romanée-Conti, 1996 DP Oenothèque, 2005 DRC Assortment, multiple vintages of Haut-Brion Blanc, 1990 Haut-Brion and Latour, as well as the wines of Sassicaia, Chave and more. What so wonderful about this collection is that it dives deeper than we are sometimes accustomed to, with the wines of Vietti, Ygay, Cerbaiona and even Didier Dagueneau's rare Asteroïde. Our consignor has decided to thin her collection, keeping only the 15% she plans to drink—the rest she has decided to share with Zachys clients!

The wines in this offering were stored at either Berry Bros & Rudd (where they were stored since purchase on release) or Domaine Storage in New Jersey until removed for this sale.

CHÂTEAU HAUT-BRION

Haut-Brion has the longest history of all the First Growths. It was even mentioned by Samuel Pepys in his diary entry of April 10,1663, when he was dining at the Royal Oak Tavern in Lombard Street, London: "...and here drank a sort of French wine called Ho Bryan that hath a good and most particular taste I never met with."

The famous Pontac family set up the estate in the first portion of the sixteenth century. Wealthy and well connected, they had the means to promote the wine in fashionable places, and by the early 1700s it was as well known as a wine of the highest quality.

While parts were split off, the estate stayed with the family until it was passed to Joseph Fumél in 1780. He was largely responsible for creating much of what we see today, including the buildings, the gardens and the general layout of the property. He famously hosted a visit from Thomas Jefferson on May 25, 1787, and became Mayor of Bordeaux three years later.

With its popularity waning under a succession of different owners, the estate was finally put up for auction in 1836, where it was purchased by the Larreau family. Two years later, in 1838, they managed to acquire a further piece of the estate previously lost through inheritance laws.

Although it was included as a First Growth in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux, difficult times lay ahead. A further succession of owners and the depression of the early 1930s forced another sale. This time, successful American financier Clarence Dillon stepped up, and for a little under $200,000 walked away with the estate. It remains in the Dillon family today.

Vineyards, Winemaking and the Delmas Family

No discussion of the wines of Haut-Brion can be complete without a mention of the Delmas family, who have managed the property since 1923—first George Delmas, then his son Jean-Bernard, and today Jean-Philippe. It is not only unusual but also massively fortunate for Haut-Brion to have the care and attention of such a talented family of technical directors.

Jean-Philippe Delmas is a clever, tirelessly devoted man, and the solid support and financial backing of the Dillon family has enabled him and his team to produce an extremely consistent wine. I always look forward to visiting Château Haut-Brion, not just because the wines are superb and the people great, but also because it is unique and has an important place in the history of Bordeaux.

CHÂTEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD

For as long as anyone can remember, Lafite has been the most highly regarded wine in Bordeaux. From their very first book, published in 1845, Cocks & Feret have listed Lafite first, and it was ranked first in the famous 1855 classification of Bordeaux.

Fite is an old French term meaning small hill, rise or mound: it is from this humble feature in Bordeaux' somewhat bland landscape that France's most esteemed producer takes its name. The château itself is one of the oldest in Bordeaux, with much of it dating from the mid-sixteenth century. It was purchased by the wealthy Ségur family in the seventeenth century, but like much of the region at the time, the land was used for a variety of farming.

Beginning in the 1670s, the Ségurs spent around twenty years converting a large portion of the land to vineyards. With Latour and Calon, as well as Lafite, under their ownership, the Ségurs began to find a market for their wines in London. It was first mentioned in the London Gazette in 1707 and soon became famous: by the early 1730s, it was a favorite of the Prime Minister, Robert Walpole.

Lafite remained in the Ségur family until 1784. It was sold several times, finally to Baron de Rothschild in 1868, by which time there were some seventy-four hectares of vines. It was a new era of industrial wealth and the Rothschild purchase certainly added much celebrity to the area.

CHÂTEAU LATOUR

Some of my fondest wine memories are of drinking wine bottles of the renowned Château Latour. It is, without a doubt, one of the greatest wine estates in the world. While its history goes well back to the fourteenth century, Latour began to be clearly defined as one of the greatest wine estates in the world in the mid-nineteenth century, and amazingly, It has kept that position for the last 150 years. Their wines, which are known for their power, richness and longevity, are sought after by collectors and wine lovers throughout the world.

As Robert M. Parker says of Château Latour in The World's Greatest Wine Estates, "The wine produced here has been an impeccable model of consistent excellence, in great, mediocre, and poor vintages. For that reason, many have long considered Latour to be the Médoc's finest wine... Latour remains one of the most concentrated, rich, tannic, and full-bodied wines in the world."

In 2000, I had the wonderful opportunity to taste over twenty-five vintages of Château Latour, including fourteen wines older than 1961 and four from the nineteenth century. It was an evening I will never forget. The wines were so rich, alive and fresh. What an extraordinary experience it was to be able to taste the 1900 and the 1899 side by side and discuss the differences, or to argue whether the 1955 or the 1949 is showing better right now (at my table we all thought the 1955 had the slight edge). In the end we tasted Latour from a 125 year span and although there was a lot of discussion about which were the better wines, the final conclusion of everyone in the room was that, "Latour makes some of greatest wines that any of us have ever tasted."

PÉTRUS

Pétrus today is a little over eleven hectares, including five hectares purchased in 1969 from neighboring Château Gazin. The vineyards have clay topsoil and gravelly subsoil, allowing good initial water retention but excellent longer term drainage. The vines are old, around forty to fifty years, planted with ninety percent Merlot and five percent Cabernet Franc. To increase concentration the vines are pruned extensively and a green harvest is performed. At harvest time, nearly two hundred workers pick the grapes at their peak of balance and ripeness. Sometimes up to four passes are needed but if pressed, as in 1982, the entire harvest can be completed in just one day.

The grapes are partially destemmed and after a fairly lengthy maceration period, sometimes almost a month, the wine spends twenty months in new oak before being fined (but not filtered) and bottled. Pétrus is a classic example of careful vineyard management and winemaking yet the result leaves evidence of something even greater. These methods combine with exquisite terroir for Merlot to create something that is, in good vintages, not only earth-shatteringly tasty, but distinctive, lending the name Pétrus majesty because of its quality but also its inimitability.

CHÂTEAU LA MISSION HAUT-BRION

Although the histories of Château Haut-Brion and La Mission are entwined, both have always been separate entities, sharing a common family name. It is only since 1983 that they have shared the same proprietor when it was taken over by the owners of Haut-Brion...

On November 2nd 1983, the present owners acquired La Mission after the owner Francis Dewavrin was unable to resolved internal family disputes over the way the property was managed and it marks a convergence of histories between Château Haut-Brion and La Mission, though only in the sense that they share the same owner: Clarence Dillon. He enlisted Jean-Bernard Delmas as Château-manager and there followed a period that has consolidated La Mission's position as one of the greatest estates, hovering just outside the First Growths.

Their commitment to innovation and improvements has been a catalyst for many estates in the Graves region to improve their wines, particularly with respect of clonal selection research. In 1987 the old chai was renovated, a new state-of-the-art cuvier was installed and a new bottling line was implemented in 1996. It must be emphasized that the estates are treated as separate entities, even though at some point the vines of both run side-byside. In 2003 Jean-Bernard retired and handed the reins over to his son, Jean-Philippe Delmas.

The Wines

Certainly since the arrival of Jean-Bernard Delmas the style of wine has improved: the wine is more pure and the volatile acidity has been eradicated. At its best (the 1966, 1975, 1998) La Mission is a massive, tannic behemoth that has more in common with Château Latour than Château Haut-Brion. It is a powerful, sturdy wine with firm tannins and admirable longevity...

This is definitely one of the most intriguing wines in Bordeaux: the appeal of La Mission is that it seems to avoid the vagaries of wine-making trends and wears its heart on its sleeve. This is a classic wine in every sense of the word and it can make a seamless match with food. A poor La Mission is still a better wine than most; a good La Mission is a great wine and a great La Mission can be a religious experience. I have met few wine-critics who do not hold this estate in high esteem: it is a wine for true wine-lovers.

CHÂTEAU LAFLEUR

Originally part of the Le Gay estate, Lafleur is owned by the Robin family, also owners of Le Gay until 2002. Today Lafleur is managed by Jacques Guinaudeau, a cousin of the owners. The vineyard is just 200 meters from Pétrus and although gravelly in appearance, the soils do contain a fair amount of clay. The vines here are fairly old, having largely avoided the 1956 frost, and the yields are low, just twenty-six hl/ha. The grapes are total destemmed, and the wines spend roughly sixteen to twenty months in fifty percent new oak barriques.

This is an extremely rich and heady wine, like liquid velvet, big and muscular when young, but mellowing wonderfully in time. Unfortunately for the many fans of Lafleur, production is a meager 1000 to 1200 cases a year.

CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM

Château d'Yquem is the apex qualitatively and the centre geographically of the Sauternes area. Each major property occupies its own little hill. Yquem's is the highest. It is also the largest estate, the most perfectionistic, the most consistent. Unlike the rest of the region there was no cutting of corners, no lack of investment, no dip in quality in the sad days of the 1960s and 1970s.

At Youem we have Sauternes winemaking at its most perfectionistic. The vines are pruned to yield nine hl/ ha-one glass per vine (as opposed to a full bottle in a classified growth red wine château). Collection of the grapes is berry by botrytised berry, rather than by bunch or half-bunch elsewhere. The grapes are crushed in a small horizontal hydraulic press in three stages. Unlike in Champagne, for example, the first pressing does not necessarily give the best wine. There is no débourbage before the wine is put into cask. Fermentation and ageing is in new oak, of course, the latter taking place in a splendid underground cellar, constructed in 1987. The assemblage is late and the wine is not bottled for three years or more. Only then is it put on the market...

There is something very special, and indeed very consistent, about Yquem. The wine is more oaky than most in its youth. It is by quite some way the richest, most concentrated, most intense wine of its kind. In great years-I have a marginal preference for 1989 over 1990 and 1988-it is nectar: the liquid quintessence of concentrated sunbeams, to quote Thomas Love Peacock.

BURGUNDY

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

The domaine is known for picking very late, sometimes, as in 1978, later than any other producers. They prune endlessly, make many passes through the vineyards at harvest and sort grapes rigorously both in the vineyard and at the winery. Average age of the vines is around thirty-five to forty-five years with yields typically around thirty hl/ha. The wines are aged in new French oak casks for approximately twenty months. There is usually only one racking and since 1985 the wines from all casks in each cru have been blended together prior to bottling to reduce bottle variation. Recently they have been moving towards biodynamic viticultural practices. Like many of the region's leading growers they have seen concrete evidence of soil and vine health improvement. It's hard to imagine that these wines could get better, but that is what separates them from the rest of the pack: an unrelenting pursuit for perfection in the Pinot Noir grape. In addition to the majestic reds, a white is also produced from a plot in Montrachet.

1155-1158 NO LOTS

WINES SOLD TO BENEFIT ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH (LOTS 1159-1161)

All proceeds from these lots will benefit St Mark's-in-the-Valley Community Services based in Los Olivos, Santa Ynez Valley, California.

Every rural wine-producing region needs public institutions that serve everyone very broadly. St Mark's-in-the-Valley Episcopal Church serves the Santa Ynez Valley in many ways: as a no-fee community center for non-profit groups and community meetings, as a daily welcome center for area visitors, residents and workers, and as an arts venue for concerts and art exhibits, in addition to being home to an Episcopal parish. Annually, St Mark's serves more than 100 regional organizations and special programs with meeting and event space. It is also home to a top-flight professional preschool and to the area's Jewish community. A certified community kitchen to address food insecurity is in the works. These community services are supported by members of St Mark's and generous donors from the wider community making available these key community services.

The wines were generously donated by a longtime collector with an amazing home cellar filled with only the finest gems.

THE WINE COLLECTION OF GAIL AND STEPHEN FREIFELD REVISITED (LOTS 1164-1187)

From dear friends of Zachys is a new portion of a collection that has graced these catalog pages on several occasions. From two, separate, subterranean dark and temperature-controlled cellars the Zachys team found a treasure-trove of rare wines, almost entirely bought on release by Dr. Freifeld himself. Even those wines decades-old were bought by Dr. Freifeld, and they've only ever been in his cellar not far from New York City. This offering, like the cellar itself, runs the gamut of rare wines, from mature Guigal and Bonneau with decades of bottle age, to 1985 La Tâche and Richebourg from DRC. The 1966 La Mouline from Guigal is a particular standout. Wines tasted from the cellar have all retained the freshness and aromatic complexity one expects from storage such as this. Bid with confidence!

A SUPER-RARE OFFERING OF OLD YQUEM (LOTS 1188-1193)

Too often, Yquem is relegated to a position after dinner, but with truly rare vintages such as those in this offering, Yquem should be the star of the show. Vintages like '37, '47 and '53 are rarely if ever seen at auction, and the 2001 is well on its way to becoming the greatest Yquem ever. All of the wines have been in the consignor's temperature and humidity controlled cellar since acquisition nearly 20 years ago.

A VERTICAL OF SCREAMING EAGLE 2002-2016 (LOTS 1194-1209)

This impressive vertical collection of Screaming Eagle was built through patience, with the consignor acquiring each vintage directly on release from the mailing list. Most are untouched in their original three-pack wooden cases. The collector sent each case to the Zachys wine storage facility where they have been stored untouched until being sent to auction.

CALIFORNIA

SCREAMING EAGLE

It's rare. It's expensive. And there's a mystique about it. But Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon is no pretender. It's the real thing, and it deserves to be considered among Napa Valley's prestige wines...

You can't make wine this magnificent without fabulous grapes, and Screaming Eagle clearly comes from a spectacular vineyard...on the east side of Oakville, near the Oakville Crossroad...While ripening Cabernet (and smaller amounts of Merlot and Cabernet Franc) is routinely easy in this area, one of the trademarks of Oakville Cabernet is that the wines often display an herbal quality that manifests itself in a variety of subtleties, including hints of anise, sage, dusty berry, cedar and occasionally a whiff of new leather and tar. You find these shades of herb in Cabernets like Heitz Martha's Vineyard (grown on the west side of Oakville), with its signature minty currant personality, or Groth, which is one of the cooler sites on the valley floor. Screaming Eagle captures the best of all these elements. It also epitomizes exquisite balance, managing both to be enormously complex and concentrated, yet elegantly styled, with a smooth, polished texture.

HARLAN ESTATE

Harlan Estate, owned by Bill Harlan, is a luxury, world-class, Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine produced from a steep, terraced vineyard on the western side of Napa Valley, high above Napa's famous Martha's Vineyard. Approximately twenty-four acres are in vine and the yields to date have been very low. Bill Harlan, better-known as one of the principals of Merryvale Vineyards...has only one objective: to produce one of the greatest red wines of California.

The wines are a blend of approximately two-thirds Cabernet Sauvignon and the remainder Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Bob Levy, Merryvale's winemaker and Michel Rolland, the well-known Bordeaux oenologist, are the architects behind these exceptional efforts. Stylistically the wines are the Napa Valley equivalent of a hypothetical La Mission Haut-Brion/Cheval Blanc blend. They are rich, powerful wines with unmistakable elegance, complexity, and purity.

Robert Parker, "The Wine Advocate"

The ultimate garage wine from southern California emanates from a rusty warehouse that appears to be on the wrong side of the railroad tracks running through Ventura. The winery's name is Sine Qua Non (literally translated from Latin means "without which one cannot".), and as the proprietors'(the husband and wife team of Elaine and Manfred Krankl) indicate on the label of their sumptuous 1997 Syrah called Imposter McCoy, "the truth is inside"...

SCHRADER

Fred Schrader began his life as a vintner with one defining goal in mind, to create benchmark Cabernets from the best vineyards in the Napa Valley. Fifteen years later with seventeen 100-point scores under his belt from the likes of Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate and James Laube, The Wine Spectator, Schrader Cellars continues to define itself as one of the best producers of Cabernet in the history of American wine. Receiving more 100-point scores than any other winery in the history of American wine, 2016 marks a special year in the lifetime of Schrader Cellars.

The story of Schrader Cellars began in 2001 when Fred met Thomas Brown, a little known winemaker who moved to California by way of North Carolina. Thomas took the helm of winemaking for Schrader and he and Fred never looked back. Thomas' methods of non-interventionist winemaking were a novel idea at the time throughout the valley. He believed in showing the true colors of a vineyard and when working with Beckstoffer To Kalon fruit he had access to nothing short of the best.

After a few years of working together, Fred and Thomas found themselves harvesting the incredibly concentrated fruit of the 2006 vintage. Fred looks back on this time with happiness as the 2006 vintage was the first 100-point scores that a Schrader wine received. The 2007 and 2008 vintages brought with them another pair of 100-point scores for the Schrader CCS and Schrader Old Sparky. This was the first time in the 32-year history of The Wine Advocate that a wine received three consecutive 100-point scores for the same marque and Schrader did this with two of their wines.

NOTES

Buying & Bidding Information

Prior to bidding, all participants must read the Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale contained in this catalog that state the terms governing the purchase of alcoholic beverage products sold at auction. By participating in an auction, an auction participant agrees to be bound by the Conditions of Sale printed in this catalog.

Estimates

Catalog lot entries include a description of every lot and an estimated price range that is our opinion of the price expected at auction. Estimates are a guide for bidders and generally reflect prices recently paid at auction for comparable alcoholic beverage products. Each estimate takes into account, among other things, condition, rarity, quality and provenance (history of ownership, to the extent known). Estimates are determined in advance of the sale and are therefore subject to revision. Buyers should not rely upon estimates as a prediction of actual selling prices. Estimates do not include Buyer's Premium or sales tax. Certain lots may be noted with "Estimate on Request" instead of a printed value in the catalog. Please contact a Zachys specialist for further information and bidding assistance.

Buyers Premium

A 23.5% Buyer's Premium will be added to the successful bid price of each lot purchased and is payable by Buyer, together with the applicable sales tax which is applied to the total cost of purchase, as stated in the Conditions of Sale located in this catalog.

Reserves

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots are sold subject to a reserve. A reserve is the confidential minimum price established between Zachys and the consignor. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate for the lot. If any lot in the catalog is not subject to a reserve, the lot will be identified by the symbol (•) next to the lot number.

Examination of Wines

Zachys endeavors to select quality wines for auction and uses leading reputable expert(s) to assist Zachys in examining wines for auction. However, Zachys and any consignor are not liable for any description or error or omission in any description and prospective Buyers cannot rely on Zachys or any consignor. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to examine any lots carefully prior to the auction at our temperature-controlled warehouse and can do so by appointment. Please contact Zachys at +852.2530.1971 or +1.914.448.3026 to set up an appointment.

Bidder Registration

No person shall bid or buy in any auction (or be shipped any property bought in any auction) who has not agreed (either in writing or electronically) to be bound by the Conditions of Sale and this Buying & Bidding Information. If a prospective Buyer has not previously bid with Zachys, a government issued photo identification (such as National Identity Card or Passport) may be required prior to registration for any sale.

If a business organization registers to bid in an auction, a Business Registration or a Certificate of Incorporation and/or proof of director may be required in order to obtain a paddle. First time Buyers may settle invoices by wire transfer or check only. Zachys requires front and back copies of all credit cards for new Buyers along with picture identification.

Prospective Buyers are asked to supply a bank reference to register for the auction. To avoid delay in the release of purchases, please pre arrange check or credit approval through our Finance Department at +852.2530.1971 or +1.914.874.8034. All bidders who wish to attend the auction are asked to preregister for a paddle at least two business days in advance of the auction. If you plan to attend the auction, a Bidder Pre Registration Form is provided in this catalog or at zachys. com. Complete and either fax the form to +852.3014.3838 or +1.914.313.2350 or email the form to asia@zachys.com at least two business days prior to the auction. Bidders should arrive at least 30 minutes before the scheduled sale of the lot on which they plan to bid to retrieve a paddle.

Bidding

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order, as they appear in the catalog. The auctioneer will accept bids from (i) those present in the saleroom, (ii) absentee bidders participating by telephone, online or by written bid provided to Zachys at least 24 hours prior to the first and session of the auction,(iii) or live over the internet. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the consignor's reserve; however, under no circumstances will the auctioneer place any bid on behalf of the consignor at or above the reserve. The auctioneer will not identify bids placed on behalf of the consignor. Prospective Buyers who have registered to bid by more than one method (for example, both as an in-saleroom and absentee bidder) must monitor all of their bidding activities (including in-saleroom bids, absentee bids, and online bids) to prevent bidding against themselves.

Bidding by Zachys

Zachys reserves the right to bid on any lot on its own behalf, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders.

Parcel Lots

A parcel is a sequence of lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type, quantity and bottle size. In this sale the Buyer of the first lot of a parcel will have, at the discretion of the auctioneer, the option to take any or all further lots in the parcel for the same price. If the option is not exercised on all lots in the same parcel, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold lot and offer the Buyer of that lot the option to take any or all of the remaining lots in the parcel sequence. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all lots in the parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer.

Online bidders who purchase the first lot in a parcel will be sent a message requesting that they choose how many additional lots in the parcel they would like to purchase. If an online bidder does not respond to the message, the auctioneer will open the next unsold lot in the sequence.

Absentee, Telephone & Online Bids

Please note: Zachys offers the following services as a convenience to clients. Zachys is not responsible for any error in connection with or failure to execute, absentee, telephone or online bids.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person and wish to place bids, you may give Zachys instructions in writing to bid on your behalf. Zachys' representatives will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, taking into account the reserve price and other bids. This service is free and confidential. To place absentee bids, use the form provided herein or at zachys. com. Be certain to accurately record the lot numbers and the highest hammer price you are willing to pay for the lot. Please note: Your bid amount does not include Buyer's Premium or applicable sales tax. Buyer's Premium and applicable sales tax will be added to the hammer price of each lot.

Absentee bids must be submitted in consecutive numerical order, or they will not be executed. In addition, please use the bid increments included on the absentee bid form. If bids are submitted incorrectly, Zachys will round your bid up to the next increment. Please place bids as early as possible and at least 24 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence. By registering and submitting absentee bids, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Placing Telephone Bids

Prospective Buyers may bid by telephone during the sale. Telephone bids are accepted only at Zachys' discretion and at the prospective Buyer's risk. Because of limited phone lines in the saleroom, Zachys must confirm arrangements for this service at least 48 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. At Zachys' discretion, telephone bids may be limited to lots with a value above HK$16,000 or US$2,000 and may be recorded. By submitting a telephone bid, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Online Bidding

Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from live online bid activity. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer's declaration of winning bid and paddle number shall be determinative. In the event of communication delays or failures, the auction will not be stopped. Live online bidders should consider providing Zachys with emergency absentee bids. By registering and bidding live on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Sales and Other Taxes

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax which Zachys may be required by law to remit to Zachys state of licensure at the time of sale. Applicable sales tax is charged on the successful bid price, Buyer's Premium, and any other applicable charges on any other property purchased by the buyer from Zachys; unless Buyer has a valid exemption therefrom. All such taxes shall be paid by Buyer at the time of delivery to Buyer at Zachys licensed location.

Buyers claiming exemption from sales, use or other tax must provide Zachys with documentation, which, in Zachys' sole discretion and judgment, is satisfactory evidence of such exemption, prior to the release of property to the Buyer. Buyers claiming such exemption who are licensed dealers of alcoholic beverages must submit resale certificates and a copy of their valid licenses to Zachys prior to registering for the sale. All questions regarding sales tax and exemptions should be directed to Zachys Finance Department at +852.2530.1971 or +1.914.874.8034.

Owned or Guaranteed Property

Zachys offers property consigned by others for sale at public auction. Occasionally, lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Zachys. These lots are identified with the symbol

- (III) next to the lot number. On rare occasions, Zachys may guarantee a minimum price to the consignor of property. Such lots are identified in the catalog by the symbol
- (♠) next to the lot number. Guaranteed lots may also be sold subject to a reserve.

Successful Bid

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, at which time the Buyer assumes full responsibility for the lot. Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Successful Buyers will pay the price of the final bid plus a 23.5% Buyer's Premium plus any applicable taxes for each lot purchased.

Payment

Buyers are expected to pay for purchases within 14 calendar days after the auction. At the end of this 14-calendar-day period, Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due. All amounts remaining due after this 14-calendar-day period will be subject to a 2% per month late charge. In addition, any payments in default after 21 calendar days will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the purchase price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the total purchase price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21-calendar-day period. All payments are payments on account until all invoices and all balances due are paid in full. Payment can be made by credit card, check, money order, bank wire transfer or cash. In the event of third-party payments, Zachys may require an Authorization Letter from both parties. Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

For Hong Kong auctions, payment is accepted in both Hong Kong Dollars and United States Dollars. Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall determine the currency exchange rate for all United States Dollar payments with respect to sales conducted in Hong Kong.

To avoid delays in the release of your purchases, prospective Buyers are requested to supply bank references prior to the auction. Buyers wishing to make payment by credit card must present the card in person at or prior to the auction. All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys and the applicable credit card company. Zachys will accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover. The maximum amount allowed to be charged on credit cards is limited to HK$100,000 or US$10,000 per auction. Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess a 3% late penalty charge, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed HK$100,000 or US$10,000.

In the event a charge or check is not accepted by the appropriate financial institution, Buyer remains liable for all amounts owed on date due. Buyers wishing to pay for purchases via wire transfer should contact Zachys' Customer Service by calling +852.2530.1971 or +1.914.448.3026 or email asia@zachys.com.

When paying by wire transfer, please be sure to reference the invoice number in the details field.

Collection of Purchases

Buyers are expected to remove their property within 14 calendar days of the auction. Prospective Buyers' attention is drawn to the Conditions of Sale, including Condition 9.

Collection & Delivery

For your convenience, Zachys' Collection & Delivery Form is located in this catalog. It is the Buyer's responsibility to pick up purchases or make shipping arrangements within 14 calendar days of the auction. Zachys will not automatically arrange for the delivery of purchased products. After payment has been received, Zachys can assist in the arrangement of packing, transit insurance, and shipping at the Buyers' expense, direction and request.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Delivery Restrictions

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

Shipment of Spirits

Prospective Buyers should be advised there are certain restrictions regarding the shipment of spirits. Many countries and states impose limitations on quantity, high duties, and/ or taxes, and prospective Buyers should be aware of export and import restrictions.

Translation

The terms and conditions have originally been drafted in English. In the event that any translation of the terms and conditions are prepared, the provisions of the English version shall prevail.

Conditions of Sale

These Conditions of Sale are Zachys' and the Consignor's entire agreement with the Buyer with respect to the property listed in this catalog. The Conditions of Sale and all other contents of this catalog may be amended by posted notices or oral announcements made during the sale. The property will be offered by Zachys as agent for the Consignor, unless the catalog indicates otherwise. By participating in an auction, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

This catalog endeavors to describe the property listed herein accurately. However, Zachys and the Consignor shall not be liable for any such description and expressly disclaim any representation or warranty regarding the origin, physical condition, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, correctness of catalog description, size, quality, condition, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, importance, provenance, previous storage conditions or historical relevance of any property herein. Zachys further retains the absolute right to amend at any time and in any manner any description of any property contained herein. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and based on standard sources. Buyers must make appropriate allowances for natural variations in ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. Each statement contained in any catalog and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made at an auction or in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, posting, notice, announcement or otherwise, is a statement of opinion only and shall not be relied upon by any Buyer or otherwise be deemed a warranty or representation. Images appearing in this catalog or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not be relied upon to reveal imperfections in any products. Zachys and the Consignor make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to whether the Buyer acquires any copyright or other reproduction rights in any property. Neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable for errors or omissions in the catalog or any supplemental material. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to inspect the property before the auction, including the cases, labels, corks and wines, and must satisfy themselves by inspection or other means as to all considerations pertinent to any decision to place any bid. EACH PRODUCT AND EACH LOT HEREIN IS SOLD "AS IS," AND BUYERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY RELIANCE ON ZACHYS, THE CONSIGNOR, OR THE CATALOG.

The purchase price payable by the Buyer ("Purchase Price") will be the sum of the final bid price (the "Hammer Price"), the Buyer's Premium and the Protection Fee, together with any applicable sales tax. The Buyer's Premium is 23.5% of the Hammer Price. The Protection Fee is 1% of the Hammer Price plus the Buyer's Premium.

Zachys reserves the right to withdraw any property or cancel any sale before or at the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal or cancellation.

Zachys reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or any other issue with respect to the bidder, the auctioneer will have absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the property in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, Zachys' sale record is conclusive.

In its sole discretion, Zachys may accept and execute absentee bids (written bids submitted to Zachys prior to the sale), telephone bids and internet bids as a convenience to clients who are not present at auction.

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots in this catalog are offered subject to a reserve, which is the minimum price the Consignor is willing to accept. This amount is confidential and will not exceed the low presale estimate. Lots not subject to a reserve are identified with the symbol (d) next to the lot number. Zachys shall act to protect the reserve by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing successive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.

Title to the offered lot passes to the Buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and the announcement by the auctioneer that the lot has been sold, subject to compliance by the Buyer with all other Conditions of Sale.

The Protection Fee is 1% of the hammer price plus the Buyer's Premium for all arranged deliveries and pickups of purchased property. In return for payment of the Protection Fee, purchased property will be protected solely against breakage, loss, theft or fire as covered by Zachys' insurance while stored in Zachys warehouse and in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot and shall immediately pay such part of the Purchase Price as Zachys, in its sole discretion, requires.

No property may be removed from Zachys' premises until Buyer has paid the Purchase Price in full plus all other fees and taxes (inclusive of any taxes due in the location of the auction on Buvers who are not residents of such location) and has satisfied such terms as Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall require. Zachys reserves the right to withhold all property until such time as all outstanding amounts are paid in full from purchases from any prior auction(s). Upon receipt of full payment, Zachys will issue a Release Order, which must be presented in order for Zachys to release purchases made at auction. Subject to the foregoing, all lots are to be paid for no later than 4:30 PM of the fourteenth calendar day following the live sale, and removed from Zachys' premises at Buyer's expense no later than 30 calendar days after the date of sale. If payment is not made within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for net sales, Zachys reserves the right to impose a late charge of up to 2% per month of the Purchase Price, in addition to any other rights and remedies available by law to Zachys. Any payments in default after 21 calendar days of purchase will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the Purchase Price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the Purchase Price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21-calendar-day period. If Buyer fails either to timely remove the purchased lots from Zachys' premises or make timely arrangements with New York Fine Wine Storage to store the purchased lots, Zachys may transfer such property to a public warehouse for the account, and at the risk and expense, of Buyer, If a lot has not been collected within 30 calendar days of the date of sale and Zachys does not transfer the uncollected property to a public warehouse, Buyer will be liable to Zachys for interest, storage fees, and handling charges of $2.75 per 9 liters of wine.

Zachys is not responsible for acts or omissions by itself or others in packing or shipping, whether or not the carrier or packer is recommended by Zachys. Packing and handling of purchased lots are entirely at the risk of Buyer. Zachys may, at the request and direction of Buyer and for an administrative fee, make arrangements for the consolidated shipment by common carrier of the purchased lots, provided that Zachys is not liable in any way therefor.

11

If Buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions of Sale, Buyer will be in default and Zachys may avail itself of all remedies available by law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) hold such defaulting Buyer liable for the Purchase Price including all fees, charges and expenses, (ii) cancel the sale of that lot and any other property sold to Buyer, (iii) resell the property without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to the Buyer, (iv) pay the Consignor an amount equal to the net proceeds payable in respect of the amount bid by the defaulting Buyer and then resell the property to a third party without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to such Buyer, and (v) take such other action as Zachys deems necessary or appropriate. If Zachys resells the property pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) above, the defaulting Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency between the Purchase Price and the price obtained upon resale pursuant to clause (iii) and (iv) above and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. In the event that such Buyer pays a portion of the Purchase Price for any or all lots purchased, Zachys shall apply the payment received to such lot or lots that Zachys, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. Any Buyer who fails to comply with these Conditions of Sale will be deemed to have granted Zachys a security interest in, and Zachys may retain as collateral security for such Buyer's obligation to it, any property in Zachys' possession owned by such Buyer. Zachys shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or applicable law adopted in the jurisdiction where the auction is held.

12

Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until Zachys has collected good funds. In the event Buyer fails to pay any or all of the Purchase Price for any lot within 30 calendar days of sale and Zachys nonetheless elects to pay the Consignor any portion of the sale proceeds, Buyer acknowledges that Zachys shall have all of the rights of the Consignor to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Consignor, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 3 calendar days of the date of delivery of the property, Buyer notifies Zachys in writing of a claim that any lot is short, ullaged, or has suffered breakage, then Zachys in its sole discretion will decide any such claim as between the Consignor and Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund all or part of the Purchase Price received.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if a Buyer purchased property that is inauthentic and returns such property to Zachys within 90 calendar days of the date of delivery, then Zachys agrees to rescind the sale and refund the Purchase Price received.

The benefits of these two preceding provisions are not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original Buyer of the lot and not to subsequent assigns, buyers, heirs, owners or others who have acquired or may acquire an interest therein.

At its discretion, Zachys will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases, Zachys will not accept returns for any issues the Buyer might discover after the band is cut.

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys and Consignor shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic bever ages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

16a

For auctions that are held not in Hong Kong or the District of Columbia, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the State Courts of, and the Federal Courts sitting in, the State and County of New York. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of

For auctions that are held in Hong Kong, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means. Buver shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/ or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in the District of Columbia, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the District of Columbia courts and the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

All offers and sales of alcoholic beverage products by Zachys are subject to the local laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverage products in the jurisdiction in which the auction takes place.

18

District of Columbia and New York State law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 21 years of age. Hong Kong law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 18 years of age. Buyers should observe and comply with the applicable laws relating to the purchase of alcoholic beverages in the jurisdiction where the auction is held. By participating in the auction, each Buyer represents and warrants to Zachys that he, she or it has the legal capacity to purchase, receive, and possess any lot purchased.

19

Zachys does not ship alcoholic beverage products. As an accommodation to Buyers, Zachys may arrange to have property packed, insured and delivered at Buyer's expense and direction, but (other than as provided in Condition of Sale 8) Zachys shall have no liability or obligation for shipping alcoholic beverage products. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, with respect to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverage products into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the alcoholic beverage products shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the alcoholic beverage products to be shipped prior to the purchase of alcoholic beverage products at auction.

By participating in the auction, Buyer agrees with Zachys and the Consignor that these Conditions of Sale, together with any instrument captioned (i) Buying & Bidding Information and (ii) General Catalog Notes published by Zachys and in effect from time to time and which are incorporated herein by reference as part of this Condition of Sale, shall become the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Buyer, enforceable in accordance with their terms by Zachys and the Consignor (who is both a party hereto and, with respect to portions hereof between Buyer and Zachys, an intended third-party beneficiary).

21

In the event any one or more of the provisions, or any part or parts of a provision, of these Conditions of Sale is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, the validity and enforceability of all remaining provisions and parts of provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

22

If there is any inconsistency between the English and translated version of the General Catalog Notes, the Buying & Bidding Information, the Conditions of Sale or all other relevant documents, forms, website or emails, the English version shall prevail.

General Catalog Notes

Level/Ullage Descriptions & Interpretations

- IN Into Neck: Excellent for a wine of any age.
- BN Bottom Neck: Excellent for a wine of 10 years or older.
- VTS Very Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 10 years or older.
- TS Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 25 years or older.
- JBTS Just Below Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 30 years or older.
- US Upper Shoulder: Slight natural reduction through easing of cork and evaporation through cork and capsule. Very good for any wine over 40 years old. Excellent for any wine over 50 years of age.
- UMS Upper-Mid Shoulder: Good for any wine 50-60 years of age.
- MS Mid Shoulder: Probably some weakening of the cork. Very good for wines over 50-60 years of age. Estimates usually take this into account.
- LS Low Shoulder: Some weakening of cork acceptable if wine or label is exceptionally rare or interesting.

Because of the slope of shoulder, it is impractical to describe levels of Burgundy-shaped bottles as into neck, etc. Wherever appropriate, the level between capsule and wine will be measured and cataloged in centimeters.

The condition and drinkability of Burgundy are less affected by ullage than its equivalent from Bordeaux. For example, a 5 to 7cm. ullage in a 50 year old Burgundy can be considered normal, indeed good for that age; and 3.5 to 4cm., excellent for that age.

Champagne bottle measurements are done from the bottom of the foil to the level of the wine.

Label & Capsule Conditions

Labels and capsules can become soiled, stained, or otherwise marked, especially with wines over 20 years of age. Unless otherwise noted, label conditions will be appropriate for age, but Buyers should note that normal staining, discoloration or other conditions may not be noted if such conditions are appropriate for the age of the label. Potential Buyers are invited to make appointments to inspect wines personally.

Special Notices

Though every effort is made to describe or measure the levels of older vintages, corks over 20 years old begin to lose their elasticity and levels can change between cataloguing and sale. Old corks have also been known to fail during or after shipment. We therefore repeat that there is always a risk of cork failure with old wines, and Zachys assumes no responsibility for this.

Under no circumstances can an adjustment of price or credit be made after delivery, except as provided in Paragraph 13 of the Conditions of Sale in this catalog.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are Château bottled.

It is Zachys' general policy to describe levels for vintages prior to 1990. Unless otherwise noted, ullage levels will be appropriate for age.

At Zachys discretion, we will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases all wines are sold AS IS and will not accept returns for any issues the buyer's might discover after the band is cut.

At times, bottle numbers will be covered in photos to protect consignor anonymity.
