HOW TO USE THIS REPORT

In the pages which follow, you will see descriptions of your character traits, relationship potentials and challenges, as well as career potentials, and even more.

All or most of these sometimes intimate descriptions will be linked in some way with your past lives and your experiences in the planetary realms between lifetimes (the interlife).

Yet, you may ask, how can this information best be used?

First, HELP YOURSELF. The enclosed uplifting commentary can only be truly beneficial if you see it as a means of self-help and self-transformation. So to get the maximum practical benefit out of each page of this report, focus on connecting what you read with what is going on in your life now.

Next, LOOK FOR PATTERNS. When you see repeated references -- for instance to similar careers, pursuits or vocations -- you should consider these references seriously. They demonstrate a positive karmic connection which you now have with these same career-related potentials from past life endeavors. So, because of prior life success, these areas of expression should be easier for you to find rewarding or to succeed in, as compared with in other areas.

Also, pay close attention to REMEDIAL MEASURES. For instance, you may be given an affirmation to use in meditation (or a prayer). Or you may be given a crystal/gemstone to wear. These means of balancing out challenging vibrations can indeed be very helpful, especially if used in a hopeful manner.

Finally, this report is a synthesis of past life and planetary interlife interpretations originally given clairvoyantly by Edgar Cayce, for individuals with your same planetary patterns at birth. So in applying this report to your personal life, you should RESPECT INNER GUIDANCE -- through dreams, meditation and past life regression for example -- as primary resources for this kind of information; and most important, RESPECT YOUR FREE WILL! You alone must choose and know what is really best for you.

Your birth chart interpretation is based on the positions of the planets at the time of your birth.

Astrologer Ry Redd calculated on computer the astrology charts for hundreds of people who received readings by Edgar Cayce which contained astrologically based information. By studying these astrology charts, Ry Redd determined what planetary influences were most likely responsible for the readings by Edgar Cayce. In many cases the astrological basis of the Cayce readings appears to be very straightforward. From this information Ry Redd was able to develop, in conjunction with the computer programmers at Cosmic Patterns Software, an analysis of your birth chart as Ry Redd believes that Edgar Cayce's psychic readings would have interpreted it. Ry Redd's research effort was exhaustive and was conducted over many years, some of which was spent at the Edgar Cayce library at the Association for Research and Enlightenment headquarters in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

For the benefit of students of astrology, these positions, along with other technical information, are listed below:

Your Past Life Report begins on the following page . . .

Your Sun is in an inharmonious pattern with Mars.

Your past lives probably were highlighted by wandering and searching for wisdom from land to land, say as an early American pioneer-settler journeying from England for religious liberty, or as a member of one of the Lost Tribes of Israel who traveled very far to help build Stonehenge, or as one of the nomads under Joshua who endured great hardships fighting for the ideal of the One True God. These traveling urges are likely to manifest in the present as potentials for success in movement and dance as well as athletics and more health-oriented activities such as exercise and massage.

From these past lives and your afterlife experience in the Mars sphere of awareness, you very much have a will of your own which at times may border on being too strong-minded and self-determined. You also have considerable courage which is inclined to turn into anger. For your greater development in the present lifetime it will be well for you to curb your impatient tendencies. Otherwise there might well be detrimental experiences like developing a surly and sullen attitude toward people and life.

Another emotional area to watch is that of jealousies arising. Unless your inclinations toward anger and concurrent actions are reduced, you may experience spiritual retardment this lifetime which will have to be met eventually in another life.

Incidentally, you should absolutely avoid any contact whatever with firearms, as such weapons are very dangerous for you (regardless of how you may have needed them in your past pioneering lifetimes). You may have a strong peace loving attitude from the standpoint of military affairs and law enforcement, yet may be able to rationalize the use of force of arms, whether firearms as such or other means of force. These karmic-psychological approaches to and rationalizations of using force and violence could bring you serious changes this lifetime.

Poor indeed is the one who never shows anger, yet much worse off is one who cannot control it. Here is an area of life, of course, where most people fail, so you are certainly not alone. Often those who quickly flare up also quickly forgive. This is an excellent attitude or spiritual ideal for you to follow in controlling your Martian temper: remain as the little child, ever ready to forgive and be forgiven; ever ready to be guided by the will of the Almighty.

While it is best put into your own words -- or rephrased as a personal affirmation -- saying the following prayer may be helpful. "May I learn to deal with impatience, Lord. Show me how to modify my natural inclination of wanting to move ahead too quickly. If it's true that I'm overly ambitious, or if I need to prove my superiority over others, help me realize that only a more moderate, level-headed approach will ultimately succeed. Before pushing ahead blindly, I pray that I may know for what I am striving. Teach me appreciation, Lord, so that even the small, insignificant victories in my life will have real meaning for me." [1467-3]

Your Moon harmoniously aspects Jupiter.

High ennobling qualities are yours from your soul journey in the Jupiter sphere between lives. Uplifting influences, then, arise from your experiences in both your Jupiter sojourn and in past life positions of prominence, most likely on a high, history-making level as a spiritual leader. You are then, a loving, noble soul in your interactions with others, causing them to have faith in themselves (and in you).

In fact, with your greater possibilities in giving aid in every manner, you would make a WONDERFUL minister. You would also be successful in management, administration, economics and politics. Coming from your past lives of service on behalf of others, you may guide and direct many souls this lifetime.

While you have quite a temper, you are very capable of controlling it and turning it into channels through which better influences come, both to yourself and to others.

You should also have a greater deal of the world's material goods for you to use and share with others. You are therefore one with an elevating outlook and lifestyle, and will give a lot to the development of other souls.

Drawing on the resourceful side of your akashic record -- where your soul development through caring service from past lives is stored -- you are likely to experience great blessings. While some may see you as "lucky", what is really happening is that soul links from previous compassionate incarnations are attracted to you and want to help you. This good karma will especially bring you benefits in your home life, particularly concerning your mother, with whom you have a strong, mutually beneficial bond from your deep cosmic past. [2903-1, 140-3, 2855-1]

Your Moon is in an inharmonious pattern with Mars.

You are strongly inclined to seek an independent career, to strike your own course in life. Your father is likely to be Martian in character or occupation, and to have an unfortunate history, which makes your family background less than ideal. Also, your health may not be as robust as it should be. Outdoor exercise, attention to nutrition, especially your iron and fiber intake, and stress management would do much to strengthen your physical constitution.

Having experienced the wrathful Mars dimension between earth lives, antagonism is likely between your passionate, animal side and your emotional-feeling life. Your emotions at times may get out of control, causing a number of challenges. For instance, you may manifest at times an obstinate, intolerant, "me first" attitude. If you are unwilling to be dominated, you are likely to attract from past lives karma to meet through an aggressive mate.

In your previous life, you may have been an early American settler. During that incarnation, you may well have had some frightening and painful experiences which are brought back to you in this life in the form of the emotional challenges just described. Moreover, you may often be presented with opportunities to deal constructively with separations and quarrels involving souls linked to you from previous incarnations where conflicts were frequent but unresolved.

These challenges will be intensified if your manner is too Martian and dominating. If these argumentative, wrathful energies you experienced during your previous incarnation and afterlife soul journey in the Mars dimension are not moderated by application of your will, you will probably face many challenges with your friendships, family and personal relationships. Your great need here is to set before your inner self such ideals as self-restraint, patience and love.

Do bear in mind that these influences are the RESULT of what you have done ABOUT your past. They are NEVER beyond the reach of your free will choice. For instance, you can choose to avoid acting in your own self-interest. Instead, put your attention toward the purpose of bringing good into the lives of others. Otherwise, you will bring suffering to yourself through an inner war between self-centered fears and passions on one hand and your spiritual development on the other.

That is, trials and temptations resulting from indulging your desires may often conflict with and block progress toward developing your innate spirituality.

As an aid in working with these challenges, here is an affirmation which you might repeat in meditation (though perhaps phrased in your own words): "I will be shown how to come to grips with my strong feelings and emotional strain. I will learn to be more tactful so that I do not initiate a confrontation or take offense too easily when faced with a trying situation. I will instead develop a constructive, selfless attitude toward others, so that I can be of greater service to God." [4286-3, 137-4,12]

Your Moon forms a square pattern with Sun.

You chose a birth time when the Greater and Lesser Lights, the Sun and Moon, were adversely aspecting each other. Now, the Moon directly mirrors your past life emotions, while the Sun is the medium through which your soul force shines outwardly as a unique personality in the present. At your birth these two all-important Luminaries were squared off with one another in the zodiac. This set before you challenges to meet from your past lives. And your material or physical experiences emotionally may become the greater urges at times. Yet the innate and deeper urge, from your past life experience with what you have set as your guiding ideal become more impelling in your quieter moments (in meditation and just being still).

Most of the obstacles you face center on a basic conflict between your will, personality and emotions, which is linked with your parents, with whom you have karma to work out from previous lives. (If you are male, this karmic link will be more with your mother; if female, more with your father.)

There are two major ways this challenge is likely to manifest. First, you may tend to blame your parents rather than yourself for emotional difficulties which prevent you from following the life you want. You may have been separated from one or both of your parents when you were young. In this instance you may find yourself always seeking fresh experiences, but without the stamina or stability to follow through successfully. This is a classic case of being your own worst enemy, and requires an extra exertion of will power to observe yourself closely.

See to it that your actions truly live up to your personal ideals and spiritual goals. Doing this prayerfully, all else will gradually fall into place. "When I examine my attitudes, Lord, I sometimes find that they are not in harmony with my actions. Teach me how I may better coordinate these two sides of my nature, how I may align my inner feelings with my outer approach to life. Do not let either my heart or my head govern my behavior, Lord. May they both work together cooperatively, forming a personality that is at peace with itself and with others." [3188-1]

Your Moon harmoniously aspects Uranus.

You are bringing into your present life highly original talents and concepts from your long ago lifetime in Atlantis. Your former soul sojourn in the unusual, individualistic dimension of Uranus carries your Atlantean talents and positive karma with others over into the present. This gives you brilliant, inventive, creative and inspirational leadership abilities in spiritual yet scientific, progressive and enduring "New Age" philosophical movements.

You are inclined to be very spiritually oriented, both outwardly and inwardly, but usually not at the same time. Great emotional influences also appear in your experience, but with an inclination outwardly to be cold and reserved rather than intensely emotional, yet having a great deal of emotion inwardly.

You have considerable power to heal others through the strong action of your touch and counsel, the genius of your teaching and the magnetism of your personality. You are likely to have an extraordinary life full of extremes and unexpected changes.

Through your keen, virtually psychic level of intuition and mental alertness, you will probably make a distinct opportunity out of every obstacle you encounter by willfully converting each stumbling block into a stepping stone toward the Light. Such a positive approach to life is uniquely your own and is something that you certainly should share with others in need of upliftment and inspiration. [1089-3, 1958-1, 633-2]

Your Mercury harmoniously aspects Saturn.

Considerable mental resources are indicated from your repeated past life endeavors involving communication and education. As to your abilities, then, as seen from the pattern of your past lives, you could be an instructor through the means or channels of a speaker or writer, or one who in some way supports and encourages those who are seeking to know their closer walk with the Creative Forces, or God.

Over several lifetimes you have reached a mature level intellectually. That is, you are in a position to make creative, renewing additions to old principles constructively and in definite, positive directions. You have the ability to give a good deal of impetus to building on what has been the failure of another, whether physically, financially or mentally. Intellectually very competent and efficient, you also have great self-control and reserve.

However, you are likely to be most reserved in the area of making contacts with groups. You may continually plan out things in your mind, using a great deal of mental energy and ability, as to what would be best, but slow in carrying these plans to fruition until contacts or associations have been made through some definite channel from some outside source.

In other words, although you have above average capacity to organize and plan things out, mentally you may at times be a bit too cautious in following through on your decisions until some specific confirmation or proof offers itself. This comes from your ability to reason from any viewpoint, yet for something to be valuable to you, it must be rational and reasonable as well as practical.

You are therefore one with high mental ability who uses discretion in many ways; these are influences from the free application of your will together with your previous lives and of your afterlife soul journey in the Mercurian realm of awareness. You also have the capacity for what others would describe as "sharp trading." While you are subtle in different ways, you are also one who speaks what is on your mind at once.

In real estate sales and investments you will probably find much self-satisfaction, as well as financial rewards. However, it does not matter much in what you sell or invest, along as the commodity or investment is one in which you have faith. [3129-1, 274-1, 1001-7, 3929-1]

Your Venus is in an inharmonious pattern with Neptune.

At the time of your re-entry into the earth plane your soul flight paths from Venus and Neptune were squared off or opposed in the zodiac. Your choice to be born when these two planet-flight paths were at odds with each other resulted in a call-up from your soul's past life records which reveal a love liability in your cosmic account.

This same challenging choice of re-entry from Venus, realm of love and beauty, and Neptune, realm of spirituality and mysticism, is made by many sincere seekers who are earnest students on the spiritual path. It points out this lifetime as an especially important one, for you are directly faced, among other things, with the necessity to spiritualize the disappointments you have experienced through your great need for love.

That is, your deep desire for affection -- and resulting heartaches from feeling the lack of it -- all must be given up and instead has to be universalized into BEING, manifesting Love and Compassion.

This is not to say that you should be impractical in being too empathetic and allow yourself to be deceived (or to deceive or delude yourself), for instance, by giving too much to the wrong -- especially spiritual or moral -- cause or marrying the wrong person whom you have emotionally over-idealized. Let your prayer or song be, "Lord, let me learn to BE the love I've been dreaming of, learn to BE the love I need."

The other area of your unclear vision and lack of good judgment at times might manifest in a kind of "mystical moodiness" as far as inner guidance is concerned (this applies particularly to dreams and meditation experiences). That is, you may be moved by an impulse thought to be from without -- from higher, spiritual sources -- when it is really within your own head. Or, conversely, you may often be prompted to act or fail to act on what you think is only a feeling from within when it is really from without.

There are indicators that an excellent outlet for you would be in counseling others who are emotionally or spiritually needy, either directly (one-on-one or by leading small groups) or through writing, or both. The main requirement is for you to CHOOSE. First, through analyzing yourself in such a way as to know what is your ideal relationship to God. Second, what is your ideal attitude and corresponding life work activity that can fulfill that purpose, that ideal.

Finally, what is the ideal yet practical manner of expressing these purposes in relationship to those you deal with on a day-to-day basis. Then, whether it be in fact or fiction, in a private journal or widely read book or column, WRITE about what you have come up with! There are many, many souls who would benefit, as long as you really have something constructive and helpful to say as part of a specific purpose and lesson to be learned. [1962-1]

Your Venus is trine Uranus.

Your experiences in Uranus and Venus between lifetimes bring you unusual talents along with renewed contacts with unusually talented souls you knew in your cosmic past. Knowledge about your interplanetary afterlife associations -- such as souls you knew during a Venus sojourn -- is revealed to you through your dreams. They come as INNATE influences; that is, mental experiences, day dreaming, visions or dreams -- as you are given to having. And too often, you may tend to disregard them, or too seldom pay attention to them. As said in the Scriptures, not of yourself alone may you do it, but in love, in truth, in honor you may. For these are your helpmeets, if you hold fast to them. They arise from the influence of your afterlife associations in the Venus sphere.

In other words, accurate premonitions of future events are frequently symbolized in your dreams. How often have you envisioned through symbols or dreams those very things that happened to you later! For from the Uranian influence you are naturally inclined to these things that are mystical in nature, and you love to delve into these things.

In fact, your intuitive faculties make it easy for you to express through color, music and lyrics, harmonies which are certainly beyond this three dimensional world. Your creative talent is a resource which only awaits your willful development. This is very much like having a mother lode of gold running beneath your house. It only needs to be dug up to be of considerable, immediate value.

Uranus is the EXTREME influence, making for tendencies to be an extremist. Yet much of this is tempered by the Venus influence. Hence music, social activities and a temperament that may be brought out by gentleness, kindness, patience, or similar virtues attributed to love in its pure form, all make for benevolent, positive influences in your life. Uranus especially brings a love of mystery as well as a love of spirituality, while Venus makes for a love of children and the home. Creative, inspirational writing for children would be an excellent outlet, then, for these gifts of yours.

For instance, in helping children and adults with emotional problems art or music therapy is an area in which you might excel. Therefore your abilities in creating or writing stories related to activities in these directions might be developed successfully, from your Venus and Uranus afterlife experiences.

Yes, your ideas are as original, and deep, as your creative outlets are varied. Yet do look within yourself regularly. There will be tendencies for you to have great imaginative powers pertaining to things in the spiritual world which are unseen by others, especially concerning your abilities to gain from unseen sources those lessons, those visions, those pictures for others that may bring understanding to many people. In manifesting this will you gain the most in soul growth this lifetime.

Also, know that this inner study and directed contemplation will bring you understanding and helpful influences which in turn will bring you the harmony and peace as promised in the Christ. This is not the peace which the world recognizes under that name, but a deeper peace which gives without asking, loves without hating, is patient and never jealous.

Happiness, honor and a genuine joy in life can stay with you through seeking this peace within. At the same time be mindful of those who have lost hope in the material things of the world which so easily fade away. Do share your spiritual upliftment as well as your own material and financial resources with others more needy, as you are likely to attract them all throughout your unusual life. [444-1, 2450-1, 1923-1, 2530-1, 2175-1]

Your Mars is sextile Jupiter.

Combining influences from your interplanetary between-life soul travels in Mars and Jupiter and from previous lives, you are morally and spiritually courageous, with a decided capacity to defend principles and causes with great endurance and fervor. While Mars often represents and influences urges toward warring and anger, it makes for strength, endurance, and courage when moderated by the benevolent, optimistic energies of Jupiter. You may have experienced these two realms between past lives as perhaps a religious teacher-warrior in ancient Israel or a Christian martyr during Early Church/Roman times.

Many individuals are likely to be influenced by the choices you make, because of the Jupiterian tendency toward dealings with the public and groups of people. The Mars influence arises in questions or differences about how best to lead, especially when attempting to provide materially and financially for groups. For example, as an employer, you may get upset about your employees' complaints concerning pay.

Your challenge here is to efficiently and harmoniously combine duty with privilege, opportunity with authority. When you can better coordinate these leadership qualities in guiding the activities of individuals, you will reach greater understanding in this lifetime.

In other words, you must learn the key for coordinating your leadership opportunities with the assertive duties that "come with the territory."

Once you understand how to combine the privilege of being in a position of power with the aggressiveness needed to exercise your authority -- without anger or selfishness -- then you will do well to share through writing or lecturing what you have learned. You can also inspire and regenerate large numbers of people in their spiritual development by reminding them of their obligations from the perspective of their own unique ideals, which must be from their spiritual purpose.

As two of mankind's gravest plagues, selfishness and opportunism are among the biggest barriers to our true evolution. Here your high moral, religious, and family relationship standards provide an excellent example for others. For instance, those who break their word or their commitment with others may be treated by you as if they have done bodily harm.

Jupiter's ennobling sense of justice is quite a moderating influence over any tendencies to express anger or to impose your powerful mental and physical energies on those who are weaker. More likely, you will bring much confidence to others, especially in emergencies and crises, through your advice and the example of your own actions as you grow spiritually by applying your own ideals. Yet be warned of career associations and personal contacts with those who would use their bodies and souls to advance themselves in the world. [165-2, 1144-2, 106-3, 1182-1, 1217-1, 2141-1]

Your Mars harmoniously aspects Uranus.

Returning to the earth from an experience between lives in Uranus, you made a well timed choice en route to make an extended visit in the Mars dimension. Your resourceful soul flight plan is reflected in an harmonious geometric aspect pattern between these planets at your birth. This flowing aspect is therefore prominent in your birth chart and bestows upon you an energetic, courageous, highly individualistic and pioneering personality.

With your great strength and endurance you are able to bear much in the way of heavy physical energy demands upon your body.

Moreover, you are highly developed intuitively or clairvoyantly and mentally -- bordering on genius -- and have marked mechanical and scientific ability.

You also have considerable capacity for inventiveness in electronic technologies such as computers, in design, especially architecture, and use of electro-mechanical methods in the healing arts (hydrotherapy and electrical medicine are examples).

Your extraordinary diversity of talents include athletics, law and counseling as well.

Together with a love of adventure, excitement and exploration, these abilities and interests probably originated in past lives ranging from Atlantis (perhaps as a conqueror of new worlds in the Americas or early Egypt), to ancient Persia and colonial America. [234-1]

Your Jupiter is in an inharmonious pattern with Saturn.

"The merchant is never the student, nor is the student ever the merchant." You might heed this saying, for your experience in Saturn brings you such changes in your career that you may muddle it up by going in too many directions at once. While you have a great deal of soul development potential this lifetime -- and this go 'round for you is critical, as it is for most of us -- you could defeat yourself through an inclination at times to "give up." You thereby evade the responsibilities which come with having such powers and talents as you possess.

The main self-defeating pattern to watch out for more specifically involves your Saturnian urges for travel, a change of scene, always wanting a fresh start and taking on far more than you can realistically handle. You are also likely to need constant stimulation, with a tendency toward heroics, (but without sufficiently flexing your own spiritual muscles).

Instead, your heroism and hero worship should be replaced with self-direction through following the IDEALS of spiritual heroes, patriarchs and prophets. An added reason for increasing the role of personal ideals for self-direction is your inclination to exploit situations rather than taking constructive advantage of opportunities.

This is not at all to say that you are irresponsible: quite the contrary. You are much more likely to be in positions where you face heavy responsibilities. However, confusions may often come as to the best way to derive the maximum benefit from them, both for yourself and for others. With these burdens comes a lifetime with a vast scope of experience, yet frequently misinterpreted by others (hence the confusion just mentioned).

While at times taken advantage of because of it, you nonetheless usually choose to see only the good in others, and are a natural -- although occasionally confused -- diplomat.

In addition to diplomacy, your Jupiterian experience also gives you considerable vision in the financial, political, social and religious areas of life. Applying yourself in these directions, especially through writing, a lot of help and good will come your way which you can share with a very wide audience. [811-2, 1426-1, 1089-3, 2496-1, 773-1]

NOTE: The Zodiac signs of the Sun and Moon are analyzed below. First they will be analyzed in the Tropical zodiac. If the positions are different in the Sidereal zodiac, then they will also be analyzed in the Sidereal zodiac. Also, if the Sun and Moon are in the same zodiac sign, then only the Sun position is interpreted; the Moon position, being the same as the Sun position, does not need to be interpreted in this case.

Your Sun is in Aries (Tropical zodiac).

From Aries are found inclinations often to be considered by others as being headstrong. You may also be very hard to convince alongside judgments you have made which have been the determining factors in your experience. Yet once you are convinced of something, you become very determined in that particular direction.

This tendency toward self-determination and being headstrong is probably rooted in at least one lifetime in ancient Palestine. Your likely link with the tribal nomads known as the Hebrews is expressed in your urge either to be a powerful yet somewhat dogmatic leader or to be inclined to follow someone with strong leadership qualities.

Also, living in large or extended family units dominated by a strong director or leader (whether male or female), having special admiration for winners, or even being totally submissive to another person who you feel is somehow in charge of you and your life are characteristic inclinations from similar experiences long ago.

Of course, Mars is the primary planet which symbolizes or rules the sign of Aries. This makes Mars and martial urges of special significance to you this lifetime. Therefore, depending on whether or not you apply your will, responding to conflict situations with directness and force are likely to be among your subconscious urges. These urges are from your prior experiences in the realm of Mars and from one or more past lives in the harsh, ancient desert culture of Israel and neighboring Arab lands.

Also from Mars, the Ram influence and this past lifetime in ancient Canaan and Palestine you may feel a need not only to be a leader or director but to excel in your career or in more physical endeavors like exercising or a competitive activities such as sports.[279-4, 340-15, 1804-1]

Your Moon is in Capricorn (Tropical zodiac).

Capricorn's influence inclines you to be one who is both a materialist AND one interested in spiritual things.

For instance, you were probably once among the natives of North America, who long before the white man set foot upon this shore, had developed an extraordinarily rich and meaningful culture. In fact, many things associated with the American Indians are likely to be innate talents or otherwise special to you.

From one or more lifetimes as a native American, you developed a knack for being able to handle powerful changes in your life situation. You also have an appreciation of the balance and organized interplay of Mother Nature and her creatures, as well this natural ability to move with the flow of life around you.

While you have a strong sense of independence and personal identity, you also well understand the necessity for people to live and work together as social beings. Therefore you acknowledge and accept the need for group organization, responsibility and structured communications.

Order, responsibility and structure, along with a capacity to cope and grow with heavy changes in life, are also key influences of Saturn, the planet which rules or best symbolizes the sign of Capricorn.

Now, because of your independent, down-to-earth attitude, carried over in part from past lives when your personal sense of identity was intense, you may often experience a kind of power struggle with your partner. This attitude probably occurred often in times of military involvement with the ideals of victory with honor, such as during the Greek wars between ancient Sparta and Athens. [1869-1]

Your Sun is in Pisces (Sidereal zodiac).

Coming under the influences of Pisces, water and religion or spiritual matters are likely to have an untold influence on you. Of course, this depends upon the way you respond to these kinds of experiences, for they have probably played an important part or at least have been innate in your experience through many lifetimes in the earth.

Pisces means or symbolizes what is naturally, or by its very nature, representative of influences of the higher soul or higher spiritual level. Hence those things of the spiritual nature should preferably be the way in which your judgments are drawn, as to whether this or that activity should be your impelling influence. Not that you should become lost in motives or in influences impelling your actions: just use those things of the spiritual import as the measuring rod of your activities and experiences.

In light of this, the period around the birth and ministry of Jesus, the Christ, is the clearest past life for you to recall and build upon in the present. You may even remember a lifetime as part of Roman culture, where priority was placed upon position in society and in the military.

Another early Church memory might be stronger for you: the hills around Galilee and the desert near the Dead Sea where the Essenes and others gathered to meditate and study. Then too you may be emotionally drawn to painful scenes of being among early Christians who were martyred for the courage of believing in the Messiah. Regardless of specifics, you are quite likely always to be dominated by a sense of expectancy and mystery.

In later lifetimes since the early Church period, you were probably celibate, as a nun or monk of a leading religious order.

Noble, compassionate Jupiter and spiritual, mystical Neptune are the two rulers or key symbols for the sign of Pisces. From Neptune comes the intuitive forces, the mystical or mysterious influences in your experience, whether you allow them to be mentally or consciously active or not. Another influence of these planets as expressed through Pisces is that although you have a great deal of compassion, you may be too passive in expressing your personal energy and soul force. Also, it will probably be much easier for you than for most people to suppress your sexual desires because of the memory of one or more past lives when you set aside your personal concerns for the good of the entire community. [816-3, 1506-1, 997-1]

Your Moon is in Sagittarius (Sidereal zodiac).

Great expanses of space, including the seemingly endless expanse of oceans, are likely to call to you, and in them you probably find some of your most quieting and comforting experiences. In your past lives, then, under circumstances when great expanses and very broad spaces brought you the most insightful and contemplative experiences of your mental being, it was then that spiritually you probably gained the most.

For example, traveling long ago as a Spanish, English or even Japanese settler, pioneer or explorer, you may have crossed the oceans in search of a better world. You were then part of a strong sea-faring culture which frequently set out --over a period of many centuries -- to explore, invade and often defeat enemies and cultures usually much greater in strength and size.

Jupiter is the planet which rules or symbolizes the heart of Sagittarian energies, supplying you with a broadly courageous -- though at times daredevil -- quality. Yet underneath this often exciting exterior lies a calm but calculating mind. Another characteristic experience is one or more past lives involving a lot of movement, change and separation from your family and your cultural roots.

In your deeper meditations you might recall urges and impressions of migrating at the time of the Deluge of Atlantis (commonly called the Great Flood), to other, safer lands to begin a new life and a new age of history.

Your more intimate, personal relationships often may not be as harmonious as you would really like for them to be. This challenge is rooted in past lives when, as in the present, you were somewhat inclined to prefer partnerships capable of enduring considerably different interests through a great deal of diverse activity. YOUR PAST LIFE DECANATES

According to an ancient Vedic astrology method still practiced in India, Past Life Planets are realms in which you sojourned between earth lifetimes. They are identified through the position of your sidereal Sun and Moon in the decanates (a decanate is a one-third division of a zodiac sign; each is ruled by a planet). Any patterns involving these Past Life Planets are therefore of special importance. Pay extra attention, then, to any sections of your Report which interpret these planets.

NOTE: If your Sun and Moon are both located in a decanate which is ruled by the same planet, then only the Sun position is interpreted; the Moon's decanate position, being the same as the Sun's, therefore does not need to be interpreted.

Your Sun is in Pisces Decanate

Your sidereal Sun is in the decanate of Pisces, which is co-ruled by Neptune and Jupiter. This points to prominent soul journeys in the interlife realms of Jupiter and Neptune, and to one or more parallel lifetimes in which you were dedicated to spirituality, humanitarian, healing-oriented and spiritual, mystical endeavors. Your experiences then may have brought you prominence or notoriety in spiritual causes ranging from the Essenes and Gnostics around the time of Christ to Eastern temples and ashrams and later, in medieval or modern monastic life.

Of likely special interest to you in your present life are mysticism, spirituality and most movements toward Oneness and the mysteries of Life and Nature, including dreams and mystical kinds of music and art. These interests and urges are intensified from lifetimes where the sea or large bodies of water played a large role, as well as from your soul experiences between earth incarnations in the realms of Neptune and Jupiter.

Your Moon is in Sagittarius Decanate

Your sidereal Moon is in the decanate of Sagittarius, which is ruled by Jupiter. Jupiter as Past Life Planet points to a prominent soul journey between earth incarnations in the realm of Jupiter, called Brahmaloaka in Vedic astrology. Your Jupiter sojourn demonstrates that you have reached a high level of development toward a universal consciousness among all men and women.

Your special Jupiter sojourn also indicates you have a strong inner commitment to faith, optimism and group causes potentially affecting large numbers of people. Past lives in humanitarian or spiritual service and ministry, religious, royal and priestly affairs are likely, especially lifetimes in Egypt and the Holy Land.
