Above you will find a partial list of the officers elected to lead First UMC in 2014. The complete list will be available on Sunday for pickup in the Narthex of the church and in the Family Life Center. During the services we will install our officers for the new year.

The officers of our church have important responsibilities in seeking God's guidance in prayer, identifying the needs of our church and community, and working cooperatively with one another to lead our church to fulfill God's call to go into the entire world and make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

It is exciting to see new faces in our congregational worship each week. May we open our hearts to welcome them in the love of Christ and help them find a spiritual home where they can grow in their faith and use their gifts in service as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

— Pastor Glenn

Dear Staff, PPR Committee, Worship Committee and Friends of FUMC,

I appreciate sincerely all the hard work and personal support that went into the SURPRISE RETIREMENT BRUNCH you gave in my honor. It was a wonderful feeling to be surrounded by friends and family and know you all were there because you made a special effort to come. To those who could not attend but sent cards and letters, I deeply appreciate your thoughtfulness. To those who contributed to the gift card and love offering, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your generosity. To Pastor Glenn and the Staff, you all are the best to work with, and I cherish the memories I will always have of each one of you. To Teresa & Shane, you are already doing a great job for the church, and I have no doubt you will bring new and better ideas to the Finance Department. To everyone, I wish the very best in the life First United Methodist Church, Mocksville. It is an exciting time and we can all praise God for his blessings on this church family.

DO YOU LIKE A GOOD BOOK?

It is so convenient having the READING BOOKCASE in the hallway entering the Family Life Center. Take a moment to pick up a Response or New World Outlook magazine if you don't have time for a took. When are you finished reading the magazine, drop it back by. But if you have time.....

There will be some new books for Christian readers. At the moment, I am reading JESUS: a Biography from a Believer by Paul Johnson. It is not long and is most interesting. You will find it on the shelf next week.

Also new are: US: a Mother and Daughter's Peakbagging Adventure by Patricia Herr that meets the Nurture category for UMW readers. Mom of daughters, young or grown, will enjoy this book about a mother who sets out to clim New Hampshire's peaks with her daughter.

Also look for the children's leadership book The Herd Boy by Niki Daly. This well-illustrated book teaches the lesson of how leaders come from small beginnings.

Take time to enjoy what you find on your FUMC bookcase!

Dear Pastor and Members of First United Methodist Church,

Thank you so much for your recent decision to support the Advocacy Center with regular monthly contributions. Our mission is to help low income persons in Davie County who are in a temporary financial crisis. Since your benevolent offerings have the same goal, we are honored to manage these funds on your behalf and to use them for Client Assistance.

During the 4th Quarter of 2013, your gifts totaled $1,050.00. These funds helped 15 persons, four of whom are children under 18 years old. $120 was given for housing, $790 went to heat and electricity and the remaining $150 was for water.

Know that each of you is a part of the aid extended to these needy persons in our community. Thank you for your care and compassion!

Maryanne Leagans, Executive Director
The Advocacy Center of Davie County
