Introduction

Your astrological horoscope (natal chart) at birth is an important key to your personality and character, but your natal chart is not the last word about you. As time moves on after the moment of your birth, the Sun, Moon, and planets continue to circle through the heavens forming ever-changing kaleidoscopic patterns in relation to your own birth chart, bringing out or obscuring this or that part of you.

It can be useful to know how these ongoing planetary patterns relate to your life, and that is what this report is about. Here we calculate the primary astrological changes in your chart and interpret them so that you can see at a glance what is happening at any given time. Your events are arranged and interpreted chronologically, by well-known astrologer Michael Erlewine, and each event includes date and time, keywords, astrological indicator, and an astro-tarot card. We hope you enjoy your forecast.

In the tradition of astrology the planets have always been interpreted separately from the Sun and the Moon, which are called "The Lights," and for good reason. They literally light up our life and their combined interaction describes the essence of what is happening to us at any given time. Although called "The Moon Report," any mention of the Moon automatically involves the Sun, and of course, our Earth. These three, the Sun, Moon, and Earth, in their endless interaction are perhaps the single most important factor to observe in astrology.

The ever-changing relationship in the sky between the Sun and the Moon is perhaps most obvious at the Full Moon, but as we know, it is going on all the time. This report tracks the Sun-Moon relationship as it relates to your particular natal horoscope and birth chart, detailing all of the major events that take place in the current month for a specific life area and planet.

The Moon has always represented the 'mother', meaning anything that nurtures or cares for us, our support system, however that is made up. It also indicates our emotional makeup, how we feel about things, and the nostalgia of the past - where we came from.

On the other hand, the Sun represents the 'father' principle and the future, where we are heading toward and, to some degree, the means we have to get there. The Sun burns brightly, while the Moon is cool and comforting. The two together mark the endless play between the past and the future, and we here on Earth, are caught right in the middle, that is: the present.

Your Pluto Forecast

Pluto stands for true transformation, experiences that touch us so deeply, make us feel so vulnerable, that we are somehow changed forever. This planet is also not noted for being gentle and subtle, but rather sudden and dramatic. A Pluto experience is seldom forgotten and often marks a pivot or turning point in our lives.

This forecast is about how the planet Pluto figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. In this calendar will be marked the days and times when we can work with the force of changes, as well as those when we will be better off waiting for another time. We hope you enjoy it.

Pluto in your Natal Chart

Pluto in your Natal Chart

Before we present your Pluto forecast for the coming months, let's review how the planet Pluto is configured in your natal or birth chart. What follows is an interpretation of Pluto at your birth to the Sun, Moon, and other planets. It should help to give you a general idea of how you related to matters of vulnerability and transformation. Here goes:

Pluto Trine Moon
(Waxing)
107°12'

Embody Control

You usually have the needed energy that gives you a window into making real changes, and building a better framework or understanding to hold and handle deep-seated emotional issues, that may reach into taboo areas. This is depth psychology.

Pluto Semisquare Sun
(Waning)
318°46'

Forced Change

You are able to clearly cull out what is of no value, while holding fast to the essence, when it comes to anything to do with change and transformative experiences. However, this is more a façade than something integral to your nature. Holding your tongue and criticism, being perhaps more stoic and enjoying silence is what people find when they come to know you.

Pluto Sextile Mercury
(Waning)
303°29'

Critical View

In your life, you will have energetic times of analysis, where the mind is sharp and penetrating. You probe to see what is or has been worthwhile, and what is excessive and should be removed. Transformative insights.

Pluto Square Venus
(Waning)
283°35'

Public Control

You may find it easy to be very critical, perhaps almost compulsively, about things you would like to see changed around you. You may crave control of a situation that getting beyond your control.

Pluto Semisquare Mars
(Waxing)
049°54'

Obstacle

You have a natural drive to get to the bottom of something and to gain control, and this is often frustrated or meets with delays. You can be premature in this regards, and it is best to move forward in these areas gently, and not to use brute force to speed things up. Patient effort is rewarded.

Pluto Quincunx Jupiter
(Waning)
200°54'

Consulting

You are skilled in solving career problems, by exerting control or power, with conscious awareness and perhaps even pride. You can communicate or teach your skills to others.

Pluto Semisextile Saturn
(Waxing)
027°35'

Plans for Change

Your attempts or plans to contain or control deep inner feelings are nothing, if not organized, and you definitely have a method in your madness, a very detailed plan.

Pluto Semisquare Uranus
(Waning)
318°39'

Deep Impact

You find yourself involved in a careful examination and scrutiny of depth psychology, deep and penetrating insights, with an eye to what is superfluous. You keep to what is simple, and to you that is profound.

Pluto Sextile Neptune
(Waxing)
058°01'

Change Blocked

You may have experiences of deep acceptance, of a more spiritual nature, that dawn on you, but these can meet with all kinds of minor resistance that prevents or delays it from really getting across and being understood. Working through the resistance furthers.
